

1866.

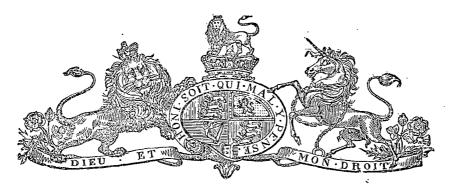

TASMANIA.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

IMMIGRATION.

REPORT OF AGENT FOR 1865.

Laid upon the Table by Mr. Whyte, and ordered by the Council to be printed, August 14, 1866.

Immigration Office, Hobart Town, 13th April, 1866.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit my Report on the Immigration Department for the year 1865, with tabulated Returns, Nos. 1 to 7, appended.

The instructions received from the Board of Immigration respecting the issue of Bounty Tickets to persons who had been themselves introduced to Tasmania at the expense of the Colonial public funds, and whose characters had been found on enquiry to merit the privilege, have been strictly adhered to; and although this arrangement has, as might be expected, materially lessened the number of applications, and effected a proportionate decrease in the numerical returns of arrivals under the Bounty System, the class of artisans, agriculturists, labourers, and domestic servants brought out by their relatives manifests a striking improvement on that introduced before the alteration in the Regulations took effect, and would appear to be the result of careful forethought on the part of the introducers in making selections from their kindred in the United Kingdom of individuals likely to obtain ready and lucrative employment.

Several applications have been made to the Government in the course of the past year, by German Immigrants per Lewe Van Nyenstein, America, and Wilhelmsburg, for Letters of Naturalisation,—which have been duly granted; thus entitling the recipients to enrolment in the Electoral and Municipal Lists, and to the enjoyment of all the privileges usually accorded to ordinary British subjects possessing the necessary qualifications.

I have since been led to make enquiries about these quiet and industrious people, and find that many of them, since their arrival in 1855-6, have so far improved their condition as to have become owners or lessees of comfortable farms, some of considerable extent, and that others have taken contracts for portions of the Public Works now in course of progress throughout the Colony. I am therefore in a position to assert that, as a rule, the German Immigrants to Tasmania have upheld the character hitherto borne by their countrymen as energetic and thriving Colonists.

But little alteration has taken place with respect to demand for labour, rates of wages, and prices of provisions and clothing, since my last Report on these points.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

GEORGE SMITH, Immigration Agent.

The Honorable James Whyte, Esq., President Board of Immigration.
