W. R. GIBLIN, Colonial Treasurer.

Colonial Treasury, 1st June, 1878.

Examined and certified to be correct.

W. LOVETT, Colonial Auditor.

Audit Office, 4th July, 1878.

SIR,

HAVING completed the examination of the several Statements of Account of the Consolidated Revenue of the year 1877, I have now the honor to return them certified in the usual manner, and to forward my report for the information of Parliament.

Revenue.—The Revenue proper for the year 1877 amounted to £357,448 10s. 4d.; this sum, however, is partly estimated, the amount actually collected to 31st May last being £352,483 9s. 11d., and the estimated amount outstanding, £4965 0s. 5d. The total compares very favourably with that for the year 1876, showing an increase of £34,532 17s. 6d. The following Statement shows the increase under each head of Revenue:—

Revenue.	1876.	1877.	Increase.

Debt of the Colony.—The Debt of the Colony on 31st December, 1877, amounted to £1,736,400: by the Balance Sheet, Statement I, it would appear that the debt amounted to £1,597,205; but this amount only included the Debentures and Treasury Bills actually issued and outstanding at that date. In the first-named sum the Debentures authorised but not issued are included; but the Treasury Bills amounting to £70,800 having been raised for temporary objects, and £50,000 actually paid off at this date, are not included. The position of the Debt is shown in the Statement below:—

Permanent Debt.	£ s. d.
Debentures issued and outstanding	1,498,000 0 0
Debentures authorised but not issued on 31st December.	316,900 0 0

Less Debentures authorised to redeem Debentures due due in 1878, being also included in the above	129,300 0 0
Total Permanent Debt.	£1,685,600 0 0
Debentures or which Funds are provided for redemption—
Debentures 34 Vict. No. 10, redeemable from Reserves of Land Fund under Sections 19 and 29 of "The Waste Lands Act"	*18,700 0 0
Debentures 31 Vict. No. 1, redeemable from Sinking Fund under "The Local Public Works Act" ...	†24,100 0 0
Debentures 34 Vict. No. 37, redeemable from Sinking Fund under "The Cemeteries Act"	‡8000 0 0
Total Debt.	£1,736,400 0 0

Amounts due under Special Acts.—By resolution passed by both Houses of Parliament during the last Session, the liabilities of the several Districts under "The Local Public Works Act" for interest, referred to in my last report, have ceased, and the amount becomes a charge upon the Consolidated Revenue. Under the Local Public Works Acts it is provided that a Sinking Fund shall be formed, partly from amounts payable by the Districts and partly from the Consolidated Revenue; and on the 31st December last the sum of £381 0s. 8d. stood at credit of this Fund. Further legislation will therefore be necessary to determine whether the Sinking Fund shall be wholly provided from Consolidated Revenue or otherwise. No payments of Interest on the Loan to the Tarleton Road Trustees, under Act 35 Vict. No. 7, now amounting to £194 11s. 9d., nor of the amount payable under "The Cemeteries Act," 34

* Amount to credit of Reserves on 31st December, 1878, £23,521 6s. 4d.

† Amount to credit of Reserves on 31st December, 1878, £381 0s. 8d.

‡ The amount provided by Law for the reserve under "The Cemeteries Act" has not been paid to the Reserve Fund.

Vict. No. 29, now amounting to £480, also referred to in my last report, have yet been made. It is very desirable that some decided action should be taken respecting these two matters, and thereby save reference to them year by year.

Advances to the South Esk Bridge Trustees.—I have again to remind you that no provision has yet been made for the sums advanced to the South Esk Bridge Trustees, which now amount to £887 5s. 7d.

Penguin Creek Breakwater Borrowing Act.—By Act 40 Vict. No. 4, the Colonial Treasurer is authorised to lend money to the Promoters of the Penguin Breakwater under certain conditions,—but no provision has been made as to the Fund from which this money is to be advanced. A query was addressed to you on this subject on 2nd May last, to which your early attention is solicited.

Municipal Accounts.—The accounts of seventeen Municipalities have been passed,—those for Glenorchy are now under examination; but the Oatlands accounts have not yet been rendered.

Road Trust Accounts.—Seventy-three Road Trust accounts have been audited, and one, Port Cygnet, partially examined.

Rabbit Trusts.—The accounts of the several Rabbit Trusts have also been audited.

Assurance Fund, Real Property Act.—The accumulation of this Fund amounted on 31st December last to £3715 6s. 1d., invested as follows :—

	£	s.	d.
37 Debentures of £100 each	3700	0	0

	£3715	6	1

Queries and Letters not satisfied.—The following Queries and Letters have either not been answered or are not satisfied :—

Query 518, 26 January, 1878.—Crown Bailiff overpaid £2 1s. 8d. for October.

Query 527, 23 April, 1878.—Requesting account of expenditure of advances for Travelling Expenses of His Excellency the Governor.

Query 528, 2 May, 1878.—Respecting non-payment of Interest on Loans to Main Line Railway Company.

Query 529, 2 May, 1878.—No provision for £700 advanced to the Promoters of the Penguin Breakwater.

Query 480, 16 May, 1877.—Surveyor's account for journey to Gould's Country from Blue River.

Letter, 17 September, 1877.—Referring to advances to the Main Line Railway Company, and South Esk Bridge Trustees.

Letter, 16 February, 1878.—Referring to authority for expenditure of £324 4s. 3d. on track from Upper Junction to Lower Junction, Gould's Country.

Memoranda, 13 March and 16 May, 1878.—Referring to authority furnished for expenditure in excess of Amounts voted by Parliament.

A difference of opinion having arisen between the Government and myself with respect to the construction to be placed upon Sections 19 and 20 of the new Audit Regulations as regards excess of Expenditure not previously authorised by Parliament, referred to in the above-mentioned Memoranda, I think it desirable that the correspondence on the subject should be published for the information of Parliament, with the hope that definite instructions may be issued for my future guidance; and therefore append it to this Report (A).

Audit Act, No. 3.—The result of the passing of the new Audit Act and Regulations, which came into operation on 11th December last, has been to strengthen the hands of this Department, the stringent rules under Sections 10 and 11 of the General Regulations especially having had a marked effect as regards the collections of Revenue, the Returns having been rendered with commendable punctuality with very few exceptions; the system of pre-audit of certain expenditure under Sections 19 and 20 has also had a beneficial effect in saving queries, and in other respects; nor has it been found that a previous reference to this office has delayed to any material extent the settlement of claims duly authorised, the only difficulty that has arisen being that referred to in the last paragraph. I append a Return (B) of authorities issued for Expenditure not previously authorised or recognised by Parliament since the passing of "The Audit Act, No. 3," to the present date, exclusive of excesses in the details of Establishments.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

The Hon. the Colonial Treasurer.

W. LOVETT, Colonial Auditor.

APPENDIX A.

MEMORANDUM.

ADVERTING to the authority of the Governor in Council appointing John Coverdale, Esq., M.D., to be Surgeon Superintendent of the Hospital for the Insane, Cascades, and Superintendent and Medical Officer of the Cascades Invalid Depôt, at the rate of £250 per annum, with quarters, fuel, and light, the Colonial Auditor begs to point out that no provision having been made for this expenditure by Parliament, it becomes necessary, under Sections 19 and 20 of Schedule I of "The Audit Act," No. 3, to show that this has been a case of emergency before any payments can be legally made by the Hon. the Colonial Treasurer.

W. LOVETT, Colonial Auditor.
Audit Office, 24th January, 1878.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary.

THE appointment of Dr. Coverdale was approved by the Governor in Council as a case of emergency, which words were omitted in the instructions to the Treasurer.

P. O. FYSH, for the Colonial Secretary, absent.
30th January, 1878.

THE Colonial Auditor thinks that, under Section 20 of the Audit Regulations, he would not be justified in reporting that the expenditure in any case of emergency has been duly authorised upon the bare statement given in the authority forwarded, but that the circumstances under which the emergency has arisen should be intimated to him to enable him to do so. Will the Honorable the Colonial Secretary therefore oblige the Auditor by supplying the necessary information in the case herein referred to?

W. LOVETT.
Audit Office, 1st February, 1878.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary.

ON Voucher for payment of salary Stipendiary Magistrate and Commissioner of Mines, Portland, for November and December.

As explained in Memo. of the 1st February, on a case of a somewhat similar nature, the Auditor thinks that the circumstances under which the emergency has arisen should be intimated, to enable him to report that the expense has been duly authorised.

The Assistant Colonial Treasurer.

W. LOVETT.
Audit Office, 11th February, 1878.

FORWARDED to the Honorable the Attorney-General with reference to the Colonial Auditor's Memo. of the 11th instant.

W. H. WINDSOR.
11th February, 1878.

FROM a perusal of the Auditor's Memorandum of the 1st February, 1878, I understand him to be of opinion that the circumstances under which a case of emergency has arisen should be intimated to him to enable him to prepare a report of the reasons which induced the Governor in Council to consider any particular case as one of emergency.

Regulation 19, Schedule I, of "The Audit Act," No. 3, provides for two cases in which the Governor in Council may authorise the expenditure of money for purposes not recognised or provided for by Parliament,—(1) cases of emergency; (2) excesses in the details of establishments, not being salaries.

Regulation 20 provides that "In any case of excess in the expenditure under the authority of the Governor in Council, as previously defined, an immediate intimation shall be made to the Colonial Auditor of such authority having been granted, and the effect thereof; and it shall not be lawful for the Colonial Treasurer to make any payment under such authority without the previous report of the Colonial Auditor that the payment has been duly authorised."

An intimation is to be made to the Auditor of the authority having been granted, and the effect thereof. The words "and the effect thereof" refer to the effect which the authority already granted will have—that is to say, whether the case is to be placed under the head of "emergency" or that of "excess in detail." "The effect of the authority which has been granted" cannot be construed to mean "the reasons which weighed with the Executive in granting such authority." The construction contended for would substitute the word "cause" for the word "effect."

The regulation further provides that no payment is to be made under such authority without the previous report of the Auditor that the payment has been duly authorised; that is to say, the Auditor must take care that the case has been intimated to him as one of emergency or of excess in detail, and that the payment has been authorised by the Governor in Council, not merely by a Minister or head of a department.

If the Legislature intended that the reasons for any particular payment should be furnished to the Auditor, then the Act appears to be defective. It seems to me, however, that the framers of the Act could not have had any such intention.

Assuming the Auditor's suggested interpretation to be correct, it would follow that the Governor in Council would have to abide by the Auditor's decision in each case of emergency; inasmuch as if the Act requires the reasons to be given, the Auditor must judge of the sufficiency of those reasons before he can report that a payment has been duly authorised. The Auditor would thus be constituted judge of the propriety of the action of the Executive, because the Treasurer cannot make any payment without the previous report of the Auditor; and in the event of the Auditor considering the reasons insufficient, he would be placed in the invidious position of reversing the considered decision of the Governor in Council.

ALFRED DOBSON.

Attorney-General's Office, 7th March, 1878.

The Colonial Auditor.

THE Colonial Auditor having read the Hon. the Attorney-General's opinion of the 7th instant, as to the legal interpretation of Section 20 of the new Audit Regulations, will be prepared, in deference to that opinion, to report in any future case of emergency that the expenditure has been authorised by the Governor in Council, without requiring an explanation as to what constitutes the emergency in each particular case, but reserving to himself the right to protest against expenditure that he may deem unnecessary, in order that no delay may occur in the settlement of claims against the Government.

At the same time he feels that he is bound to give his impression of what was the intention of Parliament in providing a check against expenditure not previously authorised.

Under Section 19 of the former Regulations under "The Audit Act," the Colonial Treasurer could pay amounts not authorised by Parliament without previous reference to the Colonial Auditor, and the Auditor could afterwards, under Section 8 of "The Audit Act," 22 Vict. No. 6, require full explanation as to the necessity for incurring such expenditure; it was, however, found in practice that post-audit in such cases was not a sufficient check, and, therefore, the system of pre-audit was introduced in Section 20 of the new Act and Regulations; and it is clear that a special restriction was intended to be provided with regard to expenditure of which Parliament has no cognizance as distinguished from excesses on votes already taken: if, therefore, the Auditor has not now the right to question expenditure unauthorised by Parliament, it is evident that the new rule instead of improving the check will have a contrary effect.

The Auditor wishes to add, with reference to the latter paragraph of the Hon. the Attorney-General's Minute, that he is under the impression that the rule referred to does not give him power to veto an act of the Executive, but that having the circumstances of each case before him, he would be in a position in forwarding his Report to protest before payment against expenditure which he might consider unnecessary—without for a moment thinking he would have the right to positively refuse to report in any case—in other words that the new rule gives him the opportunity before payment of doing that which under the former Regulations he had the right to do afterwards.

W. LOVETT, Colonial Auditor.
13th March, 1878.

The Hon. the Colonial Treasurer.
