

Mobility Challenges in Public Spaces

Mr BEHRAKIS question to MINISTER for PARKS and ENVIRONMENT

My question is on behalf of constituents with mobility challenges who still want to enjoy being out and about. I reside in the Hobart area and have specifically raised questions about the access to and around the Royal Tasmanian Botanical Gardens, which has been difficult for them. What are you doing to ensure people with mobility challenges can enjoy our public spaces?