Notices of Motion

- 34 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that Tasmania's award winning wine industry injects more than $100 million into the State's economy and directly employs more than 2,000 full time equivalent positions, often in regional areas.
 - (2) Further notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government is investing $600,000 to further develop wine export and visitor markets with Wine Tasmania using the funding to grow Tasmania's presence and reputation in the United Kingdom, USA, Hong Kong and domestic markets, with a secondary focus on broader Asia, specifically Japan and Singapore.
 - (3) Further notes that Tasmania's wine grape harvest is in full swing with reports across the state that quality is excellent and the 2019 crop is on track to surpass the record 2018 yield.
 - (4) Further notes that the Government is investing a further $250,000 to match funding from the Federal International Wine Tourism State Grants program.
 - (5) Further notes that these and other initiatives will assist the Government in meeting its target of increasing the farm gate value of Tasmania's agricultural sector to $10 billion a year by 2050. (1 May 2019)
- 35 The Minister for Primary Industries and Water to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that the 37th annual Agfest, Tasmania's premier agricultural and machinery field day event, will run from 2-4 May 2019.
 - (2) Recognises that Agfest was first held at Symmons Plains in 1983 however had outgrown that site by 1986 where it was moved to its current location at Quercus Park, Carrick.
 - (3) Acknowledges that Agfest is administered by Rural Youth Tasmania who are a non-profit organisation with members between the ages of 15 and 30.
 - (4) Further notes that the Agfest Committee is a volunteer role comprised of approximately 60 Rural Youth members.
 - (5) Agfest continues to grow each year, with Agfest 2018 attracting over 60,000 patrons and 700 exhibitors injecting millions of dollars into our local economy annually.
 - (6) Congratulates Agfest for offering to donate 50 per cent of transactions at 2019's event to the Rural Alive and Well program, aimed at assisting communities on mental health issues.
 - (7) Further congratulates Agfest Chair Owen Woolley, State President Dale Hayers and thanks Rural Youth and its tireless band of volunteers for their hard work and dedication that has made Agfest the truly iconic, nationally recognised event it has become. (1 May 2019)

- 38 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to improving early childhood education, by rolling out free 3 year old Early Childhood Education.
 - (2) Recognises that in support of that commitment to early years education, a Tender has been advertised for Sassafra Primary School, to refurbish and reconfigure the early years area, comprising of:—
 - (a) contemporary early years learning environment including improved indoor-outdoor access;
 - (b) undercover outdoor play; and
 - (c) new toilets.
 - (3) Further notes that the above works will compliment some works already completed.
 - (4) Acknowledges that in 2018 the Hodgman Liberal Government committed a $15 million dollar funding package towards new Kindergartens and upgrading of existing Kindergartens.
 - (5) Commends the Hodgman Liberal Government for its commitment to excellence in education, to improving lifelong education, and well-being outcomes, through investing in the early years where children learn to communicate, get along with others, and control and adapt their behaviour, emotions and thinking, and where research tells us that the best outcomes for wellbeing are established. (2 May 2019)

- 39 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (1) Notes Tasmania has the renewable and dispatchable energy the rest of the nation needs, and the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to using this advantage to ensure all Tasmanians benefit.
- (2) Records this Governments continuing drive for the development of the Battery of the Nation and the crucial second interconnector, the Marinus project, which have the potential to inject up to $5 billion into the Tasmanian economy and deliver 2,000 jobs, particularly into regional areas.
- (3) Further notes that the development stage of the first phase of the Battery of the Nation carries the commitment of the Federal Government through the Federal Underwriting New Generation Investment program.
- (4) Further notes that support by both the Hodgman Liberal Government and the Federal Government, gives UPC Renewables and AC energy, more confidence to develop their Robbins Island and Jims Plain wind and solar parks.
- (5) Recognises that Tasmania has a world-class wind resource complemented by our pumped hydro that means there will always be some electricity available for export when the mainland is experiencing low wind or high demand.
- (6) Acknowledges that the Australian Government clearly recognises the importance of Tasmania's energy solutions and our status as the leading energy state.
- (7) Commends the Hodgman Liberal Government for its strong commitment to making use of the natural resources available to the State while at the same time ensuring all Tasmanians will have access to low cost, reliable and clean energy in their homes and businesses. (2 May 2019)

40 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—

- (1) Congratulates the McCain Potato processing on its recently announced plan to spend $37 million upgrading its Smithton factory.
- (2) Notes that this upgrade will result in the creation of 17 full time jobs.
- (3) Further notes, that in addition to job creation, 25 new potato products will also be produced at the Smithton plant.
- (4) Acknowledges that increasing the product range produced at the Smithton factory will encourage growers to maintain current levels of supply. McCains currently store approximately 45,000 tonnes of potatoes on-site and 25,000 tonnes off-site. The remainder - about 40,000 tonnes are processed immediately after harvesting.
- (5) Further acknowledges that the McCain investment is a reflection of significant confidence in Tasmanian agribusiness in our regions. (2 May 2019)

41 The Minister for The Minister for Energy to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes the Hodgman Liberal Government's commitment to reducing the cost of living pressure for Tasmanians and delivering the lowest regulated electricity prices in the nation by 2022 thanks to its Tasmania-First Energy Policy.
- (2) Acknowledges that a key path to reducing cost of living pressures is by improving the energy efficiency of Tasmanian households and businesses.
- (3) Further notes that since 2017 the Tasmanian Energy Efficiency Loan scheme (TEELS) has assisted over 3,800 Tasmanians access funds totalling $34 million to purchase energy saving options for their home or business.
- (4) Further notes that as of 30 April 2019, TEELS has enabled residential and small business customers to access interest-free loans and purchase energy efficiency products such as heat pumps, double and triple glazing, solar hot water or solar panels.
- (5) Further notes that the Government will continue assisting Tasmanians in reducing their energy usage by investing $1 million over four years into the No Interest Loans Scheme (NILS), targeted at supporting low-income households.
- (6) Further notes that NILS provides a significant subsidy (of up to 50 per cent) toward the purchase cost for new energy efficient appliances up to a value of $3,000 with a no interest loan being provided for the remainder of the product cost. (2 May 2019)

42 The Minister for Energy to move—That the House:—

- (1) Notes the recent upgrades to the historic Waddamana Power Station Heritage Site in the Central Highlands.

NOTICES OF MOTION AND ORDERS

- (2) Recognises that these staged upgrades will be a drawcard for the region, providing a memorable experience for visitors, who will be able to tour the original turbine hall, experiencing Tasmania's first large scale power scheme.
- (3) Further notes that this refurbished attraction complements the Highlands Power Trail, a self-drive journey through the Great Lake Power Scheme, launched in 2017.
- (4) Further notes the timing of the upgrades with the Central Highlands set for an influx of visitors with the 2019 World Fly Fishing Championships to be held in the region during November/December 2019.
- (5) Further notes that the Championships will put Tasmania's Central Highlands on show to the rest of the world, with three of five events held across this magnificent region.
- (6) Further notes that these and other initiatives will assist the Hodgman Liberal Government in working with local communities to achieve our target of 70% of all visitors to stay overnight in regional areas during their trip to Tasmania by 2022. (2 May 2019)

43 The Minister for Building and Construction to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises the valuable work of Self Help Workplace, which has been providing employment opportunities for people with a disability since 1962.
- (2) Further recognises that Self Help employs more than 50 people and is the largest employer of people with a disability in the Launceston region.
- (3) Notes Self Help's latest venture, Spruce Grounds Maintenance, provides further opportunities for employees to use their skills and connect with the community.
- (4) Further recognises that Self Help Workplace has received $14,000 funding for the Spruce project through the Charitable Organisations Grants Program as part of the Community Support Levy.
- (5) Further notes that the funding has enabled Self Help to purchase equipment, including the latest safety gear and to provide training.
- (6) Thanks the volunteers and corporate supporters of Self Help Workplace and urges Members to promote the good work of this respected organisation. (2 May 2019)

44 The Minister for Building and Construction to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises the importance of the Flinders Island District High School community and the role it plays in bringing people together.
- (2) Notes the Hodgman Liberal Government's provision of $50,000 to the School's Playground Fundraising Committee to create new play equipment and upgrade existing equipment.
- (3) Congratulates the community on the fundraising contribution to this great project.
- (4) Further recognises that the Government's funding is in line with the State's Healthy Tasmania Five Year Strategic Plan to encourage Tasmanians to get healthy and live happier, longer lives no matter where they live.
- (5) Supports grassroots organisations as one of the best ways to increase participation in sport and recreation. (2 May 2019)

45 The Minister for Building and Construction to move—That the House:—

- (1) Recognises that the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to helping Tasmanians to build by reducing red tape and streamlining building processes.
- (2) Welcomes a new online portal that will make it easier for Tasmanians to access information about their properties and to apply for planning and building permits.
- (3) Notes that the Planning and Building Portal will deliver a single state-wide system that integrates all planning, building and related approvals, and will incorporate features such as:—
 - (a) online access to information and regulatory requirements;
 - (b) online application lodgement, which will allow owners and agents to lodge planning applications and associated documents; and
 - (c) an application tracking service, which will allow applicants to view and track applications from lodgement to determination.
- (4) Further recognises that the Australian and State Governments have committed more than $9 million to the project, which is due for completion by 2021. (2 May 2019)

- 46 The Minister for the Arts to move—That the House:—
- (1) Recognises that the new eight-episode crime drama series, The Gloaming, began filming in Hobart on 25 March 2019.
 - (2) Notes that The Gloaming is the latest creation from Tasmanian producer and writer Vicki Madden, following the success of her last television series, 'The Kettering Incident'.
 - (3) Further notes this world-class production that will have national and international exposure will be led by a stellar cast, including stars Emma Booth, Ewen Leslie and Aaron Pedersen.
 - (4) Acknowledges the support of the Hodgman Liberal Government of $1million through the new Screen Innovation Fund to the series, which is the largest screen production to ever be filmed in Tasmania.
 - (5) Further notes that the show, shot entirely in Tasmania, is expected to bring substantial economic benefits to the State with over $7.5 million to be spent on Tasmanian good and services, including accommodation, catering and transport. (2 May 2019)
- 47 Mrs Rylah to move—That the House:—
- (1) Notes that the Hodgman Liberal Government is committed to improving early childhood education, by rolling out free 3 year old Early Childhood Education.
