REPORT OF COMMISSIONERS ON THE PARLIAMENTARY LIBRARY.

Laid upon the Table by the Colonial Treasurer, and ordered by the House to be printed, August 24, 1869.

REPORT.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY.

WE, the Commissioners on the Parliamentary Library, have the honor to report that we have duly executed the duties confided to us since the date of our appointment; and we beg to present the Report of the Librarian on the state of the Library.

FRED. M. INNES, President.

Parliamentary Library, 23rd August, 1869.

Library of Parliament, 12th August, 1869.

SIR,

IN obedience to the 11th Rule of the Library, I have the honor to report that I have this day taken Stock of the Books in the Parliamentary Library, and find their number as under:—

	Vols.
In the Speaker's Room -	19
Clerk's Room -	71
Assistant Clerk's Room -	462
Magazine Lobby -	381
Chamber -	29
Upper Library -	1956
Lower Library -	1345
Lower Committee Room -	2141
Lower Lobby, Newspapers -	277
Ditto, Gazettes -	53
Patent Indexes -	50
British Parliamentary Blue Books, recently received -	313
	<hr/> 7097 <hr/>

Besides which there are 43 Volumes on this day in the hands of Members, the dates of issue being recorded in the Library Book; and there are 28 missing, which I cannot trace. These 28 Books are all that cannot be accounted for since I prepared the first Catalogue twelve years ago.

The total number of Books belonging to the Parliamentary Library is therefore 7171 Volumes; which are insured in the Liverpool, London, and Globe Company for £2000, at an annual Premium of £6; their cost price being about £2470.

In the Cellar under the Custom House the Patent Specifications presented by the Patent Commissioners to the Library are stored, and carefully arranged for reference. They are valued at £2000.

I annex to this Report,—1. A List of Books added to the Library by purchase since last year's Report.

2. A List of Books presented during the same period.

3. A List of Books missing at this date, which have been advertised in The Gazette. I have hopes that some will yet be recovered.

An arrangement has been made with the Government Printer, by which such Books as may require to be bound are done in a workmanlike and ornamental manner by Mr. Chick, the Head Sessional Messenger to the House, in an apartment which has been fitted up for him beneath the Parliament Houses.

A number of Strangers, and also Residents, have availed themselves during the Recess of the Rule which permits others than Members of Parliament to read in the Library.

I have availed myself of the leisure time of the Recess to prepare a full and comprehensive Catalogue of the Seven thousand Volumes; which has been printed by order of the Executive Government.

I have also prepared at the same time an "Alphabetical Index of the Statutes in force on 1st January, 1869," and a "Chronological List of Acts of Council and Parliament from the first establishment of the Council in 1826 to the present date, showing the alterations, amendments, or repeal of each Statute."

The former of these Lists has been printed by order of the Government, and has been largely circulated.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

HUGH M. HULL, Librarian to Parliament.

The Honorable the President of the Library Commission.
