NEW SECTIONS for Foreign Companies Act.

26 Except as is hereinafter provided, Sections Thirty-one, Thirty-two, and Thirty-three of "The Stamp Duties Act, 1882," shall not apply to Companies registering under this Act, but in lieu of the provisions contained in the said Sections the following shall be substituted— Stamp Duty. 46 Vict. No. 34, Secs. 31, 32, & 33 not to apply.

I. Every Foreign Company which has not been carrying on business in Tasmania previously to the commencement of this Act shall, before registration under this Act, pay to the Treasurer the sum of Fifty Pounds by way of Stamp Duty; and no such Company shall be registered unless such sum shall be duly paid. Stamp Duty payable before registration, £50.

II. The Registrar shall not register any such Company as is mentioned in Sub-section I. of this Section unless and until the person applying to register such Company shall produce and deliver to the Registrar the receipt of the Treasurer for the payment of the sum of money hereinbefore mentioned; and if the Registrar shall register any such Company contrary to this Section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds. Registrar not to register Foreign Companies until Stamp Duty paid.

27 Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, every Company formed outside Tasmania for the immediate purpose of carrying on business in Tasmania shall be subject to Sections Thirty-one, Thirty-two, and Thirty-three of "The Stamp Duties Act, 1882." Stamp Duty payable by certain Companies.
