Notices of Motion

- 133 The Minister for Veterans' Affairs to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes the tremendous work done throughout Tasmania's regions by RSL Sub-Branched, particularly during this Centenary of ANZAC period.
  - (2) Commends the St Helens-St Marys RSL Sub-Branch for their effort over the years in helping enhance the St Helens Memorial Park.
  - (3) Further notes that the most recent addition to this standout memorial was the installation of four new plaques commemorating Tasmania's Anzac heritage, which I was honoured to unveil on 29 October 2018.
  - (4) Further notes that the plaques include pictures depicting a poem from Flanders Field, the 'ode', the Gallipoli landing, and troops walking through a bombed out area.
  - (5) Further notes that manufacture and installation of the plaques was supported by a grant of $6000 to the St Helens-St Marys RSL Sub Branch, which I was proud to help secure.
  - (6) Congratulates Sub-Branch President Gary Graham, local historian Graham Cameron and other Sub-Branch members and supporters for their commitment to ensuring that the region's Anzac heritage is remembered and also notes the presence of Break O'Day Mayor Mick Tucker at the unveiling.
  - (7) Acknowledges that the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to helping build our rural and regional communities and promoting the memory of our veterans especially during this Centenary of ANZAC period. (28 November 2018)
- 134 The Minister for Energy to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between Hydro Tasmania and Norway's hydropower research institute, HydroCen, on 23 November 2018 to grow collaborative activities on future renewable energy opportunities.
  - (2) Further notes that USA's Oakridge National Laboratory and Department of Energy were also present and engaged in discussions to enhance collaboration on hydropower and electricity market research.
  - (3) Acknowledges the importance of these collaborative arrangements to further explore opportunities for Tasmania to become the "Battery of the Nation" which has the potential to bring billions of dollars of energy projects and thousands of jobs to Tasmania.
  - (4) Further notes that Tasmania has what the rest of the country wants in regards to low cost, reliable and clean baseload power.
  - (5) Further notes that Our Tasmania First energy policy is inextricably linked to the expansion of Tasmania's renewable generation capacity, where the Hodgman Liberal Government has set a target of achieving the lowest regulated power prices in the country by 2022, and to make Tasmania 100 per cent self-sufficient in renewable energy by 2022.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (6) Commends Hydro Tasmania for its continued efforts to ensure Tasmania's renewable energy knowledge, expertise and opportunities are recognised globally. (28 November 2018)

136 The Minister for Veterans Affairs to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that a special Welcome Home event was held at Parliament House on Wednesday, 28 November 2018 for Tasmania's 2018 Invictus Games athletes and support staff.
- (2) Further notes that Games use the power of sport to aid in the recovery of returned servicemen and women and are a testament to the strength of the human spirit with the 2018 Games held in Sydney from 20-27 October 2018, with more than 500 ex-servicemen and women from 18 countries competing in 11 adaptive sports.
- (3) Further notes that the 72-strong Australian team included two Tasmanian-based veterans, Jarrod Kent of Latrobe and Matt Brumby of Devonport, both of whom attended the 28 November Welcome Home event, along with Team Coach Geoff Stokes and Hobart-based archery team coach, Dr Jon Lane.
- (4) Acknowledges other Tasmanian-born Games participants including: Bridget Baker (athletics/power lifting), Trent Forbes (cycling), Emma Kadziolka, (athletics/indoor rowing), Steve Sandman (archery), and Stewart Sherman (archery/wheelchair tennis) and Sonya Newman (wheelchair basketball, indoor rowing, sitting volleyball and swimming).
- (5) Further notes that the Welcome Home event was well-supported by parliamentarians from both sides of the House and Legislative Council including the Premier, Hon Will Hodgman MP, members of the veterans and ex-serving community and family and friends of Tasmania's Invictus Games athletes.
- (6) Applauds all our competitors for their participation in the 2018 Invictus Games and thanks them for their service to our country. (29 November 2018)

137 The Minister for Aboriginal Affairs to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges that 4 December 2018, marks the 183rd Anniversary of the passing of revered Aboriginal warrior and leader Mannalargenna – Chief of the Pairrebeenne clan, Tebrakunna Country. To honour and commemorate his life and in celebration of Aboriginal culture in Tasmania, the fourth Mannalargenna Day will be held on 1 December 2018, at the Tebrakunna Visitors Centre at Little Musselroe Bay.
- (2) Notes that Mannalargenna Day is an important opportunity for his descendants and the wider community to learn about, and celebrate the culture of the Northeast's First Nations people and their connection to country.
- (3) Further notes the Day's events include author Bruce Pascoe, men's and women's circles, children's activities, discovery rangers, garden walks, dancing ceremony's from the Pakana Cultural Education Services Traditional Dance Group, singer Dewayne Everett-Smith, and traditional dance workshops. In the evening, there will be a supper of kangaroo tail soup and damper, a bonfire, storytelling, stargazing and twilight tours to see the forester kangaroos and wombats.
- (4) Further acknowledges and thanks Dr Aunty Patsy Cameron AO, Reconciliation Tasmania, the members of the melythina tiakana warrana Aboriginal Corporation, and the many volunteers, supporters and sponsors for facilitating the 2018 Mannalargenna Day event, and congratulates them for their passion and commitment for everyone to come and experience and to celebrate this significant ancestral day. (29 November 2018)

138 The Minister for Disability Services and Community Development to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that 3 December 2018 marks International Day of People with Disability.
- (2) Further notes that 2018's theme is 'Empowering persons with disabilities and ensuring inclusiveness and equality'.
- (3) Recognises the Tasmanian Government is committed to working alongside people with disability, their families, carers, disability providers and the wider community, to build a more equitable, inclusive and accessible state.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (4) Further notes the Tasmanian Government is a strong supporter of the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) – a once in a lifetime reform that supports people with disability to live their life to the full and will help to build a more equal and inclusive Tasmania.
- (5) Acknowledges the Tasmanian Government is providing significant investment of $878 million over the next four years towards the NDIS.
- (6) Further acknowledges that over the next three years, in addition to the NDIS, the Tasmanian Government is providing additional funding to support Tasmanians with disability including:—
  - (a) $20 million for more inclusive disability housing;
  - (b) $600,000 to National Disability Services to assist service providers' transition to the NDIS;
  - (c) $300,000 for the early detection and diagnosis of Autism;
  - (d) $150,000 for the Autism Cooperative Research Centre to ensure Tasmania stays at the forefront of Autism research; and
  - (e) $150,000 for more inclusive disability sports.
- (7) Further notes 'Accessible Island: Tasmania's Disability Framework for Action 2018-2021', sets out further what the Tasmanian Government will do to help people with disability to be included and empowered to participate equally in our community life over the next four years.
- (8) Celebrates the contribution of the whole community in making Tasmania a great state for people with disability in which to live. (29 November 2018)

139 The Minister for Resources to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges the importance of the 'Don't Duck Out' campaign to raise awareness around the dangers of leaving small children unsupervised in and near portable pools.
- (2) Recognises that children under five years are at the greatest risk around portable pools.
- (3) Further recognises the sobering statistics that young children can drown in three centimetres of water within 20 seconds and that it takes only a few minutes for a child to lose consciousness and suffer brain injury.
- (4) Urges consumers to be aware of the responsibilities they take when purchasing a portable pool and to research product safety.
- (5) Further urges Tasmanians to be aware of the Make it SAFE tips around water
  - (a) Supervise - keep young children within arm's reach and don't leave older children in charge;
  - (b) Act - learn emergency responses including CPR;
  - (c) Fence pools with more than 30 centimetres of water
  - (d) Empty and store pools safely out of reach of children and where it can't refill with rain or sprinkler water.
- (6) Notes that the Tasmanian Government is a proud participant of the national 'Don't Duck Out' safety campaign in partnership with the Royal Life Saving Society of Australia.
- (7) Encourages everyone looking after children to remain vigilant and enjoy water traditions in safety. (29 November 2018)

140 The Minister for Resources to move—That the House:—

- (1) Congratulates Northern Tasmanian footballers Tarryn Thomas from North Launceston Football Club and Chayce Jones from Launceston Football Club for being selected in the AFL Draft top ten.
- (2) Notes that Thomas will head to the North Melbourne Football Club after being selected as pick number eight and Jones will head to Adelaide Football Club after being selected at nine.
- (3) Further notes that it is the first time two Tasmanians have been selected in the AFL Draft's top ten since 1996.
- (4) Further congratulates the duo's fellow Tasmanian, Fraser Turner from Clarence Football Club, for being selected in the draft by the Richmond Football Club.
- (5) Recognises that the Hodgman Liberal Government is a strong supporter of football in Tasmania, with a vision to grow participation across the community and create elite pathways to the highest level of AFL and AFLW.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (6) Further recognises that the Government remains committed to the ultimate goal of having a Tasmanian team in the national competition and continues to work with the AFL towards this objective.
- (7) Looks forward to following the careers of our emerging footballers and supporting Tasmania's football heritage. (29 November 2018)

141 The Minister for Resources to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises the work of the Northern Croquet Centre for promoting community participation.
- (2) Recognises that the St Leonards Centre plays an important sporting and social role and, with recent expansion, has opened up use to School for Seniors as well as disability and community groups.
- (3) Notes that the Centre is one of the largest in Australia, with six playing lawns and two smaller practice lawns.
- (4) Notes the Government's recent support for the Centre, enabling the purchase of a maintenance trailer.
- (5) Recognises that upkeep of the Centre is performed by dedicated volunteers, who can now dispose of lawn waste in an easier and more eco-friendly way.
- (6) Recognises that with the extra quality maintenance in place, there are further opportunities to host local, state and national competitions.
- (7) Supports and encourages the Northern Croquet Centre's bid to host a national tournament in 2020. (29 November 2018)

5 Tasmanian Export Growth: Adjourned debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 26 September 2018 by Mr Hidding, as amended—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that the most recent export figures released by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) show Tasmania exported a near-record $3.7 billion of goods in the year to July 2018.
- (2) Further notes that Tasmania leads the nation with 29.2 per cent growth in exports over 2017, which is nearly four times higher than the national rate of growth.
- (3) Further notes that over 80 per cent of Tasmanian goods exports were into Asian markets, with top export sectors being mining and mineral products, as well as agriculture and seafood.
- (4) Further notes that Tasmania's top five export destinations were China, Malaysia, Japan, Taiwan and Thailand representing $2.25 billion worth of our total exports.
- (5) Further notes that this continued strong growth in exports demonstrates the success of the Government's plan to open up new opportunities for Tasmanian products, underpinned by Trade Missions with the business sector to important export markets.
- (6) Further notes that the Government's strong focus on trade is leading to new investment and job creating opportunities in Tasmania. (Next Speaker: Ms O'Connor)
