Presented by Mr. Nairn, and ordered by the Council to be printed,
8 September, 1859.

To the Honourable the Legislative Council of the Colony of Tasmania, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of the undersigned Residents in the District of Deloraine.

BELIEVING that State Aid to Religion is both injurious and unnecessary to the best interests thereof, humbly pray your Honourable House to pass the Bill now before the House of Assembly for its Abolition.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c. &c.
