

Ticket to Wellbeing Application Process

Mr FAIRS question to MINISTER for SPORT

Mark from Legana contacted me recently to express his disappointment at missing out on the Ticket to Wellbeing program when it was released earlier this year. Even though they applied quickly, by the time they did their application, the program had closed. His question is: how is the Government making it easier for people to access this important program?