16 BAN ON THERMAL COAL MINES. – A Motion being made and the Question being proposed—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges thermal coal combustion is a key driver of increasing greenhouse gas emissions and rising global temperatures.
- (2) Recognises the impact just 1.1 degrees of warming is having on Tasmania, including extreme floods, East Coast drought and marine heatwave, increased dry lightning storms and destructive bushfires, coastal erosion, biosecurity threats and ecosystem stress.
- (3) Accepts the scientific consensus that burning fossil fuels – such as coal – must end in order to limit warming and prevent climate breakdown.
- (4) Agrees it is in Tasmania's best interest to be a climate positive, clean energy island.
- (5) Notes Tasmania's natural, clean energy powered brand would be damaged by any new coal mines, and this brand damage would flow on to the agricultural and tourism sectors of the economy.
- (6) Commits to a prohibition on new thermal coal mines in Tasmania. (Dr Woodruff)

A debate arose thereupon.

17 PAPERS. – Dr Woodruff, by leave, laid upon the Table of the House the following Paper:-

Open Letter to Members of the Parliament of Tasmania from a group of signatories.

18 BAN ON THERMAL COAL MINES. – And the Question being again proposed;

The House resumed the Debate.

An Amendment was proposed by the Minister for Resources by leaving out all words after “House” and inserting instead:

- (1) Does not support mining developments on productive agricultural land where it is not in the State’s best interests.
- (2) Continues to support the existing coal mining operations in Tasmania, which employ more than 200 people directly and indirectly and supports the local Fingal Valley and Railton communities.
- (3) Notes the Government has neither granted, nor has been asked to grant, any coal mining leases in in the Southern Midlands.
- (4) Notes the rigorous statutory assessment process set out under the Mineral Resources Development Act 1995 which is a legal requirement before either exploration or mining can proceed.

And the Question being proposed – That the Amendment be agreed to;

A debate arose thereupon.

An alternative Amendment was proposed by Mr O’Byrne to the original motion as follows:

Amendment 1

In Clause (3) after ‘climate breakdown’, by inserting ‘while ensuring a just transition for workers and communities’.

Amendment 2

In Clause (4) after ‘clean energy island’, by inserting ‘with investments in wind energy and clean fuels like green hydrogen’.

Amendment 3

Leave out clauses (5) and (6) and insert instead the following:

- (5) Acknowledges existing coal mines in Tasmania have supported regional jobs for decades and still supply material to Goliath Cement at Railton and Norske Skog at Boyer.
- (6) Commits to invest in new renewable energy technology including Hydrogen to create jobs in Tasmania and grow our economy.
- (7) Agrees that no new coal mines should be permitted in productive agricultural land in Tasmania.

And the Question being proposed – That the Amendment be agreed to;

A debate arose thereupon.

And the Question being put;

The House divided.

20 ECONOMIC GROWTH. – A Motion being made and the Question being proposed—That the House:—

- (1) Acknowledges that the Hodgman majority Liberal Government has a long-term plan to keep our economy strong, carefully manage the Budget, help create jobs, and invest even more in essential services.
- (2) Notes that, at the State election in March 2018, Tasmanians saw the progress that had been made in delivering our plan, across our State, in four years under a majority Liberal Government, and they supported it again.
- (3) Recognises that a vital part of the plan was to first and foremost, restore business confidence and strengthen our economy.
- (4) Further notes that Tasmania's businesses are now measured as the most confident in the nation, that Tasmania has the best business conditions in the nation and that Tasmanian small businesses are the powerhouse of our economy.
- (5) Further acknowledges the Shadow Treasurer, Hon. David O'Byrne MP's public admission this week that, after five and a half years in Opposition, Labor still has no vision or plan.
- (6) Endorses the Hodgman majority Liberal Government's plan to continue to grow the economy and help create jobs, by supporting Tasmanian businesses and unlocking investment opportunities in Tasmania. (Mrs Rylah)

A debate arose thereupon.

And Ms O'Byrne was addressing the Chair.

21 ADJOURNMENT. - The time being Six o'clock, the Speaker proposed - That the House do now adjourn and called for issues to be raised;

The House adjourned at Thirty-three minutes past Six o'clock.
