Reissued - Congratulations to New President

 Reissued - Please note correct MLC *****

Leader for the Government in the Legislative Council, Doug Parkinson today congratulated Sue Smith on becoming the new President of the Legislative Council in Tasmania.

Mr Parkinson said it was an honour for Tasmania to have its first female president in the Upper House.

"I look forward to working with Ms Smith as the new President and wish her the best of luck in her new role," Mr Parkinson said.

"I congratulate Don Wing for his contribution during his term as president, he played a great role as the impartial chair and I look forward to working with him in the future as a member on floor of the House."
