TO THE HONORABLE THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

*Legislative Council Office, Hobart Town,
July 31, 1877.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honor to forward to you, appended to this Report, the general Statistics of this Colony for the year 1876.

The "Blue Book" forms Part I. In regard to this only one remark need be made, namely, that for the sake of convenience in printing, and also to promote uniformity of system among the Colonies, the return of persons in the service of the Government has been transferred from the end of the volume to the commencement.

II.—POPULATION.

In the interim Report furnished in April last, the Population on 31 December, 1876, was estimated at 105,280; and I then stated that, being still in communication with the Customs Officers on the North-west Coast on the subject, it was possible that the returns of Population and Immigration might have to be revised. The investigation being completed, it was found that the return of Immigration to the sub-ports was in a great measure unreliable, in consequence of the absence of a proper understanding between the different Customs officers; and the number of passengers arriving by steamer had to be ascertained as far as the information went, from the Melbourne Argus and Australasian, the deficiencies being supplied by calculation from known data. Upon this basis it was found that the Population on the date mentioned was 105,484, of whom 55,633 were males, and 49,851 females; the mean, or number at the middle of the year, which is now used in all statistical calculations, being 104,573. The increase at the end of the year is computed to have been 1821, 1419 being contributed by excess of births over deaths, and 402 by excess of arrivals over departures.

Population,
p. 29.

For many years the sea-borne passenger traffic has resulted in a balance against the Colony: but in my Report for 1873, I stated that the loss by emigration was gradually diminishing. It is satisfactory to find that the turning point has now been reached; and henceforth we may expect an annual addition to our numbers by immigration.

In 1876, 8571 persons arrived in the Colony and 8169 left it. From Victoria we obtained 7773 persons, and returned to it 7247, thus retaining 526; to New South Wales we sent 669, receiving back 603, leaving a balance of 66 against us; to Queensland we parted with 11, and received none; South Australia had the same number both ways, namely, 14; New Zealand absorbed 215 of our population, giving us in exchange only 159, leaving a balance of these living exports of 56; while the United Kingdom gave us 22, and was contented to accept in return 13, leaving us with a gain of 9.

Im
&c., p. 30.

In 1876, 48 persons were introduced under what is known as the "Bounty System," under the auspices of the Board of Immigration, only 16 having been thus introduced in 1875.

Six Foreigners were naturalised in the former year, being five more than in the latter.

III.—TRADE, COMMERCE, AND NAVIGATION.

The value of the Imports during the last year amounted to £1,133,003, being at the rate of £10 16s. 8*½*d. per head of the mean population.

Imports, pp.
32-48, 56-70,
75-76.

In the last four years the Imports stand as follows:—

1873 .....	1,107,167	1875 .....	1,185,942
1874 .....	1,257,785	1876 .....	1,133,003

Or, deducting the value of Railway Material—

1873 .....	1,081,591	1875 .....	1,129,430
1874 .....	1,142,992	1876 .....	1,107,154

Taking the latter figures there was, therefore, a decrease in 1876, as compared with 1875, of £22,276, and as compared with 1874, of £35,838; but an increase on the value in 1873, of £25,563.

Of the causes which brought about the large increases in imports of 1873 and 1874, and the subsequent decreases, two are doubtless to be found in the construction of the Main Line Railway and the price of wool. The large number of men employed on the Railway works while in progress, considerably augmented the consumption of imported articles; and as they were discharged and left the Colony, the demand for such articles diminished in proportion. The decline in the price of wool must also have seriously affected the purchasing power of the community. We shall see presently, that notwithstanding this decrease in Imports, there has been an increase in the Exports.

Comparing in detail the quantities of goods imported on which duty was paid in 1876 and 1875, we find that the principal differences in the former year were in the following articles:—

The value of the Exports in 1876 is returned as £1,130,983, being £45,007 in Exports, excess of that of 1875. It has not been so great in any other of the last ten years. pp. 48-55, 70-78. Since 1870, with the exception of 1873, there has been a continuous increase, as follows:—

In 1871 .....	91,929	In 1874 .....	31,769
In 1872 .....	170,025	In 1875 .....	160,651
In 1873 (decrease) ..	17,107	In 1876 .....	45,007

The rate per head of Exports in 1876 was £10 16s. 3½d. against £10 9s. 0d. in 1875.

Of the total Exports in 1876, the value of British and Foreign produce amounted to no more than £13,399, the rest (£1,117,584) being the produce or manufactures of this Colony.

The differences in the value of goods exported to the different Countries in 1876 as compared with the preceding year were as follows:—

	More.	Less.
United Kingdom .....	38,993	—
Victoria .....	17,716	—

S. Australia .....	—	2947
Foreign States .....	2689	—

There were increases in the quantity of Bark exported, of Butter and Cheese, of Skins (Rabbit), of Oatmeal, and of Oil. On Gold the increase was 6787½ ozs.,—the excess itself being nearly twice the total Export of 1875; on Jam, 521,812 lbs.; on Hops, 80,961 lbs.; on Tin (Ore), 544 tons (none in 1875), smelted, 705½ tons; and on Wool, 649,269 lbs. The quantity of Wool was never so large before. On the value of Bran and Pollard there was an increase of £1957.

The Exports of Flour, Grain, Hides, Skins, and Leather (except Rabbit Skins), Live Stock, Timber, and Vegetables were less than in 1875, the decreases being as follows:—

On Flour, tons .....	1008	On Hides, Skins, &c., cwts.*.	1106
Green Fruit, bushels .....	23,872	Live Stock, viz.—
Grain, bushels, viz.—		Horses .....	74
Wheat .....	152,521	Sheep .....	374
Oats .....	112,583	Timber .....	£23,494
Barley .....	25,951	Vegetables, tons .....	1847

The value of the Imports and Exports, taken together, amounted to £2,263,986 in Imports and Exports. 1876, and to £2,271,918 in 1875,—the difference being £7932 in favour of 1875.

The stocks of goods in the Bonded Warehouses show in some instances considerable variations as between 1875 and 1876. The quantities of the principal articles are shown below:—

	1875.	1876.
Beef and Pork, lbs. ....	23,397	9800
Candles, lbs. ....	700	2375
Chicory, lbs. ....	7844	22,404

* On the number of packages there was an increase of 55.

During the year now under review the "International Exhibition" was held at Philadelphia. There can be no doubt that this Exhibition will be productive of beneficial results in bringing together in closer commercial relations the people of the United States and of the Australasian Colonies, and making the capabilities of each country better known to the others. These "world fairs" are in fact the most effectual way in which communities advertise their wares. Tasmania appears to have been fairly represented at Philadelphia, notwithstanding that some articles were lost, and others damaged, on their way thither, but probably more might have been done. Prizes were awarded to Tasmanian Exhibitors for wool, wheat, and other cereals, hats and caps, iron ores, tin and tin ore, building stone, slates, and some minor articles.

A previous Exhibition of the articles intended for the Philadelphia Exposition was held at Melbourne. I find that at Melbourne the number of exhibits was 332; and that there were awarded, four silver and twenty-two bronze medals, and thirty-two certificates of honor. At Philadelphia there were 194 exhibits, and twenty-nine bronze medals and the same number of diplomas of honor were awarded. The grain attracted especial attention, and at the request of some of the American Agricultural Societies samples of the finest wheat have been supplied. This Exhibition has already been the means of obtaining for this Colony from the Smithsonian and other learned Societies in the United States presentations of valuable books and seeds.

Shipping,
pp. 80-84.

The total tonnage of shipping in 1875 and 1876, and the increase in the latter year, were as follows:—

	1875.	1876.	Increase in 1876.
Inwards .....	129,102	141,181	12,079
Outwards .....	133,107	136,303	3196
Inwards and Outwards .....	262,209	277,484	15,275

The tonnage of Shipping entered in 1876 was 141,181, in 1875, 129,102, showing an increase, as regards the former year, of 12,079. The tonnage outwards was—in 1876, 136,303; in 1875, 133,107; the increase in 1876 being 3196.

The tonnage at the Outports in 1876 and 1875 was—

Torquay .....	3112	3634
	22,429	19,091

Showing a decrease on the tonnage—

Inwards .....	1438
Outwards .....	3338

On the registers on the 31st December, 1876, there were 199 vessels, with a tonnage of 19,968. On the corresponding day of the previous year there were 187 vessels, measuring 18,317 tons. There was therefore an increase of 12 vessels, with a capacity of 1651 tons.

Two steamers, whose collective tonnage was 558, were added to the registers in 1876.

In the past year 10 vessels were sold out of the Colony, their tonnage being 552, and the value returned, £12,275. As compared with 1875 there was an increase of 1 in the number of vessels, 40 in the tonnage, and £1855 in the value.

Whaling was fairly successful, 470 tuns of Sperm Oil, valued at £41,740, having been brought into Port, as against 139 tuns, valued at £12,465, in 1875. The number and crews of vessels employed in the Whale Fisheries were the same as in 1875, namely, 13 vessels, manned by 315 men, and with a tonnage of 3525.

A comparison of the average retail prices of some of the principal commodities at Hobart Town in 1875 and 1876 shows that Bacon, Coals (New Town), Firewood, Flour, Wheat, Pork, and Veal were dearer in the latter year; and that Cheese (Colonial), Newcastle Coal, Eggs, Barley, Oats, Hay, Mutton, Sugar, and Onions were cheaper. Prices, p. 86.

The contract prices of Butter, Black Oil, Sugar, Bread, Butchers' Meat, and Wheat, as supplied to the Government, were higher; those of Coffee, Oatmeal, Raisins, Sago, Salt, Tea, Tobacco, and Liquors, were lower.

The Return of Trades and Manufactories shows an increase on the total of 38—the numbers being, in 1875, 3300; in 1876, 3338. There were increases on Agricultural Implement Makers, Auctioneers, Blacksmiths, Bricklayers, Brickmakers, Builders, Butchers (48), Candle Manufactories, Carpenters, Chemists and Druggists, Coach-makers, Dyers, Fellmongers (31), Foundries (Iron and Brass), General Dealers and Grocers, Gunsmiths, Jam Manufactories (2), Mills (Flour), Pastrycooks and Confectioners, Potteries, Publicans (1), Sail-makers, Saw-mills (17), Tailors, Tin-smelting Works (1), Tin-workers. The following were fewer in 1876 than in 1875:—Bakers, Basket-makers, Blacksmiths (13), Bone-mills, Boot and Shoemakers, Breweries (2), Cabinet-makers and Joiners, Cheese-makers, Corn and Ship-Chandlers, Engineers, Gardeners (Market), Ginger Beer, &c. Manufactories, Hawkers, Ironmongers, Iron Smelting Works (1), Maltsters, Painters, Plumbers and Glaziers, Pianoforte-makers (1), Saddle and Harness-makers, Shipwrights and Boat-builders (14), Stone-masons, Tanners (26), Turners, Wheelwrights, Woollen Manufactories, Wool Staplers and Sorters. Trades and Manufac- tories, p. 87.

The differences in regard to Tanners and Fellmongers, I find on enquiry, are to be accounted for in a great measure by a change of system at Hobart. It appears that, in order to comply with the law respecting the sale of skins, many persons take out tanners' licences who are not tanners in the ordinary sense of the term; and in 1875 all such persons were returned as tanners, while in 1876, those who were not actually engaged in tanning were excluded. In the same way persons have been returned as Fellmongers who were not strictly so.

Wages seem to have been generally higher in 1876. Those which show any considerable variation as between the last two years are compared below:— Wages, pp. 88—89.

	1875.	1876.
Carpenters, per diem .....	7s. 7d.	8s. 0d.
Joiners, ditto .....	7s. 9½d.	8s. 4½d.
Masons and Cutters, ditto .....	8s. 2d.	8s. 6d.
Builders, ditto .....	8s. 6¾d.	8s. 10d.
Plasterers, ditto .....	7s. 3¾d.	7s. 8d.
Plumbers, ditto .....	8s. 2d.	9s. 0d.
Saddlers, ditto .....	6s. 9¾d.	7s. 4d.
Tanners, ditto .....	6s. 8d.	6s. 5d.
Wheelwrights, ditto .....	7s. 4½d.	7s. 11d.
Day labourers, ditto .....	4s. 11d.	5s. 2d.
Seamen, per month .....	£4 4s. 3½d.	£4 12s. 9½d.

The wages of farm labourers were lower, those of reapers, mowers, and shearers, in consequence of the scarcity of hands, were higher. Shepherds' wages, somewhat strangely, were lower. Coachmen and gardeners obtained higher rates; those for grooms were lower. On the average wages of laundresses, housemaids, and nursemaids, there was an increase; on those of cooks and general servants (female), a decrease.

On the whole, the position of the receivers of wages was more favourable.

Gold Mining
p. 90.

The Returns relating to Gold Mining show the following figures for the two last years:—

	1875.	1876.
Average number of persons employed ..	101	129
Alluvial      Gold obtained, ozs.....	270	100

It will be observed that not only was the total yield more than trebled in 1876, but the produce per ton was higher, and the gold of better quality. The results of the present year's operations will be still more favourable.

The following yields of some of the best crushings in 1876 were noted by me at the time, and are worth recording here:—

Mines, p. 91.

Other Minerals that were raised in increased quantities in 1876 were building stone, iron and tin ore, lime and limestone, and slate. The increase in stone for building purposes was 105 tons and 16,000 cubic feet; on iron ore, 500 tons; on lime, 8902 bushels; on limestone, 5036 tons; on slates, 197,000; on tin ore in the vicinity of Mount Bischoff—it being impossible under present circumstances to get any account of the quantity obtained in the north-eastern district—597 tons. The best information to be gained as to the production of tin is that derived from the Customs Returns of Exports, which have already been under review.

IV.—FINANCE.

Revenue,
pp. 94-100.

The greater portion of Revenue is derived from Customs. These in 1876 yielded £185,037 9s. 1d.—an increase of £3709 8s. 6d. as compared with 1875. The Customs in 1876 exceeded those of 1854, when they seem to have been at their greatest, namely, £182,489. The revenue collected (omitting fractions), in the last four years, is shown below—

1873 .....	169,763
1874 .....	181,302
1875 .....	181,328
1876 .....	185,037

Publicans' Licences yielded £9425 in 1876, against £9776 in 1875. Comparing the amount received from these licences in 1876 with that received in 1867, there was a decrease of £9080; the revenue derived from this source in that year having been £18,505. Stamps produced in 1876, £6334, or £53 less than in 1875. The Post Office received £17,745 in 1875, and £19,708 in 1876; the Telegraph Department £1919 in 1875, and £2752 in 1876. The revenue from the sale and leasing of crown lands in the last three years was as follows:—

	1874.	1875.	1876.
From Sales.....	30,565	33,643	21,402
From Leases .....	7638	10,922	12,273
TOTAL.....	38,203	44,565	33,675

While there is a large increase in rents, caused by the taking up of land for the purpose of mining for gold, tin, and other metals and minerals, there is more than a corresponding decrease in the amount produced by sales.

The total revenue (including outstanding sums, as estimated) for 1876 was £327,349 11s. 5d.; the actual revenue of 1875 having been £342,606 0s. 1d. The deficiency (omitting minor sums) is referable to the following items:—

	1875.	1876.	DECREASE.
Land Sales.....	33,643	21,402	12,241
Reimbursements.....	22,447	13,100	9,347
Interest on Launceston and Western Railway Loan...	10,558	7	10,551
	66,648	34,509	32,139

The decrease on the total revenue of 1876 being only £15,256, and that on the above items £32,139, it appears that there were increases on the other items to the extent of £16,883.

The Expenditure of the General Government in 1876 was £336,387 13s. 5d., subject to future correction on amount of liabilities at present outstanding.* In 1875 it was £388,089 18s. 4d.; but in this was included a sum of £52,000 for the repayment of Treasury Bills,—making the ordinary expenditure of that year £336,089 18s. 4d. That of 1876 was therefore £297 15s. 1d. in excess. The variations in the amounts of the different items is so trifling that they need not be further noticed.

The Expenditure in this Colony on account of the Imperial Government was in 1876, £15,412 12s. 0d.,—being £1267 12s. 11d. more than in 1875.

The rates of Exchange with London did not differ much from those which prevailed in 1875, although they were steadier. In 1875 the Banks purchased Bills at from  $\frac{1}{4}$  per cent discount to par; in 1876 from  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent discount. The premium on Bank Bills in 1875 was from  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 1 per cent; in 1876, from  $\frac{1}{8}$  to  $\frac{1}{4}$ . The Exchange with the other Australasian Colonies, as also the rates of Discount and Interest, were the same in both years.

The Assets and Liabilities of the Banks in the last quarters of 1875 and 1876 were as follows:—

	1875.	1876.
ASSETS.	£	£
Specie and Bullion .....	245,459	256,499
Debts due to other Banks .....	1,245,215	1,357,198

Deposits .....	1,277,585	1,463,008
Balances due to other Banks.....	4240	2582
	1,390,761	1,585,844

The increases on the totals were—

Assets .....	135,201
Liabilities .....	195,083

* The Assistant Colonial Treasurer has informed me that the item "Outstanding Expenditure" as given in the Return should be increased by about £3000, on account of claims made by the Road Trusts since the Return was completed.

Savings Banks, pp. 104, 105.

The number of Accounts open at the end of February, 1877, was 11,514; in 1876, 11,208: the amount to credit of Depositors, 1877, £302,273; 1876, £289,223: the average amount of Depositors' Balances, 1877, £26 5s.; in 1876, £25 16s. 1d. The total amount of Deposits and repayments in the two years from March to February was—

Post Office Money Orders, pp. 106, 107.

The Returns relating to Post Office Money Orders show that seven additional offices for the issue and payment of such Orders were opened in 1876; that the number of Orders issued in the course of the year was 8851, the amount being £32,426 10s. 7d.; that the number paid was 6953, the amount being £25,559 5s. 5d.

Comparing the business of 1876 with that of the preceding year, we find the following increases:—

	Absolute Increase.	Increase per cent.

Public Debt, pp. 108, 109.

The Public Debt of the Colony on 31st December, 1876, was £1,520,500. On the last day of the previous year it was £1,489,400, the addition in 1876 having been £31,100. The rate per head of the population at the end of 1876 was £14 8s. 3½d. The rate of interest on the greater part, amounting to £1,127,900, was 6 per cent.; on the remaining £392,600 it was 5 per cent.; the amount paid for interest in the year being £86,379 14s. 0d.

Local Revenue, &c., p. 110.

The local bodies had an aggregate revenue of £112,791, and an aggregate expenditure of £115,176.

V.—ESTABLISHMENTS MAINTAINED OR ASSISTED BY GOVERNMENT.

The Post Office Returns show that the number of letters, packets, and newspapers Post Office, which passed through the various Post Offices in the Colony during the past year, and p. 140. the increases as compared with 1875, were as follows:—

Letters.	No. in 1876.	Increase.
Inland.....	1,357,322	167,242
Ship { Received.....	294,234	31,766

Inland.....	950,213	77,643
Ship { Received.....	264,230	14,339
Ship { Despatched.....	238,071	9092

On the total number of letters, packets, and newspapers received and despatched the increases per cent. were:—

Letters.....	12·65
Packets.....	23·22
Newspapers.....	7·54

It will be seen that the increase on newspapers was very much smaller than that on letters and packets.

The Revenue of the Post Office in 1876 is estimated by the Secretary at £14,450; the Expenditure was £21,349 18s. 0d.; the increases being, respectively, £950 and £1347 10s. 1d.

The number of Post Offices and Receiving Houses was 177; the number of miles of post roads 1359; and the mileage traversed in conveying mails, 481,512.

Seven new Post Offices were established during the year; there were 66 additional miles of post roads, and 44,976 more miles travelled by mail conveyances.

During the year 1876, 8 new telegraph stations were opened, and 117 miles of line, Telegraph, and 162 miles of single wire were added; making at the end of the year, 40 stations, 513 p. 141. miles of line, and 630 miles of wire.

The number of Messages transmitted through the lines in that year is returned as 53,475 between stations within Tasmania, 12,613 between Tasmania and other countries; the number of both being 66,088.

The Revenue was £3042 17s. 3d.; the Expenditure £3886 6s. 11½d.

The increases were as under:—

	Absolute Increase.	Increase per cent.
On Messages { Within the Colony...	14,936	38·75
{ Beyond the Colony..	1526	13·76
On total Messages.....	16,462	33·17
On Revenue.....	£798 12s. 2d.	26·24
On Expenditure .....	£1209 2s. 9d.	45·16

The receipts of the Launceston and Western Railway in 1876 are stated to have been £18,415 16s. 2d.; the working expenses £15,782 9s. 8d.: leaving a surplus of income over expenditure of £2633 6s. 6d. A sum of £1903 2s. 8d. was applied to the construction of new works; and the Manager remarks that even after debiting the revenue with this item, in addition to working expenses, ordinary and extraordinary, there remained a balance of receipts of £730 3s. 10d. towards payment of interest.

The working expenses (£15,782) were in the proportion of 85·70 per cent. of the revenue.

The corresponding figures for 1875 were :—

	£	s.	d.
Receipts .....	19,435	13	2
Working Expenses .....	16,213	1	0
Balance in favour of Receipts.....	£3222	12	2

Balance towards payment of interest, after deducting £1657 11s. 7d. for new works. . . . . 1565. 0. 7

Comparing more closely the figures for the two years, we find that there was an increase in the passengers in 1876 of 10,895, or 11.83 per cent., and in the passenger fares of £706 1s. 2d., or 7.73 per cent. On receipts for conveyance of parcels, horses, carriages, and dogs, there was an increase to the extent of £126 13s. 7d. On the goods traffic there was a decrease of 5207 tons, and of £1891 11s. 5d. on the receipts. Conveyance of live stock also produced less by £11 17s. 6d. On rents, conveyance of Mails, &c., there was an increase of £50 17s. 2d.

Whatever other causes may have operated to occasion this decrease in the quantity of goods carried, the deficiency in the yield of wheat, oats, potatoes, apples, and pears, as compared with that of the preceding year, must have had a considerable share in bringing it about.

The passenger train miles travelled over in 1876 was 85,039 against 85,644 in 1875; the total mileage, 1,746,524 against 1,615,119; the average miles per passenger 16.95, against 17.53; the average number of passengers carried per train, 54.39 and 48.92 respectively, showing a considerable increase; the average number of passengers per train mile, 1.21 and 1.08 respectively.

The average receipts from passengers in 1876 and 1875 respectively were :—Per passenger per mile 1.35 and 1.36; per passenger train mile 2s. 3.76d. and 2s. 1.59d.; per train £5 3s. 10.66d. and £4 16s. 11.95d.; per passenger 1s. 10.92d. and 1s. 11.79d.; per week £189 3s. 11.21d. and £175 12s. 4.48d.

For the goods traffic the corresponding figures were, in the same years :—Train miles, 85,039 and 86,994; ton miles, 533,539 and 747,176. The averages were respectively —tons per train, 10.89 and 13.61; per train mile, 0.24 and 0.30; miles travelled per ton, 25.86 and 29.69; receipts per ton per mile, 2.91d. and 2.69d.; per goods train mile, 1s. 6.28d. and 1s. 11.09d.; per ton, 6s. 3.37d. and 6s. 5.75d.; per train, £3 8s. 5.07d. and £4 8s. 1.85d.; per week, £124 11s. 9.77d. and £160 19s. 4.10d.

Marine
Boards,
p. 145.

The Return relating to Marine Boards is, I am sorry to say, not complete, the accounts of the Mersey Board not having been furnished, although repeatedly applied for. A new Master Warden having been appointed in the present year, I applied to him for them; but was informed that he was unable to furnish them, the books and papers not having been handed over to him.

Light Houses,
ib.

The Light Houses in 1876 received from Light Dues, interest, &c., £2869 16s. 10d.; and from sums contributed by other Governments, £1436 7s. 3d.; making together £4306 4s. 1d. More was received from Light Dues than in 1875, but the contributions from other Governments were smaller. The expenditure in 1876 was £4898 13s. 0d., against £4797 8s. 8d. in 1875.

Salmon
Breeding
Establishment,
ib.

The Salmon Breeding Establishment in 1876 cost £201 3s. 3d. Its receipts were : from Licences to fish for Trout, £61 15s. 0d.; from sale of Ova, £10; making the incomings about 35 per cent. of the expenditure. The number of ova and fry distributed during the year was as follows :—

OVA.
Salmon Trout—New Zealand.....		250
Victoria.....		250
Brown Trout—New South Wales.....		250
Victoria.....		2000
Mr. Brewer, North East Coast .....		500

Mr. Pillinger, M.H.A., for Blackman River.....		300
Mr. Shoobridge.....		400
Mr. J. Smith for River Forth and tributaries.....		500
TOTAL.....		2150

From a return laid before Parliament in the present year, it appears that in the period from 1869 to 1876, both included, the number of ova and fry of Brown and Salmon Trout distributed for stocking the rivers in this and the other Australasian Colonies was as follows:—

Salmon Trout.

Ova .....	3850
Fry.....	1521

Brown Trout.

Ova .....	67,600
Fry.....	32,849

TOTAL OVA AND FRY.... 105,820

The Brown Trout have now been introduced into 33 different localities in this Colony, besides the Lakes.

Following the return relating to the Salmon Breeding Establishment comes a group of returns embracing:—1. The Government Hospitals; 2. The Establishments for Paupers; 3. The Gaols and Penal Establishments.

The General Hospitals had 24 wards or rooms, with an aggregate capacity of 293,130 cubic feet, and 200 beds,—136 for males, and 64 for females. One hundred and twenty-five patients remained from the previous year, 1568 were admitted during 1876, 989 were discharged cured or relieved, 110 incurable, 254 at their own request or on unspecified grounds, 181 died, leaving 159 remaining at the end of the year; the daily average number being, in whole numbers, 159.

The Pauper Establishments for adults had 39 wards or rooms, with a capacity of 649,596 cubic feet, and 1069 beds,—919 for males, and 150 for females. They had 807 inmates remaining from the previous year, 972 were admitted, 818 were discharged, 131 died, and 830 remained at the end of the year; the daily average being 854.

The Queen's Asylum for Destitute Children had 14 rooms, with a capacity of 207,392 cubic feet, and beds for 174 children. At the beginning of the year there were 167 inmates, 15 were admitted during the year, 41 were discharged, and 141 remained at the end of the year, the average daily number throughout the year being 157.

The Hospitals for the Insane had 143 wards or rooms,—the aggregate capacity of which cannot be stated, not having been returned for the Hospital at New Norfolk,—and beds for 372 patients,—236 males, and 136 females. There were remaining from the previous year 347 patients, 46 were admitted during 1876, 14 were re-admitted, 18 were discharged cured, 10 improved, 1 absconded, and 39 died, leaving 339 in these institutions at the end of the year; the daily average being 315, of whom 212 were chargeable to the Colonial Government and 103 to the Imperial. On the 31st December, 1876, the number remaining was smaller by 8 than on the corresponding day in the previous year.

The proportion to population of the Insane on 31st December, 1876, was 1 in 310, or 3·22 per 1000. I find it stated that in New South Wales, (1876), the proportion was 1 in 361; in Victoria, (1875), 1 in 322; in England, (same year), 1 in 373. The proportion in Tasmania compares unfavourably with that in the other countries named; but the explanation of this is doubtless to be found in the large number chargeable to the Imperial Government having been originally transported offenders, whose insanity is, if not the direct consequence, at least a concomitant, of their criminal habits or propensities, often, it must be supposed, the result of inherited unsoundness of mind.

At the Penal Establishments the accommodation continued to be the same as in the preceding year. The numbers were:—Remaining at the beginning of 1876, 471; received during the year, 1564; discharged, 1665; absconded, 5; died, 8; remaining at the end of the year, 357; average daily number during the year, 408, nearly. As compared with the average for 1875, that for 1876 shows a decrease of 85 criminals, or about 17 per cent.

The average ages of the adult inmates of the Pauper and Penal Establishments was Ages, p. 140. as follows:—Paupers, Brickfields, 69; Cascades, (omitting fractions), 65; New Town, 64; Launceston, 67; Port Arthur, 60. Criminals, Campbell-street Gaol, 45; Cascades, males, 56, females, 38; Launceston, 43; Port Arthur, 42.

Government Establishments, Numbers, &c., pp. 146-150.

Education, ib. The state of Education of the inmates is given this year for all the Pauper and Penal Establishments, with the exception of the Paupers at the Cascades. The per centages under the different classes were as follows:—

	Unable to Read.	Able to Read only.	Able to Read and Write.	Of Superior Education.

At the date of the last Census the state of Education of the whole population, at all ages, was as shown by the following proportions:—

	Per cent.
Unable to read.....	29·64

Employment of Prisoners, p. 150. Of the criminals in confinement during the year, 152 were employed in hard labour within the prison, 125 outside, 66 were engaged in other employments, and 57 were unemployed.

Punishments, ib. The following were the punishments inflicted for offences committed within the prisons:—Irons, 3; solitary imprisonment, 160; others, 88.

Previous Convictions, ib. Two hundred and ninety-one prisoners were convicted once before; 533 twice; and 538 three or more times: the majority being thus old offenders.

Cost, p. 151. The Expenditure on account of all the Charitable and Penal Establishments for the last two years is shown below.

The Gross Expenditure on account of the before-mentioned Establishments in 1876 was £48,216 15s. 7d., and the receipts by sale of produce and from other sources, £6303 11s. 8d., leaving the net cost, £41,913 3s. 11d. Of the gross expenditure, £8716 3s. 5d. was incurred for General Hospitals; £9521 13s. 3d. for Hospitals for the Insane; £12,900 6s. 2d. for Pauper Establishments; £2697 11s. 5d. for the Queen's Asylum; £432 5s. 6d. for the so-called Training School, or Reformatory for Boys; and £13,948 15s. 10d. for Gaols and Penal Establishments.

Comparing the cost of all these establishments for 1876 with that for 1875, we find the following increases:—On salaries and allowances, £424 8s. 4d.; on other expenses, £1056 16s. 11d.; on both, that is, on the total Gross Expenditure, £1481 5s. 3d.; on the net cost, £2499 5s. 7d.; the amount of cash received having been £1018 0s. 4d. less than in 1875.

The increase in expense seems to have been chiefly caused by a serious rise in the price of the chief articles of food, namely, wheat and bread, butcher's meat, and sugar.

The following was the average cost per head in these Establishments, calculated on the gross expenditure in the last two years, taken in connection with the average number maintained:—

	Gross Cost per Head.		Average Daily Number.

TOTAL.....	—	—	1992	1893

A considerable proportion of the increase in the cost per head at some of the establishments is attributable to the diminution in the number of persons maintained, the supervision and some other expenses being of course the same, or nearly so, whether the number be greater or less.

The Return relating to the farm attached to the Queen's Asylum shows an expenditure in 1876 of £667 18s. 2d., the value of the produce being £1127 2s. 6d., leaving a profit of £459 4s. 4d. As compared with the figures for the preceding year, there was an increase in the expenditure of £56 11s. 5d., chiefly on purchase of stock; in the value of produce, of £193 14s. 9d.; and in the balance to profit, of £137 13s. 4d.

The sum disbursed in out-door relief to the indigent during 1876 was £10,346 8s. 3d., being £828 0s. 1d. more than in the year before.

Relief, ib.

The Charitable Institutions assisted by the Government had an aggregate revenue (including the balances brought forward) of £4302 18s. 7d., of which £918 14s. 10d. was derived from private subscriptions, and £1857 7s. 2d. from Government; the former amount being to the latter in the proportion of 49·46 per cent., or nearly one-half. In 1875 the proportion of private contributions to the Government grants was 75·73 per cent., the falling off being chiefly in the subscriptions to the Benevolent Society, Hobart Town, which were returned as £667 5s. 0d. in 1875, and only £186 15s. 10d. in 1876.

Establishments assisted by Government, p. 152-3.

The total number of persons relieved by the Benevolent Societies in 1876 was 835, and in 1875, 890, being 55 less in the former year, a decrease of rather more than 6 per cent.

Other institutions aided by the State were the Ragged Schools, and the Royal Society. The revenue of the Ragged Schools declined from £908 8s. 10d in 1875, to £584 12s. 1d. in 1876; the private subscriptions from £205 to £146 19s. 4d.; the Government Grant from £703 8s. 6d. to £437 12s. 9d. As to the Royal Society the only remark that need be made is, that while the sum received from members had increased, the casual receipts having diminished and the expenditure been greater, the Society was in a less favourable position at the end than at the beginning of the past year.

The Boards of Works had at their disposal at the commencement of 1876, £1174 16s. 6d., of which they appear to have spent no more than £87 3s. 1d., leaving a balance to their credit, at the end of the year, of £1087 13s. 5d.

Boards of

The Road Trusts had under their control in 1876, 3625½ miles of road. The Road Trusts' amount at their disposal (including balances to the extent of £7360 1s. 8½d. from the preceding year) was £33,188 4s. 4½d.; and their expenditure was £31,306 6s. 3d.; leaving a sum of £1881 18s. 1½d. available for the present year.

The two Bridge Trusts, both of which derive their funds from tolls, had a revenue (including balance of £103 10s. 6d.) of £1753 17s. 4½d., an expenditure of £1597, (including a payment of £500 by the Bridgewater Trust in aid of the General Revenue), and a balance of £156 5s. 1½d. to be carried to 1877.

Bridge Trusts,
p. 157.

In the Municipalities (including the two principal towns) the annual value of Rateable Property in 1876 was £526,163; the Revenue (including balance from the previous year, £2548 5s. 2d.) was £83,275 14s. 3d.; and the expenditure £82,049 11s. 3½d.

Municipalities, pp. 158-9.

In 1875 the Revenue was only £56,047 5s. 2½d., the Expenditure £57,206 5s. 10½d. In 1876 the amounts are swelled up on the debit side by a sum of £26,300 received from loans, and on the credit side by £11,750 for repayment of loans.

The annual value of property in Tasmania, as shown by the Valuation Rolls, in 1876, was £627,430, against £604,347 in 1875; the increase being £23,083, or about 3·8 per cent.

Valuation of Property, p. 160.

Comparing the valuation in 1876 with that of 1870 we find that in Hobart Town and Launceston together it had increased from £157,078 to £170,105, and all but continuously; that in the Rural Municipalities in 1870 it was £357,714, from which it declined to £340,480 in 1873, and rose by degrees to £356,058 in 1876; while in the Police Districts it was £95,432 in 1870, about £102,000 in the two following years, thence declined to £95,687 in 1874, and rose again to £97,878 in 1875, and £101,267 in 1876.

It appears then that the principal advance in the value of property has occurred in Hobart Town and Launceston; and that in the Rural Municipalities the valuation, though it has been rising since 1872, was smaller in amount in 1876 than in 1870.

VI.—CROWN LANDS, AGRICULTURE, &amp;c.

Crown Lands, The amount of land leased under "The Waste Lands Act," and the rental therefrom, pp. 162-5. in 1875 and 1876, were as follows:—

In the lots of land sold not exceeding 500 acres there was an increase in 1876 of 5549 acres; in the lots of 500 acres and upwards, a decrease of 21,289.

The average price per acre of land sold in the above-mentioned years was:—

being considerably in favour of 1876.

There were granted, on Immigration Certificates, 440 acres in that year, against 497 in 1875.

The total number of acres alienated up to the end of 1876 is returned as 4,051,815, leaving 12,726,185 acres still unalienated.

The interest in mining for gold and other minerals increased greatly in 1876, and the result is shown by the following comparisons:—

The figures for 1875 are more than doubled in 1876.

In regard to the Gold Fields the Commissioner reports to me in these terms:—

"The mining industry during the early part of the year was in a state of collapse. The splendid success, however, which attended the efforts of the New Native Youth Company at the Nine Mile Springs gave a powerful impetus to those engaged in mining pursuits, and towards the close of the year and since the beginning of 1877, the activity displayed has far surpassed anything heretofore known in Tasmania in connection with the search for gold. There are now at the Nine Mile Springs some half dozen claims being worked with powerful steam machinery, besides a number of others being opened up by ordinary hand appliances. At the Denison several claims are being tested, and preparations made for applying steam. At Waterhouse and the Back Creek many of the old claims are again taken up, and I have every reason to believe will be properly tested. Several applications have also recently been made for claims in the Fingal District. The present population of the gold-field is somewhere about six hundred; sixty-nine leases have been applied for, and upwards of one thousand pounds received as fees since the beginning of the year [1877]."

"The reckless dealing in shares which at one time formed the leading characteristic in mining circles, has been succeeded by a bonâ fide application of capital to the thorough prospecting and testing of the several claims operated upon, although there is still to be seen much of that unwholesome excitement which appears to be inseparable from such a fascinating species of speculation."

The average of land in cultivation in the last two years was as shown below:—

In the total acreage under crop there was a decrease of 15,265; on the acreage in wheat a decrease of 3768; in the acreage in oats a decrease of 8976; on the land in hay a decrease of 5094 acres.

The figures given above support the general testimony of the collectors of these Statistics, that the tendency is to abandon agriculture in favour of stock-keeping; but the want of rain during a part of 1876 appears to have been one cause of the decrease in the area under crop in that year. Wheat, however, in consequence of its present high price, and the probability in view of the deficient harvest in the great wheat-growing countries, South Australia and California, of remunerative rates being maintained, may be expected to receive more attention in the coming season.

The number of acres of wheat reaped by machine in 1875-6 was 6473, in 1876-7, 6496, showing a very slight increase.

The number of persons from whom were received both Agricultural and Stock Returns was 6864 in 1875-6, and 6593 in 1876-7; while that of those who furnished Returns of Live Stock only was 919 in the former year, and 992 in the latter—another indication of the growing preference for Stock as compared with tillage.

The produce of the principal crops in these years was:—

The growth of Flax for seed has greatly increased. In the last year 58 acres were returned under this crop, the produce being 22,680lbs., against 13,768 in the preceding season.

For the first time Mustard appears in the returns of crops, 5 acres having been grown in the District of Port Sorell, yielding 3300lbs. of seed. Tobacco as a crop has nearly disappeared; its use for sheep-washing having apparently been almost entirely superseded by that of sulphur, as is shown by the large imports of the latter article.

The average yield of Wheat per acre in the past year was the largest in the ten years. That of other agricultural produce, except Carrots and Onions, was smaller than in the year before. Below are given the averages for the last two years.

The Return of Agricultural Machinery in use in 1876 shows on the whole a decline as compared with the Return for the previous year. This is to be accounted for by the fact before adverted to, namely, that the tendency is to abandon agriculture in favour of stock-keeping. The decreases were: Chaff Cutters, from 215 to 197; Cultivators, from 127 to 99; Hay Elevators, from 24 to 14; Horse Hoes, Grubbers, and Scarifiers, from 478 to 443; Ploughs, subsoil, from 114 to 106; Reaping Machines, from 117 to 108; Reaping and Mowing Machines in one, from 103 to 90; Seed Drills, from 65 to 64; Sowing Machines, from 19 to 16; Threshing Machines, from 247 to 227. The increases were: Steam Engines, from 70 to 79; Clod Crushers, from 58 to 67; Corn Crushers, from 18 to 60; Hay Rakes, from 149 to 157; Irrigation works, the motive power of which was horse or steam, from 11 to 21; Lift and Force Pumps, from 12 to 79; Mowing Machines, from 33 to 46; Ploughs, double-furrow, from 26 to 33. One three-furrow plough is returned at New Norfolk for 1876-7.

The following is the number of Live Stock (not including those on the Islands in the Straits) in the Colony on 31st March last, as compared with the number in 1875:—

	1876.	1877.
Horses.....	23,473	.. 23,622
Horned Cattle .....	118,694	.. 124,459
Sheep .....	1,719,768	.. 1,755,142
Goats .....	2242	.. 2437
Pigs .....	47,664	.. 60,681

There is an increase upon all; but that on Pigs was remarkable—the more so, because the number in the two previous years had been declining. The number of Pigs is the largest in the ten years.

The washing of Sheep in warm water continues to decline in favour; the number of flockmasters who practised it having been returned as 32 in 1875-6, and only 17 in 1876-7: while the number who sheared their sheep in the grease increased from 372 to 412 in the same period.

During 1876 there were imported: Sheep, 12,054, against 19,411 in 1875; and Cattle, 805, against 1173. The number slaughtered at Hobart Town and Launceston,

Agricultural Machinery,

at the public Slaughter-houses, was : Sheep, 77,648, against 72,089 ; Cattle, 8168, against 7783 ; and Pigs, 5259, against 4976.

The Collectors, generally, especially on the Northern side, speak in hopeful terms of the state and prospects of their several districts as regards agricultural and pastoral operations. The use of artificial manures is said to be extending, more skill and care are shown in the cultivation of the land in some places at least, and more attention is given to the breeding and management of stock.

VII.—LAW, CRIME, &c.

The number of persons committed for trial in 1876 was 94, being 14 fewer than in 1875.

Commitments,
p. 176.
Superior Courts, &c.

Seventy-five persons are returned as having been dealt with by the Superior Courts in 1876, of whom 51 were convicted, 20 acquitted, 2 remanded, and 2 not prosecuted. As to the nature of the offences, 26 were against the person, 44 against property, and 5 were classed as "miscellaneous." The convictions in 1876 were 2 more than in 1875, but the whole number of persons who came under the cognizance of these Courts was less ; the decrease being 11, or about  $12\frac{1}{2}$  per cent.

The number tried in the two years for Felonies and Misdemeanors, respectively, was—

	1875.	1876.
Felonies .....	61	..
Misdemeanors .....	17	..
	<hr/>	<hr/>
	78	71
	<hr/>	<hr/>

the proportion of misdemeanors being much greater in 1876, and the felonies, of course, in a corresponding degree smaller.

The Murder and Manslaughter cases in 1875 were 2, in 1876, 4 ; those of Rape and similar assaults on females were 6 in 1875, and 4 in 1876 ; Unnatural Crimes, 6 in 1875, none in 1876 ; Indecent Assaults on Males, 4 in 1875, none in 1876.

Executions. No Executions took place in 1876. During the last six years only one person has suffered the extreme penalty of the law.

Summary Jurisdiction,
pp. 177-181.

The total number of persons dealt with summarily, including those proceeded against for non-payment of local rates, and other cases which resulted only in orders for the payment of money, was in 1876, 9207 ; in 1875, 9088,—the increase being 119. The convictions were in the two years 5567 and 4438 respectively ; an increase of 1129.

There are two classes of offences in which there was a large increase in 1876, namely, "Drunkenness," and "Obscene, threatening, abusive, or insulting language or behaviour in public." The increase on the former was 435 cases ; on the latter, 504. On "Offences against the Person," there was an increase of 269 ; on those against Property an increase of 134.

Besides the number of offenders dealt with, 482 were reported to the Police, but from various causes, were not brought under the cognizance of the Courts.

Litigation,
pp. 182-3.

The Supreme Court, in its ordinary jurisdiction, in 1876, issued 219 writs of summons. Ten causes were entered for trial, and 7 were tried, 6 resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff, (the aggregate amount awarded being £486 1s. 6d.), 1 in a verdict for the defendant, and 3 causes were withdrawn. In 1875 the corresponding figures were—writs issued, 250 ; causes entered, 24 ; tried, 21 ; verdicts for plaintiff, 15, for defendant, 2 ; amount of awards, £764 10s. 2d. ; nonsuits and withdrawals, 4.

Here there was a considerable decrease in the business of 1876. As regards the special jurisdiction of the Court under "The Small Debts Act," the contrary was the case, as will be seen from the following particulars :—Summons, warrants, and subpoenas issued : 1875, 101 ; 1876, 121 ; cases tried, 1875, 47 ; 1876, 53 ; verdicts for plaintiff, 1875, 40 ; 1876, 49 ; for defendant, 1875, 7 ; 1876, 4 : amount of claims sued for, 1875, £1521 6s. ; 1876, £2087 4s. : of verdicts obtained, 1875, £690 10s. 3d. ; 1876, £731 10s. 4d.

In the business of the Courts of Requests, as will be seen from the following figures, there was but little difference in the two years :—

	1875.	1876.
Summons issued.....	2244	2261
Cases tried .....	1330	1304
Amount sued for.....	£14,267	£14,640
Amount of verdicts obtained.....	£6845	£7794

The business of the Divorce Court in 1876 appears to have been confined to the <sup>Divorce,</sup> receiving of two petitions for dissolution of marriage, and the granting of one decree for <sup>p. 183.</sup> that purpose. In 1875, 2 decrees for dissolution were granted, but no petitions were received.

The number of Probates of Wills and Letters of Administration granted in the two <sup>Probates, &c.</sup> last years, and the amount of property concerned, is shown below:— <sup>ib.</sup>

The Bankruptcies were fewer in 1876 than in 1875. The assets and liabilities cannot <sup>Bankruptcies,</sup> be compared, since they are not returned for Hobart Town; though I am unable to <sup>p. 184.</sup> discover any sufficient reason why they should be filed at Launceston and in some cases not at Hobart Town. The numbers were as follows:—

	1875.	1876.

The Mortgages registered in the two last years were—

The number of Memorials registered was in 1875, 922; in 1876, 1039. The number of Judgments, in 1875, 21; in 1876, 19. Certificates of Satisfaction, in 1875, 77; in 1876, 73.

The whole number of transactions under the Lands Titles Act, and the value and area <sup>Lands Titles Office, p. 185.</sup> of land dealt with, in the same two years, were—

	1875.	1876.
Number of transactions .....	942 ..	1068
Value of land .....	£202,567 ..	£235,499
Area, (fractions omitted), acres .....	119,331 ..	121,347

As regards the Mortgages discharged under this Act there was a large increase in 1875, as will be seen from the following comparison:—

	1875.	1876.
Number .....	83 ..	108
Value of land .....	£19,415 ..	£31,065

The Bills of Sale registered in 1876 numbered 126, and the renewals 47, the amount <sup>Bills of Sale,</sup> secured by both being £49,652 8s. 8d. In the previous year the numbers were, respectively, 145 and 33, and the amount, £69,868 8s. 11d.

The number of "Grant Deeds" enrolled in the Registry of the Supreme Court <sup>Grant Deeds,</sup> during the past year was 409, against 419 in 1875. For the information of persons not <sup>ib.</sup> accustomed to some of our Colonial phrases, it may be well to explain that "Grant Deeds" in this connection do not mean exclusively deeds of gift, but conveyances of land acquired from the Crown by any means, whether by gift or by purchase. The term seems to have come into use in the early times of the Colony, when most of the land alienated was given away or "granted," and to have been continued afterwards when the system of free grants had ceased.

Inquests, p. 186. During 1876 Inquests were held on 126 persons—96 being males and 30 females. The findings of the jury were—murder, 1; suicide, 4; accidental death, 52; injuries, cause unknown, 1; found dead, 19; excessive drinking (which, by a most singular perversion of reason, is placed under the head of "natural death"), 6; want, cold, exposure, &c., 1; other causes, 42. In 1875 the total number was 154, the deaths from excessive drinking being only 2.

VIII.—EDUCATION, RELIGION, &c.

Public Schools, pp. 188-9. The Statistics of the Public Schools under the Board of Education for the last two years are compared below:—

Year.	No. of Schools.	Distinct Scholars on Rolls during Year.	Average		Number of Scholars		Number of Teachers of all Grades.
			No. of Scholars on Rolls during Year.	Daily Attendance.	Entered during Year.	Left during Year.
1875.....	154	12,271	8145	5703	3776	2960	272
1876.....	158	12,231	8140	5867	3912	2776	282
Increase .....	4	—	—	164	136	—	10
Decrease .....	—	40	5	—	—	184	—

Thus there was an increase on the number of scholars entered during the year of 136; and on the average daily attendance, of 164. In 1875 the daily attendance was to the average number of scholars on the rolls in the proportion of 70·02 per cent.; in 1876 the proportion rose to 72·07 per cent.

The cost of these Schools in the same years was—

	Contributed by the State.	Fees from Parents and Guardians.	Total Cost.	Average Cost to State per head on daily attendance.
1875.....	£ 13,906 1 7	£ 4797 5 6	£ 18,703 7 1	£ 2 8 9
1876.....	14,624 15 1	5181 13 0	19,806 8 1	2 9 10½

To arrive at the total cost to the State of primary Education, that of administration and inspection—that is, of the departmental staff—namely, £1320 17s. 10d.—must be added, making the amount for 1876, £15,945 12s. 11d.

The cost of the system of superior Education provided by the State in the last two years was as under—

	1875.			1876.
	£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
Exhibitions* { Awarded by Board of Education..	448	3	4	..	500	6 8

Departmental Expenditure .....	65	19	10	..	71	14 5
Total Cost .....	£1975 11 4			£2302 14 1

Thus the total expenditure on Education in Tasmania from public funds was, in 1876, £18,248 7s.

* Including incidental expenses.

The Friendly Societies—as many of them as complied with the requirements of the Friendly Act by rendering returns to the Clerks of the Peace—had at the end of the year 2149 Societies, members. Their aggregate receipts during the year were £7118 10s., their expenditure, £6615 19s. 1d., and their capital, £16,513 5s. 4d. Compared with the corresponding figures for 1875, there appear the following increases:—On the number of members, 247; on the revenue, £1036 12s. 5½d.; on the capital, £4379 19s. 2½d.

Three more Lodges and Societies on the whole filed returns in 1876 than in the preceding year; but there are many which still habitually set the law at defiance in this respect.

IX.—VITAL STATISTICS.

The number of Births registered in 1876 was 3149, being 44 more than in 1875. Births, The males were 1660, the females 1489. The proportion of males to females was therefore as 111·49 to 100. With the exception of 1870, when it was 112·23, this is the highest proportion since 1865.

The birth-rate per 1000 of the mean population was in 1876, 30·11, and was exceeded, in the course of the past eleven years, only in 1867 (30·34), 1870 (30·53), and 1871 (30·15).

The Deaths registered in 1876 were 1730, against 2078 in the previous year. Three criminals (males) also died in 1876, whose deaths were not registered, making the actual number 1733, or fewer by 346 than in 1875.

The general death-rate in 1876 per 1000 of population was 16·57. It was considerably lower than in 1875 (20·01), but higher than in any of the remaining years of the decennium. That of males was 18·63, of females 14·36.

Of the registered deaths, 1022 were those of males, and 708 those of females.

The number of Deaths in each class in the two last years was as follows:—

	1875.	1876.
I. Zymotic .....	486	347
II. Constitutional .....	260	205
III. Local .....	844	729
IV. Developmental .....	371	307
V. Violent.....	106	126
	<hr/> 2067	<hr/> 1714

Last year I showed the ratio of deaths in each class to the total deaths from specified causes for three years,—the first year being an average one, the other years abnormal. In the following table the figures are repeated, with the addition of those for 1876:—

Classes of Disease.	Ratio per cent. to Total Specified Diseases.
	1873.	1874.	1875.	1876.
I. Zymotic .....	15·95	18·92	23·51	20·25
II. Constitutional .....	16·35	12·43	12·58	11·96
III. Local .....	38·63	41·98	40·83	42·53
IV. Developmental .....	21·87	20·06	17·95	17·91
V. Violent .....	7·20	6·61	5·13	7·35
	100·00	100·00	100·00	100·00

The health of the people—physical and moral—ought to be one of the first considerations in every well-regulated State; and I conceive therefore that I shall not be giving an undue measure of prominence to the subject, if I stay to analyse the above figures somewhat closely.

Zymotic diseases were less prevalent than in 1875, but much more so than in the other years. The comparative mortality from the principal diseases of this class will readily be seen from the table which follows:—

	1873.	1874.	1875.	1876.
Measles .....	—	—	129	1
Scarlatina .....	10	21	31	97
Diphtheria .....	28	36	54	47
Quinsy .....	1	5	5	4
Croup .....	15	22	21	20
Typhus, Typhoid, Infantile, &c. Fever	24	44	50	26
Erysipelas .....	6	14	13	5
Metria .....	—	9	12	5
Dysentery, Diarrhea, and Cholera .....	74	85	102	92

The greatest excess was therefore in Scarlatina and Diphtheria. Many of the cases of Diphtheria were sequelæ of Scarlatina. Out of 17 fatal cases registered at Hobart Town in November and December, 1876, four were so described, and a fifth was probably of a similar kind. Of the remaining cases five were from the country, chiefly, I believe from the neighbourhood of Brighton and Green Ponds. At the former locality an investigation by the Health Officer showed, I understand, that the disease could be traced to the defilement of the river water by excrementitious drainage, sheep-washing, and fellmongering. At Green Ponds the cause of the disease could not be so clearly ascertained, but there were grounds for concluding that in some of the cases at least it was brought from Pontville.

Diphtheria and other diseases produced by accumulated filth and bad drainage are increasing in various parts of the Colony to an extent that ought to arouse, if anything could, the public from its apathy. It is a disgrace to the vaunted civilisation of the nineteenth century that the causes of these terrible maladies should not be removed. The remedies, or rather precautions, are, effectual drainage, pure water and air, and the prompt removal of night soil, which ought to be applied to its proper purpose, the fertilisation of the earth.

But so little do people generally know of the laws which concern their health, and so careless are they of it, that nothing less than the most stringent measures will make them take the necessary precautions. Every day lives are sacrificed which, under a rational sanitary system, might be preserved. A single murder will cause the most intense excitement in the public mind, but a wholesale destruction of life through disease engendered by morbid matter suffered to remain and poison air and water is looked upon almost with unconcern, or else profanely styled the “visitation of God.” If we viewed the question in its true light we should pronounce a verdict of suicide or manslaughter against the individual who thus poisons himself or others, and against society which in spite of our present enlarged knowledge of sanitary science, does not make proper regulations for the preservation of the people’s health.

The rise in the death-rate of Hobart Town and Launceston shows the absolute necessity of taking the most active and stringent measures for preserving the health of the public. Something has already been done in this respect, but it forms but an infinitesimal part of what remains to be achieved.

In the constitutional class of diseases we observe an increase of 3 in the cases of dropsy, and a decrease of 23 in those of cancer, 4 in those of tumor. The tubercular diseases were fewer by 34, the deaths from phthisis being 99 against 114 in the year before.

Under the head of local diseases those of the nervous system were also fewer, the numbers being 267 and 254 respectively. Paralysis caused 13 deaths less; but apoplexy was unusually fatal, the numbers being 66 against 42 in 1875. The deaths from affections of the heart and circulation were 18 fewer; of the respiratory system, 79 fewer; of the digestive organs, 4 fewer.

In the developmental class, we find 11 cases fewer of premature birth, 23 fewer of old age, and 27 fewer of atrophy and debility.

The accidental deaths were more numerous. Drowning caused an increase of 12; poison, of 5; firearms, of 3. The suicides were the same in number as in the former year, namely, 6, all being males. It is a singular fact that in each of the last four years the number of suicides was the same.

The table which follows shows the ratio per cent. of deaths at each age to the deaths at all known ages in 1876, as compared with the corresponding ratios for the five years, 1869-73:—

	1876.	1869-73.
Under 1 year.....	16·55	20·26
Between 1 and 2 years.....	3·88	3·95
2 and 5 years.....	5·79	4·13
5 and 10 years.....	5·61	2·76
10 and 40 years.....	18·17	16·54
40 and 60 years.....	18·00	21·00
60 and 70 years.....	18·48	13·76
70 and 80 years.....	12·04	12·53
80 and 90 years.....	5·67	4·23
90 and upwards .....	0·81	0·84
	100·00	100·00

The proportion of children under two years old was smaller; also of adults between 40 and 80, and of those of 90 and upwards. At the other ages it was greater in 1876 than in the five years. Thirteen persons between 90 and 100 died in 1876, and 10 in 1875. One person of 100 or upwards paid the debt of nature in 1876. The year 1874 also witnessed the passing away of a centenarian. Two deaths at this age occurred in 1872.

In the Hospitals (Hobart Town, Launceston, and Campbell Town), there were 1755 cases treated, 189 of which terminated fatally, the proportion of deaths to cases being 10·77 per cent. In the previous year, the cases treated were 1547, the deaths 186, and the ratio of deaths to cases, 12 per cent.

At the Queen's Asylum 148 cases of sickness were treated, but there were no deaths. In 1875 there were 175 cases, and neither in that year was there any death.

In the other Government Establishments, the sickness and mortality were as follows:—

	1875.		1876.
	Cases.	Deaths.	Cases.	Deaths.
Gaols and Penal Establishments .....	1596	19	1362	8
Charitable Establishments other than those above mentioned .....	3126	130	4159	131

The increase shown in the cases at the Charitable Establishments chiefly occurred at the Brickfields, the number having been returned as 325 in 1875 and 2440 in 1876, and is thus explained by the Superintendent:—"For the year 1875 the exact number applying to the Medical Officer for treatment was not regularly kept, but during the year 1876 all who applied for treatment were booked at each visit of the Medical Officer."

The following table shows the mortality in 1876 at each of the Government Establishments, taken in connection with the age and accommodation:—

ESTABLISHMENT.	PER CENT. OF		AVERAGE AGE.	CUBIC SPACE TO EACH INMATE.
	DAILY AVERAGE NUMBER.	CASES TREATED.

* Adults and Children respectively.

† Aggregate capacity not stated.

I called attention in last Report to the high rate of mortality at the Pauper Establishment at Launceston. The ratio of deaths to the average daily number maintained throughout the year was then 19·51 per cent., with an average age of 66; in 1876 it had risen (the general death-rate being lower) to 22·91 per cent., with an average age of 67. At the Brickfields, with a greater average age, and a smaller space for each inmate, it was in the latter year only 14·71 per cent. The mortality at the Cascades was also higher, being 18·13 per cent. In 1875 it was only 14·86 per cent.

Marriages,
pp. 202-4.

The number of Marriages registered in 1876 was 746, being an increase of 57, or 8·27 per cent. upon 689, the number in the previous year. The largest absolute increase was on the side of the Wesleyans, being 18; the Free Church of Scotland came next, with an increase of 13; then the Church of England, with 11; then the Church of Scotland, with 8. The Independents and Primitive Methodists had an increase of 5 each; the Baptists of 2; the Friends of 1. The Church of Rome had a decrease of 8; the "Christians," so-called, of 2. On the number performed by Deputy Registrars, there was an increase of 4.

There are some very remarkable variations, as will be seen from the subjoined Table, in the ratio of Marriages to population, as between the different religious denominations. The ratios are calculated on the numbers as shown by the last census, and it is assumed that the "Wesleyans" of the Registrar's return are the same as the "Wesleyan Methodists" of the census:—

	Per 1000 of Population.
Church of England .....	4·66
Church of Rome .....	4·16
Church of Scotland .....	4·67
Free Church of Scotland .....	27·27
Independents .....	38·41
Baptists .....	2·15
Wesleyans .....	16·97
Society of Friends .....	12·19

The Marriage rate per 1000 of the general population of 1876 was 7·13, the highest in the past ten years, the next highest having been 6·83, in 1874. This is very satisfactory, since it is a well-recognised fact that the marriage-rate is a sort of social barometer, rising or falling with the prosperity or poverty of the people.

Meteorology,
p. 208.

The Meteorological Return for 1876 has been thrown into a form somewhat different from that hitherto employed, the change having been made by the Observer in order to admit of more perfect comparison with the records of other countries. The means of the different observations at Hobart Town for the year, as compared with those of 1875, were as follows:—

	Year 1876.	More (+), or less (-).
Barometer .....	29·86	+·05

Obscuration (0-10) .....	6·49	—
Ozone .....	4·89*	+0·15
Wind, lbs. per foot per month .....	·82	—

The total rain-fall was 23·63 inches, against 29·25 in 1875; the total evaporation in 1876 being 40·68.

X.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Political Franchise,
p. 210.

Under this head there is only one Return of any interest to the general public—that relating to the Political Franchise. This, I regret to say, is not perfect, the required information as to the Districts of Mersey, Pembroke, and Glamorgan not having been supplied. As regards the Districts of Queenborough and Sorell, the numbers struck off the Rolls and added to them were not given in consequence of the Returning Officer having been changed. The totals therefore are only approximately correct.

The number of electors for the Legislative Council stood thus:—Before the Revision of the Rolls, 2761; after it, 2834. The per-cent-age of votes recorded at the last contested elections ranged from 57 in the District of Meander to 84 in that of Huon.

For the House of Assembly the number of electors was:—Before Revision, 14,087; after it, 14,487. At the last General Election recently held, out of 10,625 on the Rolls for the contested electorates, 7557, or 71 per cent. voted; the per-cent-age in individual districts varying from a minimum of 50 in North Launceston to 87 at Franklin.

* The mean for 30 years being 7·24.

On a review of the whole of the returns contained in the accompanying volume, we note especially the following facts in regard to the past year :—Immigration was increasing, and the population received an accession from that source ; the value of the Imports indeed was smaller than in 1875, by £52,939, the chief deficiencies being in machinery, and railway materials, but the amount of duty collected (the rates remaining the same) was greater by about £4000 ; the value of the Exports exceeded that of the previous year by £45,007, and was the greatest in the ten years, and that notwithstanding considerable decreases in the shipments of Green Fruit, Grain, and Timber ; the quantity of shipping, both inwards and outwards, was greater, though there was a falling off at the out-ports ; more vessels were on the registers ; the farmers and graziers were getting better prices for their produce ; wages were higher, and labour more in demand ; mining, especially for Gold and Tin, flourished as it never has before in this Colony, the value of Gold obtained being about four times, and that of Tin exported about three times, as great as it was in 1875 ; the Revenue exceeded that of 1875 by about £4000, and that of 1869 by about £15,000 ; the business of the Banks and Savings' Banks was larger ; also, of the Post Office, the Telegraphs, the Railways ; the value of property was increased ; a larger area of land was occupied under lease for mining purposes, and the revenue from that source was in consequence greatly augmented ; bankruptcies were fewer ; and crime of the graver kinds diminished. When we come to the Statistics of the present year we shall find that our mineral resources are being developed at a still more rapid rate than during the past twelve months.

As to the future, the prospect on the whole is decidedly favourable. The low average in the yield of wheat in South Australia and elsewhere in the last season, together with the disturbance which the present war will probably cause in agricultural operations in Russia, thereby diminishing the supply for the rest of the world, may be expected to keep up the price of wheat ; while the freer exchange of commodities between the Australasian Colonies and Canada, and the United States, which seems likely to arise out of the late Exhibitions, and the anticipated opening up of a market for our wools in China will, if realised, increase the amount of our trade.

There is however another side of the picture. The present uncertainty in regard to the relations of the foremost European States must affect prejudicially not only themselves but other countries, even at this remote quarter of the globe ; and some deduction must therefore be made on this account.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

E. C. NOWELL, Government Statistician.

<sup>a</sup> Since 1872 the only expenditure has been included under the head of "Powder Magazines and Batteries," and as it is impossible to separate the amount paid on account of Magazines and Batteries, the full amount is placed under the head of Miscellaneous.

<sup>b</sup> In 1871 the Survey and Public Works Department were amalgamated under the head of Lands and Works. The total departmental expenditure since that date is placed against Crown Lands and Surveys.

<sup>c</sup> All expenditure under this head is provided for by Loans Act, and is not therefore included in this Return.

<sup>d</sup> Total amount of reserve available for payment of Road Trusts for 1871.

<sup>e</sup> Total amount of reserve available for payment of Road Trusts for 1872, and also includes a payment of £75 13s. 6d. to Deloraine Road Trust on account of arrears transferred to this year.

<sup>(a)</sup> In Municipalities, these form part of the Local Revenue.<sup>(b)</sup> It is impossible to ascertain accurately the revenue derived from the Post Office and from "The Stamp Act" respectively, the same form of stamps being used for both purposes.<sup>(c)</sup> The Government Tolls are let by Tender,—the above being the amount paid by the lessees for the same. The actual amount of Tolls paid by the public to the lessees is not known.<sup>(d)</sup> The amount placed against each rate is in accordance with the Returns furnished by the Municipalities. It is certain, however, that in some cases what is nominally a "Police" Rate is really a "General" Rate, the proceeds not being solely applied for maintenance of the Police. Road Rates levied by Municipal Councils are included under the head of "Road Trusts: Rates."

NOTE.—In the Revenue and Expenditure of Municipalities are included—Municipalities: £26,300 derived from loans; £11,750 for repayment of loans.

The Submarine Cable was opened for public use on the 1st May, 1869. A great reduction in the charges for Inland Messages was made on the 20th May, 1869.

<sup>a</sup> Not including the officers at the Mount Nelson or Longford Stations, or at the Launceston and Western Railway Stations, whose salaries are not paid by the Department, or the men occasionally employed in repairing the Lines. <sup>b</sup> The Revenue as here given does not include the amount collected, nor the Expenditure the amount paid, by the Department as Agent for the Submarine Cable Company and Lines in other Colonies, &c.

<sup>c</sup> Does not include the annual subsidy of £4200, which, since the 1st May, 1869, has been paid to the Submarine Cable Company. This amount has been excluded, as it was desired to show the working expenses of the Department, but it must of course be included in order to ascertain the total cost to the Colony of the telegraphic service. <sup>d</sup> Includes Shipping Messages, Enquiries, &c. transmitted free, the numbers of which are estimated as follows:—500 in 1868, 1000 in 1869, 3000 in 1870, 3000 in 1871, 4000 in 1872, 4000 in 1873, 4000 in 1874, 5000 in 1875, 5000 in 1876. It is doubtful whether any estimate of these messages is included in the number given for 1867. The number of Messages (estimated at 18,000 in each of the last three years) transmitted between Railway Stations on railway business is not included.

MEMO.—The Returns hitherto furnished of the Area of Crown Land under Rental have, for many years past,* shown a considerable excess beyond the actual quantity under lease. It is difficult now to account for the very great discrepancy; but it may have arisen, in some measure, from the fact that, after the annual Returns are made up, lists of persons who have failed to pay rent are received from the Colonial Treasury, and they have not been taken into consideration when the Returns for the following year have been prepared.

* Up to, and including, 1866.

In February, 1867, by Act 30 Vict. No. 7, the Court of Requests at Hobart Town was abolished, and its jurisdiction in £10 Cases was conferred on two Justices, or the Stipendiary Magistrate, and in £50 Cases on the Supreme Court. The "Small Debts Act," 31 Vict. No. 15 (11 Oct. 1867), gave Courts of Requests jurisdiction up to £30, and the Supreme Court, from £10 to £50, at Hobart Town. Act 33 Vict. No. 9 (22 Oct. 1869) gave the Supreme Court the same jurisdiction at Launceston, and established a £10 Court at Launceston.

* K signifies "Cumulus," K.N. "Cumulo-nimbus," K.S. "Cumulo-stratus."

† Mean for 11 months.

The Meteorological form brought into use at the beginning of 1876 differs in some respects from the former one. It has been adopted with the view of assimilating the Hobart Town records more closely with those of stations in Europe, America, &c., in order to co-operate in a system of International Meteorology. Readings are added from the centigrade thermometer, that being the instrument generally used on the continent of Europe.

The mean is in all cases taken from the sums of the two daily registers, not from the maximum and minimum.

The direction of the wind is registered from currents at a height of 92 feet above the sea level, and its force in lbs. per square foot.

The relative quantity of rain that fell under the different winds is registered each morning at 7:30 A.M.

APPENDIX B.

EXTRACTS from Reports of the Collectors of Agricultural Statistics.

BOTHWELL.

THERE has been no improvement as regards cultivation of the lands since last year. The district being a pastoral one, little or no attention is paid to anything but sheep and cattle. There is a small increase in the number of sheep this year, but other stock is about the same as last year.

T. PERKINS, Collector.

CAMPBELL TOWN.

IN a district like Campbell Town, which is almost exclusively pastoral, I have, as heretofore, no remarks to make under heads 1, 2, 3, and 4 of your instructions to Collectors.

Under head 5, I may say that several of the large landholders still continue to devote their energies, and with great success, to the improvement of the breed of sheep; and one gentleman has imported several head of cattle of a very pure breed with a view to improve that class of stock.

I observe that the area of land under cultivation seems to annually decrease, with the exception of that laid down in "permanent artificial grasses," which appears to be considerably extending.

Gardens and orchards are also sensibly decreasing in area, owing in part to there being little or no market for fruit, and also to the existence of the grub in the apples and pears, no means having yet been found for the destruction of this pest, consequently many gardens have been allowed gradually to return to a state of nature.

T. H. POWER, Collector.

CLARENCE.

I AM unable to report any alteration or improvements in the system of agriculture during the past year. The farmers generally are turning their attention more to the breeding and fattening of stock, finding it more profitable with less labour and expense than growing produce.

F. PEDDER, Collector.

DELORAIN.

I AM happy to inform you that there is an increase in the yield of grain this year as compared with that of last.

Horned cattle are on the increase. There is a decrease in sheep and horses. This is owing to a large number of sheep having been sent to the Hobart Town market. There has also been a great number of horses sold out of this district during the last year.

DANIEL D. GRIFFIN.

EVANDALE.

THIS is a comparatively old district, and I am not aware of any changes or improvements to report on. I may however say, that the improved price of wheat seems to be giving great satisfaction to the consumers as well as the producers, the crops of which have yielded a better return than was anticipated before threshing, and the grain is stated to be of remarkably good quality.

R. MARRIOTT.

EMU BAY.

I REGRET having to report but slight improvement in the agricultural pursuits of the district for the last year, doubtless attributable to the high prices given by the various Tin Mining Companies for the transit of tin from Mount Bischoff to Emu Bay, and which as a rule the farmers find more remunerative than farming.

There is an improvement in the pastoral pursuits of the district, owing probably to the increased demand for pasture necessary for the grazing of cattle employed in carting to and from the Mines during the past year.

HENRY BERRESFORD.

FINGAL.

I REGRET to say that, with one or two trifling exceptions, these returns show a decrease as compared with those of the same time last year. The past season has been a bad one for the farmers in this district. The long continued drought and frost have, in many cases, caused the crops to be quite a failure: this is more particularly the case in respect to potatoes, and it accounts for the increase under the heading "All other cultivated land."

I may mention that these returns include Thomas's Plains, Gould's Country, and George's Bay, which, since the 1st April, have been added to Selby, and do not now form part of the Fingal District.

I ascertained that in consequence of the dry weather at least 100 horses had been taken off the roads from Gould's Country to the Tin Mines during the last 3 or 4 months: had the season been a wet one at least this number of horses would have been added to the return.

WM. K. MORRIS.

GLAMORGAN.

THE only difference I have observed this year, as compared with last year, is a falling off in the acreage of wheat and barley and the produce, which may be, I think, mainly accounted for by the dryness of season. Horses, sheep, and cattle are about the same as last year. I cannot say that any improvements have been made worthy of special attention.

G. PALMER, Collector.

GEORGE TOWN.

COMPARED with last year there is a considerable decrease in the acreage of grain under crop; this is, no doubt, attributable, as I stated last year, to the large number of men employed in mining pursuits,—as wages given by the different Tin, Iron, and Gold Mining Companies are sufficiently lucrative to induce small farmers to abandon agriculture and turn their attention to labour for wages, particularly as the prices ruling for grain, &c. for some time past have not been remunerative.

The sheep-owners in the district have had considerable losses through fluke, which appears very difficult to eradicate from some runs, and the owners of sheep thus affected manifest a reluctance to have it made public.

T. H. SIMPSON, Collector.

GREEN PONDS.

THE want of rain during last year prevented many farmers in this district from putting in as much land as they otherwise would. Had it not been for the rain in December the yield of grain, &c. would have been very light. Large quantities of bone dust and guano have been used by a few farmers in the district last year, which will account for the good crops they had, and which has brought the average yield of wheat up to nearly 17 bushels per acre: more would be used, but the cost of carriage is a serious item.

About 800 acres of land has been allowed to relapse into a state of nature on some of the large properties since March, 1876.

Rabbits are as numerous as ever in some parts of the district, and they appear to be gradually spreading.

THOS. W. STANWIX, Collector.

HAMILTON.

I HAVE the honor to report for your information in reference to the following queries mentioned in your memorandum of instructions relative to the collection of the Statistics of this District:—

No. 1. New productions	None.
No. 2. Improvements in cultivation, &c.	None.
No. 3. Drainage, underground, &c.	None.
No. 4. Machinery and implements, &c.	None.
No. 5. Improvement in breed of stock, &c.	Yes.

A marked improvement in sheep and cattle in this district, which look healthy, &c. I believe there has been a greater per-cent-age of increase and a heavier clip of wool than in previous years.

This is a large pastoral district, a small area of which is under cultivation, and the produce from all kinds of crops was very small, and far below the average yield of previous years.

R. TIMMINS, Collector.

HUON.

THERE is nothing calling for special mention, with the exception of an increase of 1500 sheep, caused by the occupancy of a new run by a gentleman in Hobart Town, R. J. Lucas, Esq.

During the several years that I have had the collection of these Statistics in the district, I have observed that a most important item of produce is omitted, no column being shown on form A: for its insertion, I allude to the small fruit,—raspberries, currants, &c.: these fruits have for several years been an important production. Owing to the large quantity of jam annually exported the attention of the settlers has been given to the growth especially of raspberry canes ; the immense quantities grown has culminated in the erection during the past year of two large jam manufactories, one at Port Cygnet and one at Franklin. This speculation is the property of Mr. George Peacock of Hobart Town, and has been of vast importance to the community, in fact a source of wealth scarcely estimated.

I have been at some pains to ascertain the quantity of fruit of the above description disposed of during the season, and I find that not less than 350 tons have been sold to the various buyers. Prices have been high, perhaps unusually so, but taking this amount at the following average, that is 350 tons, 2240 lbs. to the ton, at 3d. per lb., gives a total of £9800 ; these figures may appear large, but I believe I am under the estimate, and I considered this too important a production to fail noticing.

Agriculture will not be carried on to any large extent until we have better roads.

JNO. LAMBERT, C.D.C.

KINGBOROUGH.

ON comparing the statistical information collected this year with that of last, I find that there is little improvement to report upon, with the exception of fruit growers, who are paying more attention to the culture of small fruits for jam purposes, especially raspberries, owing to the advancement of price in the latter.

The large landholders or principal farmers occupy their attention more with dairy farming, and in consequence, with the small fruit growers, agriculture is not carried on to any extent.

In reporting upon agricultural and pastoral aspects of this District, I would state :—

1st. That there are no new improvements in the mode of cultivation introduced that I am aware of.

2nd. That there are no new productions.

3rd. Use of manures.—None other used but farm-yard manure collected about the homestead, and to no great extent.

4th. Underground drainage.—About five chains of the above done on one farmer's land ; none other reported.

5th. No improvement has taken place in farming implements, nor any fresh or new machinery introduced.

6th. No improvement in the breeding of cattle has taken place during the year. About half the sheep in the district are on Bruni Island, and are salt-water washed, there being no opportunity of washing in fresh water. The quality of the wool does not appear to be deteriorated by it, as it brings as high a price on an average as that washed in fresh water.

R. W. STUART, Collector.

LAUNCESTON.

I HAVE to draw your attention to deficiency (except potatoes), in the number of acres under crop this year compared to last, but this is accounted for by the increased acreage laid down in English grass, and all other lands, several small farmers having laid down their land and stocked it with either sheep or cattle. The average return to the acre (except for oats, in which there is an improvement,) has not been so good this year as last; this I attribute to the dry season, as in consequence hops have been a failure. In apples and pears there is a great decrease, owing to the ravages of grub, they having destroyed some thousands of bushels this year.

In live stock there is an increase, notably so in sheep. The increase in horses I attribute in a great measure to the number employed at the tin mines in the Selby District.

J. PROPSTING, Collector.

LONGFORD.

THE past season has been most favourable to the agriculturist throughout this district ; and, as you will observe, the produce to the acre of the principal items is satisfactory ; also the quality of all the grain this season is remarkably good, the hay particularly so.

With reference to new productions, there are none to bring under your notice ; nor are there, with few exceptions, any improvements in the mode of cultivation.

Machinery and farm implements are about the same as last year's return.

J. EAST, Collector.

NEW NORFOLK.

IN forwarding the accompanying Returns for this season I have very little out of the common line to report. The Returns will speak for themselves, and I can confidently state that they have been carefully collected and compiled.

There is a decrease in the yield of wheat, notwithstanding an increase in the acreage.

The hay crop is much less this season, but the quality superior to that of 1875, owing to the weather having been favourable for getting the crop together.

The area under hops is less by seven acres this season, but there is more than a proportional decrease of the yield ; the crop may be considered a light one, but the quality is good, and the sample as prepared for market is first-rate.

There is an increase in the produce of apples.

I have included the area under raspberries with that under "Gardens and Orchards."

The Machinery Return is about the same as last, with the addition of a three-furrow plough and a digging machine.

JAS. STEVENSON, Collector.

OATLANDS.

THE low prices for all kinds of grain for the last two years has had a depressing effect upon the agricultural interest; and, as a natural consequence, the acreage under crop this year is below the average.

The yield per acre will also be found much less when compared with last year's return. This is attributable to a very dry season, commencing with the grain sowing and continuing until harvest.

With a less area under cultivation, and a less yield per acre, the quantity of all kinds of cereals produced in this district is very materially reduced, so much so, that in wheat and English barley there will not be sufficient for local consumption; and already, in view of a deficiency, large quantities of flour have been brought into this district by means of the Railway from Launceston.

The grazing interests have also suffered from two causes—the dry season and the ravages of the rabbit. The former cause is now removed, and the dry weather has given place to a plentiful supply of rain, which, if too late to produce winter grass, will at all events enable the farmers to prepare the ground for next season's crop. The latter cause is, I fear, far more serious, notwithstanding that the Rabbit Trusts have worked the "Rabbit Destruction Act" vigorously: the result has been the wholesale slaughter of this destructive animal, yet there appears to be no apparent diminution in numbers, and hence the more serious nature of this pest which still threatens to overrun the country.

Notwithstanding that unusual circumstances have produced a rather unfavourable report of the crops, I have much pleasure in reporting many signs of permanent improvement, showing unmistakably that the depression has been but temporary. Two Banks have been established in the township, and which are doing a good business. New buildings are going up one by one, while old ones are fully occupied.

Roads and bridges are being vigorously constructed throughout the different parts of the district. Attention is being paid to farming, and a better system is being gradually introduced. Artificial manures are being more extensively used.

Greater care has been bestowed upon sheep and cattle breeding. Scab, through the indefatigable exertions of the Scab Inspector, Mr. Thos. Tabart, is gradually disappearing; while land, in small blocks for agricultural purposes, is readily taken up, generally beyond upset price. The foregoing affords sufficient proof to my mind that the District of Oatlands is improving.

H. C. CARTER, Superintendent of Police.

PORT SORELL.

ON comparing the Returns of the present year with those of last you will perceive, with a few exceptions, that the yield is greatly in excess of the previous year, which I think may be mainly attributed to the fine season we have had, as also to the attention paid by the farmers in manuring their lands; this I have observed in various localities throughout the district.

The only new production, as far as I am aware of, grown in the district, are 5 acres of mustard, sown by Mr. Stephen Kelcey, which has yielded a fair return. The owner informs me that he can sell it at 4d. per lb. This is the first of the kind that has been grown in the district.

Shipbuilding is still on the increase, five vessels having been launched on the rivers within this district during the past twelve months.

There are no other improvements in the mode of cultivation that would call for any special remarks from me. In conclusion I may safely state that the prosperity of the district appears to be very much on the increase. The great drawback to the settlers appears to be the want of good roads.

RICHD. DRISCOLL, Collector.

RICHMOND.

IN transmitting the Agricultural and Pastoral Returns, I regret I am unable to report any marked improvements worth recording, unless it is in the improved condition of the Sheep in the District, as regards "absence of scab." A few years since to see sheep with only a part of the fleece on was quite common, in fact almost the rule; now, such a thing is not to be seen. This improvement is unquestionably due to the action of the "Scab Act." Agricultural labour is still very scarce.

J. GRIFFITH, Superintendent of Police.

ROSS.

THE District is almost entirely divided into large Pastoral Estates: many of the principal holders use warm water for sheep-washing. Agriculture is carried on by a very few, and that on a small scale; the lands of the district are not, as a rule, adapted for cultivation of grain crops.

W. E. WARNER, Collector.

RUSSELL.

As the grain crop had been cut and in most instances thrashed previous to my taking account of it, the estimated yield may be relied upon as correct. Few persons now attempt to grow wheat in this locality, as it seems peculiarly subject to blight and smut, is soft in grain, and of a bad colour. This may, perhaps, be due to proximity to the sea, humidity of climate, and the presence of timber.

The yield of oats, barley, and peas is much below the average; neither will the quality bear favourable comparison with former seasons. The yield of potatoes, ranging from two to ten tons per acre, will strike you as remarkably disproportionate, and needs explanation. Remarkably dry weather was experienced at a time when this crop required moisture; and in heavy clayey soils the potato received a check from which it did not recover. In lighter soils this crop has been most luxuriant, and the rains which occurred directly after potato planting appears to have exercised a prejudicial effect only upon lands where the soil was of a heavy character.

In the Returns the probable yield of a crop, still growing, was all that I could possibly give; the estimate being formed from personal inspection and the opinion of the grower. Of late I have taken considerable pains to ascertain how far my calculations have been supported by the actual result given by the digging of the crop. Upon visiting the Montagu, the most western portion of the district, for purposes connected with the Statistical Returns, I was much struck by the appearance of the potato crop, for the growth of which this locality is famous. I found the acreage devoted to potato culture to be 173, and I had no hesitation in estimating the total produce as high as 1328 tons. A recent visit has proved my calculation to have been remarkably correct.

In other parts of the district I regret to say that my estimate has not been so successful; the apparently average crops as well as the poorer ones turning out far worse than could have been reasonably expected. While, therefore, the Montagu may give a little more than actually appears upon paper, other parts of the district fall so far short of the estimate that I have arrived at the conclusion that 500 tons will have to be deducted from the gross produce of the potatoes as shown in the return in order to render it as correct as it should be. Potatoes will therefore stand thus:—Acres, 862; produce, 3627 tons.

Hop growing, which at one time excited considerable interest, I regret to say, is now on the decline. At present Mr. _____ is the only person engaged in its culture, and he has been particularly unfortunate, losing all benefit from his crop in two seasons through imperfect drying.

The quantity of new land broken up this year, though slightly in excess of last season, is very small. I have made no return under the head "Under Rotation of Crops," as we have no really scientific farming or systematic cropping of lands in our district.

A. GRUBB.

SPRING BAY.

I HAVE the honor to transmit you the following report on the state of agricultural and pastoral pursuits in the Municipality of Spring Bay:—

1st. "New productions."—None.

2nd. "Improvements in mode of cultivation, rotation of crops, fallowing, use of manures."—Very little cultivation is done owing to the scarcity of labour; and the system of "rotation" is altogether ignored. Bone dust and guano are the chief manures made use of (and those only for root crops), except where persons live close to the sea; those persons make use of kelp, and I notice their returns are larger than those who live inland.

3rd. "Drainage, underground, &c."—None.

4th. "Improvements in breed of stock, getting up wool."—Very little attention is paid to this branch, as the runs are not adapted for the fine bred sheep; and, with two exceptions, there is no skirting done. Cold water is used for washing.

5th. "General observations."—There is a decrease in the number of acres under crop. This is owing to the continued dry weather of last winter, which prevented ploughing till late in the spring; on the strong land, consequently, only a small quantity was sown. The light land that was sown early yielded a good return.

HENRY G. RUDD.

WESTBURY.

I HAVE the honor herewith to forward Agricultural and Live Stock Returns for the year ending 31st April, 1877.

In doing so, I have much pleasure in drawing your attention to the fact of the fine and plentiful harvest. The harvest weather has been very favourable, enabling the farmers to gather in the grain crop without any loss.

The yield of wheat this year is far in excess of last year.

The potato crop suffered from severe frosts this year; however the yield was 50 tons in excess of last year. Price per ton 10s. in excess.

You will observe a steady increase in sheep, cattle, horses, and pigs. All the farmers that I have conversed with feel grateful for the good harvest and also for the good prices they have obtained and still obtain for the grain. The seed-sowing has commenced again with a fine autumn. There is no change in the system of farming since my last report.

MYLES MAHONY, Collector.
