

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

SESSION OF 2019

(SECOND SESSION OF THE FORTY-NINTH PARLIAMENT)

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

No. 48

THURSDAY, 28 NOVEMBER 2019

1 COUNCIL MEETS.— The Council met at 11.00 o'clock in the forenoon and the President read Prayers.

2 PALLIATIVE CARE.— Mr Gaffney asked the Honourable the Leader of the Government —

- (1) As the Government made both a 2018 election commitment and that Building Your Future 2018 First Year Agenda referenced designated palliative care rooms to be developed at Mersey Hospital, when will this service be delivered so that the dying on the North West can have the same access to palliative care as those in the North and South of the State currently have?
- (2) Given that the Palliative Care Australia Minimum Standards regarding designated palliative care beds per population recommends 6.7 beds per 100,000 people, and that the four beds promised at the Mersey Hospital will be short of attaining minimum standards, will the Government meet minimum standards by providing additional designated palliative care beds at the North West Regional Hospital (NWRH), noting that the current multipurpose units at NWRH are not designated palliative care rooms and palliative care patients are not able to access these rooms when patients with non-palliative care needs are accessing them?
- (3) Noting that funding for Palliative Care Tasmania (PCT) is set to cease on 30 June 2020, and a commitment for funding past this date has not been received from the State Government (and that the services could not be provided within the public health system as cost effectively or with as much community reach and access), will the Government provide a guaranteed commitment to enable PCT to continue their valuable work?

The Leader answered,

- (1) I can confirm that the Hodgman majority Liberal Government is committed to delivering dedicated palliative care beds at the Mersey in line with our election policy. We are continuing to make progress on the $35 million redevelopment of the Mersey, following the completion of the Rehabilitation Ward earlier this year.

The Department of Health advises that planning work for the Medical Ward, which contains the dedicated palliative care beds, is on track to commence in the first half of 2020.

The model of care will include beds with specialist 24-hour care, and will work closely with the community based Specialist Palliative Care Service. These beds will be fully funded and staffed.

At present, palliative care patients receive high quality care on the medical ward using existing infrastructure, including single rooms and the family lounge. We are focused on ensuring Tasmanians have access to the best possible palliative care services and facilities, so that families and carers can receive the support they need, when they need it.

- (2) Three beds are presently available on the medical ward at the North West Regional Hospital (NWRH) to provide palliative care.

If these beds are occupied, patients will still receive the same level of care in alternate and appropriate single rooms, cared for by the acute medical team with in-reach from the Specialist Palliative Care Service. This is in addition to the high-quality services that palliative care patients receive at the Mersey Community Hospital.

- (3) Palliative Care Tasmania (PCT) is a highly valued organisation and works closely with the Department of Health, across the state.

Funding for PCT has traditionally come through Federal Government sources. The Tasmanian Government has wherever possible and appropriate to do so, supported PCT to secure federal funding.

The Hodgman majority Liberal Government has also provided significant support for a number of groups and organisations to deliver important community-based palliative and end-of-life care initiatives, including PCT.

This is evidenced by the more than $2 million in funds, provided through the Department of Health to PCT for projects and initiatives that enhance education, capacity and capability within the palliative care sector in Tasmania.

The Government acknowledges and appreciates Palliative Care Tasmania's interest in certainty beyond the current agreement, and has strongly encouraged the organisation to take part in the Treasury Budget Community Consultation Process which is currently underway.

The Government will continue to engage and support the important work of PCT where possible, to help ensure that people have the best possible quality care at end of life and to support their families and carers receive the support they need.
