BILL (No. 2) 2002

(Brought in by the Minister for Infrastructure, the Honourable James Glennister Cox)

A BILL FOR

An Act to amend the Passenger Transport Act 1997 and make a related amendment to the Vehicle and Traffic Act 1999

Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Passenger Transport Amendment Act 2002.

Commencement

2. This Act commences on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

Principal Act

3. In this Act, the Passenger Transport Act 1997* is referred to as the Principal Act.

*No. 52 of 1997
Section 3 amended (Interpretation)

4. Section 3 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

   (a) by omitting “hiring out” from paragraph (b) of the definition of “public passenger service” and substituting “the hiring out of”;

   (b) by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (b) in the definition of “public passenger service”:

       (ba) any transport service that involves the provision of a large passenger vehicle, together with a driver, to carry passengers; or

   (c) by omitting the definition of “public passenger vehicle” and substituting the following definition:

       “public passenger vehicle” means –

       (a) a motor vehicle that is used or intended to be used for the purpose of carrying passengers for reward; or

       (b) a large passenger vehicle that does not have an exemption under section 8;

       (d) by omitting “, that is designed and constructed primarily for the carriage of passengers” from the definition of “small passenger vehicle”.

Section 4A inserted

5. After section 4 of the Principal Act, the following section is inserted in Part 1:
Application of Act

4A. This Act does not apply to an ambulance, or ambulance service, within the meaning of the Ambulance Service Act 1982.

Section 15A amended (Using taxis for limited passenger services)

6. Section 15A(1) of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

8. Section 16J(4) of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “Registrar” and substituting “Commission or a delegate of the Commission”.
Section 16P amended (Suspension and cancellation)

9. Section 16P of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

(a) by omitting subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:

(1) The Commission may impose probationary status on a person’s accreditation, suspend the accreditation for a period not exceeding 6 months or cancel the accreditation, if –

(a) the person or, if applicable, the person’s responsible officer has been found guilty of a disqualifying offence; or

(b) the Commission is satisfied on reasonable grounds that –

(i) the person, being required to have a responsible officer for the purposes of the accreditation, no longer has such an officer; or

(ii) the person is not a fit and proper person to hold the accreditation or, if applicable, the person’s responsible officer is not a fit and proper person to be such an officer; or

(iii) the person or, if applicable, the person’s responsible officer has failed to comply with the conditions of the accreditation; or
(iv) the continued provision of the accredited service poses a risk to public safety; or

(v) in the case of public passenger service accreditation, the person has provided a category of service not authorised under the accreditation; or

(vi) in the case of probation, the Commission has grounds under another provision of this Act for imposing that status on the accreditation.

(b) by inserting the following subsection after subsection (2):

(2A) Accreditation remains valid while it has probationary status but the Commission, in its absolute discretion, may impose restrictions on the accreditation by varying or adding to its conditions.

(c) by omitting from subsection (4) “cancellation or suspension” and substituting “cancellation, suspension or imposition of probationary status”;

(d) by omitting subsection (5) and substituting the following subsections:

(5) The Commission may at any time revoke the imposition of probationary status on an accreditation if it is satisfied that the status is no longer merited and, on the revocation, may remove or ameliorate any restrictions imposed on the accreditation under subsection (2A).

(5A) The Commission may at any time revoke the suspension of an accreditation if it is satisfied that the suspension is no longer merited.
