

(No. 82.)

1860.

---

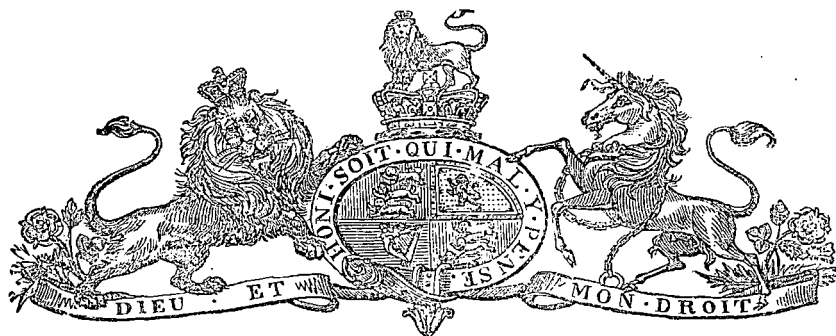

TASMANIA.

---

P R I V A T E S C H O O L S.

---

Laid upon the Table by Mr. Allison, and ordered by the House to be printed, 30 August, 1860.

Name of School and Locality.	Established.	Average Attendance for Years.	Name of Conductor.	Engaged in teaching.
Commercial Academy, Melville-street .....	January, 1834.	18 years—80.	Thomas P. Cowle.	Twenty-six years.
Academy, 109, Argyle-street .....	March, 1850.	10 years—67.	Edwin D. Oldfield.	Twenty-one years.
Hobart Town Academy, 28, Brisbane-street .....	January, 1852.	7 years—58.	A Cairnduff.	Twenty-five years.
Somerset - house School, Elizabeth-street .....	January, 1854.	5 years—45.	Edwin Browne.	Thirteen years.
Hobart Town Classical and Commercial Academy ...	January, 1832.	5 years—88.	H. M. Pike.	Ten years.
Chalmers' School, Bathurst-street .....	February, 1855.	5 years—70.	A. Ireland.	Twelve years.
Tasmanian Academy, Upper Murray-street .....	January, 1845.	5 years—60.	Thomas H. Bromfield.	Seventeen years.

THE Average number of Pupils attending the seven Schools above named is 468; taught by gentlemen who have been engaged in the profession for periods varying from 26 to 12 years. The averages have been struck from the Registers of the several Schools, and can be verified at any time.

A. CAIRNDUFF.