- (c) no work has been performed under the contract.
- (4) If an owner enters into a residential building work contract that contains the conditions required under subsection (2), the owner under the contract may rescind the contract without penalty if –
- (a) the building contractor has been unable to obtain home warranty insurance in respect of the insurable work to be performed under the contract as required under those conditions; or
- (b) the building contractor has not obtained home warranty insurance, in respect of the insurable work to be performed under the contract, within 28 days after the contract is entered into.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt, if a residential building work contract is rescinded under either subsection (3) or (4) –
- (a) subject to paragraph (b), all parties to the contract are to be restored, as far as possible, to their previous circumstances prior to the contract; and

77D. Work to cease if no home warranty insurance

(1) In this section –

affected work means insurable work in respect of which home warranty insurance has been issued.

(2) If affected work is no longer the subject of home warranty insurance that is valid, or in force, while the work is being performed, the building contractor for the work must –

- (a) cease performing the work as soon as it is safe to do so; and
- (b) make the work, and the relevant building site for the work, as safe and secure as possible for that stage of work; and
- (c) as soon as possible, notify the owner that the building contractor has ceased work and the reason for that cessation; and

- (d) if the affected work is notifiable work, or permit work, within the meaning of the Building Act 2016, notify each of the following that the building contractor has ceased to perform the work:
  - (i) the Director;
  - (ii) the relevant building surveyor, under that Act, for the work;
  - (iii) if the responsible person for the work under that Act is not the owner or the building contractor, the responsible person for the work;
  - (iv) the relevant permit authority, under that Act, for the work.
- (3) If affected work ceases to be the subject of home warranty insurance that is valid or in force –
  - (a) the owner in respect of the residential building work contract, under which the affected work is performed, may terminate the contract; and

77G. Home warranty insurance policy

- (1) Subject to subsection (5), a home warranty insurance policy in force in respect of insurable work must indemnify the owner of the property where the insurable work is performed, and subsequent owners of that property, if –
  - (a) an owner of the property has incurred loss as a result of one or more of the following:
    - (i) the non-completion of the insurable work;
    - (ii) a breach of a statutory warranty implied into the relevant residential building work contract under this Act;
    - (iii) defective work performed as part of the insurable work;
    - (iv) other prescribed circumstances or prescribed behaviours;
