Notices of Motion

- 104 The Minister for Resources to move—That the House:—
- (1) Recognises that the 5th Longford Jazz Festival took place from Friday 14 September to 16 September 2018.
 - (2) Appreciates the Festival was a celebration of everything that is special and unique about jazz music, including an impressive range of performers from around the State and country.
 - (3) Acknowledges the 2018 Festival included a program of events celebrating key elements of jazz culture and music—highlighted by a Jazz Ball on Saturday 15 September 2018 hosted by two jazz artists from the mainland.
 - (4) Congratulates Don Ives for his leadership and vision to first start the music festival in 2014.
 - (5) Commends Matthew Ives and the Matthew Ives Big Band with special guests Paul Furniss and Paul Ingle for their performance in the Longford Hall at the Festival this year.
 - (6) Further acknowledges the nearly 50 Tasmanian performing artists involved with the Festival, who came from all around the State showcasing their incredible talent.
 - (7) Further congratulates all those involved for their hard work in promoting and putting on the Festival and also the Longford community on their efforts and commitment in again hosting what is a growing festival each year. (20 September 2018)
- 105 The Treasurer to move—That the House approve in, accordance with subsections 11(7) and 12(4) of the Public Account Act 1986, additional Recurrent Services and Works and Services expenditure in 2017-18 for the purposes detailed in the Section 19 Return for the June Quarter 2018. (20 September 2018).
- 106 Ms Butler to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes the Tasmanian Burials and Cremations Act 2002 does not provide perpetuity rights for interments.
 - (2) Acknowledges all other Australian jurisdictions provide perpetual interment options within their burials and cremations legislation or regulation.
 - (3) Further notes the current review of the Burials and Cremations Act 2002 is a significant opportunity to introduce perpetual interment rights.
 - (4) Further acknowledges the Tasmanian Burials and Cremations Act 2002 is behind other Australian jurisdictions.
 - (5) Further notes the lack of perpetual interment rights for Tasmanian Veterans.
 - (6) Further notes that Tasmanian Veterans deserve the same interment rights as other Australian Veterans.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (7) Calls upon the Minister for Local Government, Hon. Peter Gutwein MP to amend the Burials and Cremations Act 2002 to ensure that cremation or bodily remains interred in a graveyard or burial ground are interred for perpetuity.
- (8) Further calls upon the Minister to amend the Burials and Cremations Act 2002 to convert the right of interment to a perpetual right of interment in all Tasmanian graveyards and burial grounds.
- (9) Further calls on the Government to review and amend the Burials and Cremations Act 2002 to provide perpetuity rights to interments by 1 December 2018. (25 September 2018)

107 Ms Butler to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes Tasmania does not have its own child safe standards against which the performance of those providing Out of Home Care (OOHC) (including the Department of Communities) can be held to account.
- (2) Recognises that while the Charter of Rights for Tasmanian Children and Young People in OOHC is embedded in practice, there is no public reporting specifically against the Charter.
- (3) Further notes Tasmania, unlike other jurisdictions including Victoria, Queensland and South Australia, is yet to introduce legally mandated child safe standards or risk management principles.
- (4) Further notes child safe standards are compulsory minimum standards for all organisations that provide services to children, including schools.
- (5) Further recognises child safe standards provide a framework to identify gaps and improve policy practices around child safety.
- (6) Agrees child safe standards ensure organisations are well prepared to protect children from abuse and neglect.
- (7) Calls on the Government to draft child safe standards and develop an implementation plan by 1 December 2018. (25 September 2018)

108 Ms Butler to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that all people should be afforded respect and the right to access government funded community services that are safe and high quality.
- (2) Acknowledges there is an increase in the number of services delivered by the community sector, including disability, housing and child protection services and there is an urgent need to ensure the rights of people are protected.
- (3) Calls on the Government to establish an independent Community Services Commissioner with the powers to:—
 - (a) handle individual complaints;
 - (b) review the situation of an individual, or group of people;
 - (c) monitor and review the delivery of community services and make recommendations to improve the delivery of services and to promote the rights and best interests of service receivers;
 - (d) inquire into matters affecting services and people eligible to receive community services; and
 - (e) promote access to advocacy support for service receivers to ensure adequate participation in decision-making about services they receive.
- (4) Further calls on the Government to provide the House an update on 29 November 2018 regarding the progress to establish a Community Service Commissioner. (25 September 2018)

109 The Minister for Veterans' Affairs to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that 22 September – 30 September 2018 is Veterans' Health Week, an annual event celebrating the ongoing efforts being made to improve the health and wellbeing of the veteran and ex-service community.
- (2) Notes that the aim of Veterans' Health Week, is to raise awareness of, and encourage participation in, activities that promote and maintain the health and wellbeing of veterans, their families and carers.
- (3) Further notes that the key message for Veterans' Health Week 2018 is the promotion of healthy lifestyles with a special focus on nutrition.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (4) Commends the staff of the Department of Veterans Affairs and volunteers from many organisations across the State including RSL Sub-Branches, Ex-Service organisations, sporting clubs and other community groups for their efforts in participating in the 2018 Veterans Health Week program in Tasmania.
- (5) Encourages the community to get involved and help support our veterans and the ex-serving people who provide such an example of service and sacrifice to our society. (25 September 2018)

110 Mr Hidding to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that the most recent export figures released by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) show Tasmania exported a near-record $3.7 billion of goods in the year to July 2018.
- (2) Further notes that Tasmania leads the nation with 29.2 per cent growth in exports over 2017, which is nearly four times higher than the national rate of growth.
- (3) Further notes that over 80 per cent of Tasmanian goods exports were into Asian markets, with top export sectors being mining and mineral products, as well as agriculture and seafood.
- (4) Further notes that Tasmania's top two export destinations were China and Malaysia, representing $1.42 billion worth of our total exports.
- (5) Further notes that this continued strong growth in exports demonstrates the success of the Government's plan to open up new opportunities for Tasmanian products, underpinned by Trade Missions with the business sector to important export markets.
- (6) Further notes that the Government's strong focus on trade is leading to new investment and job creating opportunities in Tasmania. (25 September 2018)
