Notices of Motion

67 Ms O'Byrne to move—That the House:—

(1) Notes:—

- (a) increasing community concern as a result of incidences in crime in the Launceston area;
- (b) that according to the Tasmania Police Corporate performance reports since 2012 - 2013 the Northern district and in particular the Launceston District (compared to the other 12 police geographic divisions) has the highest victimization rates and also the numerically highest incidence of crime across many crime categories and associated decrease in clearance rates;
- (c) with concern that the Government is using the reduction in incidences during COVID to suggest that the issue is being resolved despite the incidences in Launceston still being consistently higher in almost all categories.

(2) Commends the hard-working police officers and staff in the North who are continually under pressure and doing as much as possible to respond with clearly insufficient resources.

(3) Calls upon the Minister for Police, Fire and Emergency Management, Hon. Jacquie Petrusma MP to allocate additional resourcing urgently to the North and to commission work across Government to identify and address the underlying causal factors leading to the unacceptably high rates of victimisation and incidence of crime in Tasmania. (24 November 2021)

68 Ms O'Byrne to move—That the House:—

(1) Notes that:—

- (a) the Remade sustainable wearable art show was hosted on the 13 November 2021 at Launceston's Albert Hall.;
- (b) this festival offers a platform that challenges artists, designers and the community to create themed wearable art before enthusiastic audiences; and the event was a roaring success with great crowds, great art and designers, and great models.

(2) Congratulates Interweave for their enduring commitment to Remade over 11 years and their program which supports and empowers youth, people experiencing disability, the elderly and people of alternative cultures through art.

(3) Commends Interweave Board members Louise French, Kim Schneiders, Joanna Pinkiewicz, Ro Blaney, Carmencita Palermo, Tim Breward, Justine Kelly, Caitlin Street, and Mat Carey. All the volunteers, artists and models and the team of volunteers from the Rotary Club of Tamar Sunrise on another very successful event. (24 November 2021)

- (1) Notes:—
 - (a) the Ride for Eddie which seeks to support Eddie who is almost 4 years old and has Pontocerebellar Hypoplasia Type 4. This is a rare condition and only five children have been diagnosed in Australia;
 - (b) the Ride consisted of the Swarm riding 1,500 km around Tasmania stopping at regional communities and hosting fundraising events with Hobart band The Croon and sought to raise $85,000 to purchase a modified van and wheelchair hoist to allow Eddie to be transported; and
 - (c) the target has been achieved and the additional funds will go to providing the additional supports that Eddie requires.
- (2) Congratulates the Ride For Eddie Swarm; Andrew Colrain, Heidi Robnik, John Xintavelonis, John Davidson, Robert Bertoz and Colin Dean for their commitment and thanks all who have supported them and contributed to the fundraiser.
- (3) Encourages Tasmanians to support this fundraiser through events such as the Bawdy Panto to ensure Eddie keeps getting out and about and enjoying Tasmania. (24 November 2021)
