

Ticket to Wellbeing Application Process

Ms OGILVIE question to MINISTER for SPORT

My question is from a constituent who reached out recently to express the disappointment at missing out on the Ticket to Wellbeing program when it was released earlier this year. Even though they applied quickly, by the time that they did, their application for the program was closed. His question is: how's the Government making it easier for people to access this important program?