INSPECTOR OF POLICE, MUNICIPAL.

REPORT TO JUNE 30, 1875.

Laid upon the Table by the Attorney-General, and ordered by the House to be printed, July 27, 1875.

SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT of the Inspector of Constabulary Forces of Municipalities for the Year ending 30 June, 1875.

Office of Inspector of Police, 23rd August, 1875.

SIR,

I BEG to submit my Report upon the state of the Municipal Police for the information of His Excellency the Governor.

The authorised effective strength of Police in the entire Municipal area of the Colony is as follows :—

Superintendents	21
Sub-Inspectors	21
Sergeants	24
Constables	98
Special Constables.....	18

In regard to crime, the following Table will show its state throughout the Municipalities, and that of minor offences, as compared with similar classes during the last two years :—

YEARS.	INDICTABLE OFFENCES.			OFFENCES DETERMINED SUMMARILY.
	Number reported to Police.	Number apprehended.	Number Committed or summarily Convicted.	Drunkenness and Disorderly Conduct.		Offences against Police Act. and Bye-laws.
				Male.	Female.	Male.	Female.
1872.....	1123	658	491	745	387	1531	627
1873.....	920	592	354	830	492	1662	575
1874.....	850	521	384	772	376	1243	482

In my inspection of the Rural Municipalities I had the advantage of the companionship of my experienced predecessor. I found that no important changes had recently occurred, and that last year's numerical strength had been maintained.

I entered upon the duties of my office with decided opinions as to the superiority of a central over a municipal form of Police government. This, however, will be no check upon my exertions to make the best of the system I find sanctioned by law, and now in operation, even though a more prolonged official experience should strengthen my convictions.

It would be an improvement in the Municipal system if means were devised for removing Constables from one District to another. Promotion would be made easier and more certain, while the men would be less liable to the danger of becoming identified with local parties or interests.

A tendency to retrench below the standard of efficiency has been previously reported; and the objectionable practice of entrusting the duties of Council Clerk and Superintendent of Police to one individual still prevails in some instances.

The high remuneration available for labour has lessened the temptation to crime against property. Offences against the person have been unusually serious during the year. The severe punishment inflicted upon some criminals convicted of these offences will no doubt have the desired deterrent effect.

I furnish the Returns of the various Municipal Forces, with my Report in detail; and beg to acknowledge, with great satisfaction, the courtesy I have experienced in my relations with the Municipal Authorities.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary.

JOHN SWAN, Inspector of Police.

MUNICIPALITIES.

TOWN OF LAUNCESTON.—(Established 1st January, 1858.)

Population	11,000
Area in acres	3340
Population to one Constable.....	579
Acres to one Constable	176
Strength of Force	19

The Force retains its usual standard of efficiency.

Permanency of service is a remarkable feature in this Force, as no resignations nor dismissals have taken place during the last four years.

There was a decrease in indictable, as well as offences under the Police Act and Bye-laws, and in the number of persons charged with drunkenness.

During the year ending 30th June, 153 indictable offences were reported to the Police, for which 75 persons were apprehended, of whom 49 were summarily convicted or committed for trial. 79 males and 72 females were charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and 75 males and 42 females proceeded against under the Police Act and Municipal Bye-laws.

Seven publicans were proceeded against for breaches of the Licensing Act, and six of them fined.

The station-house and cells were in good repair, and the books, records, and returns correctly kept.

The Superintendent is Examiner of Weights and Measures, and the Sub-Inspector is Inspector of Common Lodging-houses.

GLAMORGAN.—(Established 28th February, 1860.)

Strength of Force—Effectives, 3; Specials, 7 10

This Force I consider below the usual standard of efficiency. The offices of Superintendent of Police and Council Clerk, which were amalgamated, have within the last few months been separated.

The Sub-Inspector, who ranks as a Special, receives a salary of £50 a year, and 5s. a day when on active duty, and is allowed to follow his trade, that of a shoemaker. This I consider a most objectionable appointment.

There are seven Special Constables scattered through this District; one receiving £25 a year, and 5s. a day when on active duty; two others £5 per annum, and 5s. a day when specially employed; and four others 10s. a day when on duty.

The Superintendent had resigned.

During the year ending 30th June, 6 indictable offences were reported to the Police, for which 8 persons were apprehended, all of whom were summarily convicted or committed for trial. 1 male and 2 females were charged with being drunk and disorderly, and 35 males and 2 females were proceeded against under the Police Act and Municipal Bye-laws.

The wards and cells at the several stations were cleanly, and the books, records, and returns were correctly kept.

The Special Constable at Swansea is Watch-house keeper as well as Pound-keeper.

The Superintendent is Bailiff of Court of General Sessions, Examiner of Weights and Measures, and Inspector of Stock.

SPRING BAY.

Strength of Force—Effectives, 4; Specials, 2..... 6

This Force has been increased by the appointment of a Special Constable.

The pay of the effective members of this Force, which had been reduced, was raised 20 per cent. from the 1st January last, and that of the Special Constable in charge of the Watch-house from £10 to £20 per annum.

The Special Constable at Swanston receives £10 per annum, and both Special Constables are allowed 6s. a day when on duty. There had been no resignations.

There had been a decrease in indictable offences and offences under the Police Act and Bye-laws, but the number of persons charged with drunkenness was the same as during last year.

During the year ending 30th June, 1 indictable offence had been reported to the Police, but no person was apprehended. 2 persons were charged with being drunk and disorderly, and 7 males and 3 females were proceeded against under the Police Act and Municipal Bye-laws.

The stations at Spring Bay and Swanston require repairing.

The Superintendent is Examiner of Weights and Measures, Inspector of Stock, Bailiff of Crown Lands, Bailiff of Court of General Sessions, and Customs Officer.

CLARENCE.—(Established 13th November, 1860.)

Strength of Force—Effectives, 4; Specials, 2..... 6

This Force remains unaltered in organisation and numerical strength.

Two Sergeants had resigned during the year.

The number of indictable as well as other offences was about the same as last year.

During the year ending 30th June, 6 indictable offences were reported to the Police, for which 7 persons were apprehended, of whom 5 were summarily convicted or committed for trial. 2 males and 1 female were charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and 22 males and 2 females were proceeded against under the Police Act and Municipal Bye-laws. No publicans had been proceeded against for breaches of the Licensing Act.

Strength of Force..... 8

The organisation of this Force remains unaltered.

The Superintendent's salary, £125 per annum, is far too small for an officer in his position, and for the amount of work that devolves upon him in so populous a Municipality as Longford. There had been no resignations nor dismissals from the Force during the year.
