Notices of Motion

- 132 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to supporting our farmers and valuable reputation for clean and safe food by providing $200,000 for the “Cows out of Creeks” project.
  - (2) Further notes that the project, which is being delivered by DairyTas, is focussed on key dairy regions across the State’s North-West and aims to improve the health of Tasmania’s waterways.
  - (3) Further notes that the funding will help support installation of water troughs and stock watering systems, stock crossings and fencing to provide livestock with access to clean water off-stream, ensuring that river banks are better protected and any nutrients, sediments and pathogen loads entering waterways are reduced.
  - (4) Further notes that the program currently covers 37 projects, with each provided with funding of up to $5,500 to be used for stock watering systems (troughs, pipe, pump etc.), fencing and stock crossings.
  - (5) Further notes that “Cows out of Creeks” forms part of the Hodgman Liberal Government’s new $2 million Landcare Actions Grants Program, which will co-invest with farmers, Landcare, and other community organisations on practical on-ground works for sustainable agriculture and rivercare.
  - (6) Congratulates DairyTas for their work in supporting both dairy and beef farmers to be involved in this important project, which also includes a partnership with beef processor Greenhams. (27 November 2018)
- 133 The Minister for Veterans' Affairs to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes the tremendous work done throughout Tasmania’s regions by RSL Sub-Branches, particularly during this Centenary of ANZAC period.
  - (2) Commends the St Helens-St Marys RSL Sub-Branch for their effort over the years in helping enhance the St Helens Memorial Park.
  - (3) Further notes that the most recent addition to this standout memorial was the installation of four new plaques commemorating Tasmania's Anzac heritage, which I was honoured to unveil on 29 October 2018.
  - (4) Further notes that the plaques include pictures depicting a poem from Flanders Field, the 'ode', the Gallipoli landing, and troops walking through a bombed out area.
  - (5) Further notes that manufacture and installation of the plaques was supported by a grant of $6000 to the St Helens-St Marys RSL Sub Branch, which I was proud to help secure.
  - (6) Congratulates Sub-Branch President Gary Graham, local historian Graham Cameron and other Sub-Branch members and supporters for their commitment to ensuring that the region’s Anzac heritage is remembered and also notes the presence of Break O’Day Mayor Mick Tucker at the unveiling.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (7) Acknowledges that the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to helping build our rural and regional communities and promoting the memory of our veterans especially during this Centenary of ANZAC period. (28 November 2018)

134 The Minister for Energy to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed between Hydro Tasmania and Norway's hydropower research institute, HydroCen, on 23 November 2018 to grow collaborative activities on future renewable energy opportunities.
- (2) Further notes that USA's Oakridge National Laboratory and Department of Energy were also present and engaged in discussions to enhance collaboration on hydropower and electricity market research.
- (3) Acknowledges the importance of these collaborative arrangements to further explore opportunities for Tasmania to become the "Battery of the Nation" which has the potential to bring billions of dollars of energy projects and thousands of jobs to Tasmania.
- (4) Further notes that Tasmania has what the rest of the country wants in regards to low cost, reliable and clean baseload power.
- (5) Further notes that Our Tasmania First energy policy is inextricably linked to the expansion of Tasmania's renewable generation capacity, where the Hodgman Liberal Government has set a target of achieving the lowest regulated power prices in the country by 2022, and to make Tasmania 100 per cent self-sufficient in renewable energy by 2022.
- (6) Commends Hydro Tasmania for its continued efforts to ensure Tasmania's renewable energy knowledge, expertise and opportunities are recognised globally. (28 November 2018)

135 Mr Hidding to move—That the Standing Orders and Rules of the House be amended as follows:—

First Amendment:—

Standing Order 2, paragraph (d), leave out all the words after 'following' and insert instead:—
"Code of Conduct"

PREAMBLE

Members of Parliament recognise that their actions have an impact on the lives of all Tasmanian people. Fulfilling their obligations and discharging their duties responsibly requires a commitment to the highest ethical standards to maintain and strengthen the democratic traditions of the State and the integrity of its institutions.

Compliance with the law may not always be enough to guarantee an acceptable standard of conduct. Members must not only act lawfully, but also in a manner that will withstand close public scrutiny.

This Code sets out ethical standards and principles to assist Members in observing expected standards of conduct in public office and to act as a benchmark against which their conduct can be measured.

Neither the law nor this Code is designed to be exhaustive, and there may be instances where Members find it necessary to adopt more stringent norms of conduct in order to protect the public interest, and to enhance public confidence and trust. In making choices about conduct, Members should have regard to community values and standards.

Members should also, where possible, avoid giving unnecessary offence to groups in the community whose beliefs and views differ from those held by the Members or by groups the Member represents.

Members are expected to promote and support this Code by leadership and example.

STATEMENT OF VALUES

This Code is derived from the fundamental values of the institution of the Parliament in this State. By adopting and upholding this Code, all Members of Parliament share in and support these values.

As Members of Parliament, we value:

- the public interest and the fundamental objective of public office to act solely in terms of the public interest;
- the improvement of the economic and social conditions of all Tasmanian people, and our service to our fellow citizens to achieve this;
- the promotion of human, social and environmental welfare through the responsible execution of our official duties;
- integrity, honesty, accessibility, accountability, fairness, transparency, courtesy, respect and understanding, without harassment, victimisation or discrimination;
- respect for differences, equity and fairness in political dealings, with fellow Members of Parliament; and
- ethical political practices that support the democratic traditions of our State and its institutions, and the rejection of political corruption.

ETHICAL STANDARDS

Conflict of interest

A Member protects and upholds the public interest by taking all reasonable steps to avoid, disclose and manage any conflict of interest that arises, or is likely to arise, between their personal interests and their official duties.

A conflict of interest may be financial or non-financial and may be potential, actual or perceived.

A conflict of interest does not exist where the Member, their spouse or domestic partner, relative or associate is affected only as a member of the public or of a broad class of persons.

Each Member is individually responsible for avoiding and managing conflicts of interest.

Declaration of personal interests

A Member is personally responsible for full and accurate disclosure of their financial and other interests, in accordance with their obligations under the Parliamentary (Disclosure of Interests) Act 1996.

Use of public office

A Member makes proper use of their office to represent and serve the community, conducting themselves in ways that maintains the trust and confidence of the public.

A Member must not use their influence as a Member to improperly obtain appointment, promotion, advancement, transfer or any other advantage or benefit on behalf of themselves or other persons.

A Member must not appoint their spouse, domestic partner or relative to a position in their own office.

A Member must not receive or seek to receive any fee, payment, retainer or reward, nor permit any compensation to accrue to their beneficial interest, for or on account of, or as a result of, their position as a Member, other than compensation to which they are entitled as a Member of Parliament.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

Use of official information

A Member makes appropriate use of official information strictly for the purpose of performing their role as a Member of Parliament in the best interests of the public.

A Member must take care to protect confidential and official information in their possession or knowledge.

A Member must not use official information which is not in the public domain, or information obtained in confidence in the course of their official duties or position, for the advantage or benefit of themselves or another person.

Use of public resources

A Member uses public resources and assets strictly for the purpose of performing their role as a Member of Parliament, and in accordance with any rules and guidelines regarding the use of those resources and assets.

A Member must not use public resources, or allow such resources to be used by others, for personal advantage or benefit.

A Member must be scrupulous in ensuring the legitimacy and accuracy of any claim they make on the public account.

Gifts and benefits

A Member must adhere to standards of transparency and accountability in relation to gifts or benefits, and carry out their duties as a Member of Parliament without being influenced by gifts or benefits.

A Member must not solicit, encourage or accept gifts, benefits or favours which may improperly influence the Member in the exercise of their duties, or may give the appearance of improper influence. Exceptions to this are incidental gifts or customary hospitality of nominal value.

A Member must declare gifts and benefits received, as required by the Parliamentary (Disclosure of Interests) Act 1996.

Accuracy of statements

A Member must only make statements in Parliament and in public that are, to the best of their knowledge, accurate and honest.

A Member must not mislead Parliament or the public in statements that they may make.

Whether any misleading was intentional or unintentional a Member is obliged to correct the Parliamentary record or the public record, at the earliest opportunity in a manner that is appropriate to the circumstances.

Outside employment

A Member must manage employment outside of Parliament to ensure that any such employment does not interfere with their duties as a Member of Parliament.

A Member must not engage in any employment outside Parliament that involves a substantial commitment of time and effort to the extent that it interferes with their duties as a Member.

Upholding the principles of respect, justice and inclusion for all Tasmanians

Members agree to respect the religious and cultural beliefs of others, in accordance with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Members agree to uphold the principles of justice and inclusion among our multicultural society, making efforts to generate understanding of all groups.

Members agree to recognise and value diversity as an integral part of Australia's social and economic future.

Members should promote reconciliation with Indigenous Australians.

Parliamentary conduct

A Member conducts themselves in Parliament in ways that will protect the public interest, and enhance public confidence and trust in Parliament.

A Member must observe proper standards of parliamentary conduct by complying with Standing Orders, and directions of the Presiding Officer.

A Member must take particular care to consider the rights and reputations of others before making use of the unique protection available under parliamentary privilege. This privilege should never be used recklessly or without due regard to accuracy.

Second Amendment:—

Standing Order 2, repeal paragraph (e).

Third Amendment:—

Standing Order 325, after "Privileges" insert "and Conduct".

Fourth Amendment:—

Standing Order 325, after "Privilege" insert "or the provisions of the Code of Conduct". (28 November 2018)

5 Tasmanian Export Growth: Adjourned debate on the Question proposed on Wednesday, 26 September 2018 by Mr Hidding, as amended—That the House:—

- (1) Notes that the most recent export figures released by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) show Tasmania exported a near-record $3.7 billion of goods in the year to July 2018.
- (2) Further notes that Tasmania leads the nation with 29.2 per cent growth in exports over 2017, which is nearly four times higher than the national rate of growth.
- (3) Further notes that over 80 per cent of Tasmanian goods exports were into Asian markets, with top export sectors being mining and mineral products, as well as agriculture and seafood.
- (4) Further notes that Tasmania's top five export destinations were China, Malaysia, Japan, Taiwan and Thailand representing $2.25 billion worth of our total exports.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (5) Further notes that this continued strong growth in exports demonstrates the success of the Government's plan to open up new opportunities for Tasmanian products, underpinned by Trade Missions with the business sector to important export markets.
- (6) Further notes that the Government's strong focus on trade is leading to new investment and job creating opportunities in Tasmania. (Next Speaker: Ms O'Connor)

6 Supreme Court Civil Procedure Amendment Bill 2018 (No. 52): Adjourned Debate on the Question proposed on Tuesday, 27 November 2018 by the Minister for Justice – That the Bill be now read the Second time. (Next Speaker: Minister for Justice)

12 Code of Conduct for Members of Parliament: Consideration of the following Message from the Legislative Council: -

MADAM SPEAKER

The Legislative Council having agreed to the following Resolution, begs now to transmit the same to the House of Assembly, and to Request its concurrence therein –

Resolved, With Reference to the Report No. 3 of the Joint Standing Committee on Integrity, the Legislative Council adopt a Code of Conduct for all Members of the Parliament of Tasmania in the following terms –

PREAMBLE

Members of Parliament recognise that their actions have an impact on the lives of all Tasmanian people. Fulfilling their obligations and discharging their duties responsibly requires a commitment to the highest ethical standards to maintain and strengthen the democratic traditions of the State and the integrity of its institutions.
