

PARLIAMENTARY (DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS) ACT 1996

ANNUAL RETURN – HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY/ LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

Introduction:

The Parliamentary \(Disclosure of Interests\) Act 1996 ("the Act") requires the disclosure of interests of all Members of the House of Assembly and the Legislative Council, and spouses of Members.

Annual Return:

You must lodge an Annual Return, disclosing interests for the previous financial year, with the appropriate Clerk on or before 1 October each year. This is not required if your Primary Return Date was after 30 April in that year.

You are guilty of contempt of Parliament if you fail to lodge a return as required by the Act, fail to disclose any information required under the Act, or provide false or misleading information on a return.

The directions and explanatory notes provided in this form are intended as a guide only. If you are in doubt about whether or not an interest is required to be disclosed you should refer to the Act and/or seek legal advice.

In accordance with Section 20 of the Act, completed returns will be tabled in Parliament and made publicly available online, on the Parliament of Tasmania's website at www.parliament.tas.gov.au

DIRECTIONS:

- a) The interests you are required to disclose in an Annual Return are set out in Section 7 of the Act, and apply to you, as the Member, and your spouse. Under the Act, spouse includes a person in a 'significant relationship' (which can include couples that are not married) as defined in Section 4 of the Relationships Act 2003.
- b) You are required to lodge a return even if you (and/or your spouse) have no interests to disclose. If there is nothing at all to declare, please indicate this by selecting 'no' at each question. All questions must be addressed.
- c) If there is not enough space in this form for you to list all the particulars required to complete it, attach an appendix for that purpose which is properly identified and signed. Appendix number(s) should be indicated in the relevant section of the form for cross referencing purposes.
- d) You may wish to seek independent professional legal, financial or other advice to ensure that the requirements of the Act are complied with.
- e) Your return must be lodged with the Clerk of the House of Assembly or the Legislative Council (depending on which House you are a Member of).

A. SOURCES OF INCOME

Did you, or your spouse, receive any income in the annual reporting period, excluding income received as remuneration under the Parliamentary Salaries, Superannuation and Allowances Act 2012 (Tas)?

- No – continue to Part B
- Yes – provide particulars below

Explanatory notes:

- 'Income' means assessable income within the meaning of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 \(Commonwealth\).
- The following categories are used as a guide by the Australian Tax Office: employment income; super pensions, annuities and government payments; investment income; business, partnership and trust income; foreign income; and crowdfunding income. Members should refer to the Australian Tax Office for further information.
- A source of income only needs to be recorded here if you or your spouse received income from that source in excess of $500 during the return period.

Please indicate the source of income (amounts are not necessary):

	Person or entity from which income was received	Why the income was received For example, payment for employment; interest from investments, partnership, or trusts; sale of shares; pension; rental payments; income from superannuation.
Self	Retirement Benefits Fund Tasmania MyState Financial	Super pension as a result of retirement from State Public Service Investment Income
Spouse	Department of Education, Tasmania	Employment Income

B. REAL PROPERTY

Did you, or your spouse, hold any interest in real property (whether or not in Tasmania) during the annual return period?

- No – continue to Part C
- Yes – provide particulars below

Explanatory notes:

- ‘Real property’ (often referred to as real estate) is property consisting of land or buildings.
- In this section, an interest means any estate, interest, right or power, at law or in equity, in or over the property.
- You may not be required to declare an interest in property if it is held only in the capacity as an executor or a trustee – refer to section 10 of the Act for more information¹.
- You are not required to declare the value of the property, or the value of the interest in the property.
- You are required to declare any interest in property held at any time during the annual return period, even if you no longer hold that interest. Note that dispositions of real estate are addressed separately at Part F of this form.

Guidance: what is “the legal nature of my interest in property”?

Which of the following best describes your ownership:	Your interest may be:
‘I possess sole legal title to the property’ (this includes group/strata title properties and perpetual leaseholds).	Sole owner
‘I possess legal title to a property .with somebody else’ (this includes group/strata title properties and perpetual leaseholds).	Joint tenant (if either of the joint owners die, the surviving owner automatically owns the property absolutely, no matter what provision is made in the Will of the deceased joint owner about that property)
	Tenant in common (each owner has a separate interest in the property, which is capable of being left by a Will. If either owner dies, his/her share in the property does not automatically pass to the other owner, but forms part of his/her estate). Tenants in common can hold either equal or unequal shares.
‘I enjoy the benefits of ownership (including; usage, income, profits) even though the legal title is in another name.’	Equitable and/or beneficial ownership – Example: You help your son to buy an investment property by paying the deposit. The agreement is made on the understanding that you will receive a third of the profits when the property is sold. The title is in your son’s name, and your son lives in the house and pays the mortgage. You still have an equitable interest in the property, and have ‘beneficial ownership’. – Example: Legal title of a rental property is held under a trust by a corporation, and you are a beneficiary of the trust.
‘I have a current right to possession and enjoyment of the property and its income until my death, but no ability to pass that right on to another party.’	Actual life estate Your right to the property is actually being exercised (ie it is not potential/future life estate). Your right to the property may also be contingent upon something (eg your marriage).

¹ Hold the interest only in the capacity as the executor or administrator of an estate of which you and your spouse are not beneficiaries; or Hold the interest in the capacity as a trustee, and you or your spouse’s interest was acquired in the ordinary course of your, or your spouse’s occupation unrelated to your duties as a Member.
