

(No. 75.)

1874.

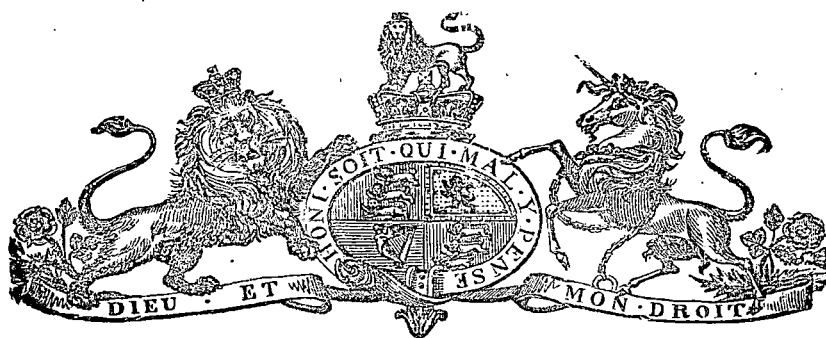

TASMANIA.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

REMITTANCES TO ENGLAND.

RETURN.

Laid upon the Table by the Colonial Treasurer, and ordered by the House to be printed, August 28, 1874.

RETURN showing the Remittances by the Treasury to meet Interest on Debentures and Payment of Pensions for the Years 1871, 1872, 1873, and up to the Half-year 1874.

YEAR.	AMOUNT.	REMARKS.
Remittances to Consolidated Bank, London.
1871	£ 6000 0 0	With this exception, no remittance was made from the Treasury for the payment of £46,208 Interest due on Debentures for the year 1871, in consequence of funds being available in London from the loan negotiated in the previous year.
1872	24,865 0 0	Being part remittance for payment of £49,185 Interest on Debentures for the year 1872; the balance having been defrayed from funds available in London.
1873	49,066 0 0	Total to meet Interest on Debentures for 1873.
1874	48,170 0 0	Total to meet Interest on Debentures for 1874.
	£128,101 0 0	Total Remittances to Consolidated Bank on account of Interest.

Remittances to Crown Agents for the payment of Pensions.
1871	2523 6 0	The Crown Agents in London having been instructed to place the amounts due by the Home Government in aid of Police and Gaols, support of Prisoners, &c., when paid to them, to the credit of the Colony, it has not been necessary to forward any remittance this year. The total amount which will be payable during the year is £2603 7s. 7d.
1872	2542 10 7
1873	2564 9 6
1874	Nil.
	£7630 6 1	Total remittances to Crown Agents for payment of Pensions.
	£135,731 6 1	Total remittances for Interest and Pensions.

WM. H. WINDSOR, Assistant Treasurer.

Colonial Treasury, 28th August, 1874.