(a) The cost of the maintenance of the Tasmanian Scholarships prevented the establishment of teaching at the University during 1890 and 1891.

The number of students attending Lectures in 1896 is 39.

(b) Three years' study being required for a Degree, no Degree could be conferred before 1894. In 1894 one student (male) was admitted to the Degree of B.A., and in 1895 five students (male) were admitted to the Degree of B.A. and one to the Degree of LL.B.
