17. Sections 47 and 47A substituted

Sections 47 and 47A of the Principal Act are repealed and the following sections are substituted:

47. Entitlement to complete secondary education provided by State school

(1) If a person is not a school-aged child and has not completed secondary education at the level provided by State schools, that person is entitled, subject to section 47D, to attend a State school –

(a) until the person completes the final year of secondary education provided by State schools; or

(b) for a period not exceeding the equivalent of 2 years of full-time study – whichever occurs first.

(2) If a person is entitled to attend a State school under subsection (1), the Secretary may determine which schools, or which class of schools, the person may attend.
47A. Attending State school after compulsory education

(1) If a person is not a school-aged child and –

(a) he or she is not entitled to attend a State school under section 47; or

(b) his or her entitlement under section 47 to attend a State school has come to an end –

the person may apply to the principal of a State school to attend or continue attending that school.

(2) An application is to be in a form approved by the Secretary.

(3) Subject to section 47D, the principal may –

(a) grant the application with or without conditions; or

(b) refuse to grant the application.

47B. Entitlement to attend Academy or Polytechnic

(1) In this section –

“post-Year 10 secondary education and training” means secondary education and training that is usually undertaken by persons following the completion of the fourth year of secondary education, being the year commonly known as Year 10.

(2) If a person is not a school-aged child and has not completed the equivalent of 2 years of full-time study of post-Year 10 secondary education and training, that person is entitled, subject to section 47D, to attend the Academy or the Polytechnic for a period not exceeding the equivalent of 2 years of full-time study.

(3) If –

(a) a person is entitled to attend the Academy or the Polytechnic under subsection (2); and

(b) there is a dispute as to which the person may attend, the Academy and the Polytechnic, jointly, may determine the matter.
