

Parliament House Tour Information.

Public Galleries

The sittings of both Houses of the Tasmanian Parliament are open to members of the public and visitors are welcome. Members of the public are encouraged to visit the public galleries whenever the House of Assembly or the Legislative Council is sitting.

Legislative Council Sitting Days.

House of Assembly Sitting Days.

Public Tours

Tours are available for members of the public every day at 10.00am and 2.00pm on non sitting days. For groups of more than 15 please ring and make a booking (see below) To check the schedule of sitting and non sitting times click below.

Legislative Council Sitting Times.

House of Assembly Sitting Times.

Guided School and Group Tours of Parliament House

Tours are conducted by the Parliamentary Attendants on House of Assembly 'non-sitting' days for student groups and the general public. To check the 'sitting days' click below..

Legislative Council Sitting Days.

House of Assembly Sitting Days.

Tours focus on the history of the Parliament House site and the role of the Parliament. Information including a virtual tour which can enhance and provide background information prior to a visit is available at www.parliament.tas.gov.au .

Tours take approximately 1 hour and subject to a prior booking are conducted at 10.00am; 11.00am; 2.00pm and 3.00pm.

The preferred group size is twenty five or fewer and it can be arranged for two groups to be scheduled at the same time.

All tours are free of charge.

To book a school or group tour please call (03) 6233 2288 or email tours@parliament.tas.gov.au .

Click to print this page.