Penalty: Fine not exceeding 200 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both.

157E. Meaning of political donation

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a – political donation is –

- (a) a gift made to or for the benefit of a party; or
 - (b) a gift made to or for the benefit of a Member; or
 - (c) a gift made to or for the benefit of a candidate or intending candidate; or
 - (d) a gift made to or for the benefit of an entity or other person (not being a party, Member, or candidate or intending candidate), the whole or part of which was used or is intended to be used by the entity or person –
 - (i) to enable the entity or person to make, directly or indirectly, a political donation; or
 - (ii) to reimburse the entity or person for making, directly or indirectly, a political donation.
- (2) An amount paid by a person as a contribution, entry fee or other payment to entitle that person or any other person to participate in, or otherwise obtain any benefit from, a fund-raising venture or function organised for the benefit of a candidate or intending candidate (being an amount that forms part of the proceeds of the venture or function) is taken to be a gift for the purposes of this section.
- (3) Subject to section 157G, an annual or other subscription paid to a party by –
- (a) a member of the party; or
 - (b) a person or entity (including an industrial organisation) for affiliation with the party –
- is taken to be a gift to the party for the purposes of this section.

157F. Loans intended as political donations

- (1) A loan that, if it had been a gift, would be a political donation is to be regarded as a political donation for the purposes of this Part unless the loan is from a financial institution.
- (2) In this section –

financial institution means an entity whose principal business is the provision of financial services or financial products, and includes a bank, credit union, building society or other entity prescribed by the regulations; loan means an advance of money, the provision of credit or any other transaction that in substance effects a loan of money.

157G. Exception for membership contributions

An annual or other subscription paid to a party by an individual or an organisation as a member of the party or for the individual's or organisation's affiliation with the party is not a political donation for the purposes of this Part unless it is a political donation that exceeds $1 000 or such other amount as may be prescribed by the regulations.

157H. Determination by Commission that person not a tobacco industry business entity

- (1) A person who proposes to make a political donation (the applicant) may apply to the Commission for a determination by the Commission that the applicant or another person in respect of whom the applicant is making the application is not a tobacco industry business entity for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) The Commission –
 - (a) is authorised to make such a determination if the Commission is satisfied that it is more likely than not that the person is not a tobacco industry business entity; and

(b) is to make its determination solely on the basis of information provided by the applicant.

(3) The Commission's determination remains in force for 12 months after it is made but can be revoked by the Commission at any time by notice in writing to the applicant.

(4) The Commission's determination is conclusively presumed to be correct in favour of any person for the purposes of a political donation that the person makes or accepts while the determination is in force (even if the determination is subsequently found to be incorrect).

(5) The Commission's determination is not presumed to be correct in favour of any person who makes or accepts a political donation knowing that information provided to the Commission in connection with the making of the determination was false or misleading in a material particular.

(6) The Commission is to maintain a public register of the determinations made under this section and is to publish the register on a website maintained by the Commission.

(7) A person who provides information to the Commission in connection with an application for a determination by the Commission under this section knowing that the information is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 200 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or both.

(8) The Commission may establish and publicise policies as to how the Commission will deal with applications for determinations under this section.

157I. Recovery of unlawful donations, &c.

If a person accepts a political donation, loan or indirect campaign contribution that is unlawful because of this Part, an amount equal to the amount or value of the donation, loan or contribution (or double that amount if that person knew that it was unlawful) is payable by that person to the State and may be recovered as a debt due to the Crown from –

- (a) in the case of a donation, loan or contribution received by a party, the party secretary; or
- (b) in any other case, the person who received the donation, loan or contribution or the election agent of the person.

157J. Liability of directors, &c.

If a body corporate commits an offence against this Part, each director or other person concerned in the management of the body corporate is guilty of the offence and is liable to a penalty not exceeding that prescribed for the offence if it is proved that the director or other person –

- (a) was in a position to influence the relevant conduct or omission constituting the offence; or
- (b) failed to exercise all due diligence to prevent the relevant conduct or omission constituting the offence; or
- (c) failed to take all reasonable steps to prevent the relevant conduct or omission constituting the offence; or
- (d) encouraged or assisted in the commission of the offence.

157K. Time within which proceedings must be taken

Proceedings for an offence against a provision of this Part must be made –

- (a) Within 3 years from the time when the matter to which the proceedings relate arises; or
- (b) Within 6 months from the time when the matter to which the proceedings relate comes to the attention of the Electoral Commissioner.
