

1880.

TASMANIA.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

SCAB ACT FUND:

ACCOUNTS.

Laid upon the Table by the Colonial Treasurer, September 8, 1880, and ordered by the House to be printed.

Colonial Secretary's Office, 20th August, 1880.

MEMO.

THE Honorable the Colonial Treasurer is requested to enable the Colonial Secretary to comply with the subjoined Order of the House of Assembly

B. TRAVERS SOLLY.

The Hon, the Colonial Treasurer.

Ordered, That there be laid on the Table a Return showing in detail the receipts and expenditure of money under "The Scab Act," from 1st January, 1870, to 30th June, 1880. (Mr. Pillinger.)

THE Treasury is not in a position to give the details asked for in this Return. It is suggested that application be made to the Chief Inspector of Sheep to furnish the information.

WM. H. WINDSOR. 24 Aug., 1880.

FORWARDED to the Hon. the Colonial Secretary in order that the Chief Inspector of Sheep may be called upon to furnish the information.

W. R. GIBLIN, Colonial Treasurer, 24. 8. 80.

FORWARDED accordingly to the Chief Inspector of Sheep, with the request that he will furnish the information required by the House.

B. TRAVERS SOLLY. 24 Aug., 1880.

The Chief Inspector of Sheep.

MEMO.

THE Chief Inspector of Sheep is unable to furnish the information asked for.

In the first place the Scab Act did not come into operation until the 1st of March, 1870. Secondly, the Chief Inspector is not receiver of fines and penalties under the Scab Act. Thirdly, the Chief Inspector is asked to give details of receipts and expenditure extending over 10 years.

The Chief Inspector has always furnished the Auditor with monthly accounts in detail. These the Chief Inspector could produce probably in three months if he had three clerks instead of one, and additional accommodation for them to do the work in. As it is he regrets exceedingly that he is unable to comply with the order of the House of Assembly. The Auditor will no doubt be able to do so if he is given time, and afforded clerical assistance.

JAMES WHYTE, Chief Inspector of Sheep. 26, 8, 80.

The Hon. WM. MOORE, Colonial Secretary.

CAN the Colonial Auditor furnish the information ordered by the House of Assembly?

B. TRAVERS SOLLY. 31 Aug., 1880.

MEMO.

THE Chief Inspector of Sheep forwards to this office monthly returns of sums received for assessment on sheep, and vouchers for expenditure; but the accounts of receipts and expenditure are kept in the Treasury books, therefore the information could be more readily furnished by the Inspector or the Treasury than it could be by this office. To do so here, would entail an immense amount of labour, as the information would have to be obtained from the vouchers, which are put up in monthly bundles with all other vouchers of receipts and expenditure. It should also be understood that the Audit Office is not supposed to be an office to compile accounts but to check them, and that the arrangements are made accordingly.

W. LOVETT, Colonial Auditor.

The Hon. the Colonial Secretary.

Forwarded to the Hon. the Premier with reference to the Memorandums of the Assistant Colonial Treasurer, the Chief Inspector of Sheep, and the Colonial Auditor.

WM. MOORE: 7 Sept., 1880.

MEMO.

These accounts give all the expenditure that has gone through my books; other payments have been made by the authority of the Governor in Council on my recommendation, but they do not appear in the books of this office. When the Inspector's Office was removed from the Parliamentary Buildings the office rent was paid from the Miscellaneous Charges Account for some considerable period, as appears in my accounts; but for some time past it has been paid direct from the Treasury under the vote for rent of office. Two payments were made on account of 1878 and 1879 by authority of the Governor in Council—£35 to Mr. Thos. A. Tabart, and £20 to Mr. Malcolm W. Harrison, for special and arduous services outside their respective districts at Spring Bay and the Lake Country in the winter season when they were put to additional expense in wear and tear of horse flesh, &c. These two payments do not appear in my accounts. The particulars of all such payments and the vouchers are in the Audit Office.

All fines and penalties under the Acts 1875 and 1877 are paid direct to the Treasury, and do not appear in my books.

For the information and guidance of the Auditor I do keep an account of fines, which I furnish to him every six months, but it is not supposed to be absolutely accurate.

Council Clerks and Police Clerks are expected to transmit all moneys received as fines or penalties to the Treasury every month. The Chief Inspector is not the receiver in such cases, and is not responsible.

The only moneys received by the Chief Inspector are the annual contributions, which he pays to the Treasury and furnishes an account of in detail to the Auditor every month before a certain day. If not furnished before the 20th of the month, salaries and allowances of the Department are stopped under the Audit Act.

Prior to February, 1873, Inspectors' salaries were £150, and £100 allowances for travelling expenses; after that date they were increased to £200 salaries, and £150 for travelling expenses.

Up to 1876 the Chief Inspector's salary was £300, and £200 in lieu of forage and travelling expenses.

In 1876 his salary was raised to £500, and his travelling allowances reduced to £150. In no single year did the allowances cover the expenses of the Chief Inspector by £50 at least.

JAMES WHYTE, Chief Inspector of Sheep. 8.9, 80.

The Hon. WILLIAM MOORE, Colonial Secretary.
