VETERINARY SURGEONS AMENDMENT BILL
2011

(Brought in by the Minister for Primary Industries and Water, the Honourable Bryan Alexander Green)

A BILL FOR

An Act to amend the Veterinary Surgeons Act 1987

Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011.

2. Commencement

The provisions of this Act commence on a day or days to be proclaimed.

3. Principal Act

In this Act, the *Veterinary Surgeons Act 1987 is referred to as the Principal Act.

*No. 104 of 1987

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 4

4. Section 3 amended (Interpretation)

Section 3 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by inserting the following definition after the definition of “Agency” in subsection (1):

“animal” means –

- (a) a live vertebrate animal,
other than a human being;
or
(b) a prescribed organism;

- (b) by inserting the following definition after the definition of “Commission” in subsection (1):

“corresponding law” means a law, of another State or a Territory, that provides for the registration or other authorisation of a person to provide veterinary services;

- (c) by omitting “companies” from the definition of “list” in subsection (1) and substituting “entities”;

- (d) by omitting the definitions of “primary registration” and “records” from subsection (1) and substituting the following definitions:

“partnership” has the same meaning as in the Partnership Act 1891,

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 4

except that it does not include an incorporated limited partnership within the meaning of that Act;

“records” includes –

- (a) books, accounts, minutes, registers, deeds, writings and documents; and
 - (b) X-ray images, photographs and other methods of recording and displaying images; and
 - (c) any other sources of information compiled, recorded, or stored, in written form or on micro-film, or by electronic process, or in any other manner or by any other means;
- (e) by omitting the definitions of “Registrar”, “registered veterinary specialist”, “registered veterinary surgeon”, “registration” and “relevant fee” from subsection (1) and substituting the following definitions:

“registered veterinary specialist” means a person who –

- (a) is registered as a veterinary specialist under Part IV; or

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 4

- (b) is not permanently resident in this State and, subject to subsection (2B), is registered under a corresponding law as a veterinary specialist;

“registered veterinary surgeon”
means a person who –

- (a) is registered as a veterinary surgeon under Part IV; or
- (b) is not permanently resident in this State and, subject to subsection (2B), is registered under a corresponding law as a veterinary surgeon;

“Registrar” means the person appointed and holding office under section 7 as the Registrar of the Board;

“registration” means registration under this Act;

“relevant fee”, in relation to any matter, means the fee that is approved in relation to the matter;

- (f) by omitting the definition of “secondary registration” from subsection (1);

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 4

- (g) by omitting the definitions of “veterinary services” and “veterinary services company” from subsection (1) and substituting the following definitions:

“veterinary services” means services that form part of the practice of veterinary surgery, and includes, but is not limited to including, the following services:

- (a) the examination of, or attendance on, any animal for the purposes of diagnosing the physiological or pathological condition of the animal, including testing or imaging for diagnostic purposes;
- (b) giving advice based on a diagnosis referred to in paragraph (a), including prescribing treatment, drugs, medications or medical appliances;
- (c) performing medical or physical treatment of animals;
- (d) performing surgical procedures on animals;
- (e) administering an anaesthetic to any animal;

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 4

(f) conducting pregnancy testing of any animal;

(g) carrying out, by manual operation or use of instrumental appliances, any procedure on an animal for artificial breeding purposes – but does not include any prescribed services;

“veterinary services company” means a body corporate, one of the objects of which is the provision of veterinary services, and includes an incorporated limited partnership, within the meaning of the Partnership Act 1891, that carries on a business, all or part of which consists of the provision of veterinary services;

“veterinary services entity” means –

(a) a veterinary services company; or

(b) a veterinary services partnership;

“veterinary services partnership” means a partnership that carries on a business, all or part of which consists of the provision of veterinary services;

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 4

(h) by omitting paragraph (a) from subsection (2) and substituting the following paragraph:

(a) a reference in this Act to a person being registered under Part IV includes a reference to a person provisionally so registered, and a reference to registration under Part IV has a corresponding meaning; and

(i) by inserting the following subsections after subsection (2):

(2A) A reference in this Act to a person being registered as a veterinary surgeon or veterinary specialist under a corresponding law is to be taken to include a reference to the person being registered or otherwise authorised under such a law to provide veterinary services, or specialist veterinary services, respectively, for which registration or authorisation under that law is required, and a reference to registration under a corresponding law has a corresponding meaning.

(2B) Despite subsection (2A), a person is not, for the purposes of this Act, to be taken to be registered or authorised as a veterinary

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 5

surgeon or veterinary specialist under a corresponding law if the registration, or other authorisation, of the person under that law –

- (a) is specified under that law to be temporary;
 - (b) is honorary only, including registration or authorisation under a corresponding law that is granted or maintained by a person who has generally retired from practice; or
 - (c) is of a type of registration or authorisation that is prescribed in the regulations for the purposes of this subsection.
- (j) by inserting in subsection (3) “, animal welfare or control or use of chemicals, poisons or pharmaceuticals” after “animals”.

5. Section 4 amended (Constitution of Veterinary Board of Tasmania)

Section 4(4) of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 6

- (a) by omitting from paragraph (a) “a registered veterinary surgeon” and substituting “registered as a veterinary surgeon under Part IV”;
- (b) by omitting from paragraph (c) “registered veterinary surgeons” and substituting “persons who are registered as veterinary surgeons under Part IV and who are”.

6. Section 5 amended (Functions and powers of the Board)

Section 5(1) of the Principal Act is amended by omitting paragraphs (c) and (d).

7. Sections 5A and 5B inserted

After section 5 of the Principal Act, the following sections are inserted in Part II:

5A. Board to approve qualifications and courses

- (1) In this section –

“qualification” means a degree, diploma, certificate of completion of a course of study or training, or any other qualification.

- (2) The Board may approve qualifications for persons seeking to become registered under Part IV.

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 7

- (3) The Board may only approve under subsection (2) a qualification if the qualification may be awarded to a person on the successful completion of a course of study, or training, that is provided by a university or institution and relates to veterinary surgery.
- (4) Without limiting the power of the Board under subsection (2), the Board may approve a qualification under that subsection if the course of study or the training, successful completion of which will result in the award of the qualification, is provided by a university or institution that is accredited by the Australasian Veterinary Boards Council to provide the course of study or the training.
- (5) A decision of the Board to approve, or not to approve, a qualification under subsection (2) –
 - (a) is not subject to prohibition, mandamus, certiorari, injunction, declaration or any order of a court having similar effect; and
 - (b) is not otherwise to be challenged, appealed against, quashed or called into question on any account.

5B. Board to declare veterinary service standards

- (1) The Board, by notice, may declare veterinary service standards.
- (2) Veterinary service standards may –
 - (a) specify the standards of service that are to be provided by a veterinary practitioner in carrying on the practice of veterinary science; and
 - (b) specify the rules of conduct that are to be observed by a veterinary practitioner in carrying on the practice of veterinary science.

8. Section 9 substituted

Section 9 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:

9. Administration

All fees paid or recovered under this Act are to be applied by the Board in and towards defraying the expenses incurred in the administration of this Act.

9. Section 10 amended (Powers of inspectors)

Section 10(2) of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 9

- (a) by omitting paragraphs (b) and (c) and substituting the following paragraphs:
 - (b) ascertaining whether a person who is, or was in the previous 3 years, a registered veterinary surgeon or a person exempted under section 13 has, in this State, failed to comply with, or contravened, or is failing to comply with or is contravening –
 - (i) any provision of this Act;
 - (ii) any condition, limitation, or restriction, imposed by the Board or by virtue of section 11A(1), section 18A or section 46(2)(d), subject to which the person may practise, or continue to practise, veterinary surgery; or
 - (iii) any veterinary service standard declared under section 5B;
 - (c) ascertaining whether a person who is, or was in the previous 3 years, a registered veterinary surgeon or a person exempted under section 13 is no longer a fit and proper person to practise veterinary surgery in this State; or

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 9

(b) by omitting paragraphs (h) and (i) and substituting the following paragraphs:

(h) make the inquiries of a person on or in those premises or vehicles that the inspector considers to be necessary for the purposes of this Act;

(i) require a person on those premises to, without delay or within a period specified by the inspector –

(i) produce to the inspector a document, held at the premises or at other premises, that may relate to the provision of veterinary services by a person who is or was on the premises or who is or was engaged to provide services at or from the premises;

(ii) produce to the inspector a certificate of registration issued to the person under section 21;

(iii) assist the inspector to access any document, kept in an electronic form, that is a record kept in accordance with

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 10

section 34 or that may relate to the provision of veterinary services by a person who is or was engaged to provide services at or from the premises;

(iv) if the person is reasonably able to do so, produce a copy of a document referred to in this paragraph and provide it to the inspector; or

(v) permit the inspector to make a copy of a document referred to in this paragraph; and

(j) require a person to provide reasonable assistance to the inspector in the exercise of the inspector's powers under this Act.

10. Section 11 amended (Practice by unregistered persons)

Section 11(2) of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

(a) by omitting paragraph (a) and substituting the following paragraph:

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 11

- (a) a person who administers anaesthetic under the instruction of a registered veterinary surgeon who is in the presence of the person while the person administers the anaesthetic;
- (b) by omitting from paragraph (b) “available; or” and substituting “available;”;
- (c) by omitting paragraph (c) and substituting the following paragraph:
 - (c) a veterinary student who is acting under the instruction of a registered veterinary surgeon who is in the presence of the student while the student is so acting; or

11. Section 11A inserted

After section 11 of the Principal Act, the following section is inserted in Part III:

11A. Interstate registered practitioners

- (1) A condition, limitation or restriction imposed on the registration of a person as a veterinary surgeon or a veterinary specialist under a corresponding law applies to the practice in this State of veterinary surgery by the person and the rendering of veterinary services in this State by the person.

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 12

- (2) If the registration of a person as a veterinary surgeon or a veterinary specialist under a corresponding law is suspended under that law or another corresponding law, the person is not, for the period of the suspension, to be taken to be a registered veterinary surgeon or a registered veterinary specialist, respectively, for the purposes of section 11(1) and section 12.

12. Section 14 amended (Veterinary register)

Section 14(6) of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “registered veterinary surgeons or registered veterinary specialists at that time” and substituting “, at that time, persons registered under this Part,”.

13. Section 15 amended (Entitlement to registration as veterinary surgeon)

Section 15 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by inserting in subsection (1) “under this Part” after “entitled to be registered”;
- (b) by inserting in subsection (2) “under this Part” after “be registered”;
- (c) by omitting from subsection (2)(a) “completed a regular graded course of veterinary study of at least 4 years’

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 14

duration at an approved institution,” and substituting “obtained a qualification approved by the Board under section 5A”;

- (d) by omitting from subsection (2)(b) “law in force in any other State or Territory of the Commonwealth” and substituting “corresponding law”;
- (e) by omitting from subsection (3)(a) “a law in force in another State or a Territory of the Commonwealth or in a place outside the Commonwealth (being a law regulating the practice of veterinary surgery)” and substituting “a corresponding law,”;
- (f) by omitting paragraph (b) from subsection (3) and substituting the following paragraph:
 - (b) the registration of that person under a corresponding law is suspended or has been cancelled or otherwise terminated in accordance with that law;
- (g) by inserting in subsection (3)(c)(iii) “, or a corresponding law,” after “Act”.

14. Sections 16 and 17 substituted

Sections 16 and 17 of the Principal Act are repealed and the following section is substituted:

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 14

16. Entitlement to registration as veterinary specialist

- (1) Subject to this section, a person is entitled to be registered as a veterinary specialist under this Part if –
 - (a) the person is registered under Part IV as a veterinary surgeon; and
 - (b) the person satisfies the Board that he or she possesses adequate qualifications and experience with respect to the approved speciality to which the registration is to relate.
- (2) For the purposes of determining whether a person possesses adequate qualifications and experience with respect to an approved speciality, the Board may, amongst other matters, take into account –
 - (a) the opinion of the Australasian Veterinary Board Council as to whether particular qualifications and experience are adequate; and
 - (b) whether the person is registered as a veterinary specialist under a corresponding law.

15. Section 18 amended (Application for registration)

Section 18 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by omitting subsections (1), (1A) and (1B) and substituting the following subsection:
 - (1) A person may apply to the Board to be registered under this Part.
- (b) by inserting in subsection (3)(a) “under this Part” after “registration”;
- (c) by omitting subsection (7).

16. Section 18A inserted

After section 18 of the Principal Act, the following section is inserted in Part IV:

18A. Conditions of registration

- (1) If the Board registers under section 18 a person –
 - (a) who is or was registered as a veterinary surgeon or a veterinary specialist under a corresponding law; and
 - (b) whose registration under that law has been, before the person is registered by the Board –

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 16

- (i) suspended under that law for a period specified under that law; or
- (ii) cancelled, and the re-registration of that person prohibited under that law before the end of a period specified under that law in respect of the cancellation – the Board must register the person subject to the condition that the person must not, until the period has expired, practise veterinary surgery or render veterinary services.

- (2) If the Board registers under section 18 a person –
 - (a) who is registered as a veterinary surgeon or a veterinary specialist under a corresponding law; and
 - (b) whose registration under that law is, immediately before the registration of the person under this Part, subject to a condition, limitation, or restriction, imposed under a corresponding law – the registration of the person under this Part is, for the period for which the condition, limitation or restriction applies under the corresponding law, subject to that condition, limitation or restriction.

- (3) If the Board registers under section 18 a person to whom a prohibition under section 46(2)(ba) applies for a period, the Board must register the person subject to the condition that the person must not, until the period has expired, practise veterinary surgery or render veterinary services.
- (4) If the Board registers under section 18 a person to whom a condition, limitation or restriction under section 46(2)(d) applies for a period, the registration of the person under this Part is, for that period, subject to that condition, limitation or restriction.
- (5) The Board must give notice to a person registered under section 18 of any conditions, limitations or restrictions imposed by the Board on the registration of the person.

17. Section 19 amended (Provisional registration)

Section 19 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by omitting from subsection (1)(a) “the course” and substituting “a course”;
- (b) by omitting from subsection (1)(a) “a degree or diploma in veterinary surgery” and substituting “a qualification approved under section 5A”;

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 18

- (c) by omitting from subsection (2)(a) “referred to in that subsection”;
- (d) by omitting from subsection (2)(a) “degrees, diplomas, or, as the case may be, certificates, in veterinary surgery are conferred” and substituting “a qualification approved under section 5A may be awarded to the person”;
- (e) by omitting from subsection (2)(b) “this Act” and substituting “this Part”;
- (f) by inserting in subsection (4) “under this Part” after “surgeon”;
- (g) by inserting in subsection (5) “and specifies in the provisional registration of the applicant” after “application”;
- (h) by inserting the following subsection after subsection (7):
 - (8) The Board must give notice to a person who is provisionally registered under this section of any conditions, limitations or restrictions imposed by the Board on the provisional registration of the person.

18. Section 20 repealed

Section 20 of the Principal Act is repealed.

19. Section 21 substituted

Section 21 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section is substituted:

21. Certificate of registration

- (1) On the registration of a person under section 18, the Registrar must issue to that person a certificate to the effect that the person is registered under this Part as a veterinary surgeon or veterinary specialist.
- (2) On the registration of a person under section 19, the Registrar must issue to that person a certificate to the effect that the person is provisionally registered under this Part as a veterinary surgeon or veterinary specialist.

20. Section 22 amended (Annual registration fee)

Section 22 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by omitting subsection (1) and substituting the following subsection:
 - (1) A person registered under this Part before 1 January in a year must, before that date, pay to the Board the relevant fee for that year.

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 21

- (b) by inserting in subsection (3) “under this Part” after “registration”.

21. Section 23 amended (Cancellation of registration)

Section 23(1) of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by omitting from paragraph (a) “registered veterinary surgeon or registered veterinary specialist” and substituting “registered veterinary surgeon, or registered veterinary specialist, who is registered under this Part”;
- (b) by inserting in paragraph (b) “under this Part” after “registration”.

22. Section 23A inserted

After section 23 of the Principal Act, the following section is inserted in Part IV:

23A. Effect of suspension or cancellation of registration under corresponding law

- (1) If the registration as a veterinary surgeon, or veterinary specialist, under a corresponding law of a person who is registered under this Part is suspended under that law or another corresponding law, the registration of the surgeon or specialist under this Part is suspended for the same period and on the same terms as the terms of the first-mentioned suspension.

- (2) If the registration as a veterinary surgeon, or veterinary specialist, under a corresponding law of a person who is registered under this Part is cancelled under that law or another corresponding law for any reason –
- (a) the registration under this Part of the surgeon or specialist is cancelled; and
 - (b) the registration under this Part of the person is prohibited on the same terms as the terms of the first-mentioned cancellation.

23. Part V: Heading amended

Part V of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “BODIES CORPORATE” from the heading to that Part and substituting “ENTITIES”.

24. Part V, Division 1: Heading amended

Division 1 of Part V of the Principal Act is amended by omitting “companies” from the heading to that Division and substituting “entities”.

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 25

25. Section 26 amended (Notification of intention to provide veterinary services)

Section 26 of the Principal Act is amended as follows:

- (a) by inserting in subsection (1) “or partnership” after “company”;
- (b) by inserting in subsection (2) “or partnership” after “on the company”;
- (c) by inserting in subsection (2) “, or is a partner in the partnership,” after “of the company”;
- (d) by inserting in subsection (3) “or partnership” after “subsection (2), the Board may refuse to include the company”;
- (e) by inserting in subsection (3) “or partnership” after “until the company”;
- (f) by inserting in subsection (3) “or partnership” after “provided, the Board may refuse to include the company”.

26. Section 29 amended (List of veterinary services entities)

50. Schedule 3 amended (Transitional and Savings Provisions)

Schedule 3 to the Principal Act is amended by inserting after clause 4 the following clause:

5. Transitional and savings provisions relating to Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011

- (1) In this section –

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 50

“amending Act” means the Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011;

“commencement day” means the day on which all of the amendments, effected by the amending Act, to Part IV of the former Act come into force;

“former Act” means this Act as in force before the commencement day.

- (2) Despite the amendments to the former Act effected by the amending Act, a person who was, immediately before the commencement day, temporarily registered under the former Act is to be taken, for the period for which the person would have been so registered had this Act not been amended by the amending Act, to be registered under this Act as in force from time to time after the commencement day.
- (3) Despite the amendments to the former Act effected by the amending Act, a person who was, immediately before the commencement day, provisionally registered, temporarily provisionally registered, or registered for a period under section 17 of the former Act, is to be taken, for the period for which the person would have been so registered had the former Act not been amended by

Act No. of

s. 50

the amending Act, to be registered under this Act as in force from time to time after the commencement day.

- (4) Despite the amendments to the former Act effected by the amending Act, a person who was, immediately before the commencement day, registered for a purpose under section 17 of the former Act, is to be taken to be registered for that purpose under this Act as in force from time to time after the commencement day until –
- (a) the purpose has been achieved; or
 - (b) the expiry of 12 months after the day on which this provision comes into force – whichever occurs first.

- (5) Despite the amendments to the former Act effected by the amending Act, a person who was, immediately after the commencement day, registered (other than temporarily or provisionally or for a period or purpose under section 17 of the former Act) is to be taken to be registered under this Act as in force from time to time after the commencement day.
- (6) Nothing in this section is to be taken to prevent the registration, temporary registration, or provisional registration, of a person under the former Act being cancelled or suspended under this Act as in force from time to time after the commencement day.

- (7) Despite the amendments to the former Act effected by the amending Act, a person who, immediately before the commencement day, had obtained qualifications that entitled him or her under the former Act to be registered as a veterinary surgeon is to be taken to be qualified to be registered as a veterinary surgeon for the purposes of this Act.
- (8) Despite the amendments to the former Act effected by the amending Act, a person who, immediately before the commencement day, had satisfied the Board that he or she possessed adequate qualifications and experience in respect of a speciality to be entitled under the former Act to be registered as a veterinary specialist is to be taken to be qualified to be registered as a veterinary specialist for the purposes of this Act.
- (9) For the avoidance of doubt, except as otherwise specified in a provision of this section, the amendments of the former Act made by the amending Act apply to, and in relation to, a person after those provisions come into effect.

Veterinary Surgeons Amendment Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 51

51. Repeal

This Act is repealed on the ninetieth day from the day on which all of the provisions of this Act commence.
