

Caravan Park Legislation

Ms FINLAY question to PREMIER

Some of my constituents in Beauty Point are extremely concerned by the legislative uncertainty around the arrangements for operators and residents in caravan parks across Tasmania. Will you commit to introducing legislation as a matter of urgency to clarify the relationship between park owners and long-term residents, especially those who own their dwellings, local councils and state government, especially in relation to planning matters?