A Supplementary Catalogue of Books added to the Library since the publication of the General Catalogue has been prepared, and will be in the hands of Members in a few days.

Since the last meeting of the Committee a case has been provided wherein the Magazines can be kept under lock and key. They are now issued on application to the Library Attendant, who enters them to each Member as issued. This has been found to work well, and has prevented the Magazines from going astray.

The usual exchanges of Imperial and Colonial Parliamentary Journals have been received, together with those donated by the Smithsonian Institute of Washington, U.S.

Your most obedient Servant,

FRED. A. PACKER,

Clerk of the House, and Librarian to Parliament.

The Hon. the Chief Secretary.
