A BILL FOR

An Act to amend the Public Health Act 1997

Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

   This Act may be cited as the Public Health Amendment Act 2007.

2. Commencement

   (1) Except as provided in this section, this Act commences on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

   (2) Part 3 commences on the expiration of the 6-month period immediately following the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.
PART 2 – PUBLIC HEALTH ACT 1997 AMENDED

3. Principal Act

In this Part, the \textit{Public Health Act 1997}\footnote{No. 86 of 1997} is referred to as the Principal Act.

4. Section 67H substituted

Section 67H of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:

\textbf{67H. Restrictions on smoking in vehicles}

(1) A person must not smoke inside a vehicle being used in the course of any employment if another person is inside the vehicle.

\textbf{Penalty:} Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

(2) On or after 1 January 2008, a person must not smoke inside a vehicle if a child is inside the vehicle.

\textbf{Penalty:} Fine not exceeding 20 penalty units.

(3) A nominated officer who reasonably suspects that subsection (2) has been contravened may –
(a) require any person inside, on or near the relevant vehicle who appears to the nominated officer to have attained the age of 13 years to state their name, age and address and disclose what they know about the identity of any other person inside, on or near the vehicle; and

(b) require a person inside or apparently entering the relevant vehicle to cease, or not start, smoking; and

(c) if the nominated officer is a police officer, require a person apparently in charge or control of the relevant vehicle to stop the vehicle or keep it stationary.

(4) A nominated officer who is a police officer may arrest a person without warrant if the nominated officer reasonably believes that the person –

(a) is not a child; and

(b) has, in respect of this section, committed an offence against section 154(2) or section 193.

(5) An allegation in a complaint in proceedings for an offence under subsection (2) that on a specified date a person was a child is evidence of that fact.
5. Section 68 substituted

Section 68 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following sections are substituted:

68. Cigarette packaging

(1) A person must not supply cigarettes to the public otherwise than in a package.

   Penalty: Fine not exceeding –

   (a) for a first offence, 50 penalty units; and

   (b) for a subsequent offence, 200 penalty units.

(2) A person must not supply cigarettes to the public in a package that –

   (a) contains fewer than 20 cigarettes; or
