(c) any other activity that is prescribed by the regulations.

(3) In this section –

“treating” of primary produce means –

- (a) enhancing the appearance of the primary produce including, for example, waxing, oiling or colouring the produce, without substantially transforming its nature; or
- (b) dealing with the primary produce solely in order to eliminate or control pathogenic organisms, toxins and contaminants in the produce, or to ripen it.

6. Interaction with other Acts

This Act is in addition to and does not limit or derogate from any other Act.

7. Act binds Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of Tasmania and, so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, in all its other capacities.

PART 2 – ADMINISTRATION

8. Chief Inspector of Primary Produce Safety

- (1) The Secretary may appoint a State Service officer or State Service employee employed in the Department who is suitably qualified to be Chief Inspector of Primary Produce Safety.
- (2) The Secretary may appoint a State Service officer or State Service employee employed in the Department who is suitably qualified to act in the office of Chief Inspector of Primary Produce Safety.
- (3) A person appointed under subsection (1) or (2) may hold, or act in, the office of Chief Inspector in conjunction with State Service employment.
- (4) The Chief Inspector may by an authority in writing authorise a State Service officer or State Service employee to exercise such of the powers conferred on the Chief Inspector as may be specified in the authority, and anything done in pursuance of such an authority has the like effect as if it were done by the Chief Inspector.
- (5) A food safety scheme may designate, for the purposes of the scheme, any or all the powers and functions of the Chief Inspector under this Act to a body corporate.
- (6) The Chief Inspector is an authorised officer for the purposes of this Act and may exercise the powers and functions of an authorised officer in

Act No. of

s. 8

Part 2 – Administration

addition to the powers and functions of Chief Inspector.

PART 3 – FOOD SAFETY SCHEMES

9. Food safety schemes

- (1) The regulations may establish a food safety scheme.
- (2) Subject to section 10, a food safety scheme may do any or all of the following:
 - (a) specify the primary produce or class of primary produce and the primary production activities or class of primary production activities to which the scheme applies;
 - (b) make provision for any matter relating to how and where any primary production activity under the scheme is to be carried out including, for example, matters relating to the location, design, condition and operation of any premises, vehicle or equipment used in the primary production activity;
 - (c) prohibit any primary production activity or class of primary production activities;
 - (d) specify circumstances in which a person who engages or proposes to engage in any primary production activity under the scheme must be accredited;
 - (e) make provision for any matter relating to the accreditation of persons who engage

s. 9

Part 3 – Food Safety Schemes

- public safety in relation to any primary produce or primary production activity under the scheme;
- (q) make provision for any matter relating to the levy or payment of fees and charges under the scheme;
 - (r) make provision for any matter relating to the establishment of a public register of persons holding an accreditation under the scheme;
 - (s) make provision for the adoption of any program, code, standards or guidelines relevant to any primary produce or primary production activity under the scheme;
 - (t) make provision for any matters relating to compliance and enforcement in respect of the scheme including the creation of offence provisions;
 - (u) make provision for exemptions to specific persons or classes of persons from some or all of the requirements of the scheme relating to any primary produce or primary production activity under the scheme;
 - (v) make provision for any matter relating to the review or revision of the scheme;
 - (w) make provision for any other matter relating to the safety or suitability of any

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 3 – Food Safety Schemes

s. 10

primary produce or primary production activity under the scheme.

- (3) A food safety scheme may provide that contravention of, or failure to comply with, the scheme or a provision of the scheme is an offence punishable by a fine –
- (a) in the case of a body corporate, not exceeding 250 penalty units; or
 - (b) in the case of an individual, not exceeding 50 penalty units.

10. Contents of food safety schemes

Without limiting section 9, a food safety scheme must, as a minimum –

- (a) state the primary produce or class of primary produce and the primary production activities or class of primary production activities to which the scheme applies; and
- (b) if a body corporate is to perform the role of Chief Inspector under the scheme, designate, for the purposes of the scheme, all the requisite functions and powers of the Chief Inspector to be performed and exercised by the body corporate; and
- (c) state who must be accredited under the scheme and who must comply with the scheme; and

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 10

Part 3 – Food Safety Schemes

- (d) state who must prepare and implement a food safety program under the scheme; and
- (e) state the auditing requirements under the scheme; and
- (f) establish a public register of persons holding an accreditation under the scheme.

PART 4 – ACCREDITATION

11. Authority given by accreditation

- (1) An accreditation granted to a person authorises the person to engage in the primary production activities –
 - (a) stated in the accreditation; and
 - (b) on the conditions stated in the accreditation and in accordance with this Act.
- (2) The accreditation does not authorise the accredited producer to do anything prohibited under another Act.

12. Application for accreditation

- (1) An application for an accreditation –
 - (a) must be made to the Chief Inspector; and
 - (b) must conform to the requirements of the Chief Inspector about its form, contents and the manner in which it is made; and
 - (c) must be accompanied by the fee prescribed in the regulations.
- (2) If the applicant is required to prepare and implement a food safety program under a food safety scheme, the application must set out the details of the food safety program.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 13

Part 4 – Accreditation

- (3) The Chief Inspector may, by written notice, require the applicant –
 - (a) to give the Chief Inspector further information, documents or records relevant to the application; or
 - (b) to allow persons authorised by the Chief Inspector to inspect premises, vehicles, plant or equipment proposed to be used by the applicant in connection with the activities proposed to be authorised by the accreditation.
- (4) The Chief Inspector may refuse the application if the applicant does not comply with a requirement under subsection (3).
- (5) The applicant may, with the approval of the Chief Inspector or at the request of the Chief Inspector, amend the application before the Chief Inspector has finished considering it.

13. Temporary accreditation

- (1) The Chief Inspector may, pending determination of an application for accreditation, grant a temporary accreditation under this section.
- (2) The temporary accreditation remains in force until whichever of the following occurs first:
 - (a) the end of the period stated in the temporary accreditation;

- (b) the accreditation applied for under section 12 is granted or the application is refused.
- (3) The period referred to in subsection (2) must not exceed 3 months after the grant of the temporary accreditation.
- (4) Except where the contrary intention appears, a reference in this Act to an accreditation includes a reference to a temporary accreditation.

14. Deciding an application for accreditation

- (1) The Chief Inspector must consider an application for accreditation made in accordance with section 12 and either grant the accreditation with conditions or refuse the application.
- (2) The Chief Inspector may grant the accreditation sought by the applicant only if satisfied –
 - (a) that the applicant is a suitable person to hold such accreditation; and
 - (b) if the applicant is a body corporate, that each director of the body corporate is a suitable person to be the director of a body corporate that holds such an accreditation; and
 - (c) that the applicant satisfies any requirements for accreditation set out in the food safety scheme applicable to the primary production activity the applicant proposes to engage in.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 14

Part 4 – Accreditation

- (3) For the purposes of determining the suitability of a person under subsection (2), the Chief Inspector may, without limitation, take into account –
- (a) any offence committed by the person against –
 - (i) this Act or an Act repealed by this Act; or
 - (ii) the Food Act 2003; or
 - (iii) a prescribed Act; or
 - (iv) a corresponding law; and
 - (b) any offence of dishonesty committed by the person.
- (4) If the applicant is required to prepare and implement a food safety program under a food safety scheme, the Chief Inspector may grant the accreditation only if satisfied that the food safety program complies with the relevant food safety scheme.
- (5) If the Chief Inspector grants an accreditation in circumstances where subsection (4) applies, the applicant’s food safety program becomes the approved food safety program for the accreditation.

15. Conditions of accreditation

- (1) The Chief Inspector may impose any conditions on an accreditation that are reasonable and relevant, having regard to the food safety scheme applicable to the primary production activity the accredited producer is to engage in.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), an accreditation is subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) the accredited producer must –
 - (i) comply with the relevant food safety scheme in all respects; and
 - (ii) if there is an approved food safety program for the accreditation, comply with the food safety program in all respects; and
 - (iii) engage in the primary production activities authorised by the accreditation only at the premises or place stated in the accreditation; and
 - (iv) allow a food safety auditor to enter any premises or place stated in the accreditation to conduct audits under this Act;
 - (b) the accredited producer must pay, in accordance with the requirements of the Chief Inspector, the reasonable costs and

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 16

Part 4 – Accreditation

expenses associated with audits conducted under this Act.

- (3) An accredited producer who contravenes a condition of the accreditation is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units;
or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

16. Periodic fees and returns

- (1) For each period prescribed in the regulations, an accredited producer must, not later than the date prescribed in the regulations –
- (a) pay to the Chief Inspector the fee prescribed in the regulations; and
 - (b) lodge with the Chief Inspector a return that conforms to the requirements of the Chief Inspector about its form, contents and the manner in which it is made.
- (2) If an accredited producer fails to pay a fee or lodge a return in accordance with this section, the Chief Inspector may, by written notice, require the producer to make good the default and, in addition, to pay to the Chief Inspector the

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 4 – Accreditation

s. 17

amount prescribed in the regulations as a penalty for default.

- (3) If an accredited producer fails to comply with the notice within 14 days after the giving of the notice, the accreditation is suspended until the notice is complied with.
- (4) If an accredited producer fails to comply with the notice within 6 months after the giving of the notice, the accreditation is cancelled.
- (5) The Chief Inspector must cause written notice of the suspension or cancellation to be given to the producer.

17. Variation of accreditation

- (1) The Chief Inspector may, by written notice to the accredited producer –
 - (a) impose further conditions on the accreditation; and
 - (b) vary or revoke conditions of the accreditation; and
 - (c) approve a food safety program for the accreditation; and
 - (d) vary an approved food safety program for the accreditation.
- (2) The Chief Inspector's power under this section may be exercised on the Chief Inspector's own

Act No. of

s. 18

Part 4 – Accreditation

initiative or on application by the accredited producer.

- (3) The imposition or variation of a condition, or the approval or variation of a food safety program, will not, except with the agreement of the accredited producer, take effect until 6 months after the giving of the notice under subsection (1).
- (4) An accredited producer must, at the request of the Chief Inspector and within the period stated by the Chief Inspector, return an accreditation to the Chief Inspector for the purposes of recording any action under this section.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

18. Application for variation of accreditation

- (1) An application by an accredited producer referred to in section 17(2) –
 - (a) must be made to the Chief Inspector; and
 - (b) must conform to the requirements of the Chief Inspector about its form, contents and the manner in which it is made; and
 - (c) must be accompanied by the fee prescribed in the regulations.
- (2) The Chief Inspector may, by written notice, require the applicant –

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 4 – Accreditation

s. 19

- (a) to give the Chief Inspector further information, documents or records relevant to the application; or
 - (b) to allow persons authorised by the Chief Inspector to inspect premises, vehicles, plant or equipment proposed to be used by the applicant in connection with activities authorised by the accreditation.
- (3) The Chief Inspector may refuse the application if the applicant does not comply with a requirement under subsection (2).
- (4) The applicant may, with the Chief Inspector's approval or at the Chief Inspector's request, amend the application before the Chief Inspector has finished considering it.

19. Transfer of accreditation

- (1) Subject to this section and any condition of the accreditation excluding or limiting the right of transfer under this section, the Chief Inspector may approve or refuse an application for the transfer of an accreditation under this section.
- (2) An application for the transfer of an accreditation –
- (a) must be made to the Chief Inspector by both parties to the transfer; and
 - (b) must conform to the requirements of the Chief Inspector about its form, contents and the manner in which it is made; and

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 19

Part 4 – Accreditation

- (c) must be accompanied by the fee prescribed in the regulations.
- (3) The Chief Inspector may approve the transfer of an accreditation only if satisfied –
- (a) that the proposed transferee is a suitable person to hold such an accreditation; or
 - (b) if the proposed transferee is a body corporate, that each director of the body corporate is a suitable person to be the director of a body corporate that holds such an accreditation; or
 - (c) that the proposed transferee has the capacity, or has made or proposes to make appropriate arrangements, to satisfy any requirements for accreditation set out in the food safety scheme applicable to the primary production activity the proposed transferee is to engage in.
- (4) For the purposes of determining the suitability of a person under subsection (3), the Chief Inspector may, without limitation, take into account –
- (a) any offence committed by the person against –
 - (i) this Act or an Act repealed by this Act; or
 - (ii) the Food Act 2003; or

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 4 – Accreditation

s. 20

- (iii) a prescribed Act; or
- (iv) a corresponding law; and
- (b) any offence of dishonesty committed by the person.

20. Suspension or revocation of accreditation

- (1) The Chief Inspector may by written notice suspend or revoke an accreditation if satisfied that –
 - (a) the accreditation was obtained improperly; or
 - (b) the accredited producer –
 - (i) has ceased to engage in the primary production activity authorised by the accreditation; or
 - (ii) has not paid fees or charges payable to the Chief Inspector or an approved food safety auditor within the required time; or
 - (iii) has committed an offence against this Act or the Food Act 2003; or
 - (iv) has been convicted of an indictable offence.
- (2) A suspension under this section may be for a specified period, or until the fulfilment of

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 20

Part 4 – Accreditation

specified conditions, or until further order of the Chief Inspector.

- (3) A suspension under this section may be expressed to take effect at a specified future time, or to take effect at a specified future time unless a specified condition is fulfilled.
- (4) Before the Chief Inspector suspends or revokes an accreditation under this section, the Chief Inspector must –
 - (a) give written notice to the accredited producer specifying the reasons for the proposed suspension or revocation; and
 - (b) allow the accredited producer at least 14 days within which to make submissions to the Chief Inspector in relation to the proposed suspension or revocation.
- (5) If the Chief Inspector suspends or revokes an accreditation under this section, the producer must return the accreditation to the Chief Inspector within 14 days of the date on which the suspension or revocation takes effect.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 10 penalty units.

- (6) If the Chief Inspector revokes an accreditation under this section, the person who held the accreditation is excluded from applying for a new accreditation under this Act for a period of 12 months from the date of revocation.

21. Surrender of accreditation

An accreditation may be surrendered to the Chief Inspector.

22. Review of decisions relating to accreditation

- (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Chief Inspector under this Part relating to any of the following may apply to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) for a review of the decision:
 - (a) an application for an accreditation;
 - (b) an application to transfer an accreditation;
 - (c) the conditions of an accreditation other than a temporary accreditation under section 13;
 - (d) the suspension or revocation of an accreditation other than a temporary accreditation under section 13;
 - (e) the approval of a food safety program;
 - (f) the variation of an approved food safety program.
- (2) An application under this section must be made within 28 days after service of the written notice of the relevant decision by the Chief Inspector.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 23

Part 5 – Offences

PART 5 – OFFENCES

Division 1 – Interpretation

23. Meaning of unsafe for human consumption in relation to primary produce

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, primary produce is “unsafe for human consumption” if the primary produce might cause physical harm to a person who consumes it, assuming –
 - (a) it was, after it was produced but before being consumed by the person, properly subjected to all processes (if any) that are relevant to its reasonable intended use; and
 - (b) it was consumed by the person according to its reasonable intended use.
- (2) However, for the purposes of this Act, primary produce is not unsafe for human consumption merely because its inherent nutritional chemical properties cause, or its inherent nature causes, adverse reactions only in persons with allergies or sensitivities that are not common to the majority of persons.
- (3) In this section –

“processes” includes processes involving storage and preparation.

24. Meaning of unsuitable for human consumption in relation to primary produce

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, primary produce is “unsuitable for human consumption” if the primary produce –
- (a) is damaged, deteriorated or perished to an extent that affects its reasonable intended use; or
 - (b) contains any damaged, deteriorated or perished substance that affects its reasonable intended use; or
 - (c) is the product of a diseased animal, or an animal that has died otherwise than by slaughter, and has not been declared by or under another Act to be safe for human consumption; or
 - (d) contains a biological or chemical agent, or other matter or substance, that is foreign to the nature of the primary produce; or
 - (e) contains or has been mixed with pet food.
- (2) However, primary produce is not unsuitable for human consumption merely because –
- (a) at any particular time before it is supplied for human consumption it contains an agricultural or veterinary chemical; or

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 25

Part 5 – Offences

- (b) when it is supplied for human consumption it contains an agricultural or veterinary chemical, so long as it does not contain the chemical in an amount that contravenes the Food Standards Code; or
 - (c) it contains a metal or non-metal contaminant (within the meaning of the Food Standards Code) in an amount that does not contravene the permitted level for the contaminant as specified in the Food Standards Code; or
 - (d) it contains any matter or substance that is permitted by the Food Standards Code.
- (3) In this section –
- “slaughter” of an animal includes the killing of an animal in the process of capturing, taking or harvesting it for the purposes of preparing it for use as food.

Division 2 – Serious offences

25. Intentional or reckless supply of unsafe primary produce

A person must not supply primary produce for human consumption that the person knows or reasonably suspects is unsafe for human consumption.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units;
or
 - (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.
- (2) An offence against this section is an offence of strict liability.

30. Official marks

- (1) For the purpose of this section, an official mark is a unique identifying brand, mark, label or stamp that is placed on primary produce –
- (a) as a unique identifier required by the Chief Inspector as a condition of accreditation; or
 - (b) to comply with a food safety scheme; or
 - (c) otherwise to comply with this Act.
- (2) A person must not, without the approval of the Chief Inspector –
- (a) manufacture, have in his or her possession, apply, alter or interfere with an official mark; or
 - (b) manufacture, have in his or her possession or apply a mark resembling,

or apparently intended to resemble, an official mark; or

- (c) manufacture or have in his or her possession an official marking device.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units; or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units.
- (3) An offence against this section is an offence of strict liability.

31. Compliance with Food Standards Code

A person must comply with any requirement imposed on the person by a provision of the Food Standards Code in relation to the conduct of any primary production activity.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units; or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

Division 4 – General defences

32. Defence of due diligence

- (1) In any proceedings for an offence under this Act it is a defence if it is proved that the person took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence by the person or by another person under the person's control.
- (2) Without limiting the ways in which a person may satisfy the requirements of subsection (1), a person satisfies those requirements if it is proved –
 - (a) that the commission of the offence was due to –
 - (i) an act or default of another person; or
 - (ii) reliance on information supplied by another person; and
 - (b) that –
 - (i) the person carried out all such checks of the primary produce concerned as were reasonable in all the circumstances; or
 - (ii) it was reasonable in the circumstances to rely on checks carried out by another person.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 33

Part 5 – Offences

- (3) Without limiting the ways in which a person may satisfy the requirements of this section, a person may satisfy those requirements by proving that in the case of an offence relating to a primary production activity for which a food safety program has been prepared in accordance with a food safety scheme, the person complied with the food safety program.
- (4) In this section –
- “another person” does not include a person who was –
- (a) an employee or agent of the defendant; or
 - (b) in the case of a defendant that is a body corporate, a director, employee or agent of the defendant.

33. Defence of mistaken but reasonable belief not available

In any proceedings for an offence under Division 3, it is no defence that the person had a mistaken but reasonable belief as to the facts that constituted the offence.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 5 – Offences

s. 34

34. Alternative verdicts for serious primary produce offences

If, on the trial of a person charged with an offence under Division 2, the trier of fact is not satisfied that the person committed the offence but is satisfied that the person committed an offence under Division 3, the trier of fact may find the person not guilty of the offence charged but guilty of an offence under Division 3, and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.

Part 6 – Authorised Officers

PART 6 – AUTHORISED OFFICERS

35. Appointment of authorised officers

- (1) The Secretary may appoint any of the following persons to be an authorised officer:
 - (a) a State Service officer or State Service employee;
 - (b) an employee of a council;
 - (c) an employee of the Commonwealth or another State or a Territory;
 - (d) an employee of a body corporate that has been designated any of the powers and functions of the Chief Inspector under a food safety scheme;
 - (e) an employee of an entity –
 - (i) established under a law of the Commonwealth or another State or a Territory with functions relating to food safety; and
 - (ii) prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) A State Service officer or State Service employee, a person employed by the Commonwealth, a council or any other entity referred to in subsection (1) may hold the office of authorised officer in conjunction with his or her employment in the State Service, the

- that environment poses a risk to the safety of the primary produce for human or pet consumption;
- (h) take samples of anything, other than for the purpose of analysis, that the authorised officer reasonably believes may be used as evidence that an offence has been, or is being, committed under this Act;
 - (i) seize and retain any primary produce, or issue a seizure order in respect of any primary produce –
 - (i) if the authorised officer reasonably suspects that the produce may be unsafe for human consumption or unsuitable for human consumption; or
 - (ii) in order to prevent the produce being processed before it can be determined to be safe for human consumption and suitable for human consumption;
 - (j) seize and retain, or issue a seizure order in respect of, any thing that the authorised officer reasonably believes has been used in, or may be used as evidence of, a contravention of this Act;
 - (k) examine any records or documents referred to in paragraph (b), make copies of those records or documents or any part of them and, for that purpose, take away

Act No. of

s. 36

Part 6 – Authorised Officers

- and retain (for such time as may be reasonably necessary) any such records or documents or any part of them;
- (l) stop and detain any vehicle that the authorised officer is authorised by this subsection to enter;
 - (m) open, or require to be opened, any container used for the conveyance of goods, or any package, that the authorised officer reasonably believes may contain any primary produce supplied or intended for supply;
 - (n) take such photographs, films or audio or visual recordings as the authorised officer considers necessary;
 - (o) take any measurements and make sketches or drawings or any other type of record;
 - (p) require a person to provide any information or answer any question that the authorised officer considers relevant to the administration and enforcement of this Act, or to produce any record, document or thing that an authorised officer is authorised to examine under this Act;
 - (q) require a person to state the person's name and residential address;
 - (r) generally make such investigations and inquiries as may be necessary to

s. 36

- ascertain whether an offence under this Act is being or has been committed;
- (s) mark or brand, or direct the marking or branding of, primary produce as fit for human consumption or as unfit for human consumption, or as fit for consumption by pets or as unfit for consumption by pets, as the case may be;
 - (t) exercise any other power prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) This section does not authorise entry into any part of premises that is being used solely for residential purposes, except –
- (a) with the consent of the occupier of the premises; or
 - (b) under the authority of a search warrant.
- (3) A person is not excused from a requirement under this section to provide information or answer questions, or to produce any record, document or thing, on the ground that the information, answer, record, document or thing might incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.
- (4) However any information or answer given, or any record, document or thing produced by an individual in compliance with a requirement or direction under this section is not admissible in evidence against that individual in criminal proceedings other than proceedings for an offence under section 39, 40, 42 or 43.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 37

Part 6 – Authorised Officers

- (5) A person who is a food safety auditor and an authorised officer and who is performing the duties of a food safety auditor in relation to any premises or vehicle may also exercise the powers and functions of an authorised officer but only if the person has first produced his or her identity card issued under section 38 –
- (a) to the proprietor of the primary produce business that uses those premises or vehicle or to a person who is apparently in charge of those premises or that vehicle; and
 - (b) to any person whom the authorised officer requires to produce anything or to answer any question.

37. Search warrants

- (1) An authorised officer may apply to a justice for a search warrant if the authorised officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a provision of this Act has been, is being or is about to be contravened on a residential premises.
- (2) A justice to whom an application is made under this section may, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so, issue a search warrant.
- (3) An authorised officer may execute a search warrant using such assistance as the authorised officer considers appropriate.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 6 – Authorised Officers

s. 38

- (4) A warrant issued under this section may be made subject to any conditions that the justice considers appropriate.
- (5) A warrant issued under this section authorises the authorised officer named in the warrant to enter and search the premises specified in the warrant and exercise such of the powers specified in section 36 as are not expressly excluded by the justice who issued the warrant.
- (6) Schedule 1 has effect with respect to a warrant issued under this section.
- (7) This section does not limit the operation of section 36.

38. Identification of authorised officers

- (1) The Secretary must issue a person appointed as an authorised officer under this Act with an identity card –
 - (a) containing the person’s name and a photograph of the person; and
 - (b) stating that the person is an authorised person under this Act.
- (2) If the powers of an authorised officer have been limited by conditions, the identity card issued to the authorised officer must contain a statement of those conditions.
- (3) An authorised officer must, at the request of a person in relation to whom the authorised officer

Part 7 – Seizure by Authorised Officers

45. Seizure of primary produce suspected of being unsafe or unsuitable

- (1) If any primary produce has been seized or made the subject of a seizure order under section 36(1)(i) and an authorised officer is satisfied that the produce is not unsafe for human consumption or not unsuitable for human consumption, the authorised officer must cause the primary produce to be released immediately, or if it is the subject of a seizure order, the authorised officer must revoke the seizure order.
- (2) However, if primary produce has been seized or made the subject of a seizure order under section 36(1)(i) and an authorised officer is satisfied that the produce is unsafe for human consumption or unsuitable for human consumption, the authorised officer may –
 - (a) direct that the produce be processed or otherwise dealt with in a specified manner to ensure that it is not unsafe for human consumption or unsuitable for human consumption; or
 - (b) direct that the produce only be used for specified limited purposes; or
 - (c) condemn the produce and dispose of it as the authorised officer thinks fit, or direct its disposal in a specified manner.
- (3) Before exercising a power under subsection (2)(c), the authorised officer must –

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 7 – Seizure by Authorised Officers

s. 46

- (a) give written notice of the proposed action and the reasons for the proposed action to the owner of the produce; and
- (b) allow the owner of the produce a reasonable opportunity to comment on the proposed action.

46. Compensation for seizure, &c., of primary produce

- (1) The owner of primary produce that has been seized or made the subject of a seizure order under section 36(1)(i) may apply to the Chief Inspector for the payment of compensation if the owner considers that there were no reasonable grounds for the seizure or making of the seizure order.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) must be in writing and made within 14 days of the seizure of the relevant primary produce or issuing of the seizure order.
- (3) After considering an application for compensation under subsection (1), the Chief Inspector may decide that –
 - (a) such compensation as the Chief Inspector considers just and reasonable be paid to the applicant; or
 - (b) no compensation be paid to the applicant.
- (4) The Chief Inspector must determine an application under subsection (1) within 28 days of receiving the application and must, within that

Act No. of

s. 47

Part 7 – Seizure by Authorised Officers

time, serve written notice of the decision on the applicant.

- (5) If the Chief Inspector fails to determine an application under subsection (1) within 28 days of receiving the application, the Chief Inspector is taken to have –
 - (a) decided to refuse to pay any compensation; and
 - (b) served the applicant with a written notice of that decision on the day on which the 28 day period expired.
- (6) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Chief Inspector relating to an application under subsection (1) may, within 28 days after being served with a written notice of the decision apply to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) for a review of the decision.

47. Seizure of thing that may be used as evidence

- (1) If any thing has been seized or made the subject of a seizure order under section 36(1)(j), the authorised officer must cause the thing to be held pending proceedings for an offence in respect to which it may be used as evidence unless the Chief Inspector authorises the release of the thing to the person from whom it was seized, or to any person who had legal title to it at the time of its seizure, subject to such conditions as the Chief Inspector thinks fit.

Act No. of

Part 7 – Seizure by Authorised Officers

- (2) If proceedings for an offence against this Act relating to the thing are instituted within the prescribed period after its seizure, or the issuing of the seizure order, and the defendant is convicted or found guilty of the offence, the court may order that the thing be forfeited to the Crown.
- (3) However, if –
- (a) proceedings are not instituted for an offence against this Act relating to the thing within the prescribed period after its seizure, or the issuing of the seizure order; or
 - (b) proceedings have been so instituted and the defendant is found not guilty of the offence; or
 - (c) proceedings have been so instituted and the defendant is convicted or found guilty of the offence but no order for forfeiture is made under subsection (2) –
- the person from whom the thing was seized, or any person having legal title to it, is entitled to recover from the Crown (if necessary, by action in a court of competent jurisdiction) the thing itself, or if it has been damaged or destroyed, compensation of an amount equal to its market value at the time of its seizure.
- (4) Where the circumstances referred to in subsection (3) apply to a thing that is the subject of a seizure order, the order is revoked, and the revocation takes effect from the time of expiry of the prescribed period or from the time of determination of the proceedings, whichever is relevant in the circumstances.

- (5) For the purposes of this section, the “prescribed period” means 12 months, or such longer period as the court may, on application by the Chief Inspector, allow.

PART 8 – COMPLIANCE NOTICES AND PROHIBITION ORDERS

48. Meaning of legislative requirement in this Part

For the purposes of this Part –

“legislative requirement” means –

- (a) any requirement or condition of an accreditation; or
- (b) any requirement or provision of a food safety program; or
- (c) any requirement or provision of a food safety scheme; or
- (d) any requirement or provision of the Food Standards Code; or
- (e) any requirement of a compliance notice issued under this Part; or
- (f) any other requirement or provision of this Act.

49. Compliance notice

- (1) If an authorised officer suspects on reasonable grounds that, in the course of carrying on a primary production activity to which a food safety scheme applies, a person has contravened or is contravening a legislative requirement, the

s. 49

Part 8 – Compliance Notices and Prohibition Orders

authorised officer may issue and serve a compliance notice on the person.

- (2) A compliance notice issued under this section may –
 - (a) require specified action to be taken within 7 days from the service of the notice (or a lesser period specified in the notice) to rectify the contravention; or
 - (b) require specified action to be taken within 7 days from the service of the notice (or a lesser period specified in the notice) to ensure compliance with the legislative requirement.
- (3) A compliance notice issued under this section must –
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) specify the grounds on which it is issued; and
 - (c) specify the requirements of the notice, including the action which must be taken to comply with the notice.
- (4) A fee fixed by the Secretary is payable by a person served with a compliance notice under this section for each inspection carried out by an authorised officer that is necessary to determine whether the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (5) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, contravene or fail to comply with a compliance notice served on the person under this section.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units;
or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

50. Prohibition order

- (1) If the Chief Inspector suspects on reasonable grounds that, in the course of carrying on a primary production activity to which a food safety scheme applies, a person has contravened or is contravening a legislative requirement, the Chief Inspector may issue and serve a prohibition order on the person.
- (2) A prohibition order issued under this section may prohibit the use of specified premises, part of premises, vehicles, plant or equipment for or in connection with the primary production activity until –
 - (a) specified action is taken within a specified time to rectify the contravention; or
 - (b) specified action is taken within a specified time to ensure compliance with the legislative requirement.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 50

Part 8 – Compliance Notices and Prohibition Orders

- (3) A prohibition order issued under this section must –
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) specify the grounds upon which it is issued; and
 - (c) specify the requirements of the order, including the action which must be taken to comply with the order.
- (4) A prohibition order issued under this section takes effect from the time that it is served and remains in force until it is revoked.
- (5) The Chief Inspector may vary or revoke a prohibition order issued under this section at any time by serving a written notice of the variation or revocation on the person originally served with the order.
- (6) A person served with a prohibition order may, at any time, apply in writing to the Chief Inspector for the revocation of the order on the grounds that the requirements of the order have been fully complied with.
- (7) If the Chief Inspector has received an application under subsection (6), the Chief Inspector must, within 14 days of receiving the application, cause an authorised officer to carry out any inspections and investigations that are reasonably necessary to determine whether the requirements of the prohibition order have been fully complied with.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (8) An authorised officer is to report the findings of any inspection or investigation the authorised officer has carried out under subsection (7) to the Chief Inspector as soon as is reasonably practicable after the inspection or investigation is completed.
- (9) The Chief Inspector must revoke a prohibition order if satisfied on reasonable grounds that the requirements of the order have been fully complied with.
- (10) However, if –
- (a) a person applies to the Chief Inspector for the revocation of a prohibition order in accordance with subsection (6); and
 - (b) through no fault of the person who applied for the revocation, an authorised officer fails to carry out any inspection or investigation within 14 days in accordance with subsection (7) –
- the prohibition order is revoked and the revocation takes effect at the expiry of the 14-day period in which the relevant inspection or investigation should have taken place.
- (11) A fee fixed by the Secretary is payable by a person served with a prohibition order under this section for each inspection carried out by an authorised officer that is reasonably necessary to determine whether the requirements of the order have been complied with.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 51

Part 8 – Compliance Notices and Prohibition Orders

- (12) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, contravene or fail to comply with a prohibition order served on the person under this section.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units;
or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

51. Compensation

- (1) A person bound by a prohibition order issued under section 50 who suffers loss as a result of the issuing or variation of the order or the refusal by the Chief Inspector to revoke the order, may apply to the Chief Inspector for compensation if the person considers that there were no reasonable grounds for the issuing or variation of the order, or alternatively, for refusing to revoke the order.
- (2) If, after considering an application under subsection (1), the Chief Inspector determines that there were no reasonable grounds for the issuing or variation of the prohibition order or for the refusal to revoke the prohibition order, the Chief Inspector is to pay such compensation to the applicant as is just and reasonable.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (3) The Chief Inspector is to serve written notice on the applicant of his or her determination as to the payment of compensation under this section.
- (4) If the Chief Inspector has not determined an application for compensation under this section within 28 days of receiving the application, the Chief Inspector is taken to have –
 - (a) decided to have refused to pay any compensation; and
 - (b) served the applicant with a written notice of that decision on the day on which the 28 day period expired.

52. Review of decisions relating to prohibition orders

- (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Chief Inspector under this Part relating to any of the following may apply to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) for a review of the decision:
 - (a) the issuing of a prohibition order;
 - (b) the variation of a prohibition order;
 - (c) the requirements of a prohibition order;
 - (d) an application for the revocation of a prohibition order;
 - (e) an application for compensation under section 51.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 52

Part 8 – Compliance Notices and Prohibition Orders

- (2) An application under this section must be made within 28 days after service of the written notice of the relevant decision by the Chief Inspector.

PART 9 – OTHER REMEDIES

53. Infringement notices

- (1) An authorised officer may serve an infringement notice on a person, other than a person under the age of 16 years, if of the opinion that the person has committed an offence prescribed in the regulations.
- (2) An infringement notice is not to relate to 4 or more offences.
- (3) An infringement notice is to be in accordance with section 14 of the Monetary Penalties Enforcement Act 2005.

PART 10 – FOOD SAFETY PROGRAMS

54. Food safety programs

- (1) This section applies to a person who is required to prepare and implement a food safety program under a food safety scheme.
- (2) The food safety program must –
 - (a) identify all significant food safety hazards associated with the primary production activities carried out by the person; and
 - (b) state how the hazards are to be monitored and controlled; and
 - (c) state how hygienic and safe conditions for the relevant primary production activities are to be monitored and maintained; and
 - (d) state how often the program is to be reviewed; and
 - (e) contain a product recall procedure; and
 - (f) comply, and allow compliance with, any prescribed standard, code, guideline or testing regime that is applicable to any primary production activity carried out by the person; and
 - (g) contain any other information required under the relevant food safety scheme.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 10 – Food Safety Programs

s. 55

- (3) The person must ensure that all requirements imposed by a food safety scheme in relation to the preparation, implementation, maintenance and monitoring of a food safety program for a primary production activity are complied with.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units;
or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

55. Auditing of food safety programs

A person to whom section 54 applies must ensure that the food safety program is audited at the frequency determined by the Chief Inspector.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units;
or
- (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

56. Frequency of audits for food safety purposes

- (1) The Chief Inspector may, by written notice given to the person who is subject to an audit under this Part, determine the frequency of audits

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 56

Part 10 – Food Safety Programs

required under section 55 taking into account the following:

- (a) the minimum, maximum and average number of audits required for similar primary produce businesses;
 - (b) any national guidelines;
 - (c) the length of time that person has been undertaking the primary production activities that are the subject of the food safety program;
 - (d) the technical expertise of that person including the expertise of that person's employees or agents;
 - (e) the past audit history of that person, that person's employees or agents, and the primary produce business that person is operating;
 - (f) any recommendations from food safety auditors as to the frequency of audits;
 - (g) the past history of that person, that person's employees or agents, and the primary produce business that person is operating in relation to compliance with this Act, the Food Act 2003 and any corresponding law.
- (2) The Chief Inspector may require that all or some of the audits be unannounced and require that a food safety auditor selected by the Chief

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 10 – Food Safety Programs

s. 57

Inspector should be used for some or all of the audits.

- (3) The Chief Inspector may, by written notice, at any time vary any determination made under subsection (1).
- (4) Any determination, or variation of a determination, by the Chief Inspector under this section must comply with the auditing requirements (if any) specified in the food safety scheme under which the food safety program is required.

57. Check audits

- (1) The Chief Inspector may, by written notice given to the person who is subject to an audit under this Part, direct that a check audit be undertaken in order to assess the performance of a food safety auditor.
- (2) An audit referred to in subsection (1) may be directed to be made in relation to all or part of the food safety program and may be conducted at the same time as scheduled audits required by the Chief Inspector under section 56 or at a different time.
- (3) An audit referred to in subsection (1) must not be undertaken by the same food safety auditor who undertook the audit required under section 56 in the previous 12 months.

PART 11 – AUDITORS

58. Approval of food safety auditor

- (1) The Chief Inspector may approve an individual to be a food safety auditor for the purposes of this Act if satisfied that the individual is competent to carry out the functions of a food safety auditor having regard to –
 - (a) the individual's technical skills and experience; and
 - (b) any guidelines approved by the Chief Inspector relating to competency criteria.
- (2) An individual may be approved under subsection (1) if the Chief Inspector considers the individual to be a fit and proper person to be approved.
- (3) An individual may not be approved under subsection (1) if his or her name has been removed from a register of food safety auditors in another State or a Territory for reasons related to character or performance.
- (4) An individual may make an application, in a form approved by the Chief Inspector, to the Chief Inspector for approval under this Part.
- (5) An authorised officer, a State Service officer or State Service employee, a person employed by the Commonwealth or a person employed by a council may be approved under subsection (1) and may hold that approval in conjunction with

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 11 – Auditors

s. 59

holding the office of an authorised officer under this Act or with his or her employment in the State Service, the Commonwealth or a council, as the case may be.

- (6) An application for approval under this Part is to be accompanied by –
 - (a) such information as the Chief Inspector requires to determine the application; and
 - (b) the fee, if any, prescribed in the regulations.
- (7) The Chief Inspector may, after considering an application for approval under this Part –
 - (a) grant the approval with or without conditions; or
 - (b) refuse the application.
- (8) If the Chief Inspector grants an application for approval, the Chief Inspector must issue the applicant with a written approval that sets out any conditions to which the approval is subject.
- (9) If the Chief Inspector refuses an application for approval, the Chief Inspector must give notice of the refusal in writing to the applicant setting out the reasons for the refusal.

59. Term of approval

Except during any period of suspension, an approval granted under this Part remains in force

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 60

Part 11 – Auditors

for the period specified in the approval unless sooner cancelled.

60. Declaration of interest

- (1) A food safety auditor must notify the Chief Inspector of any direct or indirect interest in any person or primary produce business that may be subject to an audit under this Act.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

- (2) Payment to a food safety auditor for carrying out the functions of a food safety auditor does not constitute a direct or indirect interest in a person or primary produce business for the purposes of this section.

61. Variation of conditions, or suspension or cancellation, of approval of food safety auditor

- (1) The Chief Inspector may vary the conditions of, or suspend or cancel, the approval of a person as a food safety auditor.
- (2) An approval of a person as a food safety auditor may be suspended or cancelled on one or more of the following grounds:
 - (a) the Chief Inspector is satisfied that the person has wilfully or negligently contravened a provision of this Act, the Food Act 2003 or a corresponding law;

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 11 – Auditors

s. 61

- (b) the Chief Inspector can no longer be satisfied the person is a fit and proper person;
 - (c) the Chief Inspector is satisfied that the person has contravened a condition to which the approval is subject;
 - (d) the Chief Inspector is satisfied that the person has not competently carried out a duty of a food safety auditor under this Act;
 - (e) if the Chief Inspector is satisfied that the person has a direct or indirect interest in any person or primary produce business that, in the opinion of the Director, could affect the performance of the person's duties as a food safety auditor under this Act;
 - (f) the person's name has been removed from the register of food safety auditors of another State or a Territory for reasons related to character or performance;
 - (g) at the request of the person;
 - (h) for any other reason that the Chief Inspector considers appropriate.
- (3) The Chief Inspector may only vary the conditions of, or suspend or cancel, the approval of a person as a food safety auditor –
- (a) after having given the person –

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 62

Part 11 – Auditors

- (i) written reasons for the Chief Inspector's intention to vary, suspend or cancel the approval; and
 - (ii) 14 days to make submissions; and
- (b) after having considered any submissions made by the person.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to the cancellation of a person's approval as a food safety auditor made at the request of that person.
- (5) A variation of the conditions of, or the suspension or cancellation of, the approval of a person as a food safety auditor –
 - (a) must be by notice in writing; and
 - (b) must be served on the person to whom the approval relates; and
 - (c) takes effect on the day on which the notice is served or on a later day specified in the notice.

62. Review of decisions relating to approval

- (1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the Chief Inspector relating to any of the following may apply to the Magistrates Court (Administrative Appeals Division) for a review of the decision:

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 11 – Auditors

s. 63

- (a) the grant or refusal of an application for an approval as a food safety auditor under this Part;
 - (b) the imposition of conditions on an approval as a food safety auditor under this Part;
 - (c) the variation of conditions of an approval as a food safety auditor under this Part;
 - (d) the suspension or cancellation of an approval as a food safety auditor under this Part.
- (2) An application under this section may only be made within 28 days after service of –
- (a) the written notice of approval or refusal of the application for approval as a food safety auditor under this Part; or
 - (b) the written notice of variation of conditions of an approval as a food safety auditor under this Part; or
 - (c) the written notice of suspension or cancellation of an approval as a food safety auditor under this Part.

63. Duties of food safety auditors

A food safety auditor has the following duties:

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 64

Part 11 – Auditors

- (a) to carry out audits of any food safety programs required pursuant to a food safety scheme;
- (b) to carry out any necessary follow-up action, including further audits, if necessary, to check if action has been taken to remedy any deficiencies of any food safety program identified in the audit;
- (c) to carry out assessments of producers to ascertain their compliance with the requirements of a food safety scheme;
- (d) to report in accordance with section 64.

64. Reporting requirements

- (1) A food safety auditor must report in writing to the Chief Inspector the results of any audit or assessment carried out by the food safety auditor for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A report must –
 - (a) be in a form approved by the Chief Inspector; and
 - (b) be submitted to the Chief Inspector within 21 days after the completion of the audit or assessment; and
 - (c) take into account any action taken before the submission of the report to remedy

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

Part 11 – Auditors

s. 64

any deficiency identified by the food safety auditor.

- (3) A food safety auditor must indicate in a report of an audit or assessment –
- (a) whether or not the food safety auditor is of the opinion that any relevant primary production activity is being performed in accordance with the requirements of the food safety scheme relating to the food safety program; and
 - (b) any other requirements of this Act, a food safety scheme or the Food Standards Code that the food safety auditor is of the opinion are being contravened and the manner in which they are being contravened.
- (4) A food safety auditor must report any contravention of this Act, a food safety scheme or the Food Standards Code that comes to the food safety auditor's attention in the course of carrying out an audit or assessment for the purposes of this Act –
- (a) that constitutes an imminent and serious risk to the safety of primary produce intended for supply; or
 - (b) that will cause primary produce intended for supply to be unsuitable for that purpose –

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 65

Part 11 – Auditors

as soon as possible but in any event within 24 hours after the contravention comes to the food safety auditor's attention.

- (5) A food safety auditor must report in writing to the Chief Inspector, giving reasons, if the food safety auditor considers that the frequency of audits of a producer that has been audited by the food safety auditor should be changed.
- (6) A food safety auditor must give a copy of a report provided to the Chief Inspector in relation to an audit or assessment to the producer who is the subject of the audit.

65. Certificates of approval of food safety auditors

- (1) The Chief Inspector is to provide each food safety auditor with a certificate of approval as a food safety auditor.
- (2) The certificate of approval must –
 - (a) state that it is issued under this Act; and
 - (b) give the name of the person to whom it is issued and bear a photograph of that person and the person's signature; and
 - (c) state the date, if any, on which it expires; and
 - (d) specify any conditions to which the person's approval as a food safety auditor is subject; and

- (e) bear the signature of the person by whom it is issued and state the capacity in which the person is acting in issuing the certificate.

66. Identification of food safety auditor

- (1) The Chief Inspector is to issue a food safety auditor approved under this Part with an identity card –
 - (a) containing the person’s name and a photograph of the person; and
 - (b) stating that the person is a food safety auditor under this Act; and
 - (c) stating any conditions or limitations in relation to primary production activities that the food safety auditor can audit.
- (2) A food safety auditor must, at the request of a person in relation to whom the food safety auditor intends to perform any functions or duties under this Act, produce for the inspection of the person his or her identity card.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

67. Register of food safety auditors to be maintained

- (1) The Chief Inspector is to prepare and maintain a register of food safety auditors.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 68

Part 11 – Auditors

- (2) The register is to be made publicly available and is to be revised at least annually.

68. Obstructing or impersonating food safety auditors

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, resist, obstruct or attempt to obstruct a food safety auditor in the performance of the food safety auditor's functions or duties under this Act.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 2 500 penalty units;
or
 - (b) an individual, a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.
- (2) A person must not impersonate a food safety auditor.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

69. Threatening or abusing food safety auditors

A person must not threaten, intimidate, abuse or assault a food safety auditor in the performance of the food safety auditor's functions or duties under this Act.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 500 penalty units.

PART 12 – EVIDENTIARY AND PROCEDURAL PROVISIONS

70. Nature of proceedings for offences

Unless the contrary intention appears, proceedings for an offence under this Act are to be dealt with summarily.

71. Institution of proceedings

- (1) Proceedings for an offence under this Act –
 - (a) may be instituted only by –
 - (i) the Minister or a person authorised by the Minister; or
 - (ii) an authorised officer; or
 - (iii) the Chief Inspector; and
 - (b) may be instituted within 3 years after the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.
- (2) A person may apply to a magistrate within the time limit referred to in subsection (1) to extend that time limit.

72. Offences by employers

- (1) If an employee or agent contravenes any provision of this Act, the employer or the

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 73

Part 12 – Evidentiary and Procedural Provisions

principal of the agent is taken to have contravened the same provision.

- (2) It is a defence in proceedings against an employer or principal for such a contravention if it is proved that the employer or principal could not, despite taking all reasonable precautions and exercising all due diligence, prevent the contravention.
- (3) An employer or principal may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision pursuant to this section whether or not the employee or agent has been proceeded against or been convicted under that provision.

73. Offences by bodies corporate

- (1) If a body corporate contravenes, whether by act or omission, any provision of this Act, each person who is a member of the governing body of the body corporate or who is concerned in the management of the body corporate is taken to have contravened the same provision if the person knowingly or negligently authorised or permitted the contravention.
- (2) A person may be proceeded against and convicted under a provision pursuant to this section whether or not the body corporate has been proceeded against or been convicted under that provision.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

- (3) Nothing in this section affects any liability imposed on a body corporate for an offence committed by the body corporate under this Act.

74. Liability of employees and agents

- (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), it is no defence in proceedings for an offence under this Act that the defendant was, at the time of the commission of the offence, an employee or agent of another person.
- (2) In any proceedings for an offence under this Act, it is a defence for the defendant to prove that the defendant was under the supervision of the proprietor of the primary produce business, or the owner or person in charge of the premises, place, or vehicle, in relation to which the offence was committed or of another person representing that proprietor, owner or person in charge.
- (3) Except by leave of the court, a defence under subsection (2) is only available if the person intending to rely on that defence gives notice in writing to the court and the complainant –
- (a) stating that intention; and
 - (b) stating the name and address of the proprietor, owner or person in charge.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

s. 75

Part 12 – Evidentiary and Procedural Provisions

75. Continuing offence

- (1) A person who commits an offence under this Act that is a continuing offence is liable, in addition to any other penalty, to a further penalty not exceeding one-fifth of the maximum penalty prescribed for that offence for each day during which the offence continues.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, an obligation to do anything continues until it is done, notwithstanding that any period within which, or time before which, the thing is required to be done has ended or passed.

76. Presumptions

In any proceedings for an offence under this Act, it is presumed, until on the balance of probabilities the contrary is proved, that –

- (a) a person supplies primary produce if he or she supplies anything of which primary produce is a constituent; and
- (b) any primary produce that was supplied and that was capable of being used as food, either immediately at the time of supply or at a later time, with or without any further transformation or processing of the produce, was primary produce supplied for human consumption; and
- (c) any primary produce capable of being used as food is not for human

 - (b) call evidence in rebuttal.
- (6) In determining proceedings for the offence, a court –
 - (a) may convict the other person summonsed to appear if the defendant proves that the offence was due to that person’s act or omission; and
 - (b) is to dismiss the charge against the defendant if the defendant proves that he or she exercised due diligence to ensure compliance with the provision that gave rise to the offence; and
 - (c) may make any order it considers appropriate for the payment of costs by any party to any other party.
- (7) If an authorised officer is reasonably satisfied that an offence has been committed by a person and that the offence was due to an act or omission of another person –
 - (a) the authorised officer may cause proceedings to be brought against that other person without first causing proceedings to be brought against the person committing the offence; and
 - (b) the other person may be charged with, and convicted of, that offence.

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

79. Disclosure by witnesses

- (1) In any proceedings for an offence under this Act, a witness for the prosecution is not compelled to disclose the fact that the witness received information, the nature of the information received or the name of the person from whom the information was received.
- (2) An authorised officer appearing as a witness in any proceedings is not compelled to produce any document containing any confidential matter made or received in his or her capacity as an authorised officer.
- (3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), a court hearing proceedings for an offence under this Act may order the disclosure of any matter, or the production of a document, referred to in those subsections if the court considers that it is necessary in the interests of justice.

80. Court may order costs and expenses

Without affecting any other power of a court to award costs, a court that hears proceedings for an offence under this Act has power to make such order as it thinks fit in respect of the costs and expenses of and incidental to the examination, seizure, detention, storage, analysis, or destruction or other disposal of anything the subject of those proceedings.

SCHEDULE 1 – PROVISIONS WITH RESPECT TO SEARCH WARRANTS

Section 37(6)

1. Application for search warrants

- (1) An application for a search warrant is to be made in writing.
- (2) A justice is not to issue a search warrant unless –
 - (a) the application for the search warrant sets out the grounds for seeking the search warrant; and
 - (b) the applicant for the search warrant has given the justice, either orally or in writing, any further information the justice requires concerning the grounds for seeking the search warrant; and
 - (c) the information given by the applicant is verified before the justice on oath or by affidavit.

2. Record of proceedings before justice

A justice who issues a search warrant is to cause a record to be made of all relevant particulars of the grounds the justice has relied on to justify the issue of the search warrant.

3. Duty to show search warrants

An authorised officer executing a search warrant is to produce the search warrant for inspection by an occupier of the premises if requested to do so by that occupier.

4. Expiry of search warrants

A search warrant ceases to have effect –

- (a) on the date specified in the search warrant as the date on which it ceases to have effect; or
- (b) if it is withdrawn before that date by the justice who issued the search warrant; or
- (c) after it has been executed; or
- (d) if the person to whom it is issued ceases to be an authorised officer –

whichever first occurs.

5. Reports to justice on execution of search warrants, &c.

- (1) The authorised officer to whom a search warrant is issued is to furnish a report in writing to the justice who issued the search warrant –
 - (a) stating whether or not the search warrant has been executed; and

Primary Produce Safety Act 2011
Act No. of

sch. 1

- (b) if the search warrant has been executed, setting out briefly the result of the execution of the search warrant, including a brief description of anything seized; and
 - (c) if the search warrant has not been executed, setting out briefly the reasons why the search warrant has not been executed.
- (2) A report with respect to a search warrant is to be made within the period of 10 days immediately after the execution of the search warrant or the expiry of the search warrant, whichever first occurs.

6. Death, absence, &c., of justice who issued search warrant

If the justice who issued a search warrant has died, has ceased to be a justice or is absent, a report required to be furnished to that justice is to be furnished to another justice.

7. Defects in search warrants

A search warrant is not invalidated by any defect, other than a defect that affects the substance of the search warrant in a material particular.
