Subject: Submission to the Joint Select Committee on Future Gaming Markets

Dear Members of the Committee,

Pokies are a scourge on the health of our society and should be removed. They are the cause of far too many broken relationships, stress, anxiety, poverty and disadvantaged children.

Four out of five Tasmanians are understood to want poker machines reduced in number, or better still totally removed from pubs and clubs.

Tasmania and Tasmanians would be far better off without such easy availability to these ghastly machines

Yours sincerely, Anne Layton-Bennett
