FROM FINGAL.—MASTERS AND SERVANTS LAW.

Presented by Mr. Attorney-General, and ordered by the House to be printed, 26 January, 1858.

To the Honourable the House of Assembly of the Parliament of Tasmania, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of the undersigned Residents in the District of Fingal.

MOST RESPECTFULLY PRAYETH :

THAT the Bill respecting Masters and Servants, now under consideration of the Legislature, may not be passed into Law ; and, further, that the Law of England in relation to Masters and Servants may, by a declaratory Act, be adopted as the Law of Tasmania.

And your Petitioners will, as in duty bound, ever pray.
