Hobart, 27th June, 1894.*

SIR,

THE several Statements of the Consolidated Revenue Account for the year 1893 received from the Treasury on 1st May have been carefully examined, and were returned duly certified on 6th June. I have now the honor to forward my Report thereon in accordance with the requirements of "The Audit Act," 52 Vict. No. 43.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

Revenue proper.—The Revenue for 1893 shows a very serious falling off when compared with that of the previous year, the aggregate decrease amounting to £78,593 9s. 4d., the larger decreases occurring in the principal sources thereof. The total Receipts of Revenue for 1893 were £704,641 6s. 3d., whilst that for 1892 amounted to £783,234 15s. 7d.; details are given in the following table:—

Expenditure.—The Expenditure for 1893 amounted to £832,874 0s. 6d., leaving a balance of £128,232 14s. 3d. against the year, and increasing the accumulated deficiency ascertained to the end of the year 1892 to £362,117 16s. 9d. on closing the Accounts for the year 1893; viz:—

	£ s. d.
Balance at 31st December	233,885 2 6

	1,066,759 3 0
Revenue of 1893	704,641 6 3
	Excess of Expenditure over Revenue
	£362,117 16 9

Treasury Bills in aid of Revenue.—Of the £334,800 issued under Acts 56 Vict. No. 1 and 56 Vict. No. 10 and referred to in 1892 Report, £30,000 value of Bills have matured, leaving an outstanding balance of £304,800 at 31st December, 1893, as shown by the Treasury Balance-sheet. Act 57 Vict. No. 40 authorised £100,000 additional for Deficiency Bills, of which £67,500 have now been issued, leaving £32,500 available for issue; the total therefore provided for this purpose amounts to £404,800, redeemable in the years named hereafter. The excess of Expenditure over Revenue at 31st December, 1893, being £362,117 16s. 9d., provision has been made to the extent of £42,682 3s. 3d. beyond the amount ascertained at that date.

1899	18,000

Collection of Dividend Tax and Fees payable by Stamps.—Some amendment in the law in the way of making it compulsory on the part of companies liable to Dividend Tax to publish their business (especially with regard to foreign companies with agencies in the colony), in-order that the Treasury may be readily enabled to demand payment thereof, seems to be desirable, as it is feared that many of such companies, owing to the want of more publicity, evade payment of these imposts. This Department, by carefully examining newspaper reports and financial publications, has succeeded in recovering a considerable amount of revenue in this direction that would otherwise in all probability have been lost, the sum of £4155 14s. 1d., having been paid to the Revenue in consequence of queries raised; the credit of this is to a very great extent due to Mr. Chas. Mitchell, the Senior Audit Inspector, through whose vigilance and zeal a large proportion of the amounts recovered have been brought under notice. The sum referred to does not include the recoveries upon deficient and omitted stamps upon documents liable to Stamp Duty, in respect to which the Inspectors have been the means also of recovering a very large amount of revenue; in one case alone no less a sum than £108 13s. 9d. was so recovered; but it is right to mention that the officer at fault did not appear to have omitted the affixing of the stamps with any fraudulent intention, but through inadvertence, and at once made the amount good after the matter had been brought under notice.

EXPENDITURE REQUIRING PARLIAMENTARY PROVISION.

Return is annexed (Appendix A.) of Expenditure authorised by the Governor in Council during 1893 under Regulation 19, Schedule 2, of the Audit Act, £11,990 10s. 8d. being for excess expenditure over votes or new expenditure for the year 1893, and £781 15s. 6d. for arrears of expenditure of former years; the greater proportion of the latter was for amounts not claimed until the votes providing for such expenditure had lapsed. A Return (Appendix B.) is also annexed showing amounts standing to debit of certain accounts on 31st December, 1893, which require to be dealt with either by Parliamentary sanction or by transfer to authorised heads of expenditure.

CREDITS ON VOTES.

A Return of credits on votes which will not probably be required, or that should be cleared off under the sanction of Parliament, is given in Appendix C. It is very desirable that this matter should be attended to promptly to save unnecessary work in carrying forward balances in the ledger from year to year.

DEBT OF THE COLONY.

The authorised permanent Debt amounted to £7,879,320 on 31st December, 1893, showing an addition of £48,200 to that standing on 31st December, 1892. The Treasurer's Balance Sheet gives the Debt at £7,621,704 3s. 8d., this being the amount issued and outstanding at the end of 1893; but the Loans authorised although not floated at that date should be added, and the Debentures due in 1894, provided in advance under Act 55 Vict. No. 82, together with Treasury Bills (included in like manner in Loans Acts) should be deducted, thus making the Debt as stated. The following table deals with the matter in fuller detail:—

Amount as per Balance Sheet	7,621,704	3	8
Loans Act, 55 Vict. No. 82 (for £1,500,000), amount authorised balance not floated on 31st December, 1893...	900,000	0	0

	1,247,054	3	8
	257,615	16	4
	£7,879,320	0	0

The amount of Treasury Bills authorised and outstanding for £404,800, under Acts 56 Vict. No. 1, 56 Vict. No. 10, and 57 Vict. No. 40, have not been included in the above, as they were provided only for temporary aid to Revenue. It is also explained that since the year 1893 closed £1,000,000 has been raised in London under Loans Acts 55 Vict. No. 82 and 56 Vict. No. 56. Adding the figures of the permanent and temporary Loans together, the sum would amount to £8,284,120, but after deducting the excess on the deficiency Loan, £42,682 3s. 3d. and the balance at credit of the Public Debts Sinking Fund, £136,591 18s. 3d., the nett indebtedness of the Government at the close of the year 1893 amounted to £8,104,845 18s. 6d.

TRUST FUNDS MANAGED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

Public Debts Sinking Fund.—The balance at credit of this Fund on 31st December, 1893, amounted to £136,591 18s. 3d., of which £126,510 had been invested in Government Debentures and Treasury

Bills, £10,000 remained in the Treasury at interest, and £81 18s. 3d., cash in hand at current account. Up to the date named Debentures had been redeemed from this Fund of the value of £162,530. The following table shows the transactions during the year 1893 :—

“The Public Debts Sinking Fund Act, 1892,” came into operation on 1st January, 1893, and under its provisions certain pensions have been paid amounting to £11,637 16s. 1d., or £1688 10s. 1d. less than the amount provided in the Schedule to the Act; the latter amount having fallen in. The payments have been met by the Treasury out of the sum of £12,000 advanced as shown above, and the account has since been adjusted by payment to the Fund of the difference by the Treasury. The accumulations of the Sinking Fund since its establishment in November, 1881, have amounted to £311,121 18s. 3d., the sum of £34,877 6s. having been added from the various provided sources during the year 1893.

Assurance Fund, Real Property Act.—The amount at credit of this Fund on 31st December, 1893, was £9866, of which the sum of £9794 3s. 8d. was invested in Debentures and Treasury Bills, £71 16s. 4d. remaining in the Treasury. The following are the returns for 1893 :—

Post Office Savings Bank.—The business of this Establishment again shows satisfactory expansion, the accumulated deposits having risen to £91,063 3s. 8d. at the end of 1893, as compared with £83,708 9s. 6d., balance on 1892 account. The working of the account is briefly explained as follows :—

The sum of £89,700 was invested in Debentures and Treasury Bills, £2445 3s. 1d. remained in the Treasury, and £92 10s. in the Post Office Account, in addition to which £1424 1s. 1d. had accrued for interest at 31st December, making the total amount of assets £93,661 14s. 2d.; of this amount £91,063 3s. 8d. stood to credit of Depositors as above, and £1962 16s. 5d. had been advanced from the Money Order Account, the balance £635 14s. 1d. representing the amount to credit of Profit and Loss for the year; this profit has since been transferred to the Consolidated Revenue.

Post Office Money Order business.—The account has been adjusted to 31st December, 1893, and a sum of £52 13s. which had accrued to that date for void orders has been paid over to the Consolidated Revenue; this account will, however, be liable at any time for such orders for which sufficient proof may be forthcoming to establish a claim for repayment.

Mount Cameron Water-race Fund.—The account for maintenance and management of this Fund under Act 51 Vict. No. 28 for the year 1893, has been examined and passed. The operation of the scheme in respect to its contribution to the capital and the payment of the interest thereon shows the following results :—

Dexter's Fund.—Capital, £447 4s. 11d. invested in Fixed Deposits, and the interest derived therefrom to 31st December, 1893, £22 9s., distributed equally to the Boys' Home, Hobart, the Girls' Industrial School, Hobart, and the Girl's Industrial School, Launceston.

PUBLIC BODIES.

The annual Accounts of the several Public Bodies subject to audit have been examined and passed, with exception of the under-mentioned, certificates for which have been withheld for the reason given :—

- New Norfolk Municipality, accounts not received, although repeatedly applied for.
- Brighton Municipality, not yet furnished in a complete state.
- Latrobe Water Trust, queries on accounts not yet satisfied.
- Longley Road Trust, pending explanation as to reason for not banking a sum of £9 7s. 10d.
- Southport Road Trust, not yet received, although repeatedly applied for.
- Carnarvon and Glenora Cemetery Trusts, not yet received, although repeatedly applied for.
- Latrobe Cemetery Trust, not yet furnished in a complete state.

The Hamilton Road Trustees did not forward their accounts until the 5th May, and consequently were excluded from participating in the subsidy voted by Parliament. The collection of rates upon which this subsidy would otherwise have been paid amounted to £423 8s. 6d., and the proportionate amount of subsidy would have been £68 9s. 10d.

The Brighton Municipal Accounts were inspected in September last. A number of magisterial fines, amounting to £4 4s. 6d., and costs to £12 16s., were found to be entered in Police Record Book, and apparently uncollected, no authority appearing in Record Book for the non-collection. A memorandum on the subject was forwarded to the Warden on the 22nd September, 1893, and reminders sent on several occasions since, but no reply has been received.

The Hamilton Municipal Accounts were inspected on 27th April last. They were found to be kept in an irregular manner. This was reported to the Warden in May. The Warden has since replied announcing the Council Clerk's resignation as from 1st June instant.

The New Norfolk Municipal Accounts were examined on 8th May last. Irregularities in the keeping of the accounts of the Court of General Sessions, and receipt and issue of the official forms of acknowledgment (a number of payments not being supported by production of receipts), was reported, and a letter asking for explanation was forwarded to the Registrar on the 8th May, and a reminder sent on 29th May. No reply has yet been received.

The Bothwell Municipal Accounts were examined on the 16th September last. Rates amounting to £24 3s. 7d. were found to have been collected and unaccounted for. This was reported to the Warden, and the amount has since been brought to account.

The number of Accounts of the several Local Bodies audited were as follows :—

LOANS UNDER "LOCAL PUBLIC WORKS LOANS ACT, 1890."

Loans have been made during 1893 to the various Local Bodies mentioned in the Schedule to the Loans Act, 56 Vict. No. 53, out of the proceeds of Debentures raised under this Act, and, with one exception, interest at the rate of 5 per cent. on the Loans granted has been paid to the Treasury. 4 per cent. of this has been appropriated to the Consolidated Revenue in repayment, 1 per cent. applied to the several sinking funds, with 4 per cent. on the balances of the sinking funds added and charged to the Consolidated Revenue in accordance with the provisions of the Act. The position of the several accounts at the end of the year was as follows :—

	Loans.	Interest payable to 1 January, 1894.	Sinking Fund Balance 31 December, 1893.
	£	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
1. Longford Water District.....	2600	29 12 10	—
2. Latrobe Water District.....	8000	262 14 1	16 14 8
3. Glenorchy Water District.....	7600	206 4 11	11 0 2

5. Hobart Marine Board	12,000	520 5 6	44 18 5
6. Mersey Marine Board	10,000	500 0 0	51 0 0
7. Devonport Town Board.....	13,000	405 10 3	26 3 4

These sinking fund balances have since been added to by payment of the second half-year's portions of interest, which are included in the above figures, being for amounts due for the period ending 1 January, 1894, excepting, however, the case of the Glenorchy Water District, in which only £54 17s. 2d., part of the amount of £206 4s. 11d., due to 1st January has yet been paid.

INSPECTION OF ACCOUNTS.

The Travelling Inspectors have examined during the year 97 Accounts of Departments, 87 of Local Post Offices, 208 of Public Bodies, and their services have also been utilised at the Audit Office in assisting to clear off arrears caused by pressure of work.

THE GOVERNMENT STOREKEEPER'S ACCOUNTS.

These Accounts to 30th June, 1893, were received complete on 25th September following, and were sent on with a special Report to the Treasury Department on 13th October, 1893. This shows considerable promptitude. The errors also occurring previous to examination are trifling compared with those prior to the year 1892.

QUERIES AND LETTERS NOT SATISFIED.

Letter to the Honorable the Treasurer, 14th January, 1892, requesting production of vouchers for accounts of Estates of Deceased Persons paid to the Curator of Intestate Estates, referred to in the Report for the year 1892.

Query 163, 30th August, 1892, respecting payment of £507 8s. 3d. in July, 1892, Treasury Voucher 1358, to Mr. Hedley Button for Stationery supplied.

Correspondence with the Agent for the Mount Dundas and Zeehan Railway Company, referred to in the Report for the year 1892. Letters subsequently forwarded requesting explanation on matters affecting the accounts not replied to by the Company.

Query 184, 24th July, 1893, respecting payment of £5 10s. to the Honorable the Attorney-General for drawing a Bill—(see Appendix D.)

Query 208, 11th December, 1893, respecting non-payment of Dividend Duty by the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, Limited, on shares held by Tasmanian shareholders.

As this will probably be the last occasion on which I shall have the honor of addressing Parliament in my present position, it seems only right on my part to testify to the loyal and zealous manner in which the staff of this Department has performed the detail duties thereof. It is also my pleasing duty to mention that each member has, to the best of his ability, attended to the instructions given, and performed the work from time to time assigned to him, and, feeling that the present efficient state of the Department has been attained thereby, I hope that this will be recognised by Parliament in the near future in some substantial manner.

Soliciting your attention to the matters herein,

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

W. LOVETT, Auditor-General.

The Hon. the Treasurer.

APPENDIX D.

Query No. 184, 24th July, 1893, Tasmanian Exhibition Accounts, 1893—

The Attorney-General, £5 10s.

- (1) In examining the accounts of the Tasmanian International Exhibition Association the following payment is observed:—

“The Attorney-General, drawing a Bill to authorise the issue of a lease of portion of the Queen's Domain to the Association and for other purposes—£5 10s.”

As this payment is evidently connected with Act 56 Vict. No. 35, which is a public one, and the amount has not apparently been paid to the Treasury, explanation is requested.

*W. LOVETT, Auditor-General.
24th July, 1893.*

- (2) FORWARDED to the Hon. the Attorney-General.

*J. E. PACKER, Under Treasurer.
25th July, 1893.*

- (3) This fee was for work done by me in my private and not in any official capacity. The Company wanted a Bill prepared, and could have gone to any other professional man to prepare it. Instead of going elsewhere they came to me, and gave me the instructions to prepare it, and I am entitled to retain the fee for so doing. There are no more grounds for asking me to pay this money into the Treasury than there would be for asking me to pay into the Treasury any other fees that I may receive in carrying on my private practice, or to pay over any money I may receive from any private source of income.

*N. E. LEWIS, Attorney-General.
2nd August, 1893.*

- (4) RETURNED to the Auditor-General.

*J. E. PACKER, Under Treasurer.
3rd August, 1893.*

The Honorable the Treasurer.

- (5) As this Act is a public one, and the Bill had been introduced to the Legislature as a Government measure, there appears to have been no necessity for the Tasmanian Exhibition Company to require a Bill to be drawn by a private individual, it being understood that the work of drawing Public Bills is invariably undertaken by the Law Officers as part of their official duty. If, therefore, it was necessary to charge the Company for this work the money should evidently be paid over to the Revenue.

*W. LOVETT.
9th August, 1893.*

- (6) RETURNED to the Hon. the Attorney-General.

*J. E. PACKER, Under Treasurer.
9th August, 1893.*

- (7) In England and in other countries with Parliamentary government based upon English principles, a Bill like the one in question would be undoubtedly introduced as a private Bill as having for its object the particular benefit of the shareholders of the Exhibition Company. In this Colony it has been the practice for the Government to introduce a large number of purely private Bills as Government measures, e.g., the East Coast Harbour Act, Waratah and Zeehan Railway Act, New Dundas Tramway Act, &c. These have been prepared in almost all cases by the Attorney-General, and he has charged, and been considered as entitled to receive the usual fees for drafting the Bills. In the same way all Bills in which Corporations, Municipalities, Road Trusts, Water Trusts, and other similar Public Bodies are interested, which elsewhere would be treated as private Bills, have also been often prepared by the Attorney-General, and he has received and retained the fees for so doing.

N. E. LEWIS.
28th August, 1893.

The Hon. the Treasurer.

- (8) RETURNED to the Auditor-General.

J. E. PACKER, Under Treasurer.
29th August, 1893.

The Honorable the Treasurer.

- (9) As it is questionable whether the Fees herein referred to should not properly be paid over to the Revenue, although it now appears to have been the practice to consider the Honorable the Attorney-General entitled to retain the same, and as it will be necessary for this reason to refer to the matter in his next Report to Parliament, the Auditor thinks it desirable, before doing so, to submit the matter for the consideration of the Government.

W. LOVETT.
30th August, 1893.

- (10) FORWARDED to the Hon. the Attorney-General.

JOHN HENRY.
4th January, 1894.

- (11) PERUSED and returned.

N. E. LEWIS.
5th January, 1894.

- (12) FORWARDED to the Auditor-General.

J. E. PACKER, Under Treasurer.
