ROYAL ASSENT TO A BILL.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Imperial Parliament passed in the fifth and sixth years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for the Government of New South Wales and Van Diemen's Land," it is amongst other things enacted that no Bill which shall be reserved for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon shall have any force or authority within the Colony of New South Wales until the Governor of the said Colony shall signify either by Speech or Message to the Legislative Council of the said Colony, or by Proclamation as therein specified, that such Bill has been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and that Her Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same: And whereas by another Act of the Imperial Parliament passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her said Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better Government of Her Majesty's Australian Colonies," it is provided amongst other things that the provisions of the said former Act concerning the reservation of Bills for the signification of Her Majesty's pleasure thereon shall apply to and be in force in the Colony of Van Diemen's Land, now called the State of Tasmania: And whereas on the eleventh day of January, one thousand nine hundred and one, the Administrator of the Government of the State of Tasmania aforesaid reserved a certain Bill passed by the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of Tasmania, intituled "An Act for the Regulation of the Civil Service of the Colony of Tasmania for providing Retiring Allowances to the Members thereof and for other purposes," for the signification of Her said Majesty's pleasure thereon: And whereas the said Bill so reserved as aforesaid has been laid before His Majesty King Edward VII. in Council, and has been assented to by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council: Now therefore I, the Honourable SIR JOHN STOKELL DODDS, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Chief Justice of the State of Tasmania and its Dependencies, in the Commonwealth of Australia, and Administrator of the Government of the said State of Tasmania and its Dependencies in pursuance of the said Acts, and in exercise of the powers thereby vested in me, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and proclaim that the said Bill has been laid before His Majesty in Council, and that His Majesty has been pleased to assent to the same.

Given under my hand, at Hobart, in Tasmania aforesaid, this twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and one.

J. S. DODDS.

By His Excellency's Command,
N. E. LEWIS, Attorney-General.
