CONVERSION PRACTICES PROHIBITION BILL 2026

(Brought in by Dr Rosalie Woodruff, MP)

A BILL FOR

An Act to prohibit practices that are directed to changing or suppressing a person’s sexual orientation or gender identity, and for related purposes

Be it enacted by Her Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026.

2. Commencement

- (1) Subject to this section, the provisions of this Act commence on a day or days to be proclaimed.
- (2) If the provisions of this Act, other than section 81 and Schedule 2, have not commenced before the end of the period of 12 months from the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent, those uncommenced provisions commence at the end of that 12-month period.

Act No. of 2026

s. 3

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (3) If section 81 and Schedule 2 have not commenced before the end of the period of 24 months from the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent, those uncommenced provisions commence at the end of that 24-month period.

3. Objects of Act

The objects of this Act are to –

- (a) prohibit conversion practices; and
- (b) confer functions on the Conversion Practices Commissioner to –
 - (i) promote understanding of this Act and the prohibition on conversion practices; and
 - (ii) administer the education, prevention and response scheme; and
 - (iii) receive, assess and resolve reports of conversion practices; and
 - (iv) investigate serious or systemic conversion practices; and
- (c) establish an education, prevention and response scheme to –
 - (i) discourage conversion practices; and

Part 1 – Preliminary

practice is being, has been, or is alleged to be or have been, directed towards the person.

5. Meaning of conversion practice

- (1) In this Act, conversion practice means a practice or conduct directed towards a person, whether with or without the person’s consent –
 - (a) on the basis of the person’s sexual orientation or gender identity; and
 - (b) for the purpose of –
 - (i) changing, suppressing or eradicating the sexual orientation or gender identity of the person; or
 - (ii) inducing the person to change, suppress or eradicate their sexual orientation or gender identity.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), it is irrelevant whether a practice or conduct directed towards a person on the basis of the person’s sexual orientation or gender identity is based on an incorrect assumption or belief about the person’s sexual orientation or gender identity.
- (3) A conversion practice does not include –
 - (a) a health service provided by a registered health practitioner that –

Act No. of 2026

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (i) the registered health practitioner, in good faith, considers appropriate for the person; and
 - (ii) complies with all relevant legal, professional and ethical requirements; or
 - (b) genuinely facilitating a person’s coping skills, development or identity exploration to meet the person’s needs, including by providing acceptance, support or understanding to the person.
- (4) For the avoidance of doubt, the following conduct does not, of itself, constitute a conversion practice:
- (a) participating in a public debate;
 - (b) an expression, including in prayer, of a belief or principle, including a religious belief or principle;
 - (c) an expression that a belief or principle ought to be followed or applied;
 - (d) stating what relevant religious teachings are, or what a religion says, about a specific topic;
 - (e) the making, application or communication of general requirements in relation to religious orders, or membership or leadership of a religious community;

Act No. of 2026

s. 6

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (f) parents discussing matters relating to sexual orientation, gender identity, sexual activity or religion with their children;
- (g) health practitioners providing information, in good faith, about treatment and non-treatment options, including their potential benefits, risks, limitations and uncertainties;
- (h) health practitioners helping a person explore their identity without directing, predetermining or seeking to influence the person towards a particular outcome;
- (i) health practitioners discussing with a person the person's desire or intention to detransition, desist, reverse, discontinue or modify a social or medical transition.

6. Extra-territorial application

- (1) This section applies if –
 - (a) a person engages in conduct outside, or partly outside, Tasmania; and
 - (b) there is a real and substantial link between the conduct and Tasmania.
- (2) This Act has effect in relation to the conduct as if it had been engaged in wholly within Tasmania.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), there is a real and substantial link with Tasmania –

Act No. of 2026

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (a) if a significant part of the conduct occurs in Tasmania; or
 - (b) the conduct occurred wholly outside Tasmania, but the effects of the conduct occurred wholly or partly in Tasmania.

7. Act binds Crown

This Act binds the Crown in right of Tasmania and, so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, in all its other capacities.

8. Principles

The following principles are to be observed in the operation, administration and enforcement of this Act:

- (a) conversion practices are deceptive and harmful to the persons subjected to them and to the community, and should be denounced and eliminated as far as possible;
- (b) all people, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity, should be welcomed, valued and respected, and should be able to live authentically and with pride;
- (c) a person's sexual orientation or gender identity is not broken and does not require fixing, changing or suppressing;

Act No. of 2026

s. 9

Part 1 – Preliminary

- (d) no sexual orientation or gender identity constitutes a disorder, disease, illness, deficiency or shortcoming;
- (e) children are particularly at risk of being subject to conversion practices and harms from conversion practices.

9. Relationship with other laws

- (1) A contravention of this Act does not create any civil or criminal liability, or any civil right or remedy, except to the extent expressly provided by this Act.
- (2) This Act is in addition to, and does not limit or otherwise affect, any liability, duty, obligation, right or remedy arising under or by virtue of another Act or law.
- (3) Compliance with this Act does not, of itself, constitute compliance with any duty or obligation arising under or by virtue of another Act or law.

Part 2 – Conversion Practices Prohibited

s. 10

PART 2 – CONVERSION PRACTICES PROHIBITED

Division 1 – Prohibition of Conversion Practice

10. General prohibition on conversion practices

A person contravenes this Act if the person engages in a conversion practice.

Division 2 – Positive duty to eliminate conversion practices

11. Positive duty to eliminate conversion practices

- (1) A person must take reasonable and proportionate measures to eliminate conversion practices engaged in by the person or by another person acting on behalf of the person.
- (2) In determining whether measures taken by a person are reasonable and proportionate for the purposes of subsection (1), regard must be had to –
 - (a) if the person is an organisation –
 - (i) the size and nature of the organisation; and
 - (ii) the nature and circumstances of its operations; and
 - (iii) the organisation’s financial and other resources; and
 - (iv) the organisation’s business and operational priorities; and

Part 3 – Criminal Offences Relating to Conversion Practices

s. 12

PART 3 – CRIMINAL OFFENCES RELATING TO CONVERSION PRACTICES

Division 1 – Conversion practice causing injury

12. Offence of engaging in one or more conversion practices that cause injury

- (1) A person is guilty of an indictable offence punishable under the Criminal Code if –
 - (a) the person intentionally engages in a conversion practice directed towards another person (the recipient); and
 - (b) the conversion practice causes injury to the recipient; and
 - (c) the person is negligent as to whether engaging in the conversion practice will cause injury to the recipient.
- (2) A person is guilty of an indictable offence punishable under the Criminal Code if –
 - (a) the person intentionally engages in conversion practices directed towards another person (the recipient); and
 - (b) any or all of the conversion practices, considered as a group, cause injury to the recipient; and
 - (c) the person is negligent as to whether engaging in any or all of the conversion practices will cause injury to the recipient.

Act No. of 2026

s. 13

Part 3 – Criminal Offences Relating to Conversion Practices

13. Conversion practices directed towards child or person with impaired decision-making ability

- (1) If a person is convicted of an offence under section 12 in relation to a conversion practice directed towards a child or person with impaired decision-making ability, the court, in determining the appropriate sentence, is to treat the fact that the recipient of the conversion practice was a child or person with impaired decision-making ability as an aggravating factor.
- (2) Subsection (1) also applies if the offence involved the person causing, directing, inducing or procuring another person to engage in a conversion practice directed towards a child or person with impaired decision-making ability.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person convicted of the offence was a child or person with impaired decision-making ability at the time the offence was committed.

Division 2 – Removal from Tasmania for conversion practice

14. Offence of taking person from Tasmania for conversion practice

- (1) A person is guilty of an indictable offence punishable under the Criminal Code if –
 - (a) the person takes another person (the intended recipient) from Tasmania, or arranges for the intended recipient to be taken from Tasmania; and

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

- (b) the person intends that a conversion practice directed towards the intended recipient will be engaged in outside Tasmania (whether by the person or another person); and
 - (c) a conversion practice directed towards the intended recipient is engaged in outside Tasmania; and
 - (d) the conversion practice causes injury to the intended recipient; and
 - (e) the person is negligent as to whether the conversion practice will cause injury to the intended recipient.
- (2) A person is guilty of an indictable offence punishable under the Criminal Code if –
- (a) the person takes another person (the intended recipient) from Tasmania, or arranges for the intended recipient to be taken from Tasmania; and
 - (b) the person intends that conversion practices directed towards the intended recipient will be engaged in outside Tasmania (whether by the person or another person); and
 - (c) conversion practices directed towards the intended recipient are engaged in outside Tasmania; and

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

s. 15

Part 3 – Criminal Offences Relating to Conversion Practices

- (d) any or all of the conversion practices, considered as a group, cause injury to the intended recipient; and
- (e) the person is negligent as to whether any or all of the conversion practices, considered as a group, will cause injury to the intended recipient.

15. Child or person with impaired decision-making ability taken from Tasmania

- (1) If a person is convicted of an offence under section 14 in relation to a conversion practice directed towards a child or person with impaired decision-making ability, the court is to, in determining the appropriate sentence, treat as an aggravating factor the fact that –
 - (a) the person took the child or person with impaired decision-making ability from Tasmania, or arranged for the child or person with impaired decision-making ability to be taken from Tasmania; and
 - (b) the person intended that a conversion practice directed towards the child or person with impaired decision-making ability would be engaged in outside Tasmania, whether by the person or another person; and
 - (c) the conversion practice was engaged in outside Tasmania.

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the person convicted of the offence was a child or person with impaired decision-making ability at the time the conduct referred to in subsection (1) occurred.

Division 3 – Advertising conversion practices

16. Offence of advertising conversion practices

- (1) A person must not publish or display, or authorise the publication or display of, an advertisement or other notice that indicates, or could reasonably be understood as indicating, that the person or any other person intends to engage in one or more conversion practices.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a natural person, a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units; or
 - (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 300 penalty units.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the advertisement or notice is published or displayed solely for the purpose of –
- (a) warning of the harm caused by conversion practices; or
 - (b) discouraging conversion practices.

Act No. of 2026

s. 17

Part 3 – Criminal Offences Relating to Conversion Practices

17. Production of documents relating to advertising offence

- (1) For the purposes of proceedings under section 16, the Commissioner may, by written notice, require a person to produce to the Commissioner any documents specified in the notice.
- (2) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under subsection (1).

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a natural person, a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 300 penalty units.

18. Who may bring proceedings for an offence under section 16

Proceedings for an offence under section 16 may be brought by –

- (a) the Commissioner; or
- (b) a police officer; or
- (c) a person who is authorised to do so, either generally or in a particular case, by the Commissioner.

Division 4 – General matters relating to offences against this Part

19. Offences by employers

- (1) For the purposes of this section –

employee includes a person engaged under a contract for services or as a volunteer.

- (2) If an employee or agent commits an offence under this Act, the employer or the principal of the agent is taken to have committed the same offence.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), it is a defence in proceedings for an offence against an employer or principal if it is proved that the employer or principal could not, despite taking all reasonable precautions and exercising all due diligence, have known of or prevented the commission of the offence.
- (4) An employer or principal may be proceeded against and convicted for an offence pursuant to this section whether or not the employee or agent has been proceeded against or convicted for the offence.

20. General matters relating to offences

- (1) A person is not criminally responsible for an offence under this Part in respect of a conversion practice directed towards that person, including as an accessory, co-principal or participant.

Part 4 – Commissioner

- (f) to receive, consider, investigate and seek to resolve reports relating to conversion practices; and
- (g) to receive and respond to disclosures relating to historical conversion practices, including for the purposes of acknowledgement, information, support, research and education, whether or not the conduct disclosed is capable of investigation, enforcement or other action under this Act; and
- (h) to promote and facilitate compliance with the positive duty under section 11; and
- (i) to facilitate outcomes in relation to reports made by persons affected by conversion practices; and
- (j) to collect, analyse and report on information and data relating to reports and outcomes under this Act; and
- (k) to submit reports to the Minister on any matter arising from the performance of the Commissioner's functions; and
- (l) to intervene, with the leave of a court or the Tribunal, in proceedings that involve issues relating to conversion practices; and
- (m) to perform any other functions imposed or conferred on the Commissioner under this Act or any other Act.

- (2) The Commissioner has the power to do all things necessary, or convenient, to perform the Commissioner's functions and exercise the Commissioner's powers under this Act or any other Act.

24. Delegation

The Commissioner, in writing, may delegate a function or power under this Act other than this power of delegation.

25. Establishment of reference body

- (1) The Commissioner may establish a reference body to provide advice to the Commissioner in relation to the performance or exercise of the Commissioner's functions or powers under this Act.
- (2) The Commissioner may appoint as members of the reference body persons who, in the opinion of the Commissioner –
- (a) have been directly affected by a conversion practice; or
 - (b) possess skills or experience that the Commissioner considers appropriate; or
 - (c) have appropriate knowledge of, or experience in, matters relating to gender and sexual diversity.
- (3) A member holds office on such terms and conditions as the Commissioner determines.

Part 5 – Education, Prevention and Response Scheme

PART 5 – EDUCATION, PREVENTION AND RESPONSE SCHEME

Division 1 – Reports

27. Making of reports

- (1) A person, whether or not affected by a conversion practice, may make a report to the Commissioner alleging that a conversion practice has occurred or is occurring.
- (2) A report is to be made in the prescribed form, if any.

28. Principles for dealing with reports

In responding to a report, the Commissioner must have regard to the following principles:

- (a) the person who made the report should receive a response;
- (b) responses should be trauma-informed;
- (c) if the report relates to a child, the response should have regard to what is developmentally appropriate for the child, and the child should be supported to participate, in decisions affecting them, in a developmentally appropriate way;
- (d) processes should be culturally safe, inclusive and accessible in a manner that recognises diverse identities, experiences and support needs;

- (e) before any action is taken in relation to a report, regard should be had to the privacy, safety and wishes of any person affected by the alleged conversion practice;
- (f) the response should be informed by the needs and wishes of any person affected by the alleged conversion practice;
- (g) the response should be appropriate having regard to the nature of the report;
- (h) the response should be fair to all persons concerned; and
- (i) the response should be consistent with the objects of this Act.

29. Power to request further information

For the purpose of dealing with a report, the Commissioner may, by written notice, request the reporting person, a person affected by the conversion practice to which the report relates, or the respondent, whose conduct, actions or circumstances are the subject of the report, to provide any information or documents reasonably required by the Commissioner.

30. Consideration of report

If, in considering a report, the Commissioner considers that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a person has engaged, or is engaging, in a conversion practice, the Commissioner, in responding to the report must, so far as is reasonably practicable, have regard to the following matters, to the extent that information about those matters is reasonably available to the Commissioner:

- (a) the wishes of any person affected by the conversion practice;
- (b) the immediate and ongoing safety and wellbeing of persons affected by conversion practices, including risks arising from ongoing coercion, abuse, retaliation or social exclusion;
- (c) whether the conversion practice was an isolated incident or formed part of a pattern of conduct;
- (d) the number of persons affected by the conversion practice;
- (e) the nature and extent of any harm caused by the conversion practice;
- (f) any steps taken by a person to cease the conversion practice or to remedy any harm caused by it.

Part 5 – Education, Prevention and Response Scheme

s. 31

31. Responding to reports

- (1) The Commissioner, after considering a report, may do any one or more of the following:
 - (a) provide targeted education to any person reported to have engaged in conversion practices;
 - (b) if a person affected by a conversion practice that is the subject of the report wishes to participate in facilitation, offer facilitation in relation to the matters raised in the report;
 - (c) refer the report in accordance with section 32;
 - (d) decline to respond to the report in accordance with section 34.
- (2) The Commissioner must, as soon as practicable, notify the reporting person, in writing, of the outcome of the report.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not require the disclosure of information if the Commissioner reasonably considers that the disclosure would –
 - (a) prejudice an investigation or enforcement action; or
 - (b) contravene a law; or
 - (c) unreasonably disclose personal information relating to another person; or

- (d) not be appropriate in the circumstances, having regard to the matters outlined in sections 28 and 30.

32. Referral of reports

- (1) If the Commissioner considers that a report relates to conduct that should be investigated by another person, body or authority that has functions under any law of Tasmania, of another State, of a Territory or of the Commonwealth, the Commissioner may refer the matter to the other person, body or authority for investigation.
- (2) Unless the referral is mandatory under another Act or law, the Commissioner may only make a referral under subsection (1) if –
 - (a) each person affected by the conversion practice to which the report relates has consented to the referral; or
 - (b) one or more of those persons has not consented to the referral, but the Commissioner is satisfied that the referral is reasonably necessary to protect the safety or wellbeing of another person, including a person who may be at risk of being subjected to a conversion practice in the future.
- (3) A referral under subsection (1) may constitute a referral for the purposes of another law.
- (4) The Commissioner's powers to investigate or otherwise deal with a matter are not affected by

Part 5 – Education, Prevention and Response Scheme

- (g) the Public Guardian, within the meaning of the Guardianship and Administration Act 1995;
 - (h) the Chief Psychiatrist within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 2013;
 - (i) any other prescribed person or body.
- (2) If a specified person receives, in the performance of the specified person's functions, a complaint, report or other information that gives the specified person reasonable grounds to believe that a conversion practice has occurred or is occurring, the specified person is to refer the matter to the Commissioner.
- (3) A referral under subsection (2) does not prevent the specified person from performing or exercising any function or power that the specified person has in relation to the matter.
- (4) A referral under this section is taken to be a report for the purposes of this Part.
- (5) A specified person making a referral under this section is to disclose to the Commissioner any information reasonably necessary for the Commissioner to consider or deal with the referral, unless the disclosure –
 - (a) is prohibited or restricted by or under another Act or law; or

Act No. of 2026

Part 5 – Education, Prevention and Response Scheme

s. 34

- (b) would, in the opinion of the specified person, prejudice an investigation, inquiry or other proceeding.

34. Discretion to decline to respond to report

The Commissioner may decline to respond to a report if the Commissioner is satisfied that –

- (a) the report is frivolous, vexatious or lacking in substance; or
- (b) the person alleged to have engaged in the conversion practice cannot be reasonably located; or
- (c) the report relates to conduct in respect of which sufficient information is no longer available; or
- (d) the report relates to conduct that has been adequately dealt with, or would be more appropriately dealt with, by another person, court, board or Tribunal; or
- (e) the alleged conduct is not a conversion practice; or
- (f) having regard to all the circumstances, it is not appropriate to respond to the report.

Division 2 – Facilitation

35. Facilitation of resolution

- (1) The Commissioner may facilitate the resolution of matters raised in a report in any manner that the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (2) The parties to a facilitation are –
 - (a) any person affected by the conversion practice that is the subject of the report; and
 - (b) the respondent.
- (3) A person does not become a party to the facilitation merely because the person made the report.
- (4) Participation in a facilitation is voluntary.
- (5) The Commissioner may end facilitation at any time.
- (6) A party to a facilitation may withdraw at any time by notice to the Commissioner.
- (7) If facilitation concludes without an agreement that finally resolves the matters raised by the report, the Commissioner must give the parties written notice that the facilitation has concluded.

36. Support person at facilitation

- (1) Where reasonably necessary to support a person's participation in a facilitation, the person

Act No. of 2026

Part 5 – Education, Prevention and Response Scheme

s. 37

may, with the consent of each other party to the facilitation, be accompanied by a support person, including, but not limited to, an advocate, interpreter or person providing communication support.

- (2) A support person may provide such support as is reasonably necessary but must not otherwise participate in the facilitation.

37. Confidentiality of facilitation

- (1) Evidence of anything said or done, or any document prepared, in the course of facilitation is not admissible in any civil or criminal proceeding.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in the following circumstances:
 - (a) if all persons participating in the facilitation consent to the admission of the evidence;
 - (b) in respect of proceedings for an offence under Part 9.
- (3) This section does not prevent disclosure of information if required for the purposes of giving effect to, or enforcing, an agreement reached following facilitation.

Act No. of 2026

s. 38

Part 5 – Education, Prevention and Response Scheme

38. Agreement following facilitation

- (1) If an agreement is reached following facilitation, the Commissioner must record the terms of the agreement.
- (2) Before recording the agreement, the Commissioner must be satisfied that each party entered into the agreement freely and on an informed basis.
- (3) The record must be signed by, or on behalf of, each party.
- (4) The Commissioner is to –
 - (a) provide a copy of the record to each party; and
 - (b) keep the original record on file.
- (5) An agreement recorded under this section is enforceable as if it were an order of the Tribunal under section 53(3).

PART 6 – INVESTIGATIONS

39. Commencement of investigation

- (1) The Commissioner may, on the Commissioner's own initiative, conduct an investigation, including in the course of dealing with a report.
- (2) An investigation commences when the Commissioner decides to investigate a matter.
- (3) The Commissioner may commence an investigation whether or not –
 - (a) a report has been made; or
 - (b) a report has been finalised.
- (4) If the Commissioner decides to conduct an investigation, the Commissioner may, if the Commissioner considers it appropriate, give written notice of the decision to –
 - (a) if the investigation arises in the course of dealing with a report –
 - (i) the reporting person; and
 - (ii) a person affected by the conversion practice to which the report relates; and
 - (b) a person who is a subject of the investigation.

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

s. 40

Part 6 – Investigations

- (5) A notice under subsection (4) may include any details relating to the investigation that the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (6) In conducting an investigation, the Commissioner may have regard to any information obtained in dealing with a report, other than information provided during a facilitation under section 35.
- (7) An investigation under this Part is separate from, and not limited by, the process for dealing with a report.

40. When investigation may be conducted

The Commissioner may conduct an investigation under this Part into any matter relating to this Act if the Commissioner considers that the matter –

- (a) raises a serious issue, including because the matter –
 - (i) concerns serious non-compliance with the positive duty under section 11; or
 - (ii) indicates systemic or ongoing conversion practices; and
- (b) indicates a possible contravention of this Act; and
- (c) relates to, or may affect, a class or group of persons; and

Act No. of 2026

Part 6 – Investigations

s. 41

(d) would advance the objects of this Act.

41. Conduct of investigations

- (1) Subject to this Part, the Commissioner may conduct an investigation in the manner that the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (2) In conducting an investigation, the Commissioner must have regard to the rules of natural justice.

42. Power to require information and documents

- (1) If the Commissioner reasonably believes that a person has information or documents that are relevant and necessary to an investigation, the Commissioner may, by written notice, require the person to provide the information or produce the documents.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) must specify a reasonable period for compliance or a reasonable date, time and place at which the information or documents are to be provided or produced.
- (3) If documents are produced, the Commissioner may –
 - (a) take possession of the documents; and
 - (b) copy, or extract from, the documents;
and

Act No. of 2026

s. 43

Part 6 – Investigations

- (c) retain the documents for as long as reasonably necessary for the investigation.

43. Power to require attendance

- (1) The Commissioner may, by written notice, require a person to attend before the Commissioner or a person specified in the notice at a reasonable time and place to answer questions that are relevant and necessary to an investigation.
- (2) A person required to attend –
 - (a) is entitled to be paid such allowances and expenses as are prescribed or, if not prescribed, as the Commissioner determines; and
 - (b) may be accompanied by a legal or personal representative.

44. Failure to comply with notices

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a notice issued under section 42 or 43.

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a natural person, a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 300 penalty units.

Act No. of 2026

Part 6 – Investigations

s. 45

- (2) Without limiting what constitutes a reasonable excuse, a duty of confidentiality arising by law or in the course of a professional relationship may constitute a reasonable excuse.

45. Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from answering a question, or providing information or a document, as required under this Part on the ground that the answer, information or document may tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), evidence of an answer given, or information or a document provided, by an individual as required under this Part is not admissible against that individual in any civil or criminal proceeding.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply in proceedings under this Act or any other Act arising out of the false or misleading nature of the answer, information or document.

46. Protection of identity

- (1) This section applies to a person who gives, or proposes to give, evidence, information or documents to the Commissioner in connection with an investigation.
- (2) The Commissioner may direct that the identity of the person, or information likely to identify the person, not be disclosed if the Commissioner considers this necessary to –

- (a) protect the person’s employment, privacy or other lawful interests; or
 - (b) protect the person from victimisation.
- (3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a direction under subsection (2).

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a natural person, a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 300 penalty units.

47. Restrictions on publication

- (1) The Commissioner may direct that evidence, information or the contents of any document obtained in the course of an investigation are not to be published, or that their publication is to be restricted, redacted or otherwise limited.
- (2) In making a direction, the Commissioner must have regard to the need to prevent such of the following as are relevant to the circumstances:
 - (a) prejudice to intergovernmental relations;
 - (b) disclosure of Cabinet deliberations;

 - (e) risk to the safety of any person;
 - (f) prejudice to law enforcement or public safety;
 - (g) disclosure prohibited by or under another Act;
 - (h) unreasonable disclosure of personal or confidential information.
- (3) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to comply with a direction under subsection (1).

Penalty: In the case of –

- (a) a natural person, a fine not exceeding 60 penalty units; or
- (b) a body corporate, a fine not exceeding 300 penalty units.

48. Outcome of investigation

- (1) After conducting an investigation, the Commissioner may take such action under this Act as the Commissioner considers appropriate.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Commissioner may do any of the following:

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

s. 48

Part 6 – Investigations

- (a) take no further action;
 - (b) accept an enforceable undertaking;
 - (c) issue a compliance notice to a person;
 - (d) publish a report on the investigation, including any findings or recommendations.
- (3) On completing an investigation, the Commissioner –
 - (a) must give written notice of the outcome of the investigation to each person who is a subject of the investigation and each person affected by the conversion practice to which the investigation relates; and
 - (b) if the investigation arose in the course of dealing with a report, may give written notice of the outcome of the investigation to the reporting person.
- (4) A notice under subsection (3) may include –
 - (a) any findings made by the Commissioner; and
 - (b) any action taken, or proposed to be taken, by the Commissioner as a result of the investigation; and
 - (c) any other information that the Commissioner considers appropriate.

- (5) The Commissioner is not required to include in a notice under subsection (3) information if the Commissioner considers that its disclosure –
- (a) is prohibited or restricted by or under another Act or law; or
 - (b) would prejudice an investigation, inquiry or other proceeding; or
 - (c) would unreasonably disclose personal or confidential information.
- (6) Before publishing a report under subsection (2)(d), the Commissioner is to –
- (a) take reasonable steps to ensure that personal information and confidential information are not disclosed, except to the extent reasonably necessary for the purposes of the report; and
 - (b) give any person whose interests may be adversely affected by publication of the report a reasonable opportunity to comment on the proposed publication.

Part 7 – Compliance and Enforcement

PART 7 – COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT

49. Enforceable undertakings

(1) If, during or after an investigation, the Commissioner is satisfied that –

- (a) a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, a conversion practice; or
- (b) a person has contravened, or is contravening, the positive duty under section 11 –

the Commissioner may accept a written undertaking from that person.

(2) An undertaking under subsection (1) may require the person to take specified action, or to refrain from specified action, in order to comply with this Act.

(3) The Commissioner may vary an undertaking with the consent of the person who gave it.

50. Register

(1) The Commissioner may establish and maintain a register of enforceable undertakings.

(2) The register under subsection (1) is to be made available to the public.

(3) The regulations may prescribe –

- (a) the form of the register; and

Act No. of 2026

Part 7 – Compliance and Enforcement

s. 51

- (b) the particulars to be included in the register; and
 - (c) the manner in which the register is to be made available to the public.
 - (4) The Commissioner may omit from the register, or publish in de-identified form, any information that would otherwise be included if satisfied that it is reasonably necessary to do so –
 - (a) to protect the safety, privacy or identity of any person; or
 - (b) to avoid prejudice to an investigation or enforcement action; or
 - (c) to comply with a requirement of this Act or any other Act or law.

51. Compliance notices

- (1) If, after an investigation, the Commissioner is satisfied that –
 - (a) a person has engaged in, or is engaging in, a conversion practice; or
 - (b) a person has contravened, or is contravening, the positive duty under section 11 –

the Commissioner may issue a compliance notice to that person.

- (2) A compliance notice must state –

Act No. of 2026

s. 52

Part 7 – Compliance and Enforcement

- (a) the grounds on which the Commissioner is satisfied that a conversion practice has occurred or is occurring; and
- (b) the provision or provisions of this Act that the Commissioner considers have been contravened; and
- (c) the date by which the person must take, or refrain from taking, specified action in relation to the practice; and
- (d) the action that the Commissioner may take if the person fails to comply with the notice; and
- (e) that the person may apply to the Tribunal for a review of the issuing of the notice or of any term of the notice.

52. Review of compliance notices

- (1) A person to whom a compliance notice is issued may apply to the Tribunal for a review of either or both of the following decisions of the Commissioner:
 - (a) a decision to issue a compliance notice under section 51;
 - (b) a decision as to any term of the compliance notice.
- (2) An application for review is to be made in writing within 28 days after the day on which the compliance notice is given to the person.

Act No. of 2026

Part 7 – Compliance and Enforcement

s. 53

- (3) On receipt of an application, the Tribunal may review the decision of the Commissioner and either –
- (a) confirm the decision; or
 - (b) vary the decision; or
 - (c) quash the decision and direct the Commissioner to take such action as the Tribunal considers appropriate.
- (4) Subject to any order made by the Tribunal, an application for the review of a decision under this section does not, of itself, operate to stay or suspend the decision to which the application relates.

53. Failure to comply with enforceable undertaking or compliance notice

- (1) This section applies if –
- (a) the Commissioner has accepted an enforceable undertaking given by a person; or
 - (b) the Commissioner has issued a compliance notice to a person.
- (2) The Commissioner may apply to the Tribunal for an order under subsection (3) if the person fails to comply with the enforceable undertaking or the compliance notice.
- (3) If the Tribunal is satisfied that the person who gave the enforceable undertaking or received a

Part 7 – Compliance and Enforcement

compliance notice has failed to comply with the undertaking or compliance notice, the Tribunal may make any one or more of the following orders:

- (a) an order directing the person to comply with the undertaking or notice;
- (b) an order discharging or varying the undertaking;
- (c) an order varying the compliance notice;
- (d) an order that the Commissioner withdraw the compliance notice;
- (e) any other order that the Tribunal considers appropriate in the circumstances, including orders directing the person to pay the costs of the proceedings.

54. Vicarious liability

- (1) In this section –

employment includes engagement under a contract for services and engagement as a volunteer.

- (2) For the purposes of Part 5 and this Part, if a natural person engages in a conversion practice in the course of the person’s employment or while acting as an agent of another person –
- (a) both the natural person and the employer or principal, as the case requires, are

- taken to have engaged in the conversion practice, subject to subsection (3); and
- (b) a report may be made under section 27 in relation to –
- (i) the natural person; or
 - (ii) the employer or principal; or
 - (iii) both the natural person and the employer or principal.
- (3) An employer or principal is taken not to have engaged in the conversion practice if the employer or principal establishes, on the balance of probabilities, that reasonable precautions were taken to prevent the natural person from engaging in the practice.

55. Reports relating to organisations

If a report relates to an alleged conversion practice by an organisation –

- (a) the Commissioner may request information under section 29 from an office holder or officer of the organisation; and
- (b) the Commissioner may offer targeted education to an office holder or officer of the organisation; and
- (c) an office holder or officer may be a party to a facilitation.

PART 8 – REPORT OUTCOMES AND TRIBUNAL
APPLICATIONS AND REFERRALS

Division 1 – Tribunal applications and referrals

57. Referral of report to Tribunal by Commissioner

- (1) The Commissioner may refer a report to the Tribunal if –
 - (a) the Commissioner considers that –
 - (i) the report cannot be resolved by facilitation; or
 - (ii) it is otherwise appropriate for the Tribunal to determine the report; and
 - (b) the person affected by the conversion practice that is the subject of the report consents to the referral.
- (2) The Commissioner must not refer a report to the Tribunal if facilitation conducted in relation to the report has resulted in an agreement that finally resolves the matters raised in the report.
- (3) A referral under this section must –
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) include any other information prescribed by the regulations.

 - (b) in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(b), the notice under section 61(2) is given; or
 - (c) in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(c), the respondent is given written notice that the facilitation has concluded; or
 - (d) in the circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(d), the prescribed event occurs.

60. Tribunal’s powers on referral or application

- (1) This section applies if a report is referred to the Tribunal under section 57 or an application for determination of a report is made to the Tribunal under section 58 or 59.
- (2) After hearing the matter, the Tribunal may make one or more of the following orders:
 - (a) an order requiring the respondent to pay to the person affected by the conversion practice that is the subject of the report such amount by way of compensation as the Tribunal considers appropriate;

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

- (b) an order that targeted education be provided or undertaken, on such terms as the Tribunal considers appropriate;
 - (c) an order that the Commissioner conduct an investigation of the report under Part 6;
 - (d) an order dismissing the report;
 - (e) any other order that the Tribunal considers appropriate.
 - (3) Without limiting subsection (2)(a), in determining whether to award compensation and the amount of any compensation, the Tribunal may have regard to –
 - (a) any loss or damage suffered by the person affected by the conversion practice as a result of the conduct to which the report relates; and
 - (b) any other matter that the Tribunal considers relevant.
 - (4) An order under this section may be made subject to any conditions that the Tribunal considers appropriate.

Division 2 – Conclusion of report process

61. Commissioner may conclude report process

- (1) The Commissioner may decide to conclude a report process if the Commissioner considers that no further action by the Commissioner in relation to the report is appropriate.

- (2) Before concluding a report process under subsection (1), the Commissioner must give the reporting person, the person affected by the conversion practice that is the subject of the report and the respondent written notice –
 - (a) that the Commissioner intends to conclude the report process; and
 - (b) of the reasons for the proposed conclusion; and
 - (c) of any right of the person to apply to the Tribunal under this Part.
- (3) The Commissioner must not conclude the report process before –
 - (a) the applicable period within which an application may be made to the Tribunal in relation to the proposed conclusion has expired; or
 - (b) if an application is made within that period, the Tribunal has finally determined the application.
- (4) If no application is made within the applicable period, the Commissioner may, by written notice to the reporting person, the person affected by the conversion practice that is the subject of the report and the respondent, conclude the report process.

subject, another person or an associate of that other person to any detriment.

67. Confidentiality of protected information

(1) In this section –

protected information means information concerning the affairs of a person that is obtained by a person to whom this section applies –

- (a) in the course of performing functions or exercising powers under this Act; or
- (b) as a result of another person performing functions or exercising powers under this Act.

(2) This section applies to a person who is, or has been –

- (a) the Commissioner; or
- (b) a member of a reference body established under section 25; or
- (c) any person assisting or acting under the authority of the Commissioner.

(3) A person to whom this section applies must not, whether directly or indirectly, make a record of, disclose or communicate protected information to another person unless –

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

Part 10 – Miscellaneous

- (a) the making of the record, disclosure or communication is necessary for, or in connection with, the performance of a function or the exercise of a power under this Act; or
 - (b) it is necessary to prevent a credible and imminent threat of harm to one or more persons; or
 - (c) it is necessary to comply with a mandatory reporting obligation; or
 - (d) the disclosure, communication or production is made to a court in accordance with subsection (5); or
 - (e) the information is lawfully in the public domain; or
 - (f) the information does not identify, and is not reasonably capable of identifying, any person; or
 - (g) the disclosure or communication is made for the purpose of announcing, or providing information about, an investigation under this Act, provided that the disclosure does not include more information than is reasonably necessary in the circumstances; or
 - (h) each person to whose affairs the information relates has consented to the disclosure.

Part 10 – Miscellaneous

Penalty: Fine not exceeding 100 penalty units or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.

- (4) A person to whom this section applies must not be required –
 - (a) to produce in a court a document containing protected information; or
 - (b) to disclose or communicate protected information to a court.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not prevent a person to whom this section applies from –
 - (a) disclosing or communicating protected information, or producing a document containing protected information, if necessary for the purposes of, or for a prosecution under or arising out of, this section; or
 - (b) complying with an order of a court requiring disclosure, communication or production for the purposes of a criminal proceeding; or
 - (c) disclosing, communicating or producing the information with the consent of the person to whose affairs the information relates.

68. Disclosure of information to other bodies

Subject to section 67, the Commissioner may communicate information obtained in the

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

Part 10 – Miscellaneous

s. 69

administration of this Act to another person or body if the Commissioner is satisfied that –

- (a) the information relates to a matter within the functions of that person or body; and
- (b) the communication of the information is reasonably necessary for the performance of those functions.

69. Commissioner not to prejudice certain proceedings

- (1) The Commissioner must not perform the Commissioner's functions or exercise the Commissioner's powers under this Act in a manner that would prejudice –
 - (a) criminal proceedings or criminal investigations; or
 - (b) investigations conducted by the Integrity Commission, the Health Complaints Commissioner or any other prescribed integrity body.
- (2) For the purpose of ensuring compliance with subsection (1), the Commissioner may consult with –
 - (a) the Director of Public Prosecutions; or
 - (b) the Commissioner of Police appointed under section 6 of the Police Service Act 2003; or

Part 10 – Miscellaneous

- (c) the Integrity Commission within the meaning of the Integrity Commission Act 2009; or
- (d) the Health Complaints Commissioner; or
- (e) any other prescribed body.

70. Commissioner may assist court or Tribunal

The Commissioner may, with the leave of the court or the Tribunal, intervene in any proceedings, whether under this Act, any other Act or otherwise, that involve, or arise out of, alleged or actual conversion practices, including by making submissions or otherwise assisting the court or the Tribunal.

71. Immunity for reporting persons and witnesses

- (1) A person is not liable to any action, claim or demand for loss, damage or injury suffered by another person only because the person, in good faith –
 - (a) made a report to the Commissioner; or
 - (b) gave information or evidence to the Commissioner or the Tribunal.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not confer any immunity in relation to a subsequent publication or communication of the matters contained in a report or in information or evidence given to the Commissioner or the Tribunal.

72. Immunities

- (1) In exercising powers or performing functions under this Act, the Commissioner has the same immunity as a judge of the Supreme Court.
- (2) A person acting for, or at the direction of, the Commissioner is not personally liable for an honest act or omission done or made in the exercise or purported exercise of a power, or in the performance or purported performance of a function, under this Act or in proceedings of the Tribunal for the purposes of this Act.

73. Rules of evidence

In performing a function, or exercising a power, under this Act, the Commissioner is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform the Commissioner on any matter in any manner that the Commissioner thinks fit.

74. Annual report

- (1) The Commissioner, on or before 31 October in each year, is to give to the Minister a report on –
 - (a) the operation and effectiveness of this Act; and
 - (b) the accessibility and effectiveness of report-making and referral mechanisms in relation to conversion practices.
- (2) The Minister is to cause a copy of the report to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 5 sitting-days after the report is given to the Minister under subsection (1).

75. Review of Act

(1) In this section –

independent review means a review carried out by persons who –

- (a) in the Minister’s opinion, are appropriately qualified for that task; and
 - (b) include one or more persons who are not State Service employees or State Service officers or employees of any agency of the State.
- (2) The Minister is to cause an independent review of the operation and effectiveness of this Act to be carried out as soon as practicable after the fifth anniversary of the commencement of this section to enable consideration of the following:
- (a) the operation of the Act in achieving its objects;
 - (b) the operation of the Commissioner;
 - (c) any other matters relevant to the effect of this Act on improving the accessibility and effectiveness of procedures for dealing with conversion practices reports.

- (3) The persons who carry out the independent review are to give the Minister a written report on its outcome.
- (4) The Minister is to cause a copy of the report to be tabled in each House of Parliament within 10 sitting-days of the House after the report has been given to the Minister.

76. Transitional provisions

- (1) In this section –

commencement day means the day on which Part 4 commences.
- (2) An offence under this Act may only be committed by conduct occurring on or after the commencement of the provision creating the offence.
- (3) Section 10 applies only in relation to conversion practices engaged in on or after the commencement of that section.
- (4) Section 11 applies only in relation to conduct occurring on or after the commencement of that section.
- (5) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), Parts 4, 5, 6 and 7 apply only in relation to conduct occurring on or after the commencement day.
- (6) Section 23(1)(g) applies in relation to conduct occurring before, on or after the commencement day.

Conversion Practices Prohibition Act 2026
Act No. of 2026

s. 77

Part 10 – Miscellaneous

- (7) In exercising functions under Parts 4, 5, 6 and 7 in relation to conduct occurring on or after the commencement day, the Commissioner may have regard to conduct occurring before the commencement day, including for the purpose of –
 - (a) identifying patterns of conduct; or
 - (b) assessing the nature, context or impact of conduct.
- (8) Conduct occurring before the commencement of section 10 or 11, as applicable, must not, of itself, be –
 - (a) the subject of an investigation under Part 6 into a contravention of that section; or
 - (b) the basis for accepting an enforceable undertaking, issuing a compliance notice or taking any other enforcement action under Part 7 in relation to a contravention of that section.

77. Infringement notices

- (1) In this section –

infringement offence means an offence under this Act that is prescribed as an infringement offence.

- (2) The Commissioner may issue and serve an infringement notice on a person if the Commissioner reasonably believes that the person has committed an infringement offence.
