

Northern Suburbs Recreational Hub – Progress

Mr FAIRS question to MINISTER for SPORT

This comes from a number of my constituents recently. Progress at the site of the northern suburbs recreational hub and observe there's been increased activity around the development. It's certainly getting very exciting and is looking good from the outside. The question from many of my constituents is: when will they be able to get a good look inside and start enjoying the incredible facilities?