Putt has no confidence in Morris

Greens Leader Peg Putt has today made it public that she has no confidence in Greens education spokesman, Tim Morris.

Labor Member for Lyons Heather Butler said Ms Putt made the admission while introducing a new Greens candidate, Paul O'Halloran.

"Ms Putt made it clear that if elected, she wants the new candidate to replace the embattled Mr Morris as Green's education spokesman.

"Ms Putt has finally learned what Tasmanians already know and that is Mr Morris knows nothing about building a better Tasmanian education system.

"Just as Tasmanians know the Greens will take Tasmania backwards if they get control of our State." Ms Butler said.
