

(No. 104.)

1892.

---

PARLIAMENT OF TASMANIA.

---

FLOATING OF LOANS:

CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE AGENT-GENERAL.

Return to an Order of the Legislative Council. (Mr. Fysh.)

---

Ordered by the Legislative Council to be printed.

Ordered, That there be laid before this Council—All Correspondence and Telegraphic Messages between the Government and the Agent-General respecting floating of Loans, in continuation of Correspondence already laid upon the Table. (Mr. Fysh.)

---

P.O. 489-92—(453).

The Premier to the Agent-General.

Hobart, 19th August, 1892.

Translation.

WITH respect to payment of interest 1st January, can you place Treasury Bills, and at what price, two years' currency? Have prospects issue of fresh loan improved?

---

P.O. 489-92—(453).

Telegram.

The Agent-General to the Premier.

London, 25th August, 1892.

Translation.

WILL probably be able to place Two hundred and fifty or Three hundred thousand Pounds sterling Treasury Bills, four per cent., two years' currency, between this and end of this year, at about par. No prospect of early date issue of fresh loan.

---

P.O. 489-92—(453).

The Premier to the Agent-General.

Hobart, 29th August, 1892.

Translation.

REFERRING to your telegram of 25th August, please to notify to London Westminster Treasury Bills Hundred and nine thousand eight hundred pounds sterling (£109,800). Will be sent by next mail.