- (a) a worker; and
 - (b) at work throughout the time when the officer is on duty or lawfully performing the functions of a police officer, but not otherwise.
- (3) The person conducting the business or undertaking is also a “worker” if the person is an individual who carries out work in that business or undertaking.

8. Meaning of workplace

- (1) A workplace is a place where work is carried out for a business or undertaking and includes any place where a worker goes, or is likely to be, while at work.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 1 – Preliminary

s. 9

(2) In this section –

“place” includes –

- (a) a vehicle, vessel, aircraft or other mobile structure; and
- (b) any waters and any installation on land, on the bed of any waters or floating on any waters.

9. Examples and notes

- (1) An example at the foot of a provision forms part of this Act.
- (2) A note at the foot of a provision forms part of this Act.

Division 4 – Application of Act

10. Act binds the Crown

- (1) This Act binds the Crown in right of this jurisdiction and, in so far as the legislative power of the Parliament of this jurisdiction permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.
- (2) The Crown is liable for an offence against this Act.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), the Crown is liable for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 11

Part 1 – Preliminary

11. Reserved

This section has been left blank so as to preserve uniformity with other jurisdictions with regard to the numbering of the Act.

12. Scope

This Act is in addition to but does not derogate from any other Act relating to the health or safety of persons in a workplace.

PART 2 – HEALTH AND SAFETY DUTIES

Division 1 – Introductory

Subdivision 1 – Principles that apply to duties

13. Principles that apply to duties

This Subdivision sets out the principles that apply to all duties that persons have under this Act.

Note

The principles will apply to duties under this Part and other Parts of this Act such as duties relating to incident notification and consultation.

14. Duties not transferable

A duty cannot be transferred to another person.

15. Person may have more than 1 duty

A person can have more than 1 duty by virtue of being in more than 1 class of duty holder.

16. More than 1 person can have a duty

- (1) More than 1 person can concurrently have the same duty.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 17

Part 2 – Health and Safety Duties

- (2) Each duty holder must comply with that duty to the standard required by this Act even if another duty holder has the same duty.
- (3) If more than 1 person has a duty for the same matter, each person –
 - (a) retains responsibility for the person's duty in relation to the matter; and
 - (b) must discharge the person's duty to the extent to which the person has the capacity to influence and control the matter or would have had that capacity but for an agreement or arrangement purporting to limit or remove that capacity.

17. Management of risks

A duty imposed on a person to ensure health and safety requires the person –

- (a) to eliminate risks to health and safety, so far as is reasonably practicable; and
- (b) if it is not reasonably practicable to eliminate risks to health and safety, to minimise those risks so far as is reasonably practicable.

Subdivision 2 – What is reasonably practicable

18. What is reasonably practicable in ensuring health and safety

In this Act –

“reasonably practicable”, in relation to a duty to ensure health and safety, means that which is, or was at a particular time, reasonably able to be done in relation to ensuring health and safety, taking into account and weighing up all relevant matters including –

- (a) the likelihood of the hazard or the risk concerned occurring; and
- (b) the degree of harm that might result from the hazard or the risk; and
- (c) what the person concerned knows, or ought reasonably to know, about –
 - (i) the hazard or the risk; and
 - (ii) ways of eliminating or minimising the risk; and
- (d) the availability and suitability of ways to eliminate or minimise the risk; and
- (e) after assessing the extent of the risk and the available ways of

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 19

Part 2 – Health and Safety Duties

eliminating or minimising the risk, the cost associated with available ways of eliminating or minimising the risk, including whether the cost is grossly disproportionate to the risk.

Division 2 – Primary duty of care

19. Primary duty of care

- (1) A person conducting a business or undertaking must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health and safety of –
 - (a) workers engaged, or caused to be engaged by the person; and
 - (b) workers whose activities in carrying out work are influenced or directed by the person – while the workers are at work in the business or undertaking.

- (2) A person conducting a business or undertaking must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the health and safety of other persons is not put at risk from work carried out as part of the conduct of the business or undertaking.
- (3) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), a person conducting a business or undertaking must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 2 – Health and Safety Duties

s. 19

- (a) the provision and maintenance of a work environment without risks to health and safety; and
- (b) the provision and maintenance of safe plant and structures; and
- (c) the provision and maintenance of safe systems of work; and
- (d) the safe use, handling and storage of plant, structures and substances; and
- (e) the provision of adequate facilities for the welfare at work of workers in carrying out work for the business or undertaking, including ensuring access to those facilities; and
- (f) the provision of any information, training, instruction or supervision that is necessary to protect all persons from risks to their health and safety arising from work carried out as part of the conduct of the business or undertaking; and
- (g) that the health of workers and the conditions at the workplace are monitored for the purpose of preventing illness or injury of workers arising from the conduct of the business or undertaking.

(4) If –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 20

Part 2 – Health and Safety Duties

- (a) a worker occupies accommodation that is owned by or under the management or control of the person conducting the business or undertaking; and
- (b) the occupancy is necessary for the purposes of the worker’s engagement because other accommodation is not reasonably available – the person conducting the business or undertaking must, so far as is reasonably practicable, maintain the premises so that the worker occupying the premises is not exposed to risks to health and safety.

- (5) A self-employed person must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, his or her own health and safety while at work.

Note

A self-employed person is also a person conducting a business or undertaking for the purposes of this section.

Division 3 – Further duties of persons conducting businesses or undertakings

20. Duty of persons conducting businesses or undertakings involving management or control of workplaces

- (1) In this section –

“person with management or control of a workplace” means a person conducting

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 2 – Health and Safety Duties

s. 21

a business or undertaking to the extent that the business or undertaking involves the management or control, in whole or in part, of the workplace but does not include –

(a) the occupier of a residence, unless the residence is occupied for the purposes of, or as part of, the conduct of a business or undertaking; or

(b) a prescribed person.

(2) The person with management or control of a workplace must ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the workplace, the means of entering and exiting the workplace and anything arising from the workplace are without risks to the health and safety of any person.

21. Duty of persons conducting businesses or undertakings involving management or control of fixtures, fittings or plant at workplaces

(1) In this section –

“person with management or control of fixtures, fittings or plant at a workplace” means a person conducting a business or undertaking to the extent that the business or undertaking involves the management or control of fixtures, fittings or plant, in whole or in part, at a workplace, but does not include –

PART 5 – CONSULTATION, REPRESENTATION AND PARTICIPATION

Division 1 – Consultation, cooperation and coordination between duty holders

46. Duty to consult with other duty holders

If more than one person has a duty in relation to the same matter under this Act, each person with the duty must, so far as is reasonably practicable, consult, cooperate and coordinate activities with all other persons who have a duty in relation to the same matter.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $20 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $100 000.

Division 2 – Consultation with workers

47. Duty to consult workers

- (1) The person conducting a business or undertaking must, so far as is reasonably practicable, consult, in accordance with this Division and the regulations, with workers who carry out work for the business or undertaking who are, or are likely to be, directly affected by a matter relating to work health or safety.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 48

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $20 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $100 000.
- (2) If the person conducting the business or undertaking and the workers have agreed to procedures for consultation, the consultation must be in accordance with those procedures.
- (3) The agreed procedures must not be inconsistent with section 48.

48. Nature of consultation

- (1) Consultation under this Division requires –
- (a) that relevant information about the matter is shared with workers; and
 - (b) that workers be given a reasonable opportunity –
 - (i) to express their views and to raise work health or safety issues in relation to the matter; and
 - (ii) to contribute to the decision-making process relating to the matter; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (c) that the views of workers are taken into account by the person conducting the business or undertaking; and
 - (d) that the workers consulted are advised of the outcome of the consultation in a timely manner.
- (2) If the workers are represented by a health and safety representative, the consultation must involve that representative.

49. When consultation is required

Consultation under this Division is required in relation to the following health and safety matters:

- (a) when identifying hazards and assessing risks to health and safety arising from the work carried out or to be carried out by the business or undertaking;
- (b) when making decisions about ways to eliminate or minimise those risks;
- (c) when making decisions about the adequacy of facilities for the welfare of workers;
- (d) when proposing changes that may affect the health or safety of workers;
- (e) when making decisions about the procedures for –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 50

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (i) consulting with workers; or
 - (ii) resolving work health or safety issues at the workplace; or
 - (iii) monitoring the health of workers; or
 - (iv) monitoring the conditions at any workplace under the management or control of the person conducting the business or undertaking; or
 - (v) providing information and training for workers;
- (f) when carrying out any other activity prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this section.

Division 3 – Health and safety representatives

Subdivision 1 – Request for election of health and safety representatives

50. Request for election of health and safety representative

A worker who carries out work for a business or undertaking may ask the person conducting the business or undertaking to facilitate the conduct of an election for 1 or more health and safety representatives to represent workers who carry out work for the business or undertaking.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Subdivision 2 – Determination of work groups

51. Determination of work groups

- (1) If a request is made under section 50, the person conducting the business or undertaking must facilitate the determination of 1 or more work groups of workers.
- (2) The purpose of determining a work group is to facilitate the representation of workers in the work group by 1 or more health and safety representatives.
- (3) A work group may be determined for workers at 1 or more workplaces.

52. Negotiations for agreement for work group

- (1) A work group is to be determined by negotiation and agreement between –
 - (a) the person conducting the business or undertaking; and
 - (b) the workers who will form the work group or their representatives.
- (2) The person conducting the business or undertaking must take all reasonable steps to commence negotiations with the workers within 14 days after a request is made under section 50.
- (3) The purpose of the negotiations is to determine –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 52

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (a) the number and composition of work groups to be represented by health and safety representatives; and
 - (b) the number of health and safety representatives and deputy health and safety representatives (if any) to be elected; and
 - (c) the workplace or workplaces to which the work groups will apply.
- (4) The parties to an agreement concerning the determination of a work group or groups may, at any time, negotiate a variation of the agreement.
- (5) The person conducting the business or undertaking must, if asked by a worker, negotiate with the worker's representative in negotiations under this section (including negotiations for a variation of an agreement) and must not exclude the representative from those negotiations.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (6) The regulations may prescribe the matters that must be taken into account in negotiations for and determination of work groups and variations of agreements concerning work groups.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

53. Notice to workers

- (1) The person conducting a business or undertaking involved in negotiations to determine a work group must, as soon as practicable after the negotiations are completed, notify the workers of the outcome of the negotiations and of any work groups determined by agreement.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $2 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $10 000.
- (2) The person conducting a business or undertaking involved in negotiations for the variation of an agreement concerning the determination of a work group or groups must, as soon as practicable after the negotiations are completed, notify the workers of the outcome of the negotiations and of the variation (if any) to the agreement.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $2 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $10 000.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 54

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

54. Failure of negotiations

- (1) If there is a failure of negotiations (including negotiations concerning the variation of an agreement), any person who is or would be a party to the negotiations may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector for the purposes of this section.
- (2) An inspector appointed under subsection (1) may decide –
 - (a) the matters referred to in section 52(3), or any of those matters which is the subject of the proposed variation (as the case requires); or
 - (b) that work groups should not be determined or that the agreement should not be varied (as the case requires).
- (3) For the purposes of this section, there is a failure of negotiations if –
 - (a) the person conducting the business or undertaking has not taken all reasonable steps to commence negotiations with the workers and negotiations have not commenced within 14 days after –
 - (i) a request is made under section 50; or
 - (ii) a party to the agreement requests the variation of the agreement; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (b) agreement cannot be reached on a matter relating to the determination of a work group (or the variation of an agreement concerning a work group) within a reasonable time after negotiations commence.
- (4) A decision under this section is taken to be an agreement under section 52.

Subdivision 3 – Multiple-business work groups

55. Determination of work groups of multiple businesses

- (1) Work groups may be determined for workers carrying out work for 2 or more persons conducting businesses or undertakings at 1 or more workplaces.
- (2) The particulars of the work groups are to be determined by negotiation and agreement, in accordance with section 56, between each of the persons conducting the businesses or undertakings and the workers.
- (3) The parties to an agreement concerning the determination of a work group or groups may, at any time, negotiate a variation of the agreement.
- (4) The determination of 1 or more work groups under this Subdivision does not –
 - (a) prevent the determination under this Subdivision or Subdivision 2 of any

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 56

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

other work group of the workers concerned; or

- (b) affect any work groups of those workers that have already been determined under this Subdivision or Subdivision 2.

56. Negotiation of agreement for work groups of multiple businesses

- (1) Negotiations concerning work groups under this Subdivision must be directed only at the following:
 - (a) the number and composition of work groups to be represented by health and safety representatives;
 - (b) the number of health and safety representatives and deputy health and safety representatives (if any) for each work group;
 - (c) the workplace or workplaces to which the work groups will apply;
 - (d) the businesses or undertakings to which the work groups will apply.
- (2) A person conducting a business or undertaking must, if asked by a worker, negotiate with the worker's representative in negotiations under this section (including negotiations for a variation of an agreement) and must not exclude the representative from those negotiations.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (3) If agreement cannot be reached on a matter relating to the determination of a work group (or a variation of an agreement) within a reasonable time after negotiations commence under this Subdivision, any party to the negotiations may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to assist the negotiations in relation to that matter.
- (4) The regulations may prescribe the matters that must be taken into account in negotiations for and determination of work groups and variations of agreements.

57. Notice to workers

- (1) A person conducting a business or undertaking involved in negotiations to determine a work group must, as soon as practicable after the negotiations are completed, notify the workers of the outcome of the negotiations and of any work groups determined by agreement.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $2 000; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 58

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

(b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $10 000.

(2) A person conducting a business or undertaking involved in negotiations for the variation of an agreement concerning the determination of a work group or groups must, as soon as practicable after the negotiations are completed, notify the workers of the outcome of the negotiations and of the variation (if any) to the agreement.

Penalty: In the case of –

(a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $2 000; or

(b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $10 000.

58. Withdrawal from negotiations or agreement involving multiple businesses

(1) A party to a negotiation for an agreement, or to an agreement, concerning a work group under this Subdivision may withdraw from the negotiation or agreement at any time by giving reasonable notice (in writing) to the other parties.

(2) If a party withdraws from an agreement concerning a work group under this Subdivision –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (a) the other parties must negotiate a variation to the agreement in accordance with section 56; and
- (b) the withdrawal does not affect the validity of the agreement between the other parties in the meantime.

59. Effect of Subdivision on other arrangements

To avoid doubt, nothing in this Subdivision affects the capacity of 2 or more persons conducting businesses or undertakings and their workers to enter into other agreements or make other arrangements, in addition to complying with this Part, concerning the representation of those workers.

Subdivision 4 – Election of health and safety representatives

60. Eligibility to be elected

A worker is –

- (a) eligible to be elected as a health and safety representative for a work group only if he or she is a member of that work group; and
- (b) not eligible to be elected as a health and safety representative if he or she is disqualified under section 65 from being a health and safety representative.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 61

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

61. Procedure for election of health and safety representatives

- (1) The workers in a work group may determine how an election of a health and safety representative for the work group is to be conducted.
- (2) However, an election must comply with the procedures (if any) prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) If a majority of the workers in a work group so determine, the election may be conducted with the assistance of a union or other person or organisation.
- (4) The person conducting the business or undertaking to which the work group relates must provide any resources, facilities and assistance that are reasonably necessary or are prescribed by the regulations to enable elections to be conducted.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

62. Eligibility to vote

- (1) A health and safety representative for a work group is to be elected by members of that work group.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (2) All workers in a work group are entitled to vote for the election of a health and safety representative for that work group.

63. When election not required

If the number of candidates for election as a health and safety representative for a work group equals the number of vacancies, the election need not be conducted and each candidate is to be taken to have been elected as a health and safety representative for the work group.

64. Term of office of health and safety representative

- (1) A health and safety representative for a work group holds office for 3 years.
- (2) However a person ceases to hold office as a health and safety representative for a work group if –
- (a) the person resigns as a health and safety representative for the work group by written notice given to the person conducting the relevant business or undertaking; or
 - (b) the person ceases to be a worker in the work group for which he or she was elected as a health and safety representative; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 65

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (c) the person is disqualified under section 65 from acting as a health and safety representative; or
 - (d) the person is removed from that position by a majority of the members of the work group in accordance with the regulations.
- (3) A health and safety representative is eligible for re-election.

65. Disqualification of health and safety representatives

- (1) An application may be made to the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) to disqualify a health and safety representative on the ground that the representative has –
- (a) exercised a power or performed a function as a health and safety representative for an improper purpose; or
 - (b) used or disclosed any information he or she acquired as a health and safety representative for a purpose other than in connection with the role of health and safety representative.
- (2) The following persons may make an application under this section:
- (a) any person adversely affected by –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (i) the exercise of a power or the performance of a function referred to in subsection (1)(a); or
 - (ii) the use or disclosure of information referred to in subsection (1)(b);
 - (b) the regulator.
- (3) If the court is satisfied that a ground in subsection (1) is made out, the court may disqualify the health and safety representative for a specified period or indefinitely.

66. Immunity of health and safety representatives

A health and safety representative is not personally liable for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith –

- (a) in exercising a power or performing a function under this Act; or
- (b) in the reasonable belief that the thing was done or omitted to be done in the exercise of a power or the performance of a function under this Act.

67. Deputy health and safety representatives

- (1) Each deputy health and safety representative for a work group is to be elected in the same way as

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 68

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

a health and safety representative for the work group.

- (2) If the health and safety representative for a work group ceases to hold office or is unable (because of absence or any other reason) to exercise the powers or perform the functions of a health and safety representative under this Act –
 - (a) the powers and functions may be exercised or performed by a deputy health and safety representative for the work group; and
 - (b) this Act applies in relation to the deputy health and safety representative as if he or she were the health and safety representative.
- (3) Sections 64, 65, 66, 72 and 73 apply to deputy health and safety representatives in the same way as they apply to health and safety representatives.

Subdivision 5 – Powers and functions of health and safety representatives

68. Powers and functions of health and safety representatives

- (1) The powers and functions of a health and safety representative for a work group are –
 - (a) to represent the workers in the work group in matters relating to work health and safety; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (b) to monitor the measures taken by the person conducting the relevant business or undertaking or that person's representative in compliance with this Act in relation to workers in the work group; and
 - (c) to investigate complaints from members of the work group relating to work health and safety; and
 - (d) to inquire into anything that appears to be a risk to the health or safety of workers in the work group, arising from the conduct of the business or undertaking.
- (2) In exercising a power or performing a function, the health and safety representative may –
- (a) inspect the workplace or any part of the workplace at which a worker in the work group works –
 - (i) at any time after giving reasonable notice to the person conducting the business or undertaking at that workplace; and
 - (ii) at any time, without notice, in the event of an incident, or any situation involving a serious risk to the health or safety of a person emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 68

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (b) accompany an inspector during an inspection of the workplace or part of the workplace at which a worker in the work group works; and
- (c) with the consent of a worker that the health and safety representative represents, be present at an interview concerning work health and safety between the worker and –
 - (i) an inspector; or
 - (ii) the person conducting the business or undertaking at that workplace or the person's representative; and
- (d) with the consent of 1 or more workers that the health and safety representative represents, be present at an interview concerning work health and safety between a group of workers, which includes the workers who gave the consent, and –
 - (i) an inspector; or
 - (ii) the person conducting the business or undertaking at that workplace or the person's representative; and
- (e) request the establishment of a health and safety committee; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (f) receive information concerning the work health and safety of workers in the work group; and
- (g) whenever necessary, request the assistance of any person.

Note

A health and safety representative also has a power under Division 6 of this Part to direct work to cease in certain circumstances and under Division 7 of this Part to issue provisional improvement notices.

- (3) Despite subsection (2)(f), a health and safety representative is not entitled to have access to any personal or medical information concerning a worker without the worker's consent unless the information is in a form that –
 - (a) does not identify the worker; and
 - (b) could not reasonably be expected to lead to the identification of the worker.
- (4) Nothing in this Act imposes or is taken to impose a duty on a health and safety representative in that capacity.

69. Powers and functions generally limited to the particular work group

- (1) A health and safety representative for a work group may exercise powers and perform functions under this Act only in relation to

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 70

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation matters that affect, or may affect, workers in that group.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if –

- (a) there is a serious risk to health or safety emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard that affects or may affect a member of another work group; or
- (b) a member of another work group asks for the representative’s assistance – and the health and safety representative (and any deputy health and safety representative) for that other work group is found, after reasonable inquiry, to be unavailable.

(3) In this section –

“another work group” means another work group of workers carrying out work for a business or undertaking to which the work group that the health and safety representative represents relates.

Subdivision 6 – Obligations of person conducting business or undertaking to health and safety representatives

70. General obligations of person conducting business or undertaking

- (1) The person conducting a business or undertaking must –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (a) consult, so far as is reasonably practicable, on work health and safety matters with any health and safety representative for a work group of workers carrying out work for the business or undertaking; and
- (b) confer with a health and safety representative for a work group, whenever reasonably requested by the representative, for the purpose of ensuring the health and safety of the workers in the work group; and
- (c) allow any health and safety representative for the work group to have access to information that the person has relating to –
 - (i) hazards (including associated risks) at the workplace affecting workers in the work group; and
 - (ii) the health and safety of the workers in the work group; and
- (d) with the consent of a worker that the health and safety representative represents, allow the health and safety representative to be present at an interview concerning work health and safety between the worker and – workplace or the person's representative; and

- (e) with the consent of 1 or more workers that the health and safety representative represents, allow the health and safety representative to be present at an interview concerning work health and safety between a group of workers, which includes the workers who gave the consent, and –
 - (i) an inspector; or
 - (ii) the person conducting the business or undertaking at that workplace or the person's representative; and
- (f) provide any resources, facilities and assistance to a health and safety representative for the work group that are reasonably necessary or prescribed by the regulations to enable the representative to exercise his or her powers or perform his or her functions under this Act; and
- (g) allow a person assisting a health and safety representative for the work group to have access to the workplace if that is necessary to enable the assistance to be provided; and
- (h) permit a health and safety representative for the work group to accompany an inspector during an inspection of any part of the workplace where a worker in the work group works; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (i) provide any other assistance to the health and safety representative for the work group that may be required by the regulations.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (2) The person conducting a business or undertaking must allow a health and safety representative to spend such time as is reasonably necessary to exercise his or her powers and perform his or her functions under this Act.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (3) Any time that a health and safety representative spends for the purposes of exercising his or her powers or performing his or her functions under this Act must be with the pay that he or she would otherwise be entitled to receive for performing his or her normal duties during that period.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 71

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

71. Exceptions from obligations under section 70(1)

- (1) This section applies despite section 70(1).
- (2) The person conducting a business or undertaking must not allow a health and safety representative to have access to any personal or medical information concerning a worker without the worker's consent unless the information is in a form that –
 - (a) does not identify the worker; and
 - (b) could not reasonably be expected to lead to the identification of the worker.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (3) The person conducting a business or undertaking is not required to give financial assistance to a health and safety representative for the purpose of the assistance referred to in section 70(1)(g).
- (4) The person conducting a business or undertaking is not required to allow a person assisting a health and safety representative for a work group to have access to the workplace –
 - (a) if the assistant has had his or her WHS entry permit revoked; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (b) during any period that the assistant's WHS entry permit is suspended or the assistant is disqualified from holding a WHS entry permit.
- (5) The person conducting a business or undertaking may refuse on reasonable grounds to grant access to the workplace to a person assisting a health and safety representative for a work group.
- (6) If access is refused to a person assisting a health and safety representative under subsection (5), the health and safety representative may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to assist in resolving the matter.

72. Obligation to train health and safety representatives

- (1) The person conducting a business or undertaking must, if requested by a health and safety representative for a work group for that business or undertaking, allow the health and safety representative to attend a course of training in work health and safety that is –
 - (a) approved by the regulator; and
 - (b) a course that the health and safety representative is entitled under the regulations to attend; and
 - (c) subject to subsection (5), chosen by the health and safety representative, in

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 72

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation consultation with the person conducting the business or undertaking.

- (2) The person conducting the business or undertaking must –
 - (a) as soon as practicable within the period of 3 months after the request is made, allow the health and safety representative time off work to attend the course of training; and
 - (b) pay the course fees and any other reasonable costs associated with the health and safety representative's attendance at the course of training.
- (3) If –
 - (a) a health and safety representative represents a work group of the workers of more than 1 business or undertaking; and
 - (b) the person conducting any of those businesses or undertakings has complied with this section in relation to the representative – each of the persons conducting those businesses or undertakings is to be taken to have complied with this section in relation to the representative.

- (4) Any time that a health and safety representative is given off work to attend the course of training must be with the pay that he or she would otherwise be entitled to receive for performing his or her normal duties during that period.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (5) If agreement cannot be reached between the person conducting the business or undertaking and the health and safety representative within the time required by subsection (2) as to the matters set out in subsection (1)(c) and subsection (2), either party may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to decide the matter.
- (6) The inspector may decide the matter in accordance with this section.
- (7) A person conducting a business or undertaking must allow a health and safety representative to attend a course decided by the inspector and pay the costs decided by the inspector under subsection (6).

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

73. Obligation to share costs if multiple businesses or undertakings

- (1) If a health and safety representative, or deputy health and safety representative (if any), represents a work group of workers carrying out work for 2 or more persons conducting businesses or undertakings –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 74

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (a) the costs of the representative exercising powers and performing functions under this Act; and
 - (b) the costs referred to in section 72(2)(b) – for which any of the persons conducting those businesses or undertakings are liable must be apportioned equally between each of those persons unless they agree otherwise.
- (2) An agreement to apportion the costs in another way may be varied at any time by negotiation and agreement between each of the persons conducting the businesses or undertakings.

74. List of health and safety representatives

- (1) A person conducting a business or undertaking must ensure that –
- (a) a list of each health and safety representative and deputy health and safety representative (if any) for each work group of workers carrying out work for the business or undertaking is prepared and kept up to date; and
 - (b) a copy of the up-to-date list is displayed –
 - (i) at the principal place of business of the business or undertaking; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (ii) at any other workplace that is appropriate taking into account the constitution of the relevant work group or work groups – in a manner that is readily accessible to workers in the relevant work group or work groups.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $2 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $10 000.
- (2) A person conducting a business or undertaking must provide a copy of the up-to-date list prepared under subsection (1) to the regulator as soon as practicable after it is prepared.

Division 4 – Health and safety committees

75. Health and safety committees

- (1) The person conducting a business or undertaking at a workplace must establish a health and safety committee for the business or undertaking or part of the business or undertaking –
 - (a) within 2 months after being requested to do so by –
 - (i) a health and safety representative for a work group of workers

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 76

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

carrying out work at that workplace; or

(ii) 5 or more workers at that workplace; or

(b) if required by the regulations to do so, within the time prescribed by the regulations.

Penalty: In the case of –

(a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $5 000; or

(b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $25 000.

(2) A person conducting a business or undertaking at a workplace may establish a health and safety committee for the workplace or part of the workplace on the person's own initiative.

Note

If a health and safety committee is not required to be established, other consultation procedures can be established for a workplace – see Division 2 of this Part.

76. Constitution of committee

(1) Subject to subsections (2) to (4), the constitution of a health and safety committee may be agreed between the person conducting the business or undertaking and the workers at the workplace.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (2) If there is a health and safety representative at a workplace, that representative, if he or she consents, is a member of the committee.
- (3) If there are 2 or more health and safety representatives at a workplace, those representatives may choose 1 or more of their number (who consent) to be members of the committee.
- (4) At least half of the members of the committee must be workers who are not nominated by the person conducting the business or undertaking.
- (5) If agreement is not reached under this section within a reasonable time, any party may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to decide the matter.
- (6) An inspector appointed on a request under subsection (5) may decide the constitution of the health and safety committee or that the committee should not be established.
- (7) A decision of an inspector under this section is taken to be an agreement under this section between the parties.

77. Functions of committee

The functions of a health and safety committee are –

- (a) to facilitate cooperation between the person conducting a business or undertaking and workers in instigating,

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 78

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation developing and carrying out measures designed to ensure the workers' health and safety at work; and

- (b) to assist in developing standards, rules and procedures relating to health and safety that are to be followed or complied with at the workplace; and
- (c) any other functions prescribed by the regulations or agreed between the person conducting the business or undertaking and the committee.

78. Meetings of committee

A health and safety committee must meet –

- (a) at least once every 3 months; and
- (b) at any reasonable time at the request of at least half of the members of the committee.

79. Duties of person conducting business or undertaking

- (1) The person conducting a business or undertaking must allow each member of the health and safety committee to spend the time that is reasonably necessary to attend meetings of the committee or to carry out functions as a member of the committee.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (2) Any time that a member of a health and safety committee spends for the purposes set out in subsection (1) must be with the pay that he or she would otherwise be entitled to receive for performing his or her normal duties during that period.
- (3) The person conducting a business or undertaking must allow the health and safety committee for a workplace to have access to information that the person has relating to –
- (a) hazards (including associated risks) at the workplace; and
 - (b) the health and safety of the workers at the workplace.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), the person conducting a business or undertaking must not allow the health and safety committee to have access to any personal or medical information concerning

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 80

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

a worker without the worker's consent unless the information is in a form that –

- (a) does not identify the worker; and
- (b) could not reasonably be expected to lead to the identification of the worker.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

Division 5 – Issue resolution

80. Parties to an issue

(1) In this Division –

“parties”, in relation to an issue, means the following:

- (a) the person conducting the business or undertaking or the person's representative;
- (b) if the issue involves more than 1 business or undertaking, the person conducting each business or undertaking or the person's representative;
- (c) if the worker or workers affected by the issue are in a work group,

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of the health and safety representative for that work group or his or her representative;

(d) if the worker or workers affected by the issue are not in a work group, the worker or workers or their representative.

(2) A person conducting a business or undertaking must ensure that the person's representative (if any) for the purposes of this Division –

(a) is not a health and safety representative; and

(b) has an appropriate level of seniority, and is sufficiently competent, to act as the person's representative.

81. Resolution of health and safety issues

(1) This section applies if a matter about work health and safety arises at a workplace or from the conduct of a business or undertaking and the matter is not resolved after discussion between the parties to the issue.

(2) The parties must make reasonable efforts to achieve a timely, final and effective resolution of the issue in accordance with the relevant agreed procedure, or if there is no agreed procedure, the default procedure prescribed in the regulations.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 82

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (3) A representative of a party to an issue may enter the workplace for the purpose of attending discussions with a view to resolving the issue.

82. Referral of issue to regulator for resolution by inspector

- (1) This section applies if an issue has not been resolved after reasonable efforts have been made to achieve an effective resolution of the issue.
- (2) A party to the issue may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to attend the workplace to assist in resolving the issue.
- (3) A request to the regulator under this section does not prevent –
 - (a) a worker from exercising the right under Division 6 of this Part to cease work; or
 - (b) a health and safety representative from issuing a provisional improvement notice or a direction under Division 6 of this Part to cease work.
- (4) On attending a workplace under this section, an inspector may exercise any of the inspector's compliance powers under this Act in relation to the workplace.

Division 6 – Right to cease or direct cessation of unsafe work

83. Definition of cease work under this Division

In this Division –

“cease work under this Division” means –

- (a) to cease, or refuse, to carry out work under section 84; or
- (b) to cease work on a direction under section 85.

84. Right of worker to cease unsafe work

A worker may cease, or refuse to carry out, work if the worker has a reasonable concern that to carry out the work would expose the worker to a serious risk to the worker’s health or safety, emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard.

85. Health and safety representative may direct that unsafe work cease

- (1) A health and safety representative may direct a worker who is in a work group represented by the representative to cease work if the representative has a reasonable concern that to carry out the work would expose the worker to a serious risk to the worker’s health or safety, emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 85

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (2) However, the health and safety representative must not give a worker a direction to cease work unless the matter is not resolved after –
 - (a) consulting about the matter with the person conducting the business or undertaking for whom the workers are carrying out work; and
 - (b) attempting to resolve the matter as an issue under Division 5 of this Part.
- (3) The health and safety representative may direct the worker to cease work without carrying out that consultation or attempting to resolve the matter as an issue under Division 5 of this Part if the risk is so serious and immediate or imminent that it is not reasonable to consult before giving the direction.
- (4) The health and safety representative must carry out the consultation as soon as practicable after giving a direction under subsection (3).
- (5) The health and safety representative must inform the person conducting the business or undertaking of any direction given by the health and safety representative to workers under this section.
- (6) A health and safety representative cannot give a direction under this section unless the representative has –
 - (a) completed initial training prescribed by the regulations referred to in section 72(1)(b); or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (b) previously completed that training when acting as a health and safety representative for another work group; or
- (c) completed training equivalent to that training under a corresponding WHS law.

86. Worker to notify if ceases work

A worker who ceases work under this Division must –

- (a) as soon as practicable, notify the person conducting the business or undertaking that the worker has ceased work under this Division unless the worker ceased work under a direction from a health and safety representative; and
- (b) remain available to carry out suitable alternative work.

87. Alternative work

If a worker ceases work under this Division, the person conducting the business or undertaking may direct the worker to carry out suitable alternative work at the same or another workplace if that work is safe and appropriate for the worker to carry out until the worker can resume normal duties.

88. Continuity of engagement of worker

If a worker ceases work under this Division, that action does not affect the continuity of engagement of the worker for prescribed purposes if the worker has not unreasonably failed to comply with a direction to carry out suitable alternative work –

- (a) at the same or another workplace; and
- (b) that was safe and appropriate for the worker to carry out.

89. Request to regulator to appoint inspector to assist

The health and safety representative or the person conducting the business or undertaking or the worker may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to attend the workplace to assist in resolving an issue arising in relation to the cessation of work.

Note

The issue resolution procedures in Division 5 of this Part can also be used to resolve an issue arising in relation to the cessation of work.

Division 7 – Provisional improvement notices

90. Provisional improvement notices

- (1) This section applies if a health and safety representative reasonably believes that a person –
 - (a) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
 - (b) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated.
- (2) The health and safety representative may issue a provisional improvement notice requiring the person to –
 - (a) remedy the contravention; or
 - (b) prevent a likely contravention from occurring; or
 - (c) remedy the things or operations causing the contravention or likely contravention.
- (3) However, the health and safety representative must not issue a provisional improvement notice to a person unless he or she has first consulted the person.
- (4) A health and safety representative cannot issue a provisional improvement notice unless the representative has –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 91

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (a) completed initial training prescribed by the regulations referred to in section 72(1)(b); or
 - (b) previously completed that training when acting as a health and safety representative for another work group; or
 - (c) completed training equivalent to that training under a corresponding WHS law.
- (5) A health and safety representative cannot issue a provisional improvement notice in relation to a matter if an inspector has already issued (or decided not to issue) an improvement notice or prohibition notice in relation to the same matter.

91. Provisional improvement notice to be in writing

A provisional improvement notice must be in writing.

92. Contents of provisional improvement notice

A provisional improvement notice must state –

- (a) that the health and safety representative believes the person –
 - (i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
 - (ii) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated; and

- (b) the provision the representative believes is being, or has been, contravened; and
- (c) briefly, how the provision is being, or has been contravened; and
- (d) the day, at least 8 days after the notice is issued, by which the person is required to remedy the contravention or likely contravention.

93. Provisional improvement notice may give directions to remedy contravention

- (1) A provisional improvement notice may include directions concerning the measures to be taken to remedy the contravention or prevent the likely contravention or the matters or activities causing the contravention or likely contravention to which the notice relates.
- (2) A direction included in a provisional improvement notice may –
 - (a) refer to a code of practice; and
 - (b) offer the person to whom it is issued a choice of ways in which to remedy the contravention.

94. Minor changes to provisional improvement notice

A health and safety representative may make minor changes to a provisional improvement notice –

- (a) for clarification; or
- (b) to correct errors or references; or
- (c) to reflect changes of address or other circumstances.

95. Issue of provisional improvement notice

A provisional improvement notice may be issued to a person in accordance with section 209.

96. Health and safety representative may cancel notice

The health and safety representative may at any time cancel a provisional improvement notice issued to a person by written notice given to that person.

97. Display of provisional improvement notice

- (1) A person to whom a provisional improvement notice is issued must as soon as practicable display a copy of the notice in a prominent place at or near the workplace, or part of the workplace, at which work is being carried out that is affected by the notice.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $5 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $25 000.
- (2) A person must not intentionally remove, destroy, damage or deface a notice displayed under subsection (1) during the period that the notice is in force.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $5 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $25 000.

98. Formal irregularities or defects in notice

A provisional improvement notice is not invalid only because of –

- (a) a formal defect or irregularity in the notice unless the defect or irregularity causes or is likely to cause substantial injustice; or
- (b) a failure to use the correct name of the person to whom the notice is issued if the notice sufficiently identifies the person.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 99

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

99. Offence to contravene a provisional improvement notice

- (1) This section applies if a provisional improvement notice has been issued to a person and an inspector has not been required under section 101 to attend at the workplace.
- (2) The person must comply with the provisional improvement notice within the time specified in the notice.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $50 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $250 000.

100. Request for review of provisional improvement notice

- (1) Within 7 days after a provisional improvement notice is issued to a person –
 - (a) the person to whom it was issued; or
 - (b) if the person is a worker, the person conducting the business or undertaking at the workplace at which the worker carries out work – may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to review the notice.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (2) If a request is made under subsection (1), the operation of the provisional improvement notice is stayed until the inspector makes a decision on the review.

101. Regulator to appoint inspector to review notice

- (1) The regulator must ensure that an inspector attends the workplace as soon as practicable after a request is made under section 100.
- (2) The inspector must review the provisional improvement notice and inquire into the circumstances that are the subject of the provisional improvement notice.
- (3) An inspector may review a provisional improvement notice even if the period for compliance with the notice has expired.

102. Decision of inspector on review of provisional improvement notice

- (1) After reviewing the provisional improvement notice, the inspector must –
 - (a) confirm the provisional improvement notice; or
 - (b) confirm the provisional improvement notice with changes; or
 - (c) cancel the provisional improvement notice.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 103

Part 5 – Consultation, Representation and Participation

- (2) The inspector must give a copy of his or her decision to –
- (a) the applicant for the review of the provisional improvement notice; and
 - (b) the health and safety representative who issued the notice.
- (3) A provisional improvement notice that is confirmed (with or without changes) by an inspector is taken to be an improvement notice issued by the inspector under this Act.

Division 8 – Part not to apply to prisoners

103. Part does not apply to prisoners

Nothing in this Part applies to a worker who is in lawful detention or custody.

PART 6 – DISCRIMINATORY, COERCIVE AND MISLEADING CONDUCT

Division 1 – Prohibition of discriminatory, coercive or misleading conduct

104. Prohibition of discriminatory conduct

- (1) A person must not engage in discriminatory conduct for a prohibited reason.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $100 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $500 000.
- (2) A person commits an offence under subsection (1) only if the reason referred to in section 106 was the dominant reason for the discriminatory conduct.

Note

Civil proceedings may be brought under Division 3 of this Part in relation to discriminatory conduct engaged in for a prohibited reason.

105. What is discriminatory conduct

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, a person engages in “discriminatory conduct” if –
- (a) the person –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 105

Part 6 – Discriminatory, Coercive and Misleading Conduct

- (i) dismisses a worker; or
 - (ii) terminates a contract for services with a worker; or
 - (iii) puts a worker to his or her detriment in the engagement of the worker; or
 - (iv) alters the position of a worker to the worker's detriment; or
- (b) the person –
- (i) refuses or fails to offer to engage a prospective worker; or
 - (ii) treats a prospective worker less favourably than another prospective worker would be treated in offering terms of engagement; or
- (c) the person terminates a commercial arrangement with another person; or
- (d) the person refuses or fails to enter into a commercial arrangement with another person.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a person also engages in discriminatory conduct if the person organises to take any action referred to in subsection (1) or threatens to organise or take that action.

106. What is a prohibited reason

Conduct referred to in section 105 is engaged in for a “prohibited reason” if it is engaged in because the worker or prospective worker or the person referred to in section 105(1)(c) or (d) (as the case requires) –

- (a) is, has been or proposes to be a health and safety representative or a member of a health and safety committee; or
- (b) undertakes, has undertaken or proposes to undertake another role under this Act; or

s. 108

Part 6 – Discriminatory, Coercive and Misleading Conduct

Civil proceedings may be brought under Division 3 of this Part if a person requested, instructed, induced, encouraged, authorised or assisted another person to engage in discriminatory conduct for a prohibited reason.

108. Prohibition of coercion or inducement

- (1) A person must not organise or take, or threaten to organise or take, any action against another person with intent to coerce or induce the other person, or a third person –
- (a) to exercise or not to exercise a power, or to propose to exercise or not to exercise a power, under this Act; or
 - (b) to perform or not to perform a function, or to propose to perform or not to perform a function, under this Act; or
 - (c) to exercise or not to exercise a power or perform a function, or to propose to exercise or not to exercise a power or perform a function, in a particular way; or
 - (d) to refrain from seeking, or continuing to undertake, a role under this Act.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $100 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $500 000.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Note

Civil proceedings may be brought under Division 3 of this Part in relation to a contravention of this section.

- (2) In this section, a reference to taking action or threatening to take action against a person includes a reference to not taking a particular action or threatening not to take a particular action in relation to that person.
- (3) To avoid doubt, a reasonable direction given by an emergency services worker in an emergency is not an action with intent to coerce or induce a person.
- (4) In this section –
 - “emergency services worker” means a person who under an Act is authorised to give directions to anyone else for the purposes of an emergency.

109. Misrepresentation

- (1) A person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation to another person about that other person’s –
 - (a) rights or obligations under this Act; or
 - (b) ability to initiate, or participate in, a process or proceedings under this Act; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 110

Part 6 – Discriminatory, Coercive and Misleading Conduct

- (c) ability to make a complaint or inquiry to a person or body empowered under this Act to seek compliance with this Act.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $100 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $500 000.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person to whom the representation is made would not be expected to rely on it.

Division 2 – Criminal proceedings in relation to discriminatory conduct

110. Proof of discriminatory conduct

- (1) This section applies if in proceedings for an offence of contravening section 104 or 107, the prosecution –
- (a) proves that the discriminatory conduct was engaged in; and
 - (b) proves that a circumstance referred to in section 106(a) to (j) existed at the time the discriminatory conduct was engaged in; and
 - (c) adduces evidence that the discriminatory conduct was engaged in for a prohibited reason.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (2) The reason alleged for the discriminatory conduct is presumed to be the dominant reason for that conduct unless the accused proves, on the balance of probabilities that the reason was not the dominant reason for the conduct.
- (3) To avoid doubt, the burden of proof on the accused under subsection (2) is a legal burden of proof.

111. Order for compensation or reinstatement

If a person is convicted or found guilty of an offence under section 104 or 107, the court may (in addition to imposing a penalty) make either or both of the following orders:

- (a) an order that the offender pay (within a specified period) such compensation to the person who was the subject of the discriminatory conduct as the court considers appropriate;
- (b) in relation to a person who was or is an employee or prospective employee, an order that –
 - (i) the person be reinstated or re-employed in his or her former position or, if that position is not available, in a similar position; or
 - (ii) the person be employed in the position for which he or she had applied or a similar position.

Division 3 – Civil proceedings in relation to discriminatory or coercive conduct

112. Civil proceedings in relation to engaging in or inducing discriminatory or coercive conduct

- (1) An eligible person may apply to the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) for an order under this section.
- (2) The court may make 1 or more of the orders set out in subsection (3) in relation to a person who has –
 - (a) engaged in discriminatory conduct for a prohibited reason; or
 - (b) requested, instructed, induced, encouraged, authorised or assisted another person to engage in discriminatory conduct for a prohibited reason; or
 - (c) contravened section 108.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), the orders that the court may make are –
 - (a) an injunction; or
 - (b) in the case of conduct referred to in subsection (2)(a) or (b), an order that the person pay (within a specified period) the compensation to the person who was the subject of the discriminatory conduct that the court considers appropriate; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (c) in the case of conduct referred to in subsection (2)(a) in relation to a worker who was or is an employee or prospective employee, an order that –
 - (i) the worker be reinstated or re-employed in his or her former position or, if that position is not available, in a similar position; or
 - (ii) the prospective worker be employed in the position for which he or she had applied or a similar position; or
 - (d) any other order that the court considers appropriate.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a person may be found to have engaged in discriminatory conduct for a prohibited reason only if a reason referred to in section 106 was a substantial reason for the conduct.
- (5) Nothing in this section is to be construed as limiting any other power of the court.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, each of the following is an “eligible person”:
- (a) a person affected by the contravention;
 - (b) a person authorised as a representative by a person referred to in paragraph (a).

113. Procedure for civil actions for discriminatory conduct

- (1) A proceeding brought under section 112 must be commenced not more than 1 year after the date on which the applicant knew or ought to have known that the cause of action accrued.
- (2) In a proceeding under section 112 in relation to conduct referred to in section 112(2)(a) or (b), if a prohibited reason is alleged for discriminatory conduct, that reason is presumed to be a substantial reason for that conduct unless the defendant proves, on the balance of probabilities, that the reason was not a substantial reason for the conduct.
- (3) It is a defence to a proceeding under section 112 in relation to conduct referred to in section 112(2)(a) or (b) if the defendant proves that –
 - (a) the conduct was reasonable in the circumstances; and
 - (b) a substantial reason for the conduct was to comply with the requirements of this Act or a corresponding WHS law.
- (4) To avoid doubt, the burden of proof on the defendant under subsections (2) and (3) is a legal burden of proof.

Division 4 – General

114. General provisions relating to orders

- (1) The making of an order in a proceeding under section 112 in relation to conduct referred to in section 112(2)(a) or (b) does not prevent the bringing of a proceeding for an offence under section 104 or 107 in relation to the same conduct.
- (2) If a court makes an order under section 112 in a proceeding in relation to conduct referred to in section 112(2)(a) or (b), a court cannot make an order under section 111 in a proceeding for an offence under section 104 or 107 in relation to the same conduct.
- (3) If a court makes an order under section 111 in a proceeding for an offence under section 104 or 107, a court cannot make an order under section 112 in a proceeding in relation to conduct referred to in section 112(2)(a) or (b) that is the same conduct.

115. Prohibition of multiple actions

A person cannot –

- (a) commence a proceeding under Division 3 of this Part if the person has commenced a proceeding or made an application or complaint in relation to the same matter under a law of the Commonwealth or a

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 115

Part 6 – Discriminatory, Coercive and Misleading Conduct

State and that proceeding, application or complaint has not been withdrawn; or

- (b) recover any compensation under Division 3 of this Part if the person has received compensation for the matter under a law of the Commonwealth or a State; or
- (c) commence or continue an application under Division 3 of this Part if the person has failed in a proceeding, application or complaint in relation to the same matter under a law of the Commonwealth or a State, other than a proceeding, application or complaint relating to workers' compensation.

PART 7 – WORKPLACE ENTRY BY WHS ENTRY PERMIT HOLDERS

Note Division 7 of Part 13 sets out the procedure in relation to the bringing of proceedings in relation to WHS civil penalty provisions.

Division 1 – Introductory

116. Definitions

In this Part –

“official of a union” means a person who holds an office in, or is an employee of, the union;

“relevant person conducting a business or undertaking” means a person conducting a business or undertaking in relation to which the WHS entry permit holder is exercising or proposes to exercise the right of entry;

“relevant union” means the union that a WHS entry permit holder represents;

“relevant worker”, in relation to a workplace, means a worker –

- (a) who is a member, or eligible to be a member, of a relevant union; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 117

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

- (b) whose industrial interests the relevant union is entitled to represent; and
- (c) who works at that workplace.

Division 2 – Entry to inquire into suspected contraventions

117. Entry to inquire into suspected contraventions

- (1) A WHS entry permit holder may enter a workplace for the purpose of inquiring into a suspected contravention of this Act that relates to, or affects, a relevant worker.
- (2) The WHS entry permit holder must reasonably suspect before entering the workplace that the contravention has occurred or is occurring.

118. Rights that may be exercised while at workplace

- (1) While at the workplace under this Division, the WHS entry permit holder may do all or any of the following in relation to the suspected contravention of this Act:
 - (a) inspect any work system, plant, substance, structure or other thing relevant to the suspected contravention;
 - (b) consult with the relevant workers in relation to the suspected contravention;

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (c) consult with the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking about the suspected contravention;
 - (d) require the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking to allow the WHS entry permit holder to inspect, and make copies of, any document that is directly relevant to the suspected contravention and that –
 - (i) is kept at the workplace; or
 - (ii) is accessible from a computer that is kept at the workplace;
 - (e) warn any person whom the WHS entry permit holder reasonably believes to be exposed to a serious risk to his or her health or safety emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard, of that risk.
- (2) However, the relevant person conducting the business or undertaking is not required under subsection (1)(d) to allow the WHS entry permit holder to inspect or make copies of a document if to do so would contravene a law of the Commonwealth or a law of a State.
- (3) A relevant person conducting a business or undertaking must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(d).

WHS civil penalty provision.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 119

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (4) Subsection (3) places an evidential burden on the defendant to show a reasonable excuse.

Notes

- 1 At least 24 hours notice is required for an entry to a workplace to inspect employee records or other documents held by someone other than a person conducting a business or undertaking. See section 120.
- 2 The use or disclosure of personal information obtained under this section is regulated under the Privacy Act 1988 of the Commonwealth.

119. Notice of entry

- (1) A WHS entry permit holder must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after entering a workplace under this Division, give notice of the entry and the suspected contravention, in accordance with the regulations, to –
- (a) the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking; and
 - (b) the person with management or control of the workplace.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if to give the notice would –
 - (a) defeat the purpose of the entry to the workplace; or
 - (b) unreasonably delay the WHS entry permit holder in an urgent case.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to an entry to a workplace under this Division to inspect or make copies of documents referred to in section 120.

120. Entry to inspect employee records or information held by another person

- (1) This section applies if a WHS entry permit holder is entitled under section 117 to enter a workplace to inquire into a suspected contravention of this Act.
- (2) For the purposes of the inquiry into the suspected contravention, the WHS entry permit holder may enter any workplace for the purpose of inspecting, or making copies of –
 - (a) employee records that are directly relevant to a suspected contravention; or
 - (b) other documents that are directly relevant to a suspected contravention and that are not held by the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking.
- (3) Before doing so, the WHS entry permit holder must give notice of the proposed entry to the

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 121

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

person from whom the documents are requested and the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking.

- (4) The notice must comply with the regulations.
- (5) The notice must be given during usual working hours at that workplace at least 24 hours, but not more than 14 days, before the entry.

Note

The use or disclosure of personal information obtained under this section is regulated under the Privacy Act 1988 of the Commonwealth.

Division 3 – Entry to consult and advise workers

121. Entry to consult and advise workers

- (1) A WHS entry permit holder may enter a workplace to consult on work health and safety matters with, and provide advice on those matters to, 1 or more relevant workers who wish to participate in the discussions.
- (2) A WHS entry permit holder may, after entering a workplace under this Division, warn any person whom the WHS entry permit holder reasonably believes to be exposed to a serious risk to his or her health or safety, emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard, of that risk.

122. Notice of entry

- (1) Before entering a workplace under this Division, a WHS entry permit holder must give notice of the proposed entry to the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking.
- (2) The notice must comply with the regulations.
- (3) The notice must be given during the usual working hours at that workplace at least 24 hours, but not more than 14 days, before the entry.

Division 4 – Requirements for WHS entry permit holders

123. Contravening WHS entry permit conditions

A WHS entry permit holder must not contravene a condition imposed on the WHS entry permit.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

124. WHS entry permit holder must also hold permit under other law

A WHS entry permit holder must not enter a workplace unless he or she –

- (a) also holds an entry permit under the Fair Work Act relevant to that workplace; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 125

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

(b) is entitled to enter that workplace pursuant to section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

125. WHS entry permit to be available for inspection

A WHS entry permit holder must, at all times that he or she is at a workplace under a right of entry under Division 2 or 3 of this Part, have his or her WHS entry permit and photographic identification available for inspection by any person on request.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

126. When right may be exercised

A WHS entry permit holder may exercise a right under Division 2 or 3 of this Part only during the usual working hours at the workplace.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

127. Where the right may be exercised

A WHS entry permit holder may exercise a right of entry to a workplace only in relation to –

- (a) the area of the workplace where the relevant workers work; or
- (b) any other work area that directly affects the health or safety of those workers.

128. Work health and safety requirements

A WHS entry permit holder must not exercise a right of entry to a workplace under Division 2 or 3 of this Part unless he or she complies with any reasonable request by the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking or the person with management or control of the workplace to comply with –

- (a) any work health and safety requirement that applies to the workplace; and
- (b) any other legislated requirement that applies to that type of workplace.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

129. Residential premises

A WHS entry permit holder must not enter any part of a workplace that is used only for residential purposes.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

130. WHS entry permit holder not required to disclose names of workers

- (1) A WHS entry permit holder is not required to disclose to the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking or the person with management or control of the workplace the name of any worker at the workplace.
- (2) A WHS entry permit holder who wishes to disclose to the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking or the person with management or control of the workplace the name of any worker may only do so with the consent of the worker.

Division 5 – WHS entry permits

131. Application for WHS entry permit

- (1) A union may apply to the regulator for the issue of a WHS entry permit to a person who is an official of the union.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (2) The application must specify the person who is to hold the WHS entry permit and include a statutory declaration by that person declaring that –
- (a) he or she is an official of the union; and
 - (b) he or she has satisfactorily completed the prescribed training; and
 - (c) he or she –
 - (i) holds, or will hold, an entry permit under the Fair Work Act; or
 - (ii) is entitled to enter workplaces pursuant to section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984.

132. Consideration of application

In considering whether to issue a WHS entry permit, the regulator must take into account –

- (a) the object of this Act; and
- (b) the object of allowing union right of entry to workplaces for work health and safety purposes.

133. Eligibility criteria

The regulator must not issue a WHS entry permit to an official of a union unless the regulator is satisfied that –

- (a) the official is an official of the union; and
- (b) the official has satisfactorily completed the prescribed training; and
- (c) the official –
 - (i) holds, or will hold, an entry permit under the Fair Work Act; or
 - (ii) is entitled to enter workplaces pursuant to section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984.

134. Issue of WHS entry permit

The regulator may issue a WHS entry permit to a person if the regulator has taken into account the matters in section 132 and is satisfied about the matters in section 133.

135. Conditions on WHS entry permit

The regulator may impose conditions on a WHS entry permit.

136. Term of WHS entry permit

A WHS entry permit has effect for a term of 3 years from the date it is issued.

137. Expiry of WHS entry permit

- (1) Unless it is earlier revoked, a WHS entry permit expires at the first of the following to occur:
 - (a) at the end of the term of the WHS entry permit;
 - (b) when the permit holder ceases to be a WHS entry permit holder under the Fair Work Act unless the permit holder is entitled to enter workplaces pursuant to section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984;
 - (ba) when the permit holder ceases to be entitled to enter workplaces pursuant to section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984 unless the permit holder is a WHS entry permit holder under the Fair Work Act;
 - (c) when the permit holder ceases to be an official of the union that applied for the permit;
 - (d) the union that applied for the permit ceases to be –
 - (i) an organisation that is registered, or taken to be registered, under

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 138

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 of the Commonwealth; or

- (ii) an association of employees or independent contractors, or both, that is registered or recognised as such an association (however described) under the Industrial Relations Act 1984.
- (2) An application may be made for the issue of a subsequent WHS entry permit before or after the current WHS entry permit expires.

138. Application to revoke WHS entry permit

- (1) The following persons may apply to the regulator for a WHS entry permit held by a person to be revoked:
- (a) this paragraph has been left blank so as to preserve uniformity with other jurisdictions with regard to the numbering of the Act;
 - (b) the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking;
 - (c) any other person in relation to whom the WHS entry permit holder has exercised or purported to exercise a right under this Part;

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (d) any other person affected by the exercise or purported exercise of a right under this Part by a WHS entry permit holder.
- (2) The grounds for an application for revocation of a WHS entry permit are –
- (a) that the permit holder no longer satisfies the eligibility criteria for a WHS entry permit or an entry permit under a corresponding WHS law, the Fair Work Act or the Workplace Relations Act 1996 of the Commonwealth; or
 - (ab) that the permit holder is no longer entitled to enter workplaces pursuant to section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984; or
 - (b) that the permit holder has contravened any condition of the WHS entry permit; or
 - (c) that the permit holder has acted or purported to act in an improper manner in the exercise of any right under this Act; or
 - (d) in exercising or purporting to exercise a right under this Part, that the permit holder has intentionally hindered or obstructed a person conducting the business or undertaking or workers at a workplace.
- (3) The applicant must give written notice of the application, setting out the grounds for the

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 139

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

application, to the person who holds the WHS entry permit and the union concerned.

- (4) The person who holds the WHS entry permit and the union that the WHS entry permit holder represents are parties to the application.

139. Regulator must permit WHS entry permit holder to show cause

- (1) If, on an application under section 138, the regulator is satisfied that a ground may exist for the revocation of the WHS entry permit under section 138(2), the regulator must –
- (a) give the WHS entry permit holder written notice (a “show cause notice”); and
 - (b) if the regulator considers it appropriate, suspend the operation of the WHS entry permit until the regulator decides the application for revocation.
- (2) The show cause notice must –
- (a) contain a statement to the effect that the WHS entry permit holder may, not later than 21 days after the day the WHS entry permit holder is given the notice, give the regulator written reasons explaining why the WHS entry permit should not be revoked; and
 - (b) be accompanied by a summary of the reasons for the application; and

- (c) if applicable, be accompanied by a notice of suspension of the permit.

140. Determination of application

- (1) If the regulator is satisfied on the balance of probabilities about any of the matters in section 138(2), it may, on application under section 138(1) or on his or her own initiative, make 1 or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order imposing conditions on the WHS entry permit;
 - (b) an order suspending the WHS entry permit;
 - (c) an order revoking the WHS entry permit;
 - (d) an order about the future issue of a WHS entry permit to the person whose WHS entry permit is revoked;
 - (e) an order imposing any alternative action the regulator considers appropriate.
- (2) In deciding what action to take under subsection (1), in relation to a person, the regulator must take into account –
 - (a) the seriousness of any findings of the regulator having regard to the object of this Act; and
 - (b) any other matters the regulator considers relevant.

Division 6 – Dealing with disputes

141. Application for assistance of inspector to resolve dispute

If a dispute arises about the exercise or purported exercise by a WHS entry permit holder of a right of entry under this Act, any party to the dispute may ask the regulator to appoint an inspector to attend the workplace to assist in resolving the dispute.

142. Regulator may deal with a dispute about a right of entry under this Act

- (1) The regulator may deal with a dispute about the exercise or purported exercise by a WHS entry permit holder of a right of entry under this Act (including a dispute about whether a request under section 128 is reasonable).
- (2) The regulator may deal with the dispute in any manner he or she thinks fit, including by means of mediation, conciliation or arbitration.
- (3) If the regulator deals with the dispute by arbitration, he or she may make 1 or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order imposing conditions on a WHS entry permit;
 - (b) an order suspending a WHS entry permit;
 - (c) an order revoking a WHS entry permit;

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (d) an order about the future issue of WHS entry permits to 1 or more persons;
 - (e) any other order it considers appropriate.
- (4) The regulator may deal with the dispute –
- (a) on his or her own initiative; or
 - (b) on application by any of the following to whom the dispute relates:
 - (i) a WHS entry permit holder;
 - (ii) the relevant union;
 - (iii) the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking;
 - (iv) any other person in relation to whom the WHS entry permit holder has exercised or purported to exercise the right of entry;
 - (v) any other person affected by the exercise or purported exercise of the right of entry by a WHS entry permit holder;
 - (vi) this subparagraph has been left blank so as to preserve uniformity with other jurisdictions with regard to the numbering of the Act.
- (5) In dealing with a dispute, the regulator must not confer any rights on the WHS entry permit holder that are additional to, or inconsistent with,

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 143

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

rights exercisable by the WHS entry permit holder under this Part.

143. Contravening order made to deal with dispute

A person must not contravene an order under section 142(3).

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

Division 7 – Prohibitions

144. Person must not refuse or delay entry of WHS entry permit holder

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or unduly delay entry into a workplace by a WHS entry permit holder who is entitled to enter the workplace under this Part.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or

(b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

(2) Subsection (1) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.

145. Person must not hinder or obstruct WHS entry permit holder

A person must not intentionally and unreasonably hinder or obstruct a WHS entry permit holder in entering a workplace or in exercising any rights at a workplace in accordance with this Part.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: In the case of –

(a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or

(b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

146. WHS entry permit holder must not delay, hinder or obstruct any person or disrupt work at workplace

A WHS entry permit holder exercising, or seeking to exercise, rights in accordance with this Part must not intentionally and unreasonably delay, hinder or obstruct any person or disrupt any work at a workplace, or otherwise act in an improper manner.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 147

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

147. Misrepresentations about things authorised by this Part

(1) A person must not take action –

- (a) with the intention of giving the impression; or
- (b) reckless as to whether the impression is given – that the doing of a thing is authorised by this Part if it is not so authorised.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person reasonably believes that the doing of the thing is authorised.

148. Unauthorised use or disclosure of information or documents

A person must not use or disclose information or a document obtained under Division 2 of this Part in an inquiry into a suspected contravention for a purpose that is not related to the inquiry or rectifying the suspected contravention, unless –

- (a) the person reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary to lessen or prevent –
 - (i) a serious risk to a person’s health or safety; or
 - (ii) a serious threat to public health or safety; or
- (b) the person has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, and uses or discloses the information or document as a necessary part of an investigation of the matter or in reporting concerns to relevant persons or authorities; or
- (c) the use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under law; or
- (d) the person reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary for 1 or more of the following by, or on behalf of, an enforcement body (within the meaning of the Privacy Act 1988 of the Commonwealth):

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 148

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

- (i) the prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution or punishment of criminal offences, breaches of a law imposing a penalty or sanction or breaches of a prescribed law;
 - (ii) the enforcement of laws relating to the confiscation of the proceeds of crime;
 - (iii) the protection of the public revenue;
 - (iv) the prevention, detection, investigation or remedying of seriously improper conduct or prescribed conduct;
 - (v) the preparation for, or conduct of, proceedings before any court or tribunal, or implementation of the orders of a court or tribunal; or
- (e) if the information is, or the document contains, personal information – the use or disclosure is made with the consent of the individual to whom the information relates.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

Division 8 – General

149. Return of WHS entry permits

- (1) The person to whom a WHS entry permit is issued must return the permit to the regulator within 14 days of any of the following things happening:
 - (a) the permit is revoked or suspended;
 - (b) the permit expires.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $2 000.

- (2) After the end of a period of suspension of a WHS entry permit, the regulator must return the WHS entry permit to the person to whom it was issued if –
 - (a) the person, or the person’s union, applies to the regulator for the return of the permit; and
 - (b) the permit has not expired.

150. Union to provide information to regulator

The relevant union must advise the regulator if –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 150

Part 7 – Workplace Entry by WHS Entry Permit Holders

- (a) the WHS entry permit holder resigns from or otherwise leaves the union; or
- (b) the WHS entry permit holder has had any entry permit granted under a corresponding WHS law, the Fair Work Act or the Workplace Relations Act 1996 of the Commonwealth (no matter when in force) cancelled or suspended; or
- (ba) the WHS entry permit holder ceases to be entitled to enter workplaces pursuant to section 77 of the Industrial Relations Act 1984; or
- (e) the union ceases to be –
 - (i) an organisation that is registered, or taken to be registered, under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 of the Commonwealth; or
 - (ii) an association of employees or independent contractors, or both, that is registered or recognised as such an association (however described) under the Industrial Relations Act 1984.

WHS civil penalty provision.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $5 000; or

- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $25 000.

151. Register of WHS entry permit holders

The regulator must keep available for public access an up-to-date register of WHS entry permit holders in accordance with the regulations.

PART 8 – THE REGULATOR

Division 1 – Functions of regulator

152. Functions of regulator

The regulator has the following functions:

- (a) to advise and make recommendations to the Minister and report on the operation and effectiveness of this Act;
- (aa) to develop, implement and review strategies and plans for improving work health and safety;
- (b) to monitor and enforce compliance with this Act;
- (c) to provide advice and information on work health and safety to duty holders under this Act and to the community;
- (d) to collect, analyse and publish statistics relating to work health and safety;
- (e) to foster a cooperative, consultative relationship between duty holders and the persons to whom they owe duties and their representatives in relation to work health and safety matters;
- (f) to promote and support education and training on matters relating to work health and safety;

- (g) to engage in, promote and coordinate the sharing of information to achieve the object of this Act, including the sharing of information with a corresponding regulator;
- (h) to conduct and defend proceedings under this Act before a court or tribunal;
- (i) any other function conferred on the regulator by this Act.

153. Powers of regulator

- (1) Subject to this Act, the regulator has the power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulator has all the powers and functions that an inspector has under this Act.

154. Delegation by regulator

- (1) The regulator may, by instrument in writing, delegate to any person a power or function under this Act other than this power of delegation.
- (2) A delegation under this section –
 - (a) may be made subject to such conditions as the regulator thinks fit; and
 - (b) is revocable at will; and

- (c) does not derogate from the power of the regulator to act.

Division 2 – Powers of regulator to obtain information

155. Powers of regulator to obtain information

- (1) This section applies if the regulator has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is capable of giving information, providing documents or giving evidence in relation to a possible contravention of this Act or that will assist the regulator to monitor or enforce compliance with this Act.
- (2) The regulator may, by written notice served on the person, require the person to do 1 or more of the following:
 - (a) to give the regulator, in writing signed by the person (or in the case of a body corporate, by a competent officer of the body corporate) and within the time and in the manner specified in the notice, that information of which the person has knowledge;
 - (b) to produce to the regulator, in accordance with the notice, those documents;
 - (c) to appear before a person appointed by the regulator on a day, and at a time and place, specified in the notice (being a day, time and place that are reasonable in the circumstances) and give either orally

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 8 – The Regulator

s. 155

or in writing that evidence and produce those documents.

- (3) The notice must –
- (a) state that the requirement is made under this section; and
 - (b) contain a statement to the effect that a failure to comply with a requirement is an offence; and
 - (c) if the notice requires the person to provide information or documents or answer questions –
 - (i) contain a statement about the effect of sections 172 and 269; and
 - (ii) state that the person may attend with a legal practitioner.
- (4) The regulator must not make a requirement under subsection (2)(c) unless the regulator has taken all reasonable steps to obtain the information under subsection (2)(a) and (b) and has been unable to do so.
- (5) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under this section.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 155

Part 8 – The Regulator

- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (6) Subsection (5) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.
- (7) Section 172 (with any necessary changes) applies to a requirement under this section.

PART 9 – SECURING COMPLIANCE

Division 1 – Appointment of inspectors

156. Appointment of inspectors

- (1) The regulator may, by instrument, appoint as an inspector a person appointed subject to and in accordance with the State Service Act 2000.
- (2) The regulator may, by certificate, certify any of the following to perform specified functions and have specified powers of an inspector –
 - (a) an employee of a public authority;
 - (b) the holder of a statutory office;
 - (c) a person who is appointed as an inspector under a corresponding WHS law;
 - (d) a person in a prescribed class of persons.
- (3) A State Service officer or State Service employee appointed as an inspector under subsection (1) may hold the office of inspector in conjunction with State Service employment.

157. Identity cards

- (1) The regulator must give each inspector an identity card that states the person's name and appointment as an inspector and includes any other matter prescribed by the regulations.

- (2) An inspector must produce his or her identity card for inspection on request when exercising compliance powers.
- (3) If a person to whom an identity card has been issued ceases to be an inspector, the person must return the identity card to the regulator as soon as practicable.

158. Accountability of inspectors

- (1) An inspector must give written notice to the regulator of all interests, pecuniary or otherwise, that the inspector has, or acquires, and that conflict or could conflict with the proper performance of the inspector's functions.
- (2) The regulator must give a direction to an inspector not to deal, or to no longer deal, with a matter if the regulator becomes aware that the inspector has a potential conflict of interest in relation to a matter and the regulator considers that the inspector should not deal, or should no longer deal, with the matter.

159. Suspension and ending of appointment of inspectors

- (1) The regulator may suspend or end the appointment of an inspector.
- (2) A person's appointment as an inspector ends when the person ceases to be eligible for appointment as an inspector.

Division 2 – Functions and powers of inspectors

160. Functions and powers of inspectors

An inspector has the following functions and powers under this Act:

- (a) to provide information and advice about compliance with this Act;
- (b) to assist in the resolution of –
 - (i) work health and safety issues at workplaces; and
 - (ii) issues related to access to a workplace by an assistant to a health and safety representative; and
 - (iii) issues related to the exercise or purported exercise of a right of entry under Part 7;
- (c) to review disputed provisional improvement notices;
- (d) to require compliance with this Act through the issuing of notices;
- (e) to investigate contraventions of this Act and assist in the prosecution of offences;
- (f) this paragraph has been left blank so as to preserve uniformity with other jurisdictions with regard to the numbering of the Act.

161. Conditions on inspectors' compliance powers

An inspector's compliance powers are subject to any conditions specified in the instrument of the inspector's appointment.

162. Inspectors subject to regulator's directions

- (1) An inspector is subject to the regulator's directions in the exercise of the inspector's compliance powers.
- (2) A direction under subsection (1) may be of a general nature or may relate to a specified matter or specified class of matter.

Division 3 – Powers relating to entry

Subdivision 1 – General powers of entry

163. Powers of entry

- (1) An inspector may at any time enter a place that is, or that the inspector reasonably suspects is, a workplace.
- (2) An entry may be made under subsection (1) with, or without, the consent of the person with management or control of the workplace.
- (3) If an inspector enters a place under subsection (1) and it is not a workplace, the inspector must leave the place immediately.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 164

- (4) An inspector may enter any place if the entry is authorised by a search warrant.

Note

An inspector may enter residential premises to gain access to a workplace (see section 170(c)).

164. Notification of entry

- (1) An inspector may enter a place under section 163 without prior notice to any person.
- (2) An inspector must, as soon as practicable after entry to a workplace or suspected workplace, take all reasonable steps to notify the following persons of the entry and the purpose of the entry:
- (a) the relevant person conducting a business or undertaking at the workplace;
 - (b) the person with management or control of the workplace;
 - (c) any health and safety representative for workers carrying out work for that business or undertaking at the workplace.
- (3) However, an inspector is not required to notify any person if to do so would defeat the purpose for which the place was entered or cause unreasonable delay.
- (4) In this section –

“relevant person conducting a business or undertaking” means the person conducting any business or undertaking in relation to which the inspector is exercising the powers of entry.

165. General powers on entry

- (1) An inspector who enters a workplace under section 163 may do all or any of the following:
 - (a) inspect, examine and make inquiries at the workplace;
 - (b) inspect and examine any thing (including a document) at the workplace;
 - (c) bring to the workplace and use any equipment or materials that may be required;
 - (d) take measurements, conduct tests and make sketches or recordings (including photographs, films, audio, video, digital or other recordings);
 - (e) take and remove for analysis a sample of any substance or thing without paying for it;
 - (f) require a person at the workplace to give the inspector reasonable help to exercise the inspector's powers under paragraphs (a) to (e);
 - (g) exercise any compliance power or other power that is reasonably necessary to be

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 166

exercised by the inspector for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) A person required to give reasonable help under subsection (1)(f) must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with the requirement.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (3) Subsection (2) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.

166. Persons assisting inspectors

- (1) A person (the “assistant”), including an interpreter, may accompany the inspector entering a workplace under section 163 to assist the inspector if the inspector considers the assistance is necessary.
- (2) The assistant –
- (a) may do the things at the place and in the manner that the inspector reasonably requires to assist the inspector to exercise compliance powers; but

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 167

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

- (b) must not do anything that the inspector does not have power to do, except as permitted under a search warrant.
- (3) Anything done lawfully by the assistant is taken for all purposes to have been done by the inspector.

Subdivision 2 – Search warrants

167. Search warrants

- (1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a search warrant for a place.
- (2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- (3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the inspector gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

Example

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the application to be given by statutory declaration.

- (4) The magistrate may issue a search warrant only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 167A

- (a) there is a particular thing or activity (the “evidence”) that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act; and
 - (b) the evidence is, or may be within the next 72 hours, at the place.
- (5) The search warrant must state –
- (a) that a stated inspector may, with necessary and reasonable help and force, enter the place and exercise the inspector’s compliance powers; and
 - (b) the offence for which the search warrant is sought; and
 - (c) the evidence that may be seized under the search warrant; and
 - (d) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and
 - (e) the date, within 7 days after the search warrant’s issue, the search warrant ends.

167A. Warrants by telephone or other electronic means

- (1) An inspector may make an application to a magistrate for a search warrant by telephone, telex, facsimile or other electronic means –
 - (a) in an urgent case; or
 - (b) if the delay that would occur if an application were made in person would

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 167A

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

frustrate the effective execution of the warrant.

- (2) The magistrate may require communication by voice to the extent that is practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) An application under this section is to include all information required to be provided in an application for a search warrant under section 167, but the application may, if necessary, be made before the information is sworn.
- (4) If an application is made to a magistrate under this section and, after considering the information and having received and considered the further information (if any) that he or she required, the magistrate is satisfied that –
 - (a) a search warrant in the terms of the application should be issued urgently; or
 - (b) the delay that would occur if an application were made in person would frustrate the effective execution of the search warrant – the magistrate may complete and sign the same form of warrant that would be issued under section 167.

- (5) If the magistrate decides to issue the search warrant, the magistrate is to inform the applicant, by telephone, telex, facsimile or other electronic means, of the terms of the warrant and the day on which and the time at which it was signed.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 167A

- (6) The applicant is to then complete a form of search warrant in terms substantially corresponding to those given by the magistrate, stating on the form the name of the magistrate and the day on which and the time at which the warrant was signed.
- (7) The applicant, not later than the day after the day of expiry of the search warrant or the day after the day on which the search warrant was executed, whichever is the earlier, is to give or transmit to the magistrate the form of warrant completed by the applicant and, if the information referred to in subsection (3) was not sworn, that information duly sworn.
- (8) The magistrate is to attach to the documents provided under subsection (7) the form of search warrant completed by the magistrate.
- (9) If –
- (a) it is material, in any proceedings, for a court to be satisfied that the exercise of a power under a search warrant issued under this section was duly authorised; and
 - (b) the form of search warrant signed by the issuing officer is not produced in evidence – the court is to assume, unless the contrary is proved, that the exercise of the power was not duly authorised.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 168

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

168. Announcement before entry on warrant

- (1) Before executing a search warrant, the inspector named in the warrant or an assistant to the inspector must –
 - (a) announce that he or she is authorised by the warrant to enter the place; and
 - (b) give any person at the place an opportunity to allow that entry.
- (2) However, the inspector or an assistant to the inspector is not required to comply with subsection (1) if he or she believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry to the place is needed to ensure –
 - (a) the safety of any person; or
 - (b) that the effective execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

169. Copy of warrant to be given to person with management or control of place

If the person who has or appears to have management or control of a place is present at the place when a search warrant is being executed, the inspector must –

- (a) identify himself or herself to that person by producing his or her identity card for inspection; and

- (b) give that person a copy of the execution copy of the warrant.

Subdivision 3 – Limitation on entry powers

170. Places used for residential purposes

Despite anything else in this Division, the powers of an inspector under this Division in relation to entering a place are not exercisable in relation to any part of a place that is used only for residential purposes except –

- (a) with the consent of the person with management or control of the place; or
- (b) under the authority conferred by a search warrant; or
- (c) for the purpose only of gaining access to a suspected workplace, but only –
 - (i) if the inspector reasonably believes that no reasonable alternative access is available; and
 - (ii) at a reasonable time having regard to the times at which the inspector believes work is being carried out at the place to which access is sought.

Subdivision 4 – Specific powers on entry

171. Power to require production of documents and answers to questions

- (1) An inspector who enters a workplace under this Division may –
 - (a) require a person to tell the inspector who has custody of, or access to, a document; or
 - (b) require a person who has custody of, or access to, a document to produce that document to the inspector while the inspector is at that workplace or within a specified period; or
 - (c) require a person at the workplace to answer any questions put by the inspector.
- (2) A requirement under subsection (1)(b) must be made by written notice unless the circumstances require the inspector to have immediate access to the document.
- (3) An interview conducted by an inspector under subsection (1)(c) must be conducted in private if –
 - (a) the inspector considers it appropriate; or
 - (b) the person being interviewed so requests.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit the operation of section 166 or prevent a representative of the

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 171

person being interviewed from being present at the interview.

- (5) Subsection (3) may be invoked during an interview by –
- (a) the inspector; or
 - (b) the person being interviewed – in which case the subsection applies to the remainder of the interview.

- (6) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under this section.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

Note

See section 172 and 173 in relation to self-incrimination and section 269 in relation to legal professional privilege.

- (7) Subsection (6) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.

172. Abrogation of privilege against self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from answering a question or providing information or a document under this Part on the ground that the answer to the question, or the information or document, may tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.
- (2) However, the answer to a question or information or a document provided by an individual is not admissible as evidence against that individual in civil or criminal proceedings other than proceedings arising out of the false or misleading nature of the answer, information or document.

173. Warning to be given

- (1) Before requiring a person to answer a question or provide information or a document under this Part, an inspector must –
 - (a) identify himself or herself to the person as an inspector by producing the inspector's identity card or in some other way; and
 - (b) warn the person that failure to comply with the requirement or to answer the question, without reasonable excuse, would constitute an offence; and
 - (c) warn the person about the effect of section 172; and

- (d) advise the person about the effect of section 269.
- (2) It is not an offence for an individual to refuse to answer a question put by an inspector or provide information or a document to an inspector under this Part on the ground that the question, information or document might tend to incriminate him or her, unless he or she was first given the warning in subsection (1)(c).
- (3) Nothing in this section prevents an inspector from obtaining and using evidence given to the inspector voluntarily by any person.

174. Powers to copy and retain documents

- (1) An inspector may –
 - (a) make copies of, or take extracts from, a document given to the inspector in accordance with a requirement under this Act; and
 - (b) keep that document for the period that the inspector considers necessary.
- (2) While an inspector retains custody of a document, the inspector must permit the following persons to inspect or make copies of the document at all reasonable times:
 - (a) the person who produced the document;
 - (b) the owner of the document;

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 175

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

- (c) a person authorised by a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).

175. Power to seize evidence &c.

- (1) An inspector who enters a workplace under section 163 may seize anything (including a document) at the place if the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act.
- (2) An inspector who enters a place with a search warrant may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.
- (3) An inspector may also seize anything else at the place if the inspector reasonably believes –
 - (a) the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and
 - (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being hidden, lost or destroyed or used to continue or repeat the offence.

176. Inspector's power to seize dangerous workplaces and things

- (1) This section applies if an inspector who enters a workplace under this Part reasonably believes that –
 - (a) the workplace or part of the workplace;
or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 177

- (b) plant at the workplace; or
- (c) a substance at the workplace or part of the workplace; or
- (d) a structure at a workplace – is defective or hazardous to a degree likely to cause serious injury or illness or a dangerous incident to occur.

- (2) The inspector may seize the workplace or part, the plant, the substance or the structure.

177. Powers supporting seizure

- (1) Having seized a thing, an inspector may –
 - (a) move the thing from the place where it was seized (the “place of seizure”); or
 - (b) leave the thing at the place of seizure but take reasonable action to restrict access to it; or

Examples

- 1 Sealing a thing and marking it to show access to it is restricted.
- 2 Sealing the entrance to a room where the seized thing is situated and marking it to show access to it is restricted.
- (c) if the thing is plant or a structure – dismantle or cause to be dismantled the plant or structure.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 177

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

- (2) If an inspector restricts access to a seized thing, a person must not tamper, or attempt to tamper, with the thing or something restricting access to the thing without an inspector's approval.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (3) To enable a thing to be seized, an inspector may require the person in control of it –
- (a) to take it to a stated reasonable place by a stated reasonable time; and
 - (b) if necessary, to remain in control of it at the stated place for a reasonable time.
- (4) The requirement –
- (a) must be made by written notice; or
 - (b) if for any reason it is not practicable to give the notice, may be made orally and confirmed by written notice as soon as practicable.
- (5) A further requirement may be made under this section in relation to the same thing if it is necessary and reasonable to make the further requirement.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 178

- (6) The person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (3) or (5).

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (7) Subsection (6) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.

178. Receipt for seized things

- (1) As soon as practicable after an inspector seizes a thing, the inspector must give a receipt for it to the person from whom it was seized.
- (2) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the inspector must leave the receipt in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way at the place of seizure.
- (3) The receipt must describe generally each thing seized and its condition.
- (4) This section does not apply to a thing if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the receipt required by this section (given the thing's nature, condition and value).

179. Forfeiture of seized things

- (1) A seized thing is forfeited to the State if the regulator –
 - (a) cannot find the person entitled to the thing after making reasonable inquiries; or
 - (b) cannot return it to the person entitled to it, after making reasonable efforts; or
 - (c) reasonably believes it is necessary to forfeit the thing to prevent it being used to commit an offence against this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not require the regulator to make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find the person entitled to the thing.
- (3) Subsection (1)(b) does not require the regulator to make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to the person entitled to it.
- (4) If the regulator decides to forfeit the thing under subsection (1)(c), the regulator must tell the person entitled to the thing of the decision by written notice.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply if –
 - (a) the regulator cannot find the person entitled to the thing, after making reasonable inquiries; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 179

- (b) it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the notice.
- (6) The notice must state –
- (a) the reasons for the decision; and
 - (b) that the person entitled to the thing may apply within 28 days after the date of the notice for the decision to be reviewed; and
 - (c) how the person may apply for the review; and
 - (d) that the person may apply for a stay of the decision if the person applies for a review.
- (7) In deciding whether and, if so, what inquiries and efforts are reasonable or whether it would be unreasonable to give notice about a thing, regard must be had to the thing’s nature, condition and value.
- (8) Any costs reasonably incurred by the State in storing or disposing of a thing forfeited under subsection (1)(c) may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the State from that person.
- (9) In this section –
- “person entitled” to a thing means the person from whom it was seized unless that person is not entitled to possess it in which case it means the owner of the thing.

180. Return of seized things

- (1) If a seized thing has not been forfeited, the person entitled to the thing may apply to the regulator for the return of the thing after the end of 6 months after it was seized.
- (2) The regulator must return the thing to the applicant under subsection (1) unless the regulator has reasonable grounds to retain the thing.
- (3) The regulator may impose any conditions on the return of the thing under this section that the regulator considers appropriate to eliminate or minimise any risk to work health or safety related to the thing.
- (4) In this section –

“person entitled” to a thing means the person entitled to possess the thing or the owner of the thing.

181. Access to seized things

- (1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, the regulator must permit the following persons to inspect it and, if it is a document, to make copies of it at all reasonable times:

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

s. 182

- (a) the person from whom the thing was seized;
 - (b) the owner of the thing;
 - (c) a person authorised by a person referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow inspection or copying.

Division 4 – Damage and compensation

182. Damage &c. to be minimised

In the exercise, or purported exercise, of a compliance power, an inspector must take all reasonable steps to ensure that the inspector, and any assistant to the inspector, cause as little inconvenience, detriment and damage as is practicable.

183. Inspector to give notice of damage

- (1) This section applies if an inspector or an assistant to an inspector damages a thing when exercising or purporting to exercise a compliance power.
- (2) The inspector must, as soon as practicable, give written notice of the damage to the person who the inspector believes on reasonable grounds, is the person in control of the thing.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 184

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

- (3) If the inspector believes the damage was caused by a latent defect in the thing or circumstances beyond the inspector's or assistant's control, the inspector may state it in the notice.
- (4) If, for any reason, it is impracticable to comply with subsection (2), the inspector must leave the notice in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way where the damage happened.
- (5) This section does not apply to damage the inspector reasonably believes is trivial.

184. Compensation

- (1) A person may claim compensation from the State if the person incurs loss or expense because of the exercise or purported exercise of a power under Division 3 of this Part.
- (2) Compensation may be claimed and ordered in a proceeding –
 - (a) brought in a court of competent jurisdiction; or
 - (b) for an offence against this Act brought against the person claiming compensation.
- (3) The court may order compensation to be paid only if it is satisfied it is just to make the order in the circumstances of the particular case.

- (4) The regulations may prescribe matters that may, or must, be taken into account by the court when considering whether it is just to make the order.

Division 5 – Other matters

185. Power to require name and address

- (1) An inspector may require a person to provide the person's name and residential address if –
- (a) the inspector finds the person committing an offence against this Act; or
 - (b) the inspector finds the person in circumstances that lead, or has information that leads, the inspector to reasonably suspect the person has committed an offence against this Act; or
 - (c) the inspector reasonably believes that the person may be able to assist in the investigation of an offence against this Act.
- (2) When asking a person to provide his or her name and residential address, the inspector must –
- (a) tell the person the reason for the requirement to provide his or her name and residential address; and
 - (b) warn the person that it is an offence to fail to state that name and residential address, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 186

Part 9 – Securing Compliance

- (3) If the inspector reasonably believes that the name or residential address is false, the inspector may require the person to give evidence of its correctness.
- (4) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (3).
- Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.
- (5) Subsection (4) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.

186. Inspector may take affidavits

An inspector is authorised to take affidavits for any purpose relating or incidental to the exercise of his or her compliance powers.

187. Reserved

This section has been left blank so as to preserve uniformity with other jurisdictions with regard to the numbering of the Act.

Division 6 – Offences in relation to inspectors

188. Offence to hinder or obstruct inspector

A person must not intentionally hinder or obstruct an inspector in exercising his or her compliance powers, or induce or attempt to induce any other person to do so.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

189. Offence to impersonate inspector

A person who is not an inspector must not, in any way, hold himself or herself out to be an inspector.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding $10 000.

190. Offence to assault, threaten or intimidate inspector

A person must not directly or indirectly assault, threaten or intimidate, or attempt to assault, threaten or intimidate, an inspector or a person assisting an inspector.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $50 000 or a term of imprisonment not exceeding 2 years, or both; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $250 000.

PART 10 – ENFORCEMENT MEASURES

Division 1 – Improvement notices

191. Issue of improvement notices

- (1) This section applies if an inspector reasonably believes that a person –
 - (a) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
 - (b) has contravened a provision in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated.
- (2) The inspector may issue an improvement notice requiring the person to –
 - (a) remedy the contravention; or
 - (b) prevent a likely contravention from occurring; or
 - (c) remedy the things or operations causing the contravention or likely contravention.

192. Contents of improvement notices

- (1) An improvement notice must state –
 - (a) that the inspector believes the person –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

s. 193

- (i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
 - (ii) has contravened a provision in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will continue or be repeated; and
 - (b) the provision the inspector believes is being, or has been, contravened; and
 - (c) briefly, how the provision is being, or has been, contravened; and
 - (d) the day by which the person is required to remedy the contravention or likely contravention.
- (2) An improvement notice may include directions concerning the measures to be taken to remedy the contravention or prevent the likely contravention, or the matters or activities causing the contravention or likely contravention, to which the notice relates.
- (3) The day stated for compliance with the improvement notice must be reasonable in all the circumstances.

193. Compliance with improvement notice

The person to whom an improvement notice is issued must comply with the notice within the period specified in the notice.

Penalty: In the case of –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 194

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $50 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $250 000.

194. Extension of time for compliance with improvement notices

- (1) This section applies if a person has been issued with an improvement notice.
- (2) An inspector may, by written notice given to the person, extend the compliance period for the improvement notice.
- (3) However, the inspector may extend the compliance period only if the period has not ended.
- (4) In this section –

“compliance period” means the period stated in the improvement notice under section 192, and includes that period as extended under this section.

Division 2 – Prohibition notices

195. Power to issue prohibition notice

- (1) This section applies if an inspector reasonably believes that –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

s. 196

- (a) an activity is occurring at a workplace that involves or will involve a serious risk to the health or safety of a person emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard; or
 - (b) an activity may occur at a workplace that, if it occurs, will involve a serious risk to the health or safety of a person emanating from an immediate or imminent exposure to a hazard.
- (2) The inspector may give a person who has control over the activity a direction prohibiting the carrying on of the activity, or the carrying on of the activity in a specified way, until an inspector is satisfied that the matters that give or will give rise to the risk have been remedied.
- (3) The direction may be given orally, but must be confirmed by written notice (a “prohibition notice”) issued to the person as soon as practicable.

196. Contents of prohibition notice

- (1) A prohibition notice must state –
- (a) that the inspector believes that grounds for the issue of the prohibition notice exist and the basis for that belief; and
 - (b) briefly, the activity that the inspector believes involves or will involve the risk

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 197

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

and the matters that give or will give rise to the risk; and

- (c) the provision of this Act that the inspector believes is being, or is likely to be, contravened by that activity.
- (2) A prohibition notice may include directions on the measures to be taken to remedy the risk, activities or matters to which the notice relates, or the contravention or likely contravention referred to in subsection (1)(c).
- (3) Without limiting section 195, a prohibition notice that prohibits the carrying on of an activity in a specified way may do so by specifying 1 or more of the following:
- (a) a workplace, or part of a workplace, at which the activity is not to be carried out;
 - (b) any thing that is not to be used in connection with the activity;
 - (c) any procedure that is not to be followed in connection with the activity.

197. Compliance with prohibition notice

The person to whom a direction is given under section 195(2) or a prohibition notice is issued must comply with the direction or notice.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $100 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $500 000.

Division 3 – Non-disturbance notices

198. Issue of non-disturbance notice

An inspector may issue a non-disturbance notice to the person with management or control of a workplace if the inspector reasonably believes that it is necessary to do so to facilitate the exercise of his or her compliance powers.

199. Contents of non-disturbance notice

- (1) A non-disturbance notice may require the person to –
 - (a) preserve the site at which a notifiable incident has occurred for a specified period; or
 - (b) prevent the disturbance of a particular site (including the operation of plant) in other circumstances for a specified period that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (2) A non-disturbance notice must specify the period (of no more than 7 days) for which it applies and set out –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 200

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

- (a) the obligations of the person to whom the notice is issued; and
 - (b) the measures to be taken to preserve a site or prevent disturbance of a site; and
 - (c) the penalty for contravening the notice.
- (3) In subsection (1) a reference to a site includes any plant, substance, structure or thing associated with the site.
- (4) A non-disturbance notice does not prevent any action –
- (a) to assist an injured person; or
 - (b) to remove a deceased person; or
 - (c) that is essential to make the site safe or to prevent a further incident; or
 - (d) that is associated with a police investigation; or
 - (e) for which an inspector has given permission.

200. Compliance with non-disturbance notice

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a non-disturbance notice issued to the person.

Penalty: In the case of –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

s. 201

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $50 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $250 000.
- (2) Subsection (1) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.

201. Issue of subsequent notices

If an inspector considers it necessary to do so, he or she may issue 1 or more subsequent non-disturbance notices to a person, whether before or after the expiry of the previous notice, each of which must comply with section 199.

Division 4 – General requirements applying to notices

202. Application of Division

In this Division –

“notice” means improvement notice, prohibition notice or non-disturbance notice.

203. Notice to be in writing

A notice must be in writing.

204. Directions in notices

A direction included in an improvement notice or prohibition notice may –

- (a) refer to a code of practice; and
- (b) offer the person to whom it is issued a choice of ways in which to remedy the contravention.

205. Recommendations in notice

- (1) An improvement notice or prohibition notice may include recommendations.
- (2) It is not an offence to fail to comply with recommendations in a notice.

206. Changes to notice by inspector

- (1) An inspector may make minor changes to a notice –
 - (a) for clarification; or
 - (b) to correct errors or references; or
 - (c) to reflect changes of address or other circumstances.
- (2) An inspector may also, in accordance with section 194, extend the compliance period for an improvement notice.

207. Regulator may vary or cancel notice

Except as provided in section 206, a notice issued by an inspector may only be varied or cancelled by the regulator.

208. Formal irregularities or defects in notice

A notice is not invalid only because of –

- (a) a formal defect or irregularity in the notice unless the defect or irregularity causes or is likely to cause substantial injustice; or
- (b) a failure to use the correct name of the person to whom the notice is issued if the notice sufficiently identifies the person and is issued or given to the person in accordance with section 209.

209. Issue and giving of notice

(1) A notice may be issued or given to a person –

- (a) by delivering it personally to the person or sending it by post or facsimile or electronic transmission to the person's usual or last known place of residence or business; or
- (b) by leaving it for the person at the person's usual or last known place of residence or business with a person who

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 210

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

appears to be over 16 years and who appears to reside or work there; or

- (c) by leaving it for the person at the workplace to which the notice relates with a person who is or appears to be the person with management or control of the workplace; or
- (d) in a prescribed manner.

(2) The regulations may prescribe –

- (a) the manner of issuing a notice; and
- (b) the steps a person to whom a notice is issued must take to bring it to the attention of other persons.

210. Display of notice

- (1) A person to whom a notice is issued must, as soon as possible, display a copy of the notice in a prominent place at or near the workplace, or part of the workplace, at which work is being carried out that is affected by the notice.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $5 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $25 000.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 10 – Enforcement Measures

s. 211

- (2) A person must not intentionally remove, destroy, damage or deface a notice displayed under subsection (1) while the notice is in force.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $5 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $25 000.

Division 5 – Remedial action

211. When regulator may carry out action

- (1) This section applies if a person to whom a prohibition notice is issued fails to take reasonable steps to comply with the notice.
- (2) The regulator may take any remedial action the regulator believes reasonable to make the workplace or situation safe after giving written notice to the person to whom the prohibition notice was issued of –
 - (a) the regulator’s intention to take that action; and
 - (b) the owner’s or person’s liability for the costs of that action.

212. Power of the regulator to take other remedial action

- (1) This section applies if the regulator reasonably believes that –
 - (a) circumstances in which a prohibition notice can be issued exist; and
 - (b) a prohibition notice cannot be issued at a workplace because, after taking reasonable steps, the person with management or control of the workplace cannot be found.
- (2) The regulator may take any remedial action necessary to make the workplace safe.

213. Costs of remedial or other action

The regulator may recover the reasonable costs of any remedial action taken under –

- (a) section 211 from the person to whom the notice is issued; or
 - (b) section 212 from any person to whom the prohibition notice could have been issued in relation to the matter –
- as a debt due to the regulator.

Division 6 – Injunctions

214. Application of Division

In this Division –

“notice” means improvement notice, prohibition notice or non-disturbance notice.

215. Injunctions for noncompliance with notices

- (1) The regulator may apply to the Magistrates Court (Civil Division) for an injunction –
 - (a) compelling a person to comply with a notice; or
 - (b) restraining a person from contravening a notice.
- (2) The regulator may do so –
 - (a) whether or not proceedings have been brought for an offence against this Act in connection with any matter in relation to which the notice was issued; and
 - (b) whether any period for compliance with the notice has expired.

PART 11 – ENFORCEABLE UNDERTAKINGS

216. Regulator may accept WHS undertakings

- (1) The regulator may accept a written undertaking (a “WHS undertaking”) given by a person in connection with a matter relating to a contravention or alleged contravention by the person of this Act.

Note

Section 230(3) requires the regulator to publish guidelines in relation to the acceptance of WHS undertakings.

- (2) A WHS undertaking cannot be accepted for a contravention or alleged contravention that is a Category 1 offence.
- (3) The giving of a WHS undertaking does not constitute an admission of guilt by the person giving it in relation to the contravention or alleged contravention to which the undertaking relates.

217. Notice of decision and reasons for decision

- (1) The regulator must give the person seeking to make a WHS undertaking written notice of the regulator’s decision to accept or reject the WHS undertaking and of the reasons for the decision.

- (2) The regulator must publish, on the regulator's website, notice of a decision to accept a WHS undertaking and the reasons for that decision.

218. When a WHS undertaking is enforceable

A WHS undertaking takes effect and becomes enforceable when the regulator's decision to accept the undertaking is given to the person who made the undertaking or at any later date specified by the regulator.

219. Compliance with WHS undertaking

A person must not contravene a WHS undertaking made by that person that is in effect.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $50 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $250 000.

220. Contravention of WHS undertaking

- (1) The regulator may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order if a person contravenes a WHS undertaking.
- (2) If the court is satisfied that the person who made the WHS undertaking has contravened the

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 221

Part 11 – Enforceable Undertakings

undertaking, the court, in addition to the imposition of any penalty, may make 1 or both of the following orders:

- (a) an order directing the person to comply with the undertaking;
 - (b) an order discharging the undertaking.
- (3) In addition to the orders referred to in subsection (2), the court may make any other order that the court considers appropriate in the circumstances, including orders directing the person to pay to the State –
- (a) the costs of the proceedings; and
 - (b) the reasonable costs of the regulator in monitoring compliance with the WHS undertaking in the future.
- (4) Nothing in this section prevents proceedings being brought for the contravention or alleged contravention of this Act to which the WHS undertaking relates.

Note

Section 222 specifies circumstances affecting proceedings for a contravention for which a WHS undertaking has been given.

221. Withdrawal or variation of WHS undertaking

- (1) A person who has made a WHS undertaking may at any time, with the written agreement of the regulator –

- (a) withdraw the undertaking; or
 - (b) vary the undertaking.
- (2) However, the provisions of the undertaking cannot be varied to provide for a different alleged contravention of the Act.
- (3) The regulator must publish, on the regulator's website, notice of the withdrawal or variation of a WHS undertaking.

222. Proceeding for alleged contravention

- (1) Subject to this section, no proceedings for a contravention or alleged contravention of this Act may be brought against a person if a WHS undertaking is in effect in relation to that contravention.
- (2) No proceedings may be brought for a contravention or alleged contravention of this Act against a person who has made a WHS undertaking in relation to that contravention and has completely discharged the WHS undertaking.
- (3) The regulator may accept a WHS undertaking in relation to a contravention or alleged contravention before proceedings in relation to that contravention have been finalised.
- (4) If the regulator accepts a WHS undertaking before the proceedings are finalised, the regulator must take all reasonable steps to have

- (f) retaining, or refusing to deliver up, a thing;
 - (g) doing or refusing to do any other act or thing.
- (3) In this section –

“person entitled” to a thing means the person from whom it was seized unless that person is not entitled to possess it, in which case it means the owner of the thing.

Note Decisions under the regulations that will be reviewable decisions will be set out in the regulations.

Division 2 – Internal review

224. Application for internal review

- (1) An eligible person in relation to a reviewable decision, other than a decision made by the regulator or a delegate of the regulator, may apply to the regulator for review (an “internal review”) of the decision within –
 - (a) the prescribed time after the day on which the decision first came to the eligible person’s notice; or
 - (b) such longer period as the regulator allows.
- (2) The application must be made in the manner and form required by the regulator.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 225

Part 12 – Review of Decisions

- (3) For the purposes of this section, the “prescribed time” is –
- (a) in the case of a decision to issue an improvement notice the period specified in the notice for compliance with the notice or 14 days, whichever is the lesser; and
 - (b) in any other case, 14 days.

225. Internal reviewer

- (1) The regulator may appoint a person or body to review decisions on applications under this Division.
- (2) The person who made the decision cannot be an internal reviewer in relation to that decision.

226. Decision of internal reviewer

- (1) The internal reviewer must review the reviewable decision and make a decision as soon as is reasonably practicable and within 14 days after the application for internal review is received.
- (2) The decision may be –
 - (a) to confirm or vary the reviewable decision; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 12 – Review of Decisions

s. 227

- (b) to set aside the reviewable decision and substitute another decision that the internal reviewer considers appropriate.
- (3) If the internal reviewer seeks further information from the applicant, the 14-day period ceases to run until the applicant provides the information to the internal reviewer.
- (4) The applicant must provide the further information within the time (being not less than 7 days) specified by the internal reviewer in the request for information.
- (5) If the applicant does not provide the further information within the required time, the decision is taken to have been confirmed by the internal reviewer at the end of that time.
- (6) If the reviewable decision is not varied or set aside within the 14-day period, the decision is taken to have been confirmed by the internal reviewer.

227. Decision on internal review

As soon as practicable after reviewing the decision, the internal reviewer must give the applicant in writing –

- (a) the decision on the internal review; and
- (b) the reasons for the decision.

228. Stays of reviewable decisions

- (1) An application for an internal review of a reviewable decision (other than a decision to issue a prohibition notice or a non-disturbance notice) stays the operation of the decision.
- (2) If an application is made for an internal review of a decision to issue a prohibition notice or a non-disturbance notice, the reviewer may stay the operation of the decision.
- (3) The reviewer may make the decision to stay the operation of a decision on the reviewer's own initiative or on the application of the applicant for review.
- (4) The reviewer must make a decision on an application for a stay within 1 working day after the reviewer receives the application.
- (5) If the reviewer has not made a decision to stay a decision within the time set out in subsection (4), the reviewer is taken to have made a decision to grant a stay.
- (6) A stay of the operation of a decision pending a decision on an internal review continues until whichever of the following is the earlier:
 - (a) the end of the prescribed period for applying for an external review of the decision made on the internal review;
 - (b) an application for external review is made.

Division 3 – External review

229. Application for external review

- (1) An eligible person may apply to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) for review (an “external review”) of –
 - (a) a reviewable decision made by the regulator; or
 - (b) a decision made, or taken to have been made, on an internal review.
- (2) The application must be made –
 - (a) if the decision was to forfeit a thing (including a document), within 28 days after the day on which the decision first came to the applicant’s notice; or
 - (b) in the case of any other decision, within 14 days after the day on which the decision first came to the applicant’s notice; or
 - (c) if the regulator is required by the external review body to give the eligible person a statement of reasons, within 14 days after the day on which the statement is provided.

PART 13 – LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Division 1 – General matters

230. Prosecutions

- (1) Subject to subsection (4), proceedings for an offence against this Act may only be brought by –
 - (a) the regulator; or
 - (b) an inspector with the written authorisation of the regulator (either generally or in a particular case).
- (2) An authorisation under subsection (1)(b) is sufficient authority to continue proceedings in any case where the court amends the charge, warrant or summons.
- (3) The regulator must issue, and publish on the regulator’s website, general guidelines for or in relation to –
 - (a) the prosecution of offences under this Act; and
 - (b) the acceptance of WHS undertakings under this Act.
- (4) Nothing in this section affects the ability of the Director of Public Prosecutions to bring proceedings for an offence against this Act.

231. Procedure if prosecution is not brought

(1) If –

- (a) a person reasonably considers that the occurrence of an act, matter or thing constitutes a Category 1 offence or a Category 2 offence; and
- (b) no prosecution has been brought in relation to the occurrence of the act, matter or thing after 6 months but not later than 12 months after that occurrence – the person may make a written request to the regulator that a prosecution be brought.

(2) Within 3 months after the regulator receives a request the regulator must –

- (a) advise the person (in writing) –
 - (i) whether the investigation is complete; and
 - (ii) if the investigation is complete, whether a prosecution has been or will be brought or give reasons why a prosecution will not be brought; and
- (b) advise the person who the applicant believes committed the offence of the application and of the matters set out in paragraph (a).

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 231

Part 13 – Legal Proceedings

- (3) If the regulator advises the person that a prosecution for a Category 1 or Category 2 offence will not be brought, the regulator must –
- (a) advise the person that the person may ask the regulator to refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions for consideration; and
 - (b) if the person makes a written request to the regulator to do so, refer the matter to the Director of Public Prosecutions within 1 month of the request.
- (4) The Director of Public Prosecutions must consider the matter and advise (in writing) the regulator as soon as practicable as to whether the Director considers that a prosecution should be brought.
- (5) The regulator must –
- (a) notify the following persons in writing whether the Director of Public Prosecutions considers that a prosecution should be brought:
 - (i) the person who made the request;
 - (ii) the person who the applicant believes committed the offence; and
 - (b) must include in the notice given to the person who made the request a summary of the reasons given by the Director of Public Prosecutions for his or her decision.

- (6) If the regulator declines to follow the advice of the Director of Public Prosecutions to bring proceedings, the regulator must give written reasons for the decision to any person to whom a copy of the advice is given under subsection (5).
- (7) In this section a reference to the occurrence of an act, matter or thing includes a reference to a failure in relation to an act, matter or thing.

232. Limitation period for prosecutions

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against this Act may be brought within the latest of the following periods to occur:
 - (a) within 2 years after the offence first comes to the notice of the regulator;
 - (b) within 1 year after a coronial report was made or a coronial inquiry or inquest ended, if it appeared from the report or the proceedings at the inquiry or inquest that an offence had been committed against this Act;
 - (c) if a WHS undertaking has been given in relation to the offence, within 6 months after –
 - (i) the WHS undertaking is contravened; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 233

Part 13 – Legal Proceedings

- (ii) it comes to the notice of the regulator that the WHS undertaking has been contravened; or
 - (iii) the regulator has agreed under section 221 to the withdrawal of the WHS undertaking.
- (2) A proceeding for a Category 1 offence may be brought after the end of the applicable limitation period in subsection (1) if fresh evidence relevant to the offence is discovered and the court is satisfied that the evidence could not reasonably have been discovered within the relevant limitation period.

233. Multiple contraventions of health and safety duty provision

- (1) Two or more contraventions of a health and safety duty provision by a person that arise out of the same factual circumstances may be charged as a single offence or as separate offences.
- (2) This section does not authorise contraventions of 2 or more health and safety duty provisions to be charged as a single offence.
- (3) A single penalty only may be imposed in relation to 2 or more contraventions of a health and safety duty provision that are charged as a single offence.

(4) In this section –

“health and safety duty provision” means a provision of Division 2, 3 or 4 of Part 2.

Division 2 – Sentencing for offences

234. Application of this Division

This Division applies if a court convicts a person, or finds a person guilty (the “offender”), of an offence against this Act.

235. Orders generally

- (1) One or more orders may be made under this Division against the offender.
- (2) Orders may be made under this Division in addition to any penalty that may be imposed or any other action that may be taken in relation to the offence.

236. Adverse publicity orders

- (1) The court may make an order (an “adverse publicity order”) in relation to the offender requiring the offender –
 - (a) to take either or both of the following actions within the period specified in the order:

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 236

Part 13 – Legal Proceedings

- (i) to publicise, in the way specified in the order, the offence, its consequences, the penalty imposed and any other related matter;
 - (ii) to notify a specified person or specified class of persons, in the way specified in the order, of the offence, its consequences, the penalty imposed and any other related matter; and
 - (b) to give the regulator, within 7 days after the end of the period specified in the order, evidence that the action or actions were taken by the offender in accordance with the order.
- (2) The court may make an adverse publicity order on its own initiative or on the application of the person prosecuting the offence.
- (3) If the offender fails to give evidence to the regulator in accordance with subsection (1)(b), the regulator, or a person authorised in writing by the regulator, may take the action or actions specified in the order.
- (4) However, if –
- (a) the offender gives evidence to the regulator in accordance with subsection (1)(b); and
 - (b) despite that evidence, the regulator is not satisfied that the offender has taken the action or actions specified in the order in accordance with the order –

the regulator may apply to the Magistrates Court for an order authorising the regulator, or a person authorised in writing by the regulator, to take the action or actions.

- (5) If the regulator or a person authorised in writing by the regulator takes an action or actions in accordance with subsection (3) or an order under subsection (4), the regulator is entitled to recover from the offender, by action in a court of competent jurisdiction, an amount in relation to the reasonable expenses of taking the action or actions as a debt due to the regulator.

237. Orders for restoration

- (1) The court may order the offender to take such steps as are specified in the order, within the period so specified, to remedy any matter caused by the commission of the offence that appears to the court to be within the offender's power to remedy.
- (2) The period in which an order under this section must be complied with may be extended, or further extended, by order of the court but only if an application for the extension is made before the end of that period.

238. Work health and safety project orders

- (1) The court may make an order requiring the offender to undertake a specified project for the general improvement of work health and safety within the period specified in the order.
- (2) The order may specify conditions that must be complied with in undertaking the specified project.

239. Release on the giving of a court-ordered WHS undertaking

- (1) The court may (with or without recording a conviction) adjourn the proceeding for a period of up to 2 years and make an order for the release of the offender on the offender giving an undertaking with specified conditions (a “court-ordered WHS undertaking”).
- (2) A court-ordered WHS undertaking must specify the following conditions:
 - (a) that the offender appears before the court if called on to do so during the period of the adjournment and, if the court so specifies, at the time to which the further hearing is adjourned;
 - (b) that the offender does not commit, during the period of the adjournment, any offence against this Act;
 - (c) that the offender observes any special conditions imposed by the court.

- (3) An offender who has given a court-ordered WHS undertaking under this section may be called on to appear before the court by order of the court.
- (4) An order under subsection (3) must be served on the offender not less than 4 days before the time specified in it for the appearance.
- (5) If the court is satisfied at the time to which a further hearing of a proceeding is adjourned that the offender has observed the conditions of the court-ordered WHS undertaking, it must discharge the offender without any further hearing of the proceeding.

240. Injunctions

If a court finds a person guilty of an offence against this Act, the court may issue an injunction requiring the person to cease contravening this Act.

Note

An injunction may also be obtained under section 215 for noncompliance with a non-disturbance notice, improvement notice or prohibition notice.

241. Training orders

The court may make an order requiring the person to undertake or arrange for 1 or more workers to undertake a specified course of training.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 242

Part 13 – Legal Proceedings

242. Offence to fail to comply with order

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with an order under this Division.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $50 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $250 000.
- (2) Subsection (1) places an evidential burden on the accused to show a reasonable excuse.
- (3) This section does not apply to an order or injunction under section 239 or 240.

Division 3 – Infringement notices

243. Infringement notices

- (1) An inspector may serve an infringement notice on a person, other than a person under the age of 16 years, if of the opinion that the person has committed a prescribed offence.
- (2) An infringement notice is not to relate to 4 or more offences.
- (3) An infringement notice is to be in accordance with section 14 of the Monetary Penalties Enforcement Act 2005.

243A. Payments to WorkCover Tasmania Board

Any payments in relation to an infringement notice are payable to the WorkCover Tasmania Board established under the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988.

Division 4 – Offences by bodies corporate

244. Imputing conduct to bodies corporate

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, any conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate by an employee, agent or officer of the body corporate acting within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment, or within his or her actual or apparent authority, is conduct also engaged in by the body corporate.
- (2) If an offence under this Act requires proof of knowledge, intention or recklessness, it is sufficient in proceedings against a body corporate for that offence to prove that the person referred to in subsection (1) had the relevant knowledge, intention or recklessness.
- (3) If for an offence against this Act mistake of fact is relevant to determining liability, it is sufficient in proceedings against a body corporate for that offence if the person referred to in subsection (1) made that mistake of fact.

Division 5 – The Crown

245. Offences and the Crown

- (1) If the Crown is guilty of an offence against this Act, the penalty to be imposed on the Crown is the penalty applicable to a body corporate.
- (2) For the purposes of this Act, any conduct engaged in on behalf of the Crown by an employee, agent or officer of the Crown acting within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment, or within his or her actual or apparent authority, is conduct also engaged in by the Crown.
- (3) If an offence under this Act requires proof of knowledge, intention or recklessness, it is sufficient in proceedings against the Crown for that offence to prove that the person referred to in subsection (2) had the relevant knowledge, intention or recklessness.
- (4) If for an offence against this Act mistake of fact is relevant to determining liability, it is sufficient in proceedings against the Crown for that offence if the person referred to in subsection (2) made that mistake of fact.

246. WHS civil penalty provisions and the Crown

- (1) If the Crown contravenes a WHS civil penalty provision, the monetary penalty to be imposed on the Crown is the penalty applicable to a body corporate.

- (2) For the purposes of a WHS civil penalty provision, any conduct engaged in on behalf of the Crown by an employee, agent or officer of the Crown acting within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment, or within his or her actual or apparent authority, is conduct also engaged in by the Crown.
- (3) If a WHS civil penalty provision requires proof of knowledge, it is sufficient in proceedings against the Crown for a contravention of that provision to prove that the person referred to in subsection (2) had that knowledge.

247. Officers

- (1) A person who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of a business or undertaking of the Crown is taken to be an officer of the Crown for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A Minister of a State or the Commonwealth is not in that capacity an officer for the purposes of this Act.

248. Responsible agency for the Crown

- (1) A provisional improvement notice, improvement notice, prohibition notice, non-disturbance notice, infringement notice or notice of entry under Part 7 to be given to or served on the Crown under this Act may be given to or served on the responsible agency.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 248

Part 13 – Legal Proceedings

- (2) If an infringement notice is to be served on the Crown for an offence against this Act, the responsible agency may be specified in the infringement notice.
- (3) If proceedings are brought against the Crown for an offence against this Act or in relation to a contravention of this Act, the responsible agency in relation to the offence or contravention may be specified in any document initiating, or relating to, the proceedings.
- (4) The responsible agency in relation to an offence or a contravention of this Act is entitled to act in proceedings against the Crown for the offence or relating to the contravention and, subject to any relevant rules of court, the procedural rights and obligations of the Crown as the accused or defendant in the proceedings are conferred or imposed on the responsible agency.
- (5) The person prosecuting the offence or bringing the proceedings may change the responsible agency during the proceedings with the court's leave.
- (6) In this section, the “responsible agency” –
 - (a) in relation to a notice referred to in subsection (1) is the following:
 - (i) in the case of a provisional improvement notice, improvement notice or infringement notice, the agency of the Crown the acts or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 13 – Legal Proceedings

s. 248

- omissions of which are alleged to contravene this Act;
- (ii) in the case of a prohibition notice, the agency of the Crown which has control over the activity referred to in section 195(1)(a) or (b);
 - (iii) in the case of a non-disturbance notice, the agency of the Crown with the management and control of the workplace;
 - (iv) in the case of a notice of entry under Part 7, the agency of the Crown conducting the relevant business or undertaking or with the management and control of the workplace; and
- (b) in relation to an offence or proceedings for a contravention of this Act, is the agency of the Crown –
- (i) the acts or omissions of which are alleged to constitute the offence or contravention; or
 - (ii) if that agency has ceased to exist, that is the successor of that agency; or
 - (iii) if that agency has ceased to exist and there is no clear successor, that the court declares to be the responsible agency.

Division 6 – Public authorities

249. Application to public authorities that are bodies corporate

This Division applies only to public authorities that are bodies corporate.

250. Proceedings against public authorities

- (1) Proceedings may be brought under this Act against a public authority in its own name.
- (2) Nothing in this Division affects any privileges that a public authority may have under the Crown.

251. Imputing conduct to public authorities

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, any conduct engaged in on behalf of a public authority by an employee, agent or officer of the public authority acting within the actual or apparent scope of his or her employment, or within his or her actual or apparent authority, is conduct also engaged in by the public authority.
- (2) If an offence under this Act requires proof of knowledge, intention or recklessness, it is sufficient in proceedings against the public authority for that offence to prove that the person referred to in subsection (1) had the relevant knowledge, intention or recklessness.

- (3) If for an offence against this Act mistake of fact is relevant to determining liability, it is sufficient in proceedings against the public authority for that offence if the person referred to in subsection (1) made that mistake of fact.

252. Officer of public authority

A person who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business or undertaking of a public authority is taken to be an officer of the public authority for the purposes of this Act.

253. Proceedings against successors to public authorities

- (1) Proceedings for an offence against this Act that were instituted against a public authority before its dissolution, or that could have been instituted against a public authority if not for its dissolution, may be continued or instituted against its successor if the successor is a public authority.
- (2) An infringement notice served on a public authority for an offence against this Act is taken to be an infringement notice served on its successor if the successor is a public authority.
- (3) Similarly, any penalty paid by a public authority in relation to an infringement notice is taken to be a penalty paid by its successor if the successor is a public authority.

Division 7 – WHS civil penalty provisions

254. When is a provision a WHS civil penalty provision

- (1) A subsection of Part 7 (or a section of Part 7 that is not divided into subsections) is a “WHS civil penalty provision” if –
 - (a) the words “WHS civil penalty provision” and 1 or more amounts by way of monetary penalty are set out at the foot of the subsection (or section); or
 - (b) another provision of Part 7 specifies that the subsection (or section) is a WHS civil penalty provision.
- (2) A subregulation (or a regulation that is not divided into subregulations) is a “WHS civil penalty provision” if –
 - (a) the words “WHS civil penalty provision” and 1 or more amounts by way of monetary penalty are set out at the foot of the subregulation (or regulation); or
 - (b) another provision of the regulations specifies that the subregulation (or regulation) is a WHS civil penalty provision.

255. Proceedings for contravention of WHS civil penalty provision

Subject to this Division, proceedings may be brought in a court against a person for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision.

256. Involvement in contravention treated in same way as actual contravention

- (1) A person who is “involved in” a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision is taken to have contravened that provision.
- (2) A person is involved in a contravention of a civil penalty provision if, and only if, the person –
 - (a) has aided, abetted, counselled or procured the contravention; or
 - (b) has induced the contravention, whether by threats or promises or otherwise; or
 - (c) has been in any way, by act or omission, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in or party to the contravention; or
 - (d) has conspired with others to effect the contravention.

257. Contravening a civil penalty provision is not an offence

A contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision is not an offence.

258. Civil proceeding rules and procedure to apply

A court must apply the rules of evidence and procedure for civil proceedings when hearing proceedings for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision.

259. Proceeding for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision

- (1) In a proceeding for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision, if the court is satisfied that a person has contravened a WHS civil penalty provision, the court may –
 - (a) order the person to pay a monetary penalty that the court considers appropriate; and
 - (b) make any other order that the court considers appropriate, including an injunction.
- (2) A monetary penalty imposed under subsection (1) must not exceed the relevant maximum amount of monetary penalty specified under Part 7 or the regulations in relation to a contravention of that WHS civil penalty provision.

260. Proceeding may be brought by the regulator or an inspector

Proceedings for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision may only be brought by –

- (a) the regulator; or
- (b) an inspector with the written authorisation of the regulator (either generally or in a particular case).

261. Limitation period for WHS civil penalty proceedings

Proceedings for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision may be brought within 2 years after the contravention first comes to the notice of the regulator.

262. Recovery of a monetary penalty

If the court orders a person to pay a monetary penalty –

- (a) the penalty is payable to the State; and
- (b) the State may enforce the order as if it were a judgment of the court.

263. Civil double jeopardy

A court must not make an order against a person under section 259 for contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision if an order has been made against the person under a civil penalty provision under an Act of the Commonwealth or a State in relation to conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct constituting the contravention.

264. Criminal proceedings during civil proceedings

- (1) Proceedings against a person for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision are stayed if –
 - (a) criminal proceedings are commenced or have already commenced against the person for an offence; and
 - (b) the offence is constituted by conduct that is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention of the WHS civil penalty provision.
- (2) The proceedings for the order may be resumed if the person is not convicted or found guilty of the offence – otherwise, the proceedings for the order are dismissed.

265. Criminal proceedings after civil proceedings

Criminal proceedings may be commenced against a person for conduct that is substantially the same as conduct constituting a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision regardless of whether an order has been made against the person under section 259.

266. Evidence given in proceedings for contravention of WHS civil penalty provision not admissible in criminal proceedings

- (1) Evidence of information given, or evidence of production of documents, by an individual is not admissible in criminal proceedings against the individual if –
 - (a) the individual previously gave the information or produced the documents in proceedings against the individual for a contravention of a WHS civil penalty provision (whether or not the order was made); and
 - (b) the conduct alleged to constitute the offence is substantially the same as the conduct alleged to constitute the contravention of the WHS civil penalty provision.
- (2) However, this does not apply to criminal proceedings in relation to the falsity of the evidence given by the individual in the proceedings for the contravention of the WHS civil penalty provision.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 267

Part 13 – Legal Proceedings

Division 8 – Civil liability not affected by this Act

267. Civil liability not affected by this Act

Except as provided in Part 6 and Part 7 and Division 7 of this Part, nothing in this Act is to be construed as –

- (a) conferring a right of action in civil proceedings in relation to a contravention of a provision of this Act; or
- (b) conferring a defence to an action in civil proceedings or otherwise affecting a right of action in civil proceedings; or
- (c) affecting the extent (if any) to which a right of action arises, or civil proceedings may be brought, in relation to breaches of duties or obligations imposed by the regulations.

PART 14 – GENERAL

Division 1 – General provisions

268. Offence to give false or misleading information

- (1) A person must not give information in complying or purportedly complying with this Act that the person knows –
- (a) to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (b) omits any matter or thing without which the information is misleading.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (2) A person must not produce a document in complying or purportedly complying with this Act that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular without –
- (a) indicating the respect in which it is false or misleading and, if practicable, providing correct information; or
 - (b) accompanying the document with a written statement signed by the person

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 269

Part 14 – General

or, in the case of a body corporate, by a competent officer of the body corporate –

- (i) stating that the document is, to the knowledge of the first-mentioned person, false or misleading in a material particular; and
- (ii) setting out, or referring to, the material particular in which the document is, to the knowledge of the first-mentioned person, false or misleading.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (3) Subsection (2) places an evidential burden on the accused to show that the accused had indicated the extent to which the document was false or misleading or that the accompanying document sufficiently explained the extent to which the document was false or misleading.

269. Act does not affect legal professional privilege

Nothing in this Act requires a person to produce a document that would disclose information, or otherwise provide information, that is the subject of legal professional privilege.

270. Immunity from liability

- (1) An inspector, or other person engaged in the administration of this Act, incurs no civil liability for an act or omission done or omitted to be done in good faith and in the execution or purported execution of powers and functions under this Act.
- (2) A civil liability that would, but for subsection (1), attach to a person, attaches instead to the State.

271. Confidentiality of information

- (1) This section applies if a person obtains information or gains access to a document in exercising any power or function under this Act (other than under Part 7).
- (2) The person must not do any of the following:
 - (a) disclose to anyone else –
 - (i) the information; or
 - (ii) the contents of or information contained in the document;
 - (b) give access to the document to anyone else;
 - (c) use the information or document for any purpose.

Penalty: In the case of –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 271

Part 14 – General

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to the disclosure of information, or the giving of access to a document or the use of information or a document –
- (a) about a person, with the person’s consent; or
 - (b) that is necessary for the exercise of a power or function under this Act; or
 - (c) that is made or given by the regulator or a person authorised by the regulator if the regulator reasonably believes the disclosure, access or use –
 - (i) is necessary for administering, or monitoring or enforcing compliance with, this Act; or
 - (ii) is necessary for the administration or enforcement of another Act prescribed by the regulations; or
 - (iii) is necessary for the administration or enforcement of another Act or law, if the disclosure, access or use is necessary to lessen or prevent a

s. 271

- serious risk to public health or safety; or
- (iv) is necessary for the recognition of authorisations under a corresponding WHS law; or
 - (v) is required for the exercise of a power or function under a corresponding WHS law; or
- (d) that is required by any court, tribunal, authority or person having lawful authority to require the production of documents or the answering of questions; or
- (e) that is required or authorised under a law; or
- (f) to a Minister.
- (4) A person must not intentionally disclose to another person the name of an individual who has made a complaint in relation to that other person unless –
- (a) the disclosure is made with the consent of the complainant; or
 - (b) the disclosure is required under a law.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $10 000; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 272

Part 14 – General

- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $50 000.

272. No contracting out

A term of any agreement or contract that purports to exclude, limit or modify the operation of this Act or any duty owed under this Act or to transfer to another person any duty owed under this Act is void.

273. Person not to levy workers

A person conducting a business or undertaking must not impose a levy or charge on a worker, or permit a levy or charge to be imposed on a worker, for anything done, or provided, in relation to work health and safety.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) an individual, a fine not exceeding $5 000; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding $25 000.

Division 2 – Codes of practice

274. Approved codes of practice

- (1) The Minister may approve a code of practice for the purposes of this Act and may vary or revoke an approved code of practice.
- (2) The Minister may only approve, vary or revoke a code of practice under subsection (1) if that code of practice, variation or revocation was developed by a process that involved consultation between –
 - (a) the Governments of the Commonwealth and each State and Territory; and
 - (b) unions; and
 - (c) employer organisations.
- (3) A code of practice may apply, adopt or incorporate any matter contained in a document formulated, issued or published by a person or body whether –
 - (a) with or without modification; or
 - (b) as in force at a particular time or from time to time.
- (4) An approval of a code of practice, or a variation or revocation of an approved code of practice, takes effect when notice of it is published in the Gazette or on such later date as is specified in the approval, variation or revocation.

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 275

Part 14 – General

- (5) As soon as practicable after approving a code of practice, or varying or revoking an approved code of practice, the Minister must ensure that notice of the approval, variation or revocation is published in the Gazette and a newspaper circulating generally throughout the State.
- (5A) A notice under this section is not –
- (a) a statutory rule within the meaning of the Rules Publication Act 1953; or
 - (b) subordinate legislation for the purposes of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1992.
- (6) The regulator must ensure that a copy of –
- (a) each code of practice that is currently approved; and
 - (b) each document applied, adopted or incorporated (to any extent) by an approved code of practice –
- is available for inspection by members of the public without charge at the office of the regulator during normal business hours.

275. Use of codes of practice in proceedings

- (1) This section applies in a proceeding for an offence against this Act.
- (2) An approved code of practice is admissible in the proceeding as evidence of whether or not a

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 14 – General

s. 276

duty or obligation under this Act has been complied with.

- (3) The court may –
- (a) have regard to the code as evidence of what is known about a hazard or risk, risk assessment or risk control to which the code relates; and
 - (b) rely on the code in determining what is reasonably practicable in the circumstances to which the code relates.

Note

See section 18 for the meaning of “reasonably practicable”.

- (4) Nothing in this section prevents a person from introducing evidence of compliance with this Act in a manner that is different from the code but provides a standard of work health and safety that is equivalent to or higher than the standard required in the code.

Division 3 – Regulation-making powers

276. Regulation-making powers

- (1) The Governor may make regulations in relation to –
- (a) any matter relating to work health and safety; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 276

Part 14 – General

- (b) any matter or thing required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or that is necessary or convenient to be prescribed to give effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may make provision for or in relation to matters set out in Schedule 3.
- (3) The regulations may –
 - (a) be of general or limited application; or
 - (b) differ according to differences in time, place or circumstance; or
 - (c) leave any matter or thing to be, from time to time, determined, applied or approved by the regulator, an inspector or any other prescribed person or body of persons; or
 - (d) apply, adopt or incorporate any matter contained in any document formulated, issued or published by a person or body whether –
 - (i) with or without modification; or
 - (ii) as in force at a particular time or as in force or remade from time to time; or
 - (e) prescribe exemptions from complying with any of the regulations on the terms and conditions (if any) prescribed; or

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 14 – General

s. 277

- (f) allow the regulator to provide exemptions from complying with any of the regulations on the terms and conditions (if any) prescribed or, if the regulations allow, on the terms and conditions (if any) determined by the regulator; or
- (g) prescribe fees for doing any act or providing any service for the purposes of this Act and prescribe the circumstances and way in which fees can be refunded, waived or reduced; or
- (h) prescribe a penalty for any contravention of the regulations not exceeding $30 000; or
- (i) prescribe an infringement penalty for each infringement offence which must not exceed 20 per cent of the penalty for the offence which is prescribed as the infringement offence.

277. Administration of Act

Until provision is made in relation to this Act by order under section 4 of the Administrative Arrangements Act 1990 –

- (a) the administration of this Act is assigned to the Minister for Workplace Relations; and

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 277

Part 14 – General

- (b) the department responsible to that Minister in relation to the administration of this Act is the Department of Justice.

SCHEDULE 1 – APPLICATION OF ACT TO DANGEROUS GOODS AND HIGH RISK PLANT

1. This Act applies to the storage and handling of dangerous goods even if the dangerous goods are not at a workplace or for use in carrying out work.

2. For the purposes of clause 1 –
 - (a) a reference in this Act to carrying out work includes a reference to the storage or handling of dangerous goods; and
 - (b) a reference in this Act to a workplace includes a reference to the premises at or in which the dangerous goods are stored or handled; and
 - (c) a reference in this Act to work health and safety (however expressed) includes a reference to public health and safety.

3. This Act applies to the operation or use of high risk plant, affecting public safety, even if the plant is not situated, operated or used at a workplace or for use in carrying out work.

4. For the purposes of clause 3 –

Work Health and Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

sch. 1

- (a) a reference in this Act to carrying out work includes a reference to the operation and use of high risk plant affecting public safety; and
 - (b) a reference in this Act to a workplace includes a reference to any high risk plant affecting public safety and the premises at or in which the plant is situated or used; and
 - (c) a reference in this Act to work health and safety (however expressed) includes a reference to public health and safety.
5. The operation of this Schedule is subject to any exclusions or modifications prescribed by the regulations.
6. In this Schedule –
- “dangerous goods” means anything prescribed as dangerous goods;
 - “high risk plant” means plant prescribed as high risk plant.

SCHEDULE 2 – LOCAL TRIPARTITE CONSULTATION ARRANGEMENTS AND OTHER LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS

PART 1 – THE REGULATOR

1. Appointment of the regulator

- (1) The Secretary is to appoint a State Service officer or State Service Employee to be the regulator and that officer or employee holds that office in conjunction with State Service employment.
- (2) The regulator is to perform the functions imposed, and may exercise the powers conferred, on the regulator under this or any other Act.
