

Ticket to Wellbeing Program – Future

Mr SHELTON question to MINISTER for SPORT

I have a constituent who has recently received a voucher from the Ticket to Wellbeing program. I know this is greatly appreciated, but I am also aware that there has been very high demand for the program. My constituent is wondering if the program will be continued and what is being done to ensure as many people as possible have access to the support it offers?