*Police Department,

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to submit my Annual Report upon the Police appointed for the several Municipalities within the Colony for the year 1898, and to state that I deem it necessary to do so now because I shall cease to be Commissioner at the end of the year.

I am unable to append the usual particulars in detail of the Police Establishment of each Municipality, or to attach the usual Returns of Offences, but must leave them to be furnished by my successor in office, when the several Municipal Officers shall have furnished the necessary information to enable them to be compiled.

I visited all the Municipalities during the year, and personally conducted the necessary inspection, and I certify that the requirements of "The Police Regulation Act, 1868," were duly complied with.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

BERNARD SHAW, Commissioner of Police.

The Honourable the Attorney-General.
