

(No. 4.)

1874.

TASMANIA.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

CAMPBELL TOWN HOSPITAL.

REPORT FOR 1873.

Laid upon the Table by the Attorney-General, and ordered by the House to be printed, July 21, 1874.

REPORT of the CAMPBELL TOWN HOSPITAL, 1873.

THE Trustees think it quite unnecessary to make a lengthy Report at this time, a carefully compiled Supplementary having been so recently issued.

The thanks of the Subscribers and Trustees are due to Dr. Valentine for his untiring care and attention; also to the Clergy of all Denominations for the interest evinced in the spiritual welfare of the patients.

Mr. and Mrs. Raiker have given every satisfaction.

The great liberality displayed by many of the inhabitants of the District, and the very satisfactory result of the Bazaar and Bruce Auction, form matter of sincere congratulation, having enabled the Institution to triumph over its financial difficulties, and leave a favourable balance.

The usual Tabular Statement of cases treated, and yearly accounts, will be now read to you.

JAMES GIBSON,
T. H. POWER,
A. ALLISON, } Trustees.
