Notices of Motion

Notices of Motion tabled prior to 18 October 2017 are published at:
<http://www.parliament.tas.gov.au/ha/hamot.pdf>

- 1869 The Premier to move —That the House:—
- (1) Congratulates Launceston City Mission on the Missiondale Recovery Centre's recent 20th Anniversary.
  - (2) Acknowledges the significant contribution that Missiondale makes to individuals affected by drugs or alcohol misuse, by providing the care, support and encouragement that people need to seek help and treatment.
  - (3) Recognises that tackling this issue requires a wide-ranging, comprehensive response delivered by responsible, passionate organisations such as the Launceston City Mission, and we thank them for their dedication to our community. (18 October 2017)
- 1870 The Minister for Women to move —That the House notes:—
- (1) In early 2018 a new "Tasmanian Women's Strategy 2018-2021" will be launched, building on the achievements of the "Tasmanian Women's Plan 2013-2018".
  - (2) The new "Tasmanian Women's Strategy" will be a three-year plan to address the inequality experienced by women and girls in Tasmania, with a focus on four priority areas for action:
    - (a) economic empowerment;
    - (b) leadership and participation;
    - (d) health and wellbeing; and
    - (e) safety.
  - (3) To ensure our approach to gender equality and identified priorities are 'on track' and relevant, an online survey was developed with the aim of engaging the community and seeking public consultation.
  - (4) The consultation period opened on 9 September 2017 and closed on 13 October 2017.
  - (5) The survey was accessed through the Women in Tasmania website, distributed through the Women's mailing list and promoted through the media and the Women in Tasmania Facebook page.
  - (6) The online survey provided the opportunity for women to outline their experiences of gender equality across the four priority areas and to share ideas on how to achieve gender equality in Tasmania.
  - (7) At the close of the survey on 13 October 2017, we had reached 24,000 people through social media with 1,391 completed surveys and 11 written submissions from a diverse range of organisations submitted.

- (8) This is a phenomenal response and the Hodgman Liberal Government thanks all Tasmanians for their valuable input, their suggestions and advice, into the development of the new "Women's Strategy". (18 October 2017)

1871 The Minister for Women to move —That the House notes:—

- (1) The 2017 Telstra Tasmanian Business Women's Awards were held on Friday 13 October 2017.
- (2) The Telstra Tasmanian Business Women's Awards is a wonderful opportunity to recognise the many Tasmanian women who are excelling in business, government and across their communities. This is the 23rd year of the Awards, making it the longest standing national business awards program for women in Australia.
- (3) The Award Winners were:—
  - (a) 2017 Telstra Tasmanian Business Woman of the Year – Toni Moate, Director, National Collections and Marine Infrastructure, CSIRO who also won the Public Sector & Academia Award;
  - (b) Entrepreneur Award – Alison Flakemore, Director, Alison's Garden & Landscape;
  - (c) For Purpose and Social Enterprise Award – Janine Arnold, CEO, Carers Tasmania;
  - (d) Corporate & Private Award – Camille O'Meara, General Manager, Business Services, Stornoway Maintenance; and
  - (e) Young Business Women's Award – Dr Jessica Manuela, Practice Owner, Dental Surgeon and Director, Dental South.
- (4) These Tasmanian women can be very proud not only of their achievements but also of the positive example they set for other Tasmanian women. They are exemplary role models for women in our community, especially our young women.
- (5) I congratulate Toni Moate and all of the Tasmanian Telstra Business Women Award nominees, finalists and category winners, and wish them all the very best for the national finals in Melbourne on 21 November 2017. (18 October 2017)

1872 The Minister for Health to move —That the House:—

- (1) Notes that October 2017 is Breast Cancer Awareness Month.
- (2) Acknowledges that approximately 450 women every year in Tasmania are diagnosed with Breast cancer and it is the most common cancer affecting women.
- (3) Recognises that the two Breastscreen mobile units "Luna" and "Ida" screen more than 30,000 women annually.
- (4) Further notes that the message being promoted nationally in 2017 is 'Breast cancer won't wait Everything else can'.
- (5) Further notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government is returning services to regional areas, cut under the Labor-Green Government, refurbished the existing Breastscreen mobile unit, purchased an additional Breastscreen mobile unit, and expanded the target age range for women in order to provide the best possible service for Tasmanian women. (18 October 2017)

1873 The Minister for Health to move —That the House:—

- (1) Congratulates trainer JJ Pullinger and the more than 50 people who participated in the launch of Active Farmers in Hagley on Sunday 15 October 2017, an initiative that brings farmers and community members together through group fitness in a fun and supportive environment.
- (2) Recognises that the program is designed especially for small rural communities with limited access to fitness expertise and equipment.
- (3) Notes that Active Farmers was founded by Tasmanian born Ginny Stevens in response to the high level of depression experienced in rural communities and is now operating in many regional and remote towns across Australia.
- (4) Further notes the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to mental health and suicide prevention initiatives in our community and will continue to strongly support rural communities across Tasmania. ((18 October 2017)

1874 The Minister for Health to move —That the House:—

- (1) Notes that next week 22 October – 28 October 2017 is Occupational Therapy Week.
- (2) Recognises that occupational therapists undertake a number of tasks including helping children develop motor skills and hand eye coordination, facilitate rehabilitation for people who have suffered a stroke or been in a serious accident, and enhance patients' independence in everyday activities.
- (3) Commends the valuable role occupational therapists play in our health system and thanks all the THS therapists who play an essential role in restoring patients' confidence and ability to participate in meaningful activities again. (18 October 2017)

1875 The Minister for Health to move —That the House:—

- (1) Congratulates the Child Health and Parenting Service (CHaPS), which this week commencing 15 October 2017 celebrates 100 years of service to the community through education and child health checks.
- (2) Acknowledges the Child Health Association, which also recently celebrated 100 years, was the original organisation that fought for child health nurses to be recruited in Tasmania.
- (3) Notes that at the time, infant mortality was nearly 12% and it was the Child Health Association of Tasmania that recognised the need to reduce infant mortality through education and health checks.
- (4) Recognises all the women who rose to the challenge and fought for the establishment of Child Health Clinics in their communities.
- (5) Further notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government will continue to support CHaPS and is committed to improving services for children and families across Tasmania. (18 October 2017).

1876 The Minister for Resources to move —That the House:—

- (1) Recognises Wednesday 18 October 2017 is National Ride2Work Day, Australia's largest celebration of commuter riding.
- (2) Notes the main objective of the day is to normalise the idea of riding to work and encouraging people who have never ridden to work before to give it a go.
- (3) Further notes that National Ride2Work Day promotes the benefits of riding to work, such as improving your health, saving time and money, improving the environment and increased productivity.
- (4) Commends the University of Tasmania Launceston and Hobart campuses for hosting community breakfasts, Bicycle Network Tasmania and Hobart City Council for supporting a community breakfast at Mawson Place and the Clarence City Council for hosting a breakfast at Kangaroo Bay.
- (5) Encourages all road users to share the road at all times and to show respect, courtesy and caution on the road to ensure everyone's safety. (18 October 2017)

1877 The Premier to move —That the House:—

- (1) Welcomes the new partnership between the North Melbourne Football Club and the Tasmanian Government that will see Tasmania represented in the AFLW as the 'North Melbourne Tasmanian Kangaroos' and AFLW matches played in Tasmanian from 2019.
- (2) Notes this will be the first time that an AFL team will officially carry 'Tasmania' in its name, resulting in massive exposure for our State with the AFLW captivating more than 5.5 million TV viewers and more than 12 million online viewers.
- (3) Recognises that the Tasmanian Liberal Government is a strong supporter of women's sport, which includes:—
  - (a) supporting Cricket Tasmania with $560,000 in 2017, facilitating programs to increase female participation;
  - (b) a $250,000 commitment in the 2017-18 State Budget to upgrade Rugby Park to improve women's infrastructure and performance lighting; and
  - (c) providing $550,000 per year for the next three years to facilitate a partnership between the Tasmanian Government and Collingwood Football Club in invest in netball in Tasmania. (19 October 2017)

- 1878 The Premier to move —That the House:—
- (1) Notes the Tasmanian Government's new Tasmanian Cycle Tourism Strategy, with the aim to make Tasmania the nation's leading cycle tourism destination.
  - (2) Further notes that Cycling tourism is an exciting sector that can make a significant contribution to further growing our visitor economy, drawing more visitors to our State and creating more jobs.
  - (3) Further notes the Tasmanian Government's commitment of $6 million to establish the Cycle Tourism Fund to develop Tasmania's cycling tracks and trails, grow and promote experiences and events, and improve safety for all cyclists.
  - (4) Further notes the Tasmanian Government's investment of $1 million for the St. Helens Mountain Bike Trail Network and $800,000 in the Blue Derby Mountain Bike Trails.
  - (5) Encourages prospective applicants to apply to the Cycle Tourism Fund that is currently open for applications until mid-December 2017. (19 October 2017)
- 1879 The Minister for Health to move —That the House:—
- (1) Congratulates Anne Gillespie of the North East, who recently received the Rural and Remote Excellence in Palliative Care award at the Tasmanian Palliative Care Awards.
  - (2) Notes that Anne was nominated for her ability to develop relationships, have difficult conversations with clients and their families, and then provide the support to make patient centred care decisions.
  - (3) Acknowledges that as a result of Anne's work, "a large majority of palliative care patients have their end of life phase in the environment that they have decided".
  - (4) Recognises that Anne applied and was successful in securing a place in the BAPC program that she recently completed at the Palliative Care Unit in Launceston. She has also held grief and loss workshops and clinical in-services in the Dorset Community.
  - (5) Commends Anne on this important award and recognition and thanks her and her fellow palliative care practitioners for their outstanding care, dedication and skill in the service of Tasmanians. (19 October 2017)
- 1880 The Minister for Health to move —That the House:—
- (1) Congratulates Jack Duffy and Denise Delphin of Launceston, who have been selected to be torch bearers for the Gold Coast Commonwealth Games in 2018.
  - (2) Notes that Jack is eleven years old, has cerebral palsy, and is known in the community for the charity his family set up 'Just like Jack', which raises money for not-for profit organisations in the community.
  - (3) Further notes that Denise Delphin, who is the Northern Suburbs Community House manager, was nominated for her dedicated community work, and that Jack and Denise will be amongst about 3,800 Australians who will carry the baton in the lead up to the Games.
  - (4) Commends Jack and Denise on this amazing honour and the Government looks forward to watching this special occasion. (19 October 2017)
- 1881 The Minister for Building and Construction to move —That the House:—
- (1) Notes the Tasmanian Housing Industry Association (HIA) held its Housing and Kitchen & Bathroom Awards Dinner on 14 October 2017 at Wrest Point attended by more than 580 guests.
  - (2) Further notes the awards are judged by industry professionals, celebrate the work of the Tasmanian housing industry and recognise the excellence of those working in the sector in our State.
  - (3) Recognises the building and construction industry is a driver of the local economy and our homes are a key feature of our community.
  - (4) Congratulates all the awards entrants on their achievements, hard work and commitment to the industry, including the following major award winners on their success:—

- (a) Tasmanian Home of the Year - Cordwell Lane

- (5) Acknowledge the significant contribution of Rick Sassin and his team at the HIA Tasmania to the development of the Hodgman Government's new building framework and their ongoing support during its implementation in 2017. (19 October 2017)

Orders of the Day

1 Acts Enumeration Amendment Bill (pro forma) (No. 2): Second reading. (The Premier)

2 Hearing Awareness Week: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 27 August 2014 by Ms Courtney—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that 24 – 30 August 2014 is Hearing Awareness Week.
- (2) Further notes that hearing loss can be caused by hereditary conditions, infectious disease, prolonged exposure to excessive noise or the effects of aging and that less than 20% of the people who could benefit from wearing a hearing aid wear one. One in six Australians is affected by hearing loss which is an estimated 3.5 million people.
- (3) Urges Tasmanians who are concerned about their hearing to have a hearing test.
- (4) Thanks those people and organisations that are involved in Hearing Awareness Week, which will see a range of promotional activities happen across the country, including 'silent' sports events, public exhibitions on hearing technologies, and hearing safety training by employers to alert people to the issues. (Next Speaker: Mr Shelton)

3 Buy Local: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 25 March 2015 by Ms Ogilvie—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that the Liberal Government's promise to Buy Local is nothing more than a cruel joke.
- (2) Recognises that the promise has been broken in a litany of ways including:—
  - (a) sending $4 million worth of training funding to interstate companies;
  - (b) awarding $2.5 million to a multinational firm to provide the TasTAFE student management information technology system;
  - (c) providing a $420,000 contract for debt collection services for all units of the Department of Health and Human Services to a Victorian company when two of the five firms who put in tenders were from Tasmania;
  - (d) awarding a contract valued at $360,000 for car parking at the North West Regional Hospital to Victoria when two of the three firms that made bids for this job were Tasmanian;
  - (e) giving a $105,000 contract for upgrading the asbestos register to New South Wales when seven of the 11 companies who tendered for this were Tasmanian;
  - (f) gifting more than $330,000 to a New South Wales company to make jackets and raincoats for our police;
  - (g) awarding a Victorian company almost $600,000 in information technology funding to build an asset management system for the Parks and Wildlife Service, despite receiving four bids from Tasmanian companies; and
  - (h) overlooking a Tasmanian company to undertake $1.5 million worth of pavement marking and instead giving this work to a Victorian firm.

- (3) Further notes that these examples alone add up to nearly $10 million worth of work that has gone interstate, in direct contradiction to the Liberal Party's promises.
- (4) Calls on the Liberal Government to reintroduce its own Bill "Supporting Local Business and Jobs (Local Benefits Test) Bill 2011" to prove that its commitment to buying locally is more than just a hollow slogan.

4 China-Australia Free Trade Agreement: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 16 September 2015 by the Minister for State Growth—That the House:—

- (1) Notes the importance of Tasmania's strong relationship with our largest trading partner China, and the importance of the China-Australia Free Trade Agreement for Tasmania, specifically:—
  - (a) Tasmania's exporters will become more competitive as a result of the free trade agreement and will facilitate jobs growth and investment in Tasmania;
  - (b) the agreement supports Tasmanian farmers by removing tariffs of up to 30 per cent on dairy products, beef, lamb, wine, apples, cherries, vegetables, seafood, hides, skins and leathers. Farmers will also gain access to growing the exclusive clean wool quota each year until 2024;
  - (c) Tasmania's resources sector will benefit from China removing all tariffs on resources, making our miners more competitive;
  - (d) tariffs on manufactured goods including, textiles, clothing and footwear will be removed;
  - (e) education service exporters will benefit as well, with agreement to progressively liberalise measures affecting trade in services;
  - (f) tariffs on whiskey will also be lifted; and
  - (g) with the Chinese market importing $119 million of Tasmanian produce in 2014, this is positive news for Tasmania producers.
- (2) Expresses its strong support for the China-Australia Free Trade Agreement.

5 Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Amendment Bill (No. 55 of 2015): Second reading. (The Treasurer)

6 Animal Welfare (Ban Battery Hens) Amendment Bill (No. 18 of 2016): Second reading. (Ms Dawkins)

7 Care and Consent to Medical Treatment Bill (No. 19 of 2016): Second reading. (Ms Ogilvie)

8 Small Business: Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Tuesday, 24 May 2016 by Mr Barnett—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that:—
  - (a) small businesses make a vital contribution to the successful Tasmanian economy and community;
  - (b) in addition to being a major contributor to the economy in terms of output, employment and the overall number of businesses, the small business sector in Tasmania is generally self-reliant, innovative, responsive and entrepreneurial by nature; and
  - (c) Tasmania has around 37,000 small businesses, employing over 100,000 Tasmanians and that these businesses are the lifeblood of our communities, particularly in rural and regional areas, with two fifths of Tasmania's small businesses located in regional areas.
- (2) Recognises that small businesses are typically independently owned and operated, generally with one or two people making critical management decisions around financing, accounting, staffing, processing, purchasing and marketing, and 60 per cent are non-employing.
- (3) Further notes the continuation and success of programs delivered by the Hodgman Liberal Government such as the Business Tasmania Service, Winning Government Business, Retailer Development and Digital Ready programs.
- (4) Acknowledges that small business is vital to the growth and prosperity of Tasmania and has the full support of the Hodgman Liberal Government. (Next Speaker: Mr Barnett)

- 9 Police Offences Amendment (Begging) Bill (No. 67 of 2016): Second reading. (Ms O'Connor)
