“Trust Deed” means the Trust Deed executed and in force under section 4 and includes that Deed as amended or substituted from time to time.
PART 2 – TASMANIAN AMBULANCE SERVICE SUPERANNUATION SCHEME

4. Creation of Trust Deed

(1) The RBF Board must prepare and submit to the Minister for approval a draft of a trust deed to continue the defined benefit component of the former superannuation scheme for persons who, immediately before the second commencement day, were contributing to or required to contribute to, or were deemed to be contributing to, the former superannuation scheme.

(2) The draft trust deed is to be prepared and submitted to the Minister –

(a) as soon as practicable after the commencement day; and

(b) after both the RBF Board and the former trustee have agreed that the requirements of the SIS Act relating to successor funds will be met on the commencement of the Trust Deed.

(3) The Minister may approve or disapprove of the draft.

(4) The Minister must not approve of the draft unless he or she is satisfied that –

(a) the Ambulance Service and the Health Services Union of Australia – Tasmanian
No. 1 Branch have been consulted in respect of the draft; and

(b) the draft complies with, and is consistent with, this Act and the SIS Act; and

(c) the draft is consistent with the requirements of the SIS Act relating to successor funds.

(5) The Minister must notify the Ambulance Service and the RBF Board, in writing, of his or her approval or disapproval of a draft submitted under subsection (1) and, in the event of disapproval, the RBF Board must prepare and submit to the Minister a revised draft in accordance with this section and any requests made by the Minister.

(6) If the Minister approves of a draft, the notice of that approval provided to the RBF Board must specify the day on which the Trust Deed is to take effect.

(7) After the Minister approves of the draft –

(a) the Minister and the RBF Board must execute the Trust Deed; and

(b) the Minister must cause to be published in the Gazette notice of –

(i) the Minister’s approval, stating the day on which the Trust Deed is to take effect; and
(i) the execution of the Trust Deed.

(8) The Trust Deed takes effect on the day specified under subsection (6).

(9) The Trust Deed is binding on the Ambulance Service.

(10) If a notice referred to in subsection (7)(b) is not published in the Gazette before 30 June 2006, then on 30 June 2006 the former trust deed is taken to be the Trust Deed, the Tasmanian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme is closed to new members, and, notwithstanding any provisions of the former trust deed and the Ambulance Service Act 1982, the RBF Board is taken to be appointed as the trustee of the Tasmanian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme and the former trust deed continues to have effect, as the Trust Deed, until midnight on the day immediately before the day specified under subsection (6).

(11) If the former trust deed is taken to be the Trust Deed in accordance with subsection (10), the Trust Deed is not invalid by reason of any non-compliance with this Act.

5. Contents of Trust Deed

The Trust Deed is to provide –

(a) for the continuation of the defined benefit component of the former superannuation scheme to be administered by the RBF Board in accordance with this Act and the requirements of the SIS Act; and

(b) that an Ambulance member appointed or employed on or after 30 June 2006 is not entitled to become a member of the continued scheme; and

(c) that all benefits provided by the continued scheme, other than temporary incapacity benefits, are to be paid as lump sums; and

(d) for the amounts, manner and timing of payment of contributions to the continued scheme; and

(e) for appeals against decisions, determinations and orders of the RBF Board in the course of its administration of the continued scheme; and

(f) that the only authorised payments from the continued scheme to the RBF Board or the Ambulance Service are for –

   (i) expenses incurred in the administration of the continued scheme; or

   (ii) refunds of overpaid contributions; or
(iii) such payments as are permitted by the SIS Act; and

(g) that the Ambulance Service is to pay to the RBF Board such additional amounts as the Minister, on the recommendation of the Actuary, may direct so as to enable the RBF Board to meet its liabilities under this Act.

6. Amendment or revocation and substitution of Trust Deed

(1) The RBF Board may, in accordance with the Trust Deed, prepare and submit to the Minister for approval a draft of a deed to amend or to revoke and substitute the Trust Deed.

(2) The Minister may approve or disapprove of the draft.

(3) The Minister must not approve of the draft unless he or she is satisfied that –

(a) the Ambulance Service and the Health Services Union of Australia – Tasmanian No. 1 Branch have been consulted in respect of the draft; and

(b) the draft complies with, and is consistent with, this Act and the SIS Act.

(4) The Minister must notify the Ambulance Service and the RBF Board, in writing, of his or her approval or disapproval of the draft and, in the event of disapproval, the RBF Board must prepare and submit to the Minister a revised draft in accordance with this section and any requests made by the Minister.

(5) If the Minister approves of the draft, the notice of approval must specify the day on which the amendment to, or the revocation and substitution of, the Trust Deed is to take effect.

(6) Where, following the consultation referred to in subsection (3)(a), the Minister resolves to approve of the draft –

(a) the Minister and the RBF Board must execute the deed to amend, or to revoke and substitute, the Trust Deed; and

(b) the Minister must cause to be published in the Gazette notice of –

   (i) the amendment to, or revocation and substitution of, the Trust Deed; and

   (ii) the date when the amended or substituted Trust Deed takes effect.

(7) The Trust Deed must not be amended or substituted so as to authorise any payment from the continued scheme to the RBF Board or the Ambulance Service other than for –

(a) expenses incurred in the administration of that scheme; or
(b) refunds of overpaid contributions; or

(c) such payments as are permitted by the SIS Act.

7. Former superannuation scheme

(1) The former superannuation scheme, as existing immediately before the second commencement day, forms part of the superannuation scheme referred to in section 5 of the Retirement Benefits Act 1993.

(2) The continued scheme –

(a) forms part of the Retirement Benefits Fund continued by section 11 of the Retirement Benefits Act 1993; and

(b) is to be administered by the RBF Board as a subfund of the Retirement Benefits Fund.

(3) The accumulation benefit component –

(a) is to be transferred to the Accumulation Scheme; and

(b) forms part of the Retirement Benefits Fund continued by section 11 of the Retirement Benefits Act 1993; and

(c) is to be administered by the RBF Board in accordance with the TAS Trust Deed.
8. Guarantee by Minister

The Minister administering the Ambulance Service Act 1982, on behalf of the State, must guarantee the payment of all contributions required to be made to the RBF Board by the Ambulance Service if the Ambulance Service fails to make the contributions required under the Trust Deed within 28 days after demand by the RBF Board.
PART 3 – MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTAL

9. Winding-up of Provident Fund

(1) On or before 29 June 2006, the Director of Ambulance Services must pay any money constituting the Provident Fund to the Tasmanian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme.

(2) Money paid into the Tasmanian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme in accordance with subsection (1) is taken to be employer contributions for the purposes of the former trust deed.

10. Regulations

(1) The Governor may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Governor may make regulations that contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act or the establishment, amendment or substitution of the Trust Deed, including, but not limited to, the transfer of assets and liabilities.

(3) A regulation referred to in subsection (1) may take effect on and from the commencement day, the second commencement day or a later date.
(4) Regulations made under this section –

(a) may be made so as to apply differently according to matters, limitations or restrictions, whether as to time, circumstance or otherwise, specified in the regulations; and

(b) may authorise any matter to be from time to time determined, applied or regulated by the RBF Board.

11. Performance and exercise of certain functions and powers

Any person referred to in section 4 may perform any function or exercise any power that the person may perform or exercise under that section notwithstanding that this Act has not received the Royal Assent.

12. Transitional and savings provisions

The transitional and savings provisions specified in Schedule 1 have effect.

13. Administration of Act

Until provision is made in relation to this Act by order under section 4 of the Administrative Arrangements Act 1990 –
14. Consequential Amendments

The legislation specified in Schedule 2 is amended as specified in that Schedule.
SCHEDULE 1 – TRANSITIONAL AND SAVINGS PROVISIONS

Section 12

1. Transfer of property of former trustee, &c.

(1) On the second commencement day –

(a) any estate or interest in land and any money, investments or other property of the former trustee are transferred to, and vest in, the RBF Board; and

(b) all obligations and liabilities of the former trustee that are subsisting immediately before that day become obligations and liabilities of the RBF Board.

(2) On and after the second commencement day –

(a) any debt, money or claim, whether liquidated or unliquidated, that, immediately before that day, was payable to, or recoverable by, the former trustee is to be a debt, money or claim payable to, or recoverable by, the RBF Board, as the case may be; and

(b) any debt due from or money payable by, or any claim, whether liquidated or unliquidated, enforceable against, the former trustee immediately before that day becomes a debt due from, money payable by or claim enforceable against the RBF Board.

2. Construction of instruments

(1) This clause applies to an instrument which was in force immediately before the second commencement day and in which there is a reference to the former trustee.

(2) An instrument to which this clause applies has effect on and from the second commencement day as if –

(a) the reference to the former trustee were a reference to the RBF Board; or

(b) if the case so requires, the reference to the former trustee included a reference to the RBF Board – unless the context or subject matter of the instrument otherwise indicates or requires.

3. Continuation of proceedings

(1) Any legal or other proceedings that might, immediately before the second commencement day, have been continued or instituted by, or against, the former trustee may, on and after that day, be continued or instituted by, or against, the RBF Board.
(2) A judgment or order of a court obtained in legal proceedings by or against the former trustee may be enforced by or, as the case may be, against the RBF Board.

4. Powers of RBF Board in respect of matters arising under clauses 2 and 3

On and after the second commencement day, the RBF Board may –

(a) in addition to pursuing any other remedies or exercising any other powers that may be available to it, pursue the same remedies for the payment or recovery of debts, money and claims referred to in clause 1(2) that are payable to, or recoverable by, the former trustee and for the prosecution of proceedings referred to in clause 3 as the former trustee might have done but for the enactment of this Act; and

(b) enforce and realise any security or charges existing in favour of the former trustee immediately before the second commencement day and exercise any powers conferred by that security or charge as if it were a security or charge in favour of the RBF Board.
5. Savings for determinations and decisions of former trustee

Any determination or decision made in the administration of the former superannuation scheme affecting the rights of an Ambulance member that was in force immediately before the second commencement day continues to have effect notwithstanding the repeals effected by clause 3 of Schedule 2 unless the determination or decision is varied or rescinded by the RBF Board acting in accordance with the Trust Deed.

6. Contracts and agreements

Any contract, agreement, arrangement or undertaking entered into by the former trustee, if not executed, discharged or otherwise terminated before the second commencement day, is taken to be a contract, agreement, arrangement or undertaking entered into by the RBF Board.

7. Statement of accounts and annual report

(1) Notwithstanding the repeals effected by clause 3 of Schedule 2, it is the duty of the former trustee to prepare and submit to the Minister, as soon as practicable after the second commencement day, a statement of accounts and a further report, containing such particulars as the Minister may direct, relating to any period determined by the Minister and, for the purposes of this clause, the RBF Board must –

(a) allow the former trustee to have access to all relevant documents and records; and

(b) pay from the relevant subfund all reasonable costs incurred by the former trustee.

(2) In this clause, a reference to the Minister includes a reference to the Minister who administers the Ambulance Service Act 1982.
SCHEDULE 2 – CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS

Ambulance Service Act 1982

1. Section 3 is amended as follows:

   (a) by omitting the definitions of “Commonwealth Acts” and “Constitutional Corporation”;

   (b) by omitting the definition of “Superannuation Scheme”;

   (c) by omitting the definitions of “trust deed” and “Trustee”.

2. Section 23 is amended by inserting after subsection (2) the following subsections:

   (3) The statement of accounts prepared by the Director under this section is to include a certificate by the Director that, if it is the case, the Director has met his or her obligations under the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth in respect of any Ambulance member who is, or becomes, a member of an RSA or a complying superannuation scheme to which the Director contributes.
(4) The Director is to include in the statement of accounts any other prescribed information relating to any other superannuation scheme or RSA in cases where persons appointed or employed under the State Service Act 2000 are performing functions for the purposes of this Act.

(5) In this section –

“Ambulance member” has the same meaning as in the Retirement Benefits (Tasmanian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme) Act 2006;

“complying superannuation scheme” means the Tasmanian Accumulation Scheme established under section 7 of the Public Sector Superannuation Reform Act 1999 or a superannuation scheme that is a complying superannuation fund for the purposes of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth;

“RSA” means a Retirement Savings Account within the meaning of the Retirement Savings Accounts Act 1997 of the Commonwealth.
3. Sections 41, 41A and 41B are repealed.

4. Section 42(2) is amended as follows:

   (a) by omitting from paragraph (c) “Director;” and substituting “Director; and”;

   (b) by omitting paragraphs (d) and (e).

Public Sector Superannuation Reform Act 1999

1. Section 3(1) is amended as follows:

   (a) by omitting “Commission;” from paragraph (e) of the definition of “Agency” and substituting “Commission; or”;

   (b) by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (e) in the definition of “Agency”:

       (f) the Tasmanian Ambulance Service;

   (c) by omitting “Commission;” from paragraph (f) of the definition of “Agency manager” and substituting “Commission; or”;

   (d) by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (f) in the definition of “Agency manager”:
(g) the Director of Ambulance Services;

(e) by inserting the following definition after the definition of “Agency manager”:

“Ambulance member” means a person appointed or employed under the State Service Act 2000 to perform functions for the purposes of the Ambulance Service Act 1982;

(f) by omitting the definition of “employee” and substituting the following definition:

“employee” means a person, other than a person who is excluded from the application of the Principal Regulations, who is employed in any position or capacity –

(a) as a State Service officer or State Service employee; or

(b) by a prescribed authority; or

(c) by a State-owned company; or

(d) by another body or person carrying on an industry or undertaking for or on behalf of the State – and includes –

(e) a police officer, trainee and junior constable as defined in the Police Service Act 2003; and

(f) a Fire Service member who is first appointed or employed on or after 1 July 2005; and

(g) a Fire Service member appointed before 1 July 2005 who is not a member of the superannuation scheme continued by the Trust Deed in force under section 4 of the Retirement Benefits (State Fire Commission Superannuation Scheme) Act 2005; and

(h) an Ambulance member who is first appointed or employed on or after 30 June 2006; and

(i) an Ambulance member appointed before 30 June 2006 who is not a member of the superannuation scheme continued by the Trust Deed in force under section 4 of the Retirement Benefits (Tasmanian Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme) Act 2006;
