Notices of Motion

50 The Minister for Disability Services and Community Development to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges that the 18th - 24th June 2018 is Refugee Week 2018, with 20 June 2018 World Refugee Day - a day to recognise the importance of Tasmania's diverse multicultural community.
- (2) Notes that as part of the 2018 theme #withrefugees, the Tasmanian Government's many programs and initiatives to support refugees and new arrivals, including our 'Welcome Settlement Package' which provides on-island support for new refugee arrivals so they too can benefit from Tasmania's growing prosperity and enjoy a better life.
- (3) Further acknowledges the important role community organisations have in advocating for and supporting members of our multicultural community, and the good work they do each and every day in ensuring refugees can access the supports and services they need to start a new life.
- (4) Thanks refugees and new arrivals for the many benefits they bring to Tasmania, in making Tasmania a more culturally informative, dynamic, diverse and vibrant State. (20 June 2018)

51 The Minister for Energy to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes the Hodgman Liberal Government's Tasmania-First Energy policy commitment to deliver secure and reliable electricity supply and lower prices with a target set to deliver:—
  - (a) 100 per cent self-sufficiency in renewable energy generation by 2022; and
  - (b) the lowest regulated electricity prices by 2022.
- (2) Further notes the Government's commitment to protect the people of Tasmania from electricity price shocks by capping electricity price increases by up to CPI for three years.
- (3) Further notes the Hodgman Liberal Government's commitment to supporting non-regulated commercial and industrial businesses by extending the energy rebate for businesses in 2018/19 with a further $10 million for the rebate scheme.
- (4) Acknowledges that the Government's review of the Solar Feed in Tariff has already commenced, with the focus on suitably rewarding and incentivising those Tasmanians investing in solar.
- (5) Further acknowledges the Government's commitment to empower Tasmanian community organisations and sporting clubs with a $300,000 Community Solar and Energy Efficiency Package to install solar energy systems and modern energy efficient heating appliances.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (6) Recognises as a part of the Tasmania-First Energy Policy, the Governments promotion and support of new renewable energy developments in the state such as Cattle Hill and Granville Harbour wind farms. (20 June 2018)

52 The Minister for Veterans Affairs to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that supporting Tasmania's veterans and ex-service personnel is a major priority of the Hodgman Liberal Government.
- (2) Further notes that Tasmania has more than 10,500 veterans and ex-serving personnel and that their service and sacrifice deserves to be acknowledged.
- (3) Further notes in the 2018-19 Budget, the Government is committing a record $750,000 package to support veterans, ex-service personnel and their families. This package includes:—
  - (a) providing peak body status to the Return Service League (RSL) (Tasmania Branch) which will see an increase in core annual funding to $110,000 to provide assistance and advocacy, with indexation of 2.25 per cent to be applied from 2019-2020;
  - (b) provision of $50,000 per year for three years to RSL (Tasmania Branch) to undertake projects that improve service delivery to ex-serving men and women in Tasmania;
  - (c) provision of $50,000 to RSL (Tasmania Branch) to deliver events celebrating the 2018 Armistice centenary, which also marks the end of the Centenary of ANZAC;
  - (d) establishing the Teddy Sheean Grants Program of $100,000 a year for 3 years for repairs and maintenance to RSLs and other veterans' organisations as well as war memorial construction and repairs; and
  - (e) establishing a $225,000 partnership with the Parks and Wildlife Service to enable participation in an active recreation and adventure program for veterans in Tasmania's National Parks.
- (4) Further notes the Hodgman Liberal Government remains a proud supporter of Tasmania's servicemen and women and their families. (20 June 2018)

53 The Minister for Energy to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that mining and minerals processing is a key economic pillar in Tasmania, employing more than 6,300 people and accounting for over 50 per cent of our exports in 2016-17, or more than $1.5 billion a year.
- (2) Further notes that the 2018-19 Budget includes $2 million for the new Exploration Drilling Grant Initiative to expand the real and potential mining base industry in Tasmania through supporting increased 'greenfield' mineral exploration.
- (3) Acknowledges that this commitment sits alongside ongoing programs including the Government's:—
  - (a) $1.4 million Geoscience Initiative, which aims to provide geoscientific data, that will underpin the industry's future;
  - (b) $1 million Mining Sector Innovation Initiative, which will see exciting new technologies, solutions to mine rehabilitation and other cutting edge projects explored; and
  - (c) continued funding for the Mineral Exploration Investment Attraction Plan, which promotes mining and exploration in Tasmania to a national and international market.
- (4) Further notes that there is no better friend of the mining and minerals processing than the Hodgman Liberal Government. (21 June 2018)

54 The Minister for Veterans Affairs to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that Sunday, 1 July 2018 is Reserve Forces Day, an annual commemoration of the value of Reserve service to the nation.
- (2) Notes that 2018 will be the 21st year this event has been held since 1998, with thousands of former and serving reservists now participating in parades across the nation.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (3) Acknowledges that the theme for the 2018 Reserve Forces Day in Hobart is Tasmania's contribution to the Western Front and the Desert Campaign in 1928, in particular the leadership of Tasmanian born, Major General Sir John Gellibrand.
- (4) Further notes that reserve forces have played a key role in Australia's defence over the years with militia – the pre-cursor of today's Reserves – forming the backbone of the Australian Naval and Military Expeditionary Force (ANMEF), the first Australian forces deployed overseas during World War 1, and also of the famous Australian Imperial Force (AIF) that fought with such distinction and courage through Gallipoli and the Middle East and on the Western Front.
- (5) Honours the 1.25 million Australians who have served with Reserve forces over the years.
- (6) Thanks all those who volunteer their time and effort with the Reserve Forces Day Council, both in Tasmania and nationally, to ensure that the service and sacrifice of our Reservists is appropriately commemorated and remembered. (21 June 2018)

55 The Minister for Sport and Recreation to move—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges that the 5th annual National Australian Football League (AFL) Inclusion Carnival is currently being held in Launceston from 18 June to 23 June 2018.
- (2) Congratulates New Horizons Club, AFL Tasmania and the City of Launceston for collaborating on their successful joint bid in bringing the carnival to Northern Tasmania.
- (3) Notes that the AFL Inclusion Carnival is a national tournament for male players over the age of 16 who are living with an intellectual disability.
- (4) Welcomes and congratulates all of the participants, coaches and supporters from the Northern Territory, NSW/ACT, Queensland, South Australia, Tasmania, Victoria Country, Victoria Metro, and Western Australia for their participation and support of this carnival.
- (5) Celebrates the fact that Tasmania's participation has grown every year of the annual event, having gone from forming part of a composite team with Victoria to competing as a stand-alone side.
- (6) Further notes that the Carnival is a true indication of how sport builds opportunities and can be accessible to all.
- (7) Further acknowledges that the finale of the carnival will be the curtain raiser to the Hawthorn v Gold Coast match on Saturday 23 June 2018 – a wonderful opportunity to promote the importance and significance of this Carnival to people living with disability.
- (8) Wishes all participants the very best for the Carnival, and most of all - a lot of fun. (21 June 2018)

56 Dr Broad to move—That the House calls on the Premier to table all advice the Government has received about the Liberal's firearms policy and the National Firearms Agreement. (21 June 2018)
