Notices of Motion

- 88 The Minister for Resources to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that 3 September 2018, was Australian National Flag Day, the annual day specifically dedicated to celebrating our national flag.
 - (2) Further notes that Australian National Flag Day was officially established in 1996 by the proclamation of the former Governor-General, Sir William Deane AC, KBE, QC and celebrates the first time the flag was flown on 3 September 1901 over the dome of the Exhibition Building in Melbourne when then Primer Minister, Sir Edmund Barton GCMG, KC, announced the winners of a competition to design a flag for Australia.
 - (3) Acknowledges the Australian National Flag as Australia's foremost national symbol and a unifying and powerful expression of Australian identity.
 - (4) Further notes that Australian National Flag Day provides all Australians with an opportunity to reflect with pride and gratitude upon the achievements and qualities of this great nation since Federation.
 - (5) Further acknowledges the sterling work of the Australian National Flag Association in promoting and protecting our national symbol, whose work locally is led by Mr Reg Watson and ably supported by patron the Hon. Elise Archer MP, Attorney-General.
 - (6) Congratulates all individuals, community organisations, local authorities, businesses and schools across Tasmania that celebrated Australian National Flag Day by conducting flag-raising ceremonies and by flying or displaying the National Flag. (30 August 2018)
- 89 The Minister for Veterans' Affairs to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that Merchant Navy Day was 3 September 2018.
 - (2) Further notes the Australian Merchant Navy Memorial is a memorial honouring the Australian Merchant Navy's involvement in World War 1 and World War 11.
 - (3) Further notes that the memorial is located in Kings Park, on the northern shore of Lake Burley Griffin in Canberra and its location on the shore of the lake represents the Merchant Navy's relationship with water.
 - (4) Recognises the Seafarers' Memorial is a memorial honouring the lives of all Tasmanian seafarers who lost their lives at sea, including those who served in the armed forces.
 - (5) Further recognises the Tasmanian Seafarers' Memorial, located in Triabunna, on Tasmania's East Coast:—
 - (a) further notes the annual service on 3 October 2018; and
 - (b) the service will include the annual Blessing of the Fleet for the local fishing industry.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (6) Acknowledges that Merchant Navy Day illustrates the important contribution made to Australia's economic growth and prosperity in peacetime and in war.
- (7) Further notes that the Merchant Navy of the whole British Empire, which included the Australian Merchant Fleet, suffered proportionately the highest casualties of any of the allied services in the Second World War.
- (8) Further notes that thirty thousand two hundred and forty eight British Empire merchant seamen who served at sea under the red ensign lost their lives doing so and that the Australian Department of Veterans Affairs nominal roll records 3,500 Australian merchant seamen serving in World War II in Australian registered ships. (30 August 2018)

90 Mr Brooks to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that mining and minerals processing is a key economic pillar in Tasmania, employing thousands and accounting for over 50 per cent of our exports in the year to June 2018, or more than $2 billion.
- (2) Acknowledges that the sector is on the verge of major revival with:—
 - (a) the granting of approvals for a new $100 million iron ore mine at Rogetta south of Burnie, that will create hundreds of jobs;
 - (b) a boom in job numbers at Grange Resources Savage River and Port Latta operations to around 560 FTEs and $10 million investment in the first stage of a feasibility study that may lead to accessing the ore body through underground development; and
 - (c) the announcement that Hellyer Gold Mine will be re-opened and tailings processed to extract gold, silver, lead and zinc with up to $1.5 billion in gold and $1 billion in zinc to be processed from the tailings dams and up to 50 ongoing jobs created.
- (3) Further notes that the 2018-19 Budget includes $2 million for the new Exploration Drilling Grant Initiative to expand the real and potential mining base industry in Tasmania through supporting increased 'greenfield' mineral exploration with applications opening on 6 September 2018.
- (4) Further notes that there is no better friend of the mining and minerals processing than the Hodgman Liberal Government. (30 August 2018)

91 Ms O'Connor to move—That the House orders the Premier to lay upon the Table of the House a copy of each Memorandum of Understanding between the Chinese Government, or Chinese Government controlled entities, and the State of Tasmania or Tasmanian State entities since March 2014 on or before 27 September 2018. (18 September 2018)

92 Ms Woodruff to move—That the House, in accordance with section 47 of the Acts Interpretation Act 1931, disallows the Clarence City Council – Public Places By-Law (No. 1 of 2018) laid upon the Table of the House on Tuesday 12 June 2018. (18 September 2018)

93 Ms White to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes State Treasurers will meet in October 2018 to decide whether to support changes to the distribution of the GST.
- (2) Recognises the current GST distribution model ensures that all jurisdictions can provide similar quality public services, such as health and education, which all citizens can enjoy regardless of where they live.
- (3) Agrees any move away from full horizontal fiscal equalisation would reduce the level of equity between the states and territories and disadvantage Tasmania.
- (4) Further agrees that all Members of Parliament should be fully informed about the implications of the proposed changes to the GST distribution model and the impact this will have on Tasmania.
- (5) Calls on the Treasurer, Hon Peter Gutwein MP, to facilitate a briefing for all Members of State Parliament from the State Department of Treasury on the Federal Government's GST policy before the State Treasurers meeting in October 2018. (18 September 2018)

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- 94 Ms O'Byrne to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that Australia is still lagging behind other nations in representation of women in parliament.
 - (2) Further notes:—
 - (a) that achieving this goal has been further hampered by recent events concerning alleged bullying and shaming of women in Parliament;
 - (b) the comments by the former most senior Liberal party woman in the country, Hon Julie Bishop MP regarding women in leadership;
 - (c) the disparaging comments regarding women in parliament by Senator the Hon. Eric Abetz;
 - (d) the Tasmanian Parliament has a 50 % representation of women but that this is largely due to Labor, Independents and minor parties; and
 - (e) the risk that the ability to encourage women's participation in parliament is hampered by the current treatment of elected women.
 - (3) Investigates gender awareness training for all Members. (18 September 2018)
- 95 Mr Hidding to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes the Tasmanian Labor Party's rule "appointments to electorate or ministerial offices of State and Federal members of the Parliamentary Labor Party must be members of the Party, and a financial member of the relevant Union".
 - (2) Further notes that to get a taxpayer-funded job with the Labor Party you need to have paid membership fees to the Labor Party and the Unions, maintain that membership for the period of their employment, and obey the rules of both organisations.
 - (3) Further notes that the Labor Party rules effectively enforcing compulsory union and party membership are a potential breach of Federal and/or State legislation.
 - (4) Calls on the Labor Party to act immediately to remove this discriminatory requirement from its Tasmanian Labor Party rules. (18 September 2018)
- 96 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—
- (1) Pays tribute to the Tasmanian Farmers and Graziers Association (TFGA) for its 70 years of service to rural and regional Tasmania.
 - (2) Recognises the TFGA's powerful and effective voice for the farming sector and the vision it shares with this Government for agriculture.
 - (3) Understands that there is no greater supporter of Tasmanian farmers than the Hodgman Liberal Government.
 - (4) Notes that the Government is backing the TFGA's mission to provide a voice for farmers to ensure the growth, sustainability and profitability of our agriculture sector including:—
 - (a) investing $150 million in an AgriFood Plan; and
 - (b) focusing on growing the value of agriculture to $10 billion by 2050.
 - (5) Further notes the TFGA's leadership in working with governments to create lasting policy change and a vibrant future for the agriculture sector.
 - (6) Calls on all Members of the House to work with the TFGA to help build future opportunities and build on Tasmania's unique position in the world. (18 September 2018)
- 97 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes the international reputation of Tasmania's trout fishery.
 - (2) Appreciates that Tasmania's inland fisheries attracts more than 26,000 recreational anglers each year, including 5,000 from interstate and overseas.
 - (3) Recognises that the Hodgman Liberal Government understands the importance of fishing tourism and, at the same time, is ensuring trout fishing remains a valued tradition for generations of Tasmanians by:—
 - (a) making it cheaper to go trout fishing by freezing licence fees for the next four years;
 - (b) supporting peak group Anglers Alliance Tasmania through the Anglers Access Program by investing $215,000 over four years to improve community amenities at high visitation waters; and

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (c) working with Anglers Alliance Tasmania and Trout Guides and Lodges Tasmania to further market and promote angling tourism.
- (4) Supports the Tasmanian Inland Recreational Fishery Management Plan 2018-28 that is helping to grow and develop recreational trout fishing by providing better opportunities for anglers, assess fishery performance and manage fish stocks for future generations.
- (5) Further recognises that Tasmania's strong reputation for trout fishing will be further enhanced when the World Fly Fishing Championships will be held in our State in December 2019. (18 September 2018)
- 98 The Minister for Veterans Affairs to move—That the House:—
- (1) Recognises that Saturday, 15 September 2018, was Battle of Britain Day, an annual day of remembrance for those who fought and died in the Battle of Britain, history's first entirely aerial campaign and a strategic turning point of the Second World War.
- (2) Notes that the Battle occurred over the United Kingdom between 10 July 1940 and 31 October 1940 between the air forces of Nazi Germany and the then British Empire and Commonwealth.
- (3) Further notes that Allied success in the Battle was pivotal in seeing the planned seaborne invasion of the United Kingdom by Hitler's Germany cancelled, allowing the British Isles to eventually become the springboard from which the invasion of occupied Europe was performed, leading to the liberation of millions under Nazi oppression.
- (4) Pays tribute to 'The Few', as Winston Churchill immortally named the fighter pilots fighting in the skies over Britain, for their service, courage and sacrifice, including more than thirty Australians, 14 of whom died in the Battle including Flight Lieutenant Stuart Walch, of Hobart, who attended the Hutchins School before joining the RAAF.
- (5) Acknowledges that over the past weekend 15/16 September 2018, a memorial service commemorating the Battle was held at St David's Cathedral and a wreath laying service at the Hobart Cenotaph with representatives from the Australian Defence Force, foreign militaries, ex-service organisations and all levels of Government attending. (18 September 2018)
- 99 The Minister for Veterans Affairs to move—That the House:—
- (1) Recognises that Friday, September 14, 2018 was Australian Peacekeepers Day, an annual day of remembrance for Australian military and police personnel who have served in peacekeeping operations across the globe.
- (2) Notes that this day is the 72nd anniversary of the United Nations' first peacekeeping mission in 1947—an operation which consisted of four Australian military officers on the UN Good Offices Commission in the then Dutch East Indies, now known as Indonesia.
- (3) Further notes that since this date, over 75,000 Australian defence and Police Force personnel have participated in 77 operations in 65 different countries.
- (4) Commend our Tasmanian peacekeepers and their families for their service and the invaluable contribution they have made toward achieving peace in areas of need.
- (5) Acknowledges the members of the Australian Peacekeepers and Peacemakers Veteran's Association – Tasmania Division.
- (6) Pays tribute to the 3,767 multi-national personnel who have died on UN peacekeeping operations since 1948. (18 September 2018)
