(b) an individual or a small business entity, a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units.

16. Sections 20 and 21 substituted

Sections 20 and 21 of the Principal Act are repealed and the following sections are substituted:

20. Defence of carrying out emergency work

It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence under this Act if, in relation to the section of the Act the defendant is alleged to have contravened, it is proved that the act or omission constituting the alleged offence was due to the act of carrying out –

(a) emergency work in accordance with section 55 of the Electricity Supply Industry Act 1995; or

(b) any other work that is a necessary and proportionate response to an actual or impending emergency that threatens human life or property or threatens to injure any person.

21. Defence of compliance with guidelines

(1) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence under section 9 or 14 if, in relation to the section of the Act which the defendant is alleged to have contravened, it is proved –

(a) that, in so far as is practicable –

(i) the defendant complied with the guidelines; or

(ii) it was reasonable in the circumstances for the defendant to rely on another person’s compliance with the guidelines; or

(b) that the act or omission constituting the alleged offence was due to an act or default of another person; or

(c) that, in so far as it was reasonable to do so in the circumstances, the defendant relied on information supplied by another person.

(2) In this section –

another person does not include a person who was –

(a) an employee or agent of the defendant; or

(b) in the case of a defendant that is a body corporate – a director, employee or agent of the defendant.

21A. Guidelines

(1) The Minister must issue guidelines specifying the actions to be undertaken by a person for the purpose of establishing a defence in accordance with section 21.

(2) The Minister may –

(a) amend the guidelines; or

(b) revoke the guidelines and substitute new guidelines.

(3) The guidelines –
(a) may be made so as to apply differently according to such factors as are specified in the guidelines; and

(b) may adopt, either wholly or in part and with or without modification, either specifically or by reference, any standards, rules, codes, guidelines or other documents (whether published or issued before or after the commencement of this section); and

(c) are not statutory rules for the purposes of the Rules Publication Act 1953; and

(d) are not subordinate legislation for the purposes of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1992.

(4) A reference in subsection (3)(b) to standards, rules, codes, guidelines or other documents includes a reference to an amendment of those standards, rules, codes, guidelines or other documents, whether the amendment is published or issued before or after the commencement of this section.

(5) In issuing guidelines, amending guidelines or revoking and substituting guidelines, the Minister may consult with any person he or she considers appropriate.

(6) The guidelines take effect on a day specified in the guidelines as the day on which the guidelines are to take effect.

(7) An amendment of guidelines, or a revocation and substitution of guidelines, takes effect on a day specified in the guidelines as the day on which the amendment, or the revocation and substitution, is to take effect.

(8) The Minister must cause guidelines, an amendment of guidelines or substituted guidelines to be laid before each House of Parliament within the first 5 sitting-days of that House after the day on which the guidelines, the amendment of guidelines or the substituted guidelines take effect.

(9) Either House of Parliament may pass a resolution disallowing guidelines, an amendment of guidelines or substituted guidelines within 5 sitting-days after the guidelines, the amendment of guidelines or the substituted guidelines have been laid before it.

(10) If a House of Parliament passes a motion to disallow guidelines, an amendment of guidelines or substituted guidelines under subsection (9) –
(a) the guidelines, amendment of guidelines or substituted guidelines are void on and from the date of the passing of the motion of disallowance; but

(b) the passing of the motion of disallowance does not affect the validity of anything done under the guidelines, the amendment of guidelines or the substituted guidelines before the date of the passing of that motion.

(11) If at the expiration of 5 sitting-days after the guidelines, an amendment of guidelines or the substituted guidelines are laid before either House of Parliament, no notice has been given of a motion to disallow the guidelines, the amendment of guidelines or the substituted guidelines, or, if such notice has been given, the notice has been withdrawn or the motion has been negatived, the guidelines, the amendment of guidelines or the substituted guidelines are taken to have been confirmed by that House.

(12) The Minister is to ensure that the guidelines, as in force, are published on the website of the Department and made available to the public in any other manner the Minister considers appropriate.
21B. Time for commencing prosecution

(1) A prosecution under this Act must be commenced –

(a) not later than 2 years after the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed; or

(b) not later than 2 years after the date on which evidence of any act or omission constituting the offence first came to the attention of any authorized officer.

(2) Subsection (1) has effect despite section 26 of the Justices Act 1959 or any other law.

17. Section 24 substituted

Section 24 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following sections are substituted:

23. Review of Act

(1) The Minister is to review this Act within 3 years after the day on which this section commences.

(2) The Minister is to cause a report on the outcome of the review to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 6 months after the third anniversary of the day on which this section commences.
24. Act does not affect operation of certain other Acts

Nothing in this Act affects the operation of section 139 of the Criminal Code Act 1924 or the Coroners Act 1995.

18. Repeal of Act

This Act is repealed on the three hundred and sixty fifth day from the day on which it commences.
